"You've Simply Got to See It!"

Shopping carts that unload automatically? Incredible as it may seem, a new check-out system that automatically unloads the shopping carriages onto the check stands has been installed in the great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company's Supermarket at 248 Delaware Ave., Elsmere.

All the customer does is wheel the car into position at the check-stand, then steps aside. The entire order is removed from the cart without the customer or clerk lifting an item!

Shopping carts used in conjunction with this new "Check-A-Matic" system differ from conventional carts in that the bottom of the vehicle is actually a conveyor belt. The customer places her groceries in the cart, pushes the cart to one of the special checkouts where it locks into the stand. When the proper connection is made, a green light appears to indicate all is in readiness for unloading.

The cashier presses a foot pedal, the front panel of the carriage slides up, and a roller on the counter engages the con-veyor belt of the carriage. The carriage conveyor moves the merchandise forward slowly onto an inclined conveyor system in the counter so that the various items move to the Cashier for checking.

When the cart is empty, the clerk pushes a button that releases the shopping cart from the stand automatically, turns it, and delivers it alongside the checkout.

What about the shopping carts that do double duty as in-store baby carriages? Each of the new carriages is equipped with a collapsible baby seat, so arranged that the child can remain in the carriage throughout the entire unloading operation, and be delivered, in the carriage, to the mother alongside the checkout stand.

"The new checkout system is another step in A&P's continuing 'We Care' program aimed at constantly improving goods and giving speedier and more helpful service to our customers," a company spokesman said.

Coffee House

"Poetry and Music at the Coffee House," is the theme for the Drama Group program of the Delmar Progress Club Tuesday evening, February 27, at the Slinger-

SUNY at Albany under a Doctoral Fellowship. Well known in area Coffee Houses, Mr. Pierce has also done considerable work in TV. He recently appeared on Channel 17 with the Beers' Family, playing his own composition.

Mesdames Douglas Marone, Harvey W. Travis and Edward Mason, members of the Drama Group of the Delmar Progress Club, discuss their forthcoming Poetry and Music Coffee House Program with Sydney Turner, director. The Program will be held Tuesday, February 27, at 8 P.M. at the Slingerlands Players Meeting rooms in Slingerlands. photo by Ed Rook

LETTER

To: The Editor:

The time is pertinent to bring to the attention of the community this extract from The Student Handbook of the Bethlehem Central Junior High School:

To insure the safety of the large number of students who now walk to and from school these common sense rules should be followed:

(1) Where there are sidewalks, use them. Do not walk in groups that block the way for other pedestrians.

(2) Where there are no sidewalks, walk single file facing traffic. After dark, wear a light colored article of clothing or carry a flashlight so that you may be readily seen by motorists.

(3) Do not walk in groups spread across the roadway so as to present a hazard to your own safety as well as unjustifiable interference to the drivers of cars.

Well worded, this cogent statement can only serve its purpose by all being made aware of it and its intent. That is to prevent accidents and obey the law. Before an accident occurs from a failure to abide by these "common sense rules," it would be well for all of us to think about them and be guided by their direction.

Forum

Not only will parents have an opportunity to hear the youth panel in its discussion of the many facets of outdoor education, but over 100 slides and a 10-minute movie will add meaning to the total program. Even the humorous note has not been ignored. Under the plans provided by Mark Gerding, Pamela Talbot, Carolyn Herr and Andrew Maggard, delightful skits will encourage laughter and spoof (slightly) some of the high spots of the day.

Serving as panelists or slide narrators are: Scott Wight, Bruce Harro, Mark Winn, Carole Spelich, Mark Langlity, Mark Denson, Janice Pappalau, Kirk Jackson.

Methodist Church of Slingerlands; Mrs. Clyde Tiffany and Mrs. Edward Cane of the Delmar Presbyterian Church.

All women of the community are invited to participate in this universally celebrated service. Child Care will be provided.

et, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman D. Kurland, has been collecting and making miniature furniture since she was seven. She has now reached the ripe old age of fourteen and has an enviable collection.

In the exhibit, several tiny looms are set up ready to be used. A little girl is working at one while her mother is obviously busy at another. In a corner are several rugs rolled and waiting in a basket. Another basket holds tiny hanks of wool. The little stove must be hot to keep the dye boiling in the kettle. A candle stand bases a wee pewter candle stick and a white kitten frolics on the floor.

The exhibit is not only charming but authentic as to detail and scale - 1 inch equaling 1 foot. This is a display to study and enjoy.

Kennedy Day

Delmar Elementary School children proposing to commemorate May 29 as John F. Kennedy Day in all schools across the state saw their idea pass the Assembly.

The Assembly passed the measure 106 to 37 after an hour's debate. Assemblyman Max Turshen, Brooklyn Democrat, introduced the legislation and he and his Democratic colleagues beat down two Republican attempts to add the names of other assassinated Presidents to be honored on May 29.

The Delmar pupils, led by Mrs. Gladys Hoesey, attended the Assembly session to see the measure pass. The Republican-dominated Senate will act on the bill later.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church of Delmar will meet on Thursday, March 7, at 12:30 P.M. in Fellowship Hall. Luncheon Chairmen are Mrs. Arthur Westfall, Mrs. Harold Hastings and Mrs. Edward Booth.

Program Chairman, Mrs. Charles Trendell, has obtained Miss Helen Huntington Smith, former Executive Secretary of the Council for Lay Life and Work of the United Church of Christ and at present an Observer at the United Nations for Council of Church Women United, as speaker. Her topic will be "Man and Community."

WITH THE
SCOUTS

Junior Girl Scout Troop #565 of Delmar recently held a Court of Awards ceremony at the National Commercial Bank Community Room on Delaware Avenue. The parents were invited to attend and refreshments were served. The girls were given the badges which they had earned during the fall and winter seasons by participating in a variety of Girl Scout activities, both independently and with other members of their Troop.

Cadette Troop #515 of Delmar held its second Mother and Daughter Dinner on February 2 at the Delmar Presbyterian Church. There were 20 girls honoring their mothers and also participating in a Rededication Ceremony to the goals and Ideals of Girl Scouting. The theme of the dinner was "Our Favorite Things" and the girls planned and enacted a skit based on a "Peanuts" theme spoofing Groundhog Day. Badges were given out in an awards ceremony. Twelve girls and two leaders had finished the Red Cross First Aid Course in the fall and badges were presented to them.

Cadette Troop #442, Mrs. LeRoy Cooke leader, is sending letters to all former troop members in other parts of the country, including Krista Lane of Brazil, for "Thinking Day." On Friday, March 8, the troop, using England as its theme, will present "The Cottage In the Wood" for International Night at Bethlehem Central Junior High School.

A joint puppet show and art exhibition will be presented on February 28 at the Delmar Methodist Church by the following girls: Puppet Show - Cindy Webster, Lynn Sheridan, Kathy Mosher, Anita Preska and Janet Kois, Art Exhibition: Carolyn Preska, Pat Van Galen, Connie Patterson, Leigh Rockwood, Holly Leese, Ginny Owens, Doreen Sullivan and Linda Klett.

Mr. John Hawn, 3 Schuyler Rd., Albany, chairman of the Hudson Valley Girl Scout Council finance committee announces the annual cookie sale to take place this year March 1 to 11, with more than 10,000 Girl Scouts participating. The council goal is 300,000 boxes. Already orders for 312,000 boxes have been placed.

The purpose of the sale is to provide an approved way of earning money for troop budgets. The troop retains 10¢ on each box sold, to be used for troop activities and community service projects not covered by troop dues; to continue council Camp Development Program and to meet the maintenance and repair requirements of our three council-owned camps, and to supplement monies received from Community Chests and United Fund Drives so that the council may administer and maintain a complete Scouting program.

Mrs. Joseph Gerber, 92 Brockley Drive, Delmar serves as the council cookie sale coordinator. Mrs. Gerber is a former Girl Scout leader and troop cookie chairman.

Many of the better known folk-singers and folk musicians will take their place on stage at the Bethlehem Central High School auditorium when, for two evening performances, a folk music concert is presented for the benefit of Caffe Lena.

Performing Saturday, February 24, will be Len Chandler (topical songs), Barbara Dane (blues), Billy Faier (5-string banjo virtuoso), The Greenbriar Boys (Frank Wakefield, Neal Linden, and John Herald), Sonia Malkine (French lutist), Don McLean (5-string banjo), The Pennywhistlers (7 girls with an international repertoire), and Happy Traum (instrumentalist who writes books on guitar technique).

Janos Starker

Theater on Tuesday evening at 8:30 P.M., February 26,) featuring as guest soloist, the highly acclaimed international cellist, Janos Starker.

From Janos Starker's early years in Hungary, he was built up a special identity with his chosen instrument which accounts for his popularity among musicians and critics alike. His career has taken him from principal cellist of the Budapest Opera and Philharmonic Orchestra to first cellist in the Dallas Symphony, Metropolitan Opera and Chicago Symphony. In 1958, he left the Chicago Symphony to foray into the solo concert field. Following a triumph in Europe, where he concertized throughout the major Music Festivals of the world, he gained the highest reputation as an outstanding interpreter of chamber music.

Fashion Show

There will be something new in the tri-city world of men's fashion when three well known radio personalities strut their best in the fashion show which will be one of the highlights of the Albany County March of Dimes chapter's gala 30th anniversary dinner party at Jamaica Inn, Troy-Schenectady Road, Latham on Monday evening, February 26. Bob Connell of WTRY, Bob Hodson (Charlie Brown) of WPTR and Perry Crandell of WROW

Scott (known recently for her TV commercials).

For the last eight years, Caffe Lena has been a mecca for folk enthusiasts throughout the area, and has meant a start on the road to fame to many an aspiring performer. Recently, Caffe Lena was closed because the building did not meet the standards of the local fire code.

A local folk music society, The Pickin' & Singin' Gatherin', sent out a cry for help to the professionals, many of whom have been helped along the way by Lena Spencer, owner of Caffe Lena, and their response was overwhelming.

The proceeds of the concert will go to Lena Spencer so that once again Caffe Lena will be a reality.

Tickets will be $2.00 each night with the program beginning at 8 P.M.

Tickets are available from Main Brothers Oil Company, Delaware Avenue, Delmar, or at the door.

Washington's Birthday SALE

TO TELL THE TRUTH the boss gets an attack of "CLOTHESTROPHOBIA" every year at this time. George Washington's Birthday gives him an excuse to get rid of all of our "one-of-a-kind" and "few-of-a-kind" genuine bargains and at the same time slip in some of our buyers' goofs at such ridiculously low prices that they have to sell. Even though it takes a full year to point out that the quality of this year's offerings are much better than some of the dogs we were forced to offer in the past at token prices. But, then, we have a better class of buyer this year too. The other ones soon found out that the only thing the boss really enjoys giving away at these prices are sleeves off his vest. One of the items listed below has actually been reduced $650.00 . . . others are items that sell for as much as $4.00 and priced now at two for $1.00. You've got to read 'em all to find the year's best bargains at prices far below their actual cost. There are so many that they can't all be sold on Thursday, so if you can't make it in early for first choice, come in any tome the rest of the week. We can guarantee you that you won't be disappointed. Sale starts Thursday at 9:30 A.M. til 5:30 and there's plenty of free parking for hundreds of cars right outside

Park Coming

The Bet-Mar Holding Corp. plans to develop Bethlehem Industrial Park on a 93-acre site in that town with basicly light research and manufacturing structures there. Negotiations are already underway for a warehouse on the property.

Arthur Zautner of 41 Greenock Road, Delmar, retired town building inspector who is now in land development work, and his son, George Zautner, who is in the home construction business, are the principals in the holding company. George Zautner resides at 8 Grosebeck Avenue in Delmar.

Their company has owned the rectangular-shaped property, some of which is in woods and some open land, about 1 1/2 years.

It lies between the Thruway and Route 9W, about 1 1/4 miles south of Feura Bush Road. The site has a frontage of some 900 feet on Route 9W and 2,200 feet adjoining the Thruway property. The industrial park, which has water and gas available, is between Thruway exits 23 and 24.

New Register

The business education department at the Bethlehem Central Senior High School has recently received a free cash register for use in the distributive education classes.

Mrs. Gladys V. Hosey, Chairman of the Business Department, is delighted to receive this additional piece of equipment which was made available through the

G.C. Murphy Company, Mc Keesport, Pennsylvania.

Park Site

Surveying of about 40 acres for a park on the Hudson River in the Town of Bethlehem will start as soon as the weather permits and be finished by this summer.

Paul Dickinson, chairman of the special parks committee, announced last night the proposed location of the park site with about 1,650 feet of river frontage. Owned by Howard Vagele, the land is north of Vloman's Creek and south of Winne Road in the southeast part of the Town of Bethlehem.

"It's not attractive to look at today," Mr. Dickinson said but he predicted river property would increase in value as the water pollution in the river was lessened. The exact acreage will not be known until Myrick & Chevalier of Albany, consulting civil engineers, make a survey.

Town supervisor Bertram E. Kohinke refused to make any cost estimate of the land which is under option. He said prices of land might rise and the town might negotiate for more land. It also will work to acquire another major park in a more centrally located part of the town, he said.
