

Alan Yarinsky's Rare Talent On Display At Delmar Library

The beauty of children under any conditions stands out in Alan Yarinsky's black and white photographs now on display in the Community Room of the Delmar Public Library.

Mr. Yarinsky, a Delmar resident, has been following his hobby for 13 years, adding equipment and knowledge which has resulted in this striking collection of children's pictures. He has used the quotation,

"Around the child bend all the three sweet graces — faith, hope, charity," well illustrated by the series of 21 prints of youngsters, shown as a unit here. Mr. Yarinsky is showing other forms of photographic artistry in the remainder of his work which is hung at this time.

A former resident of Teaneck, New Jersey, where he was a member of the Teaneck Camera Club, Mr. Yarinsky has had pictures on display, but is enjoying his first one-man show.

He has caught the blonde, bare-footed little urchin in striking, black and white, leaving the child's face to tug at your heart, from the well-cropped photograph reproduced here.

The success of his pictures are his from the click of the shutter to finished print for the dark room in his home on Wellington Road contains all the equipment for someone who makes an art of his interest.

We are very glad Sterling Winthrop brought Mr. and Mrs. Allen Yarinsky and their family to Delmar.

If we didn't, we couldn't honestly say WE CARE. Could we?

You see, before any product is allowed on our shelves, we've checked it out pretty carefully.

We've checked the company that makes it.

We've checked to be sure the product is all the package says it is.

If you ever buy anything at A&P you're not happy with, you don't have to bother to write a letter to the company that made it. Just tell your A&P store manager. He'll give you your money back.

We'll get in touch with that company for you... and for us.

That's A&P's guarantee.

Vacation Anyone??

This time of year we begin to dream about next summer's Vacations. "Exploring our Adirondack Wilderness" will be the subject of an illustrated talk by Dirck Benson, Senior Wildlife Biologist for the New York State Conservation Department, at the Delmar Public Library's Sandwich-in-a-Book program at 12:15 p.m. Wednesday, March 15.

Mr. Benson, who has been camping, canoeing and hiking with his family for over twenty years, will show slides of some of the interesting places to go and things to see off the beaten track. A frequent contributor to the New York State "Conservationist" magazine, Mr. Benson has also written chapters for "Waterfowl Tomorrow" published by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and "Pheasants in North America" edited by Durward Allen.

Bring your sandwich. The Library will offer coffee.

About the fine art of CLEANING LEATHER WEARABLES

Have you a "leather" problem? We want to be frank enough to tell you that we do NOT recommend dry cleaning—even Killip quality dry cleaning—for suede gloves, vests, jackets and other leather articles. Dry cleaning tends to dry up the natural leather oils and make the garments brittle. It also involves taking risks with the colors.

There are very few leather cleaners in the United States who possess the highly technical skills for handling this work. Only ONE of them, we have learned from long experience, is really qualified to do the work expertly. This company is the one processor to which the elite stores turn for having expensive leather items cleaned — and it is the only company to whom Killip entrusts leather items of its customers.

But, friends — no 1-day service on leather items. It takes time. So allow about 2 weeks for delivery.
