Ed. Program

On Wednesday, November 13, the Albany County Mental Health Association will present the third in a series of educational programs. The topic will be "Emotional Development In Children." A panel of speakers will open the discussion which will be followed by a period of informal group participation. The panel members are Dr. Katherine Bookbinder, school psychologist with the Bethlehem Central School District; Thomas Kendall, pastor of the New Salem Reformed Church and the Unionville Reformed Church; Peter Recene, counselor at Camp Cass, New York State Division of Youth; and Joseph Druzba, psychiatric social worker with Albany Medical Center and St. Coleman's Home for Children.

This program will begin at 8 P.M. in the auditorium of the Pieter B. Coeymans School on Main Street, in Ravena. All parents, teachers, others interested in children are welcome.

Beef Dinner

Bethlehem Memorial Post No. 3185, Veterans of Foreign Wars will serve a Roast Beef Dinner on November 9 from 6 to 8 P.M.

Donation is $3 per person. Tickets may be obtained and reservations made by calling HE 9-9836 between 4 P.M. and midnight.

Need Help?

Junior High Business students are sponsoring an employment agency called Junior Jobs to provide Tri-Villagers with part-time 14-year-or-older student labor for jobs like:

Boys: leaf raking, yard clean-up, window washing, car washing, clerical work in service stores.

Girls: light housecleaning, serving dinner and washing dishes, baby sitting on regular daily or weekly basis, clerical work in service stores.

No pupil may be hired for more than three hours a day or eight hours on Saturday. The minimum hourly wage has been set at $1.25 for all jobs except babysitting which will be 75¢ per hour.

If you are interested in obtaining student help on this basis, or wish further information, please call the Junior High School, 439-4984, between the hours of 1:15 and 2:00 P.M. on Mondays and 1:45 to 2:30 P.M. on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

The GREAT BARN SALE! (2nd annual)

What's a BARN SALE?

Well, frankly, we're running out of room. We've got a barn and a store filled-with this great Early American furniture and accessories. We think they're beautiful, and so do our customers. But — we have more than we can handle (furniture, not customers). So, we went through our stock and pruned it down. Some couches here, some rockers there, some cobblers' benches, a few coffee tables, etc. And when we finished, we had a substantial collection, which we then reduced, substantially. Now they are in the barn in back of the 2nd Village Stop at the 4 corners. The sale starts on Friday and Saturday, October 25 and 26, 10 A.M. till dark.

If you're looking for a bargain in an Early American piece of furniture, and you don't mind a little dust, or a little cold, come over and park in our lot in back. Chances are you'll find what you want.

Greenock Road, Delmar, has taken an active part in both school and community activities, including the school yearbook staff, the Campfire Girls, and the youth group of her church. This past summer, Ann attended a state-sponsored experimental summer school in the Arts.

Carolyn Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lloyd Rogers, 78 Mosher Road, Delmar, has shown a great deal of versatility in her many activities. In addition to playing the piano, Carolyn, as a member of the Charlatans has been an actress, costume designer and stage manager. As a writer, she has been on the staff of the school newspaper, and recently, she was the recipient of second prize in National competition for a short story which she contributed to the Atlantic Monthly. She is planning to apply to Sweet Briar College.

Susan Vanderlinde, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Vanderlinde, 73 McGuffey Lane, Delmar, plans to continue her education at the College of William and Mary. Susan has served as both assistant business manager and assistant editor of the school newspaper, and has been an active participant in sports, having been a member of the Girls' Athletics Association and champion last year of her bowling league. Susan also excels in music and dancing, playing the piano for church school, singing in the church choir and performing sacred dances and mimes.

Joanne Yungman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Yungman, 89 Meadowland Street, Delmar, is a member of the National Honor Society. As an accomplished viola player, she participated in a string institute sponsored by the State University of New York at Buffalo in 1967 and currently plays with the Delmar Community Orchestra and is a student member of the Albany Symphony. Joanne is also secretary of the Debate Club and a member of the Choraliers, the high school's performing choir. Her college choices include St. Lawrence and Cornell University.

Also pictured are twenty-seven of the twenty eight seniors from Bethlehem Central High School who qualified in the National Merit Scholarship competition as winners of Letters of Commendation. On their National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test score, they ranked among the upper two percent of high school seniors throughout the Country and just below the status of semifinalist. Missing from the picture is David Engel.

LETTER

To the Spotlight:

I have just returned from my usual Sunday afternoon walk along Delaware Avenue. This time I took time to observe the many changes that have been made to improve and upgrade our main street.

I would pay tribute to the Mullen family for the fine new pharmacy, both inside and out. Alan Hilchie's new hardware store and the Friendly Ice Cream store as well as several new or remodeled gas stations all have added better service and improved facilities for our town in attractive quarters. Others along the avenue are following these examples as well.

The recent approval of Bill Strong's apartment complex by the Normanskill should greatly enhance the entrance to the town. It is a tribute to both our town officers and Bill that this has been worked out after many meetings.

For both newcomers and old-time residents of our town there is one name that should be mentioned to whom we all owe a debt. The late Harry O'Brien devoted many hours of hard work in keeping many persons concerned through the informal Delaware Avenue Improvement Association. So it is that I suggest a prayer of thanks to Harry for the im-

Open House

The Delmar Presbyterian Church invites the Tri-Village community to an open house on Sunday, October 27, from 3:00 to 5:00 P.M. The church, located on Delaware Avenue at Cherry Avenue in Delmar, extends its welcome to neighbors and friends of the community, so that they may tour the new Christian education building and refurbished sanctuary which were completed this spring.

Refreshments will be served from 3 to 5 P.M. and a 4 P.M., the church choir will sing under the direction of Robert C. Wing. Sunday School classrooms will be open for inspection all during the afternoon and the church and Sunday School officers will escort guests through the buildings.

The Christian education unit completes the second stage of construction for this 12-year old church. The building contains Sunday School classrooms, church office, kitchen, and meeting area. During the first five years after the church was formed, it met in the meeting rooms of the Masonic Temple. In October 1961, the first structure, Fellowship Hall, was completed. It served all church purposes until this spring when the Christian education building was built. Extensive alterations and refurbishing have now converted the Fellowship Hall for better use as a sanctuary.

Come On Along!

Ghosts, goblins and all kinds of scary creatures will meet at the Delmar Public Library on Thursday, October 31, from 3:45 to 4:45 P.M. A special Hallowe'en program is being arranged for children in 1st through 3rd grades. Everyone is invited to come in costume. A film strip of our old favorite, Georgie, the Friendly Ghost, will be shown; there will be games, songs and flannel board stories, too.

Trophy Dinner

The Annual Trophy Dinner of the Normanside Women's Organization to honor the winners of the 1968 Spring, Fall and Championship tournaments will be held on this evening, October 24, at 6 P.M. Entertainment will follow dinner and awards.

Golf Pro, Martin Czwakiel, and brother, Tom, will attend the festivities.

Mrs. Thomas J. McCabe, President, and Mrs. Harry C. Miller, golf chairman, will be presiding.

The most improved golfer of the season will also receive an award.

Meeting

Bethlehem Central High School will be visited on October 30 by Miss Virginia Heaphy, admissions officer for Hofstra University.

SCENE OF OPEN HOUSE: Delmar Presbyterian Church.

THIS IS THE LITTER TREE exhibited at the Community Flower Show sponsored by the Garden Group of the Delmar Progress Club. The show was held in St. Stephen's Church Hall on October 4 and 5. The "litter" decorations were gathered at the Delmar Four Corners in a 15-minute period by members of the Girl Scout Troop 412. Editor's Note: There has been a concerted effort on the part of our Town Government for some time to bring about cooperation between the Four Corners merchants and the street cleaning crew. It has been proposed that if all refuse and litter be swept into the gutters so it can be picked up by the street sweeper. Latest development: Two refuse cans have been ordered and upon delivery will be placed in strategic locations with the hope that they will be used. Alternative: purchasers of food and drink which is to be consumed immediately could remain inside instead of going outside and littering the sidewalks.

sity, who will meet with guidance personnel and interested students to discuss the academic opportunities offered by this University located in Hempstead, Long Island, 25 miles from New York City.

Hofstra now has a full-time undergraduate student body of 5,860 out of a total enrollment of 13,000. Founded as a college in 1935, it became a university in 1963 and in recent years has built many new facilities including an award-winning library and six new residence halls for students.

Saved??

The effort to preserve the Old Coeymans High School, stymied since the Coeymans Town Board refused to purchase the building last year, has received a spark of hope from the Coeymans Fire Department.

The Firemen last week submitted to the Ravena - Coeymans Board of Education a letter asking if the department could purchase the venerable building for $1.

According to Thomas Williams, president of the fire group, the members of the department are interested in acquiring the building but will make no definite decision until after the school board and the district voters agree to sell the building to the volunteers.

At the present time the school is now free of any bonded indebtedness and can be disposed of at the discretion of the board with the approval of the voters of the old Coeymans High School District.

The fire department has made plans to initiate bingo nights after the first of the year to raise funds to restore the building if it can be acquired.

The firemen hope to convert the old school into a community center by using volunteer labor to remodel the building.

It has been estimated that renovation of the entire building would cost $112,000. Funds for projects of this type are made available by the New York Historic Trust.

Coeymans Planning Board, it is possible to secure from 50 to 90 per cent of the restoration cost from the state trust depending on the circumstances.

The request for a state grant would have to be made by the Coeymans Town Board.

The Town Board twice has rejected the school board's offer to sell the building to the town for $1. The board said it would not be economically practical for the town to carry the burden of the maintenance cost the historical site would require.

The Coeymans Historical Preservation Society for the last three years has been urging the town to restore the building.

Hans Klunder, a professional planner who has been employed by the Ravena-Coeymans Planning Board to formulate a master plan for the town and the Village of Ravena, has described the building as "a masterpiece of Victorian architecture."

"The school is an asset not only because of its outstanding architecture but because of potential re-use as a public building," he said.

Mr. D'Ambrosi has pointed out that the building could be restored in stages over a period of years. He has suggested that the renovation be initiated in the gymnasium wing (the newest part) of the old structure.

Mr. D'Ambrosi explained that this section could be restored at a minimal cost. He said the biggest cost would be in the construction of a new gymnasium floor which would cost an estimated $5,000 to $7,000.

Promoted

Francis J. Higgins of Elsmere has been appointed The Adjutant General of New York and promoted to the rank of Brigadier General. He succeeds Brigadier General Joseph E. Middlebrooks, who recently retired. The announcement was made recently by Major General A. C. O'Hara, Chief of Staff to the Governor.

General Higgins' outstanding military service began in 1940 when he enlisted as a private in the 212th Coast Artillery, New York National Guard.

Commissioned as an officer three years later, he served in Alaska and the Aleutian Islands. Detailed to Infantry in 1944, he commanded a rifle platoon and company prior to release in 1946.

Recalled to active duty in 1951 during the Korean emergency with the 259th AAA Gun Battalion, New York National Guard, he served as Intelligence Officer and Plans and Training Officer. He also served with the 68th AAA Gun Battalion in Korea. He was admitted to the New York State Bar in 1953.

Gen. Francis J. Higgins

Two years later he was employed as the first Air Defense Officer for New York. In this position he was responsible for establishment and operation of Air Defense missile sites in the State as an integral part of the U.S.

Promoted to Lieutenant Colonel in 1958, he was appointed Assistant Operations Officer for the New York State Division of Military and Naval Affairs. In 1961 he was named State Judge Advocate and promoted to colonel. He was appointed as counsel to the New York State Public Employment Relations Board in 1967, but continued his assignment with the National Guard.

His appointment as The Adjutant General of New York, in grade of Brigadier General, was effective on September 26, 1968.

General Higgins' awards and decorations include the Army Commendation Medal; Good Conduct Medal; American Defense Medal; American Campaign Medal; Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal; World War II Victory Medal; National Defense Service Medal; Korean Service Medal; Armed Forces Reserve Medal; United Nations Service Medal; Korean Distinguished Unit Citation and Meritorious Unit Award.

His State awards include the Long and Faithful Service Medal, Aid to Civil Authorities Medal and Recruiting Medal.

His military education includes the Infantry School, the Artillery School and the Command and General Staff College.

The General attended Fordham University and St. John's University Law School. Recently, he also earned a Masters Degree in Public Administration at the State University of New York Graduate School of Public Affairs.

General Higgins, his wife, Grace, and their three children reside at 39 Sunset Drive, Delmar.

SPRE

The SPRE and Youth Association held a meeting last Friday night at the Selkirk Fire House. Bruce Bolen joined the SPRE committee.

Teenage representatives were elected to work with the adults. Those elected were Diane Bridgeford, Julia Filippone, Ted Lopien-ski, Kim VanderVeer, Lou Neri and Bill Pelletier. Wendy Wilsey, student treasurer, has already been working with SPRE.

Norma June volunteered to work with the teenagers on their newspaper, SELKIRK SPEAKS OUT. The next edition will be out on time.

Sincere thanks go to those members of the Selkirk area who helped in numerous ways to make the Garage and Bake Sale successful last weekend. Residents donated articles, baked goodies and gave much of their time.

Fiesta Day

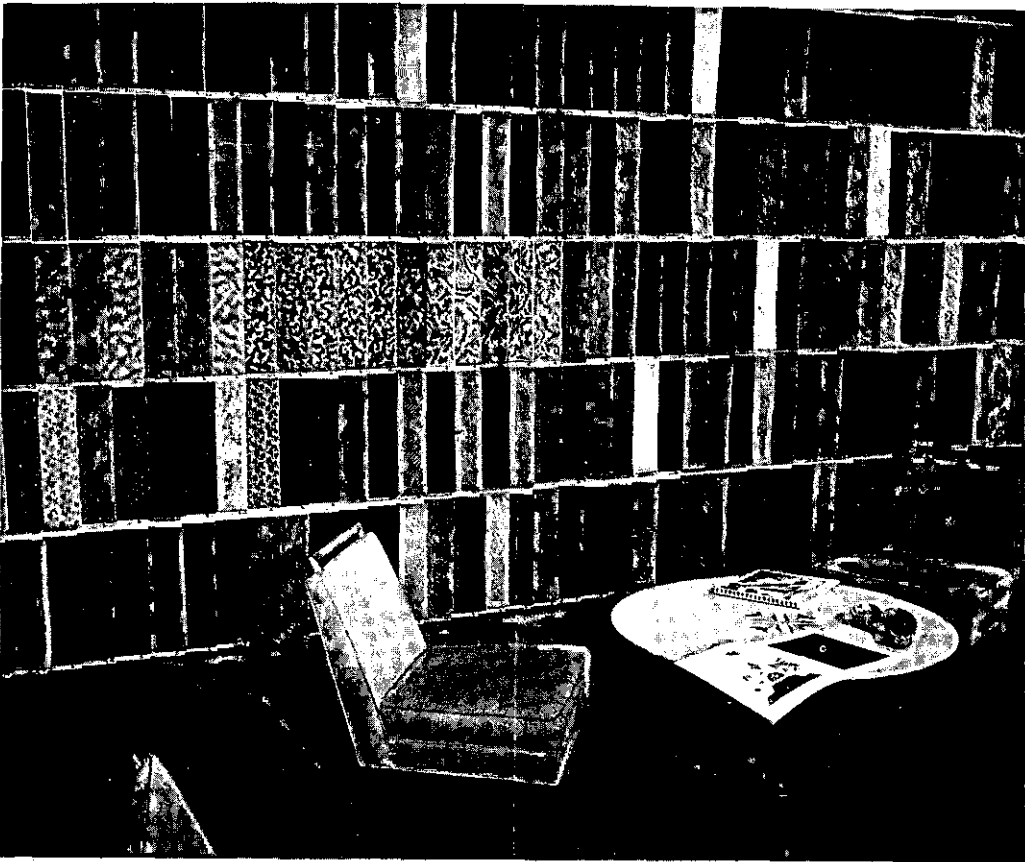

On October 18 the two fifth grade classes at Hamagrael Elementary School sponsored a Latin American Fiesta Day for the entire school. The festivities included a raffle, games, candy, punch, cookies and prizes.

The Fiesta was coordinated with the social studies material being studied by these two classes, and its purpose was to raise money for the school's Colombian foster child, Carlos Humberto Cristancho. Carlos is nine years old and has been receiving assistance from the children attending Hamagrael since September 1967. There are six children in his family, and his father, an unskilled construction worker, earns $37.20 a month.

The money contributed by the children, $15.00 per month, is given in the form of clothing, bedding, household supplies, free medical attention, drugs, and a monthly cash grant.

The children correspond with Carlos throughout the school year, and they hope to surprise him with photographs and descriptions of their gala Fiesta Day.

At this time the following committee chairmen were chosen: Participation, Mrs. James Harkins; Field trips, Mrs. Edward Palmer; Publicity, Mrs. David Chambers; Hospitality and Program, Mrs. Chilton Cammer; Supplies, Mrs. James Phillips; Telephone, Mrs. Harold Alexander.

The school's officers for the 1968-69 year are: Chairman, Mrs. Richard Brown; Co-Chairman, Mrs. Donald Eberle; Treasurer, Mrs. John Sommer; and Secretary, Mrs. James Harkins.

A field trip to the Delmar Game Farm has been planned for the children.

UNICEF

Again this year the Tri-Village Clergy will sponsor the annual Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF campaign in this area. Last year the boys and girls who participated in this drive collected $944.43 for the United Nations agency which provides help for children all over the world who are in special need. With so many children starving in Biafra, money is needed for food for these children especially.

The collection this year will be held on Hallowe'en, October 31. Those children who do not have boxes may pick them up at either St. Stephen's Episcopal Church on the corner of Elsmere Avenue and Poplar Drive or at the Delmar Methodist Church on Kenwood Avenue immediately after school on Thursday, October 31. The boxes should be returned to either church between the hours of 6:30 and 8:00 P.M. on Hallowe'en. Refreshments will be served at both locations at that time.

The co-operation of all residents in the Tri-Village area is needed to make this as suc-

Fix-up-the- house Loan.

When you want to borrow money to do some work around the house, you want to borrow it at a low rate, right?

And you want to be able to pay that money back according to your own budget, right?

What you want is a home improvement loan at The Bank.

Our rates are low. You have up to 5 years to pay us back. And life insurance is included at no extra cost.

You can even phone for your loan and come to The Bank only once: when you pick up your money. Or, if you're using a contractor, you can have him arrange the loan at The Bank for you.

And once we have your application, you'll have your money within a day.

Do we seem to have a pretty good idea of what you want when you borrow money?

Our thousands of customers agree that we do.

Fall Meeting

Eastern Zone School Nurse-Teacher Association will hold a fall meeting on Tuesday, October 29, at the Tom Sawyer Motor Inn on Route 20 in Albany at 4 P.M.

Following a business meeting, Dr. Hugh Leahy, noted Albany Pediatrician and full-time School Physician with North Colonie Central Schools, will speak on the following topics:

- (1) Psychosomatic illness;
- (2) Drugs and effects on school children;
- (3) Working relationships between school nurse-teachers and private physicians.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 P.M. Requests for dinner reservations may be sent to Mrs. Doris Thomson, S.N.T., Granville Central High School, Granville, N.Y. 12832.

Concert

The Capitol Hill Choral Society will open its 16th season on Friday evening, October 25, with a performance of Palestrina's "Missa Papae Marcelli" and Kodaly's "Missa Brevis" at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. The concert will begin at 8:30 P.M.

Allen Mills, organist and director of music at Trinity Methodist Church, will accompany the chorus. Mr. Mills was recently appointed director of music of the Upper School, Albany Academy for Girls. Baritone Gary Aldrich will provide the intonation for the Palestrina mass. The chorus is directed by Judson Rand.

Tickets for the concert are available from members of the chorus, at area music stores, or at the door.

Bake Sale

Women's American Ort is having a bake sale November 5 from 9 P.M. to 5 P.M. at Grand Union Grand Way, and Central Markets at Stuyvesant Plaza. This bake sale is sponsored by Women's American Ort organization for rehabilitation through training.

Coming!

Was this the year there was just not enough money in the budget for a vacation trip? Then by all means circle November 12 on your calendar and be an arm-chair traveler to Mexico.

Anthony G. Lento, Assistant Professor of Education at SUNY will show slides covering his 1965 trip to Mexico City, and the area south of Mexico City, at the next meeting of Delmar Camera Club.

Watch the Spotlight for further information next week.

Concert

The Civic Music Association of Albany will present the Detroit Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Sixtun Ehrling at the Philip Livingston Junior High School on Monday, October 28, at 8:30 P.M. The program, which is open to members only, will consist of works of Verdi, Bizet, and Tchaikowsky. This is the first of a four-concert series to be presented.

School News

Typing students at the Bethlehem Central Junior High School, students of Mrs. Doris Stephany, are putting their skill to use immediately.

Mrs. Stephany reports that they have been typing forms for the nurse and other material for junior high school teachers.

Junior high school students in grades 7, 8 and 9 are given the opportunity to become acquainted with the keyboard and learn simple typing skills during their free periods when they do not take gym. Students attend either two or three periods per week, depending upon the individual's schedule.

test Must be Responsible," written by George Foot, Jr., a Bethlehem High School Senior.

George's essay accompanies one written by Bruce Jackson, a Union New Jersey High School senior, entitled "The Need for Protest." The two compositions were chosen from among many submitted by English teachers who were invited to submit essays written by junior students last Spring.

George, the son of Dr. and Mrs. George Foot, Sr., of Slingerlands, was a member of the English 11 class of Robert Lambert, Supervisor of English at BCHS, and wrote his essay for Mr. Lambert as a class project. George chose his own topic, however.

During the summer, George and his parents were invited to visit the Reader's Digest offices in Pleasantville, where he worked with a Reader's Digest editor in a typical editing session, revising his original contribution. During the editorial conference, George's parents had a opportunity to visit the plant and all were entertained for lunch at the Reader's Digest headquarters.

Lutheran Rally

Lutherans of the Tri-City area will celebrate the 451st Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation with a special Reformation Rally Service at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Western and Lexington Avenues, in Albany, on Sunday, October 27, at 7:30 P.M.

The Rev. Walter Litke, pastor of Our Savior Lutheran Church, in Colonie will be the guest preacher. The Rev. Robert R.

Liese, pastor of Love Lutheran Church in East Greenbush, will be the liturgist. Other features of the Reformation Service will be the use of lay readers, folk spirituals by several youth and a mass choir representing local Lutheran Churches.

The Reformation Rally Service is an annual event, sponsored by the Lutheran Laymen's League of Eastern New York. The theme of this year's Reformation Rally is "Spiritual Renewal of The Church."

New Officers

Home Savings Bank has announced a major executive-level reorganization and advancement of Harry D. Yates, bank president since 1961, to chairman of the Board.

Succeeding Mr. Yates as president of the bank is John E. Vroman, a native of Albany who has been with the bank since 1928 and who has worked in practically every position in all departments of the bank since then.

Marshall S. Hannock of Loudonville, a trustee since 1959, has been elected executive vice president.

Mr. Vroman is a graduate of Christian Brothers Academy and the Savings Banks Management Course at Dartmouth College. He is a director of the Albany Kiwanis Club, vice chairman of the budget panel of the Albany Community Chest and a member of the Fort Orange Club. He is married to the former Florence M. Merkle. They have three children, Mrs. Douglas L. Senecal, Mrs. Darrell L. Burns and John E. Vroman Jr., who is assistant

DR. ARTHUR W. WRIGHT, President of the Albany County Unit, American Cancer Society, presents $10,000 grant from the Society's New York State Division to Dr. Kenneth B. Olson, Director of the Albany County Tumor Registry Office at Albany Medical Center Hospital. Research funds such as these are made possible through donations to the American Cancer Society by the people of New York State and represent one of the many ways in which such donations are returned to assist in local programs in the fight against cancer. The Tumor Registry Office compiles information on malignant tumors gathered from the medical records of all cancer patients in six Albany County Hospitals. These include Albany Medical Center Hospital, Veterans Administration Hospital, St. Peter's Hospital, Memorial Hospital, Child's Hospital and Cohoes Hospital. Data is processed by computers and is a vital contribution to continuing research toward the discovery of new methods and technology in cancer prevention and therapy. Don't Burn 'em!

With the fall season again upon us and the perennial problem of leaves, the Albany County Department of Health announces that both State and County Air Pollution Control Regulations forbid the burning of leaves.

Leaf burning produces a highly localized source of air pollution and contributes to the overall air pollution problem in our community at a time of the year when weather conditions intensify the overall problem of air pollution because of inversions.

Last year many communities in Albany County provided collection service for leaves and will do so again this year.

All local police departments have been notified of the prohibition of leaf burning.

All residents are requested to cooperate with the anti-leaf burning regulations and help in providing a cleaner air environment for our area.

Table Talk

Columbia County Cooperative Extension Agents, Miss D. Jane Heath, Home Economist, and Ed Buckley, Agriculture Agent, will be guests on the Table Talk program discussing the apple industry in their county. Table Talk can be viewed on WAST, Channel 13 at 7:30 A.M. on Wednesday, October 30. This same program can also be seen on WMHT, Channel 17, at 4:30 P.M. on Wednesday, November 6.

Mr. Buckley will discuss the harvesting procedure of apples with special emphasis on controlled atmosphere storage. Apples are being stored in this manner by many growers today enabling them to prolong the marketing of apples until late spring with no apparent loss of quality. The different varieties of apples will be discussed by

Big Increase

New York State small game hunters had a generally good season last year (1967-68), according to a report recently issued by the State Conservation Department's Bureau of Game. The Game Take Survey, which annually polls representative hunters statewide, reported that 4,154,000 small game animals were taken as compared to 3,755,000 in 1966-67, an 11 percent increase. This includes all species of small game legally hunted, except bobwhite quail and Hungarian partridge which were not tabulated because of hunter confusion in identification.

This increased hunter success should be welcome news to all small game hunters, and particularly to those who fear that their sport is declining, because of the loss of huntable land due to urban sprawl and posting.

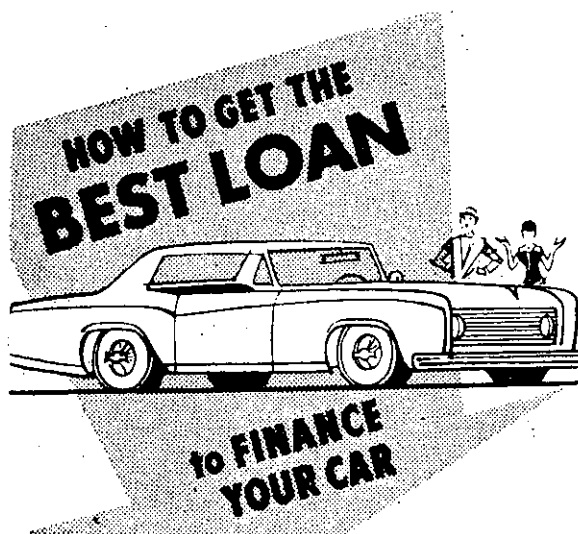

More people bought licenses last season than during the previous season and a higher percentage of licensees actually went afield. Tabulations indicate that 392,000 licensees hunted in 1967-68 compared to 333,000 in 1966-67.

Increases in take were noted in seven of the 10 protected species that could be compared. Cottontail rabbit take was 1,496,660 (up 18.4 percent) over the previous season. Cottontail hunters numbered 257,756, an increase of 10.4 percent. Cottontails apparently are now on the upswing after several years of "low," and hunting should be excellent for another several years. Pheasant take was 456,623 (up 11.8 percent), and hunters numbered 255,534, a 9.2 percent increase. Ruffed grouse take at 435,169 was 5.3 percent over last season; hunters afield, 194,118, were up 10.9 percent; this despite a shortened season. Squirrel take and hunters were up, too; take at 924,594 was up 12.1 percent and hunter up 11.8 percent at 163,071.

Duck and coot take was 295,-

398, an increase of 14.8 percent; hunters increased 13.8 percent, to 55,073. Geese and brant also showed increases in take and hunters: take was 43,907, up 11.3 percent and hunters increased a modest 2.9 percent to 30,593. Woodcock up 13.3 percent in take to 134,566, (a new record) and a jump of 22.7 percent in hunters to 51,836.

Of special interest in the recorded increases is the fact that cottontail rabbit and waterfowl take were at their highest since the 1958-59 season. Pheasant take reached an all-time high since we started our present method of surveying in 1956.

Now for the unfavorable aspects of the past hunting season:

Varying hare kill was down 8.1 percent to 177,747 although more hunters went afield (55,709 compared to 51,099), an increase of 9.0 percent.

Raccoon take and hunters were both down, too; take down 19.4 percent to 187,703 and hunters off 4.2 percent to 31,985.

Wild turkey hunting followed the varying hare pattern: take decreased slightly and hunters increased. Take at 1,986, was down 5.3 percent although hunters afield increased 11.6 percent to 34,112. Turkey hunting will be by permit only in the 1968 seasons in Delaware County (which has already ended) and in six southwestern counties. This bird is thriving in the southwestern counties where about 98 percent of all N.Y. State turkey hunters were afield between November 6 and November 18, 1967, the closing day.

Crow hunters (this was the only on-game species surveyed this year) dropped 16.7 percent to 1,896 and their take fell 26.8 percent, to 305,354.

Game surveyors also attempted to determine the size and distribution of the Hungarian partridge kill (legal game only in four counties). However, there was too much obvious confusion with other species such as ruffed grouse and bobwhite quail to warrant a tabulation, even though pictures and descriptions were provided to help identification.

If an electric heat demonstration sounds dull, call it a holiday.

Just check into a modern motel and relax. You're trying out electric heat—and that's a foolproof excuse (if there ever was one) for taking a few days leave from the kids. But don't have such a good time you forget what you're there for.

Electric heat is unobtrusive. You may have to look for it. In baseboards, wall units, or hidden in the ceiling. Maybe in a bathroom heat lamp. Notice how quickly it responds when you turn it up or down. Check out the floors. Warm. Move around the room. No cold spots. No drafts. No angry phone calls. No letters of complaint.

Motels can't put up with headaches like that, so a lot of them buy electric heat. Follow their lead. And keep in mind that while motels like to make travelers comfortable, they also like to make money.

Want a pleasant demonstration? Then visit one of the electrically heated motels in Upstate New York. If you like, we'll send you the list of them. Electric heat is quick and easy to install. It doesn't make dirt. It doesn't waste valuable space. And it doesn't include repair bills.

It does cost a little more. But like most things that cost more, it's worth more. Our point:

You don't pay for electric heat with headaches.

This past season licensees were asked which day of the week they preferred for the opening of the woodland game season, (ruffed grouse, squirrel and woodcock). Hunters who responded to the question came out heavily for Monday, or other week-day openings. October was the favored month and Monday the favored day.

The Conservationist, official magazine of the Conservation Department, will print a more complete report of the survey in a future issue.

Electric Heat

The number of conversions to flameless electric heating is increasing rapidly every year, according to William E. Borst, Manager of the Adequate Wiring Bureau of Eastern New York. This, coupled with the fact that so many more new homes are being built with electric heat, indicates that eventually the majority of homes will be heated by electricity.

Mr. Borst says that the trend is clear to all those in the heat-

SHARON F. WALWORTH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fayette C. Walworth, 485 Kenwood Avenue, Delmar, has been placed on the Dean's List at St. Lawrence University, Canton, New York, for the 1968 Spring Term. To be eligible for the Dean's List, a student must have completed at least 30 semester hours and have an academic average of 3.5 or better for two consecutive semesters. The academic average is based on a perfect record of 4.0. Miss Walworth, with an academic average of 3.8, was recently initiated into the Sophomore Honorary Association. She is a graduate of Bethlehem Central High School.

ing industry. Even as the heating industry gathers statistics that reveal the gains made by flameless electric heating, homeowners are busy converting to electric heat in greater and greater numbers.

"Automatic, trouble-free operation and more comfortable heat are the major factors in the move to electric heat," says Mr. Borst. "Another, is the ease of converting from an older type heating system to modern electric heat."

"The fuel problems, furnaces repair bills and uneven heat produced by old-fashioned systems become more and more intolerable when you realize how comfortable, economical and clean flameless electric heat can be. With electric heat there are no moving parts, no fuels, no products of combustion and no complicated controls. It's just pure, clean heat that originates in a wire and is controlled by a thermostat."

According to Mr. Borst, conversion to electric heat can be accomplished simply by the installation of unobtrusive baseboard units, electric resistance cable installed in the ceiling, or individual heating units recessed in the walls. If you prefer to utilize existing warm air ductwork or hot water piping, you can replace your existing fuel-burning furnace with a small electric furnace that heats the air or water with close to 100% efficiency.

"In all cases," says Mr. Borst, "your home wiring system must be adequate in order to get top performance from the equipment and to protect your investment."

"You can have your home wiring system checked at no cost or obligation to you by an Adequate Wiring Bureau member electrical contractor. If rewiring is necessary, AWB member banks will provide a low cost improvement loan with convenient monthly payments."

"Sooner or later," concludes Mr. Borst, "most homeowners will find themselves adding to the statistics on the side of flameless electrical heat."

Hearing

It was today announced by the Northeast Regional Office of Economic Opportunity that a public hearing would be held in Albany on October 25, at 7:30

P.M. at the Post Office-Court House (Courtroom #2, 4th floor), 445 Broadway, Albany, to give all interested residents and organizations of Albany County an opportunity to express their views on the designation of a community action agency to serve their community.

Under Section 210 (d) of the 1967 amendments to the Economic Opportunity Act, OEO may designate and provide financial assistance to a public or non-profit agency as a community action agency when it has determined that neither the State nor any qualified political subdivision or combination of subdivisions is willing to make an effective designation. Since neither the City of Albany, Albany County, or the State of New York has submitted an effective designation to OEO within the time allotted for this procedure, OEO will have to act to ensure that there is a recognized community action agency serving Albany County by February 1, 1969.

OEO believes that successful community action is primarily a local venture and looks to local groups and residents for ac-

Meetings

A meeting of all registered swimming officials and swimming coaches will be held at the American Red Cross Headquarters, Hackett Blvd. and Clara Barton Dr., Albany, on Sunday afternoon, November 3, at 2 P.M.

This is one of the compulsory meetings for registered officials; it will be the fall business meeting and the examination will be given.

The New York State meeting for swimming officials will be held at the State University of Albany on Sunday morning on October 27 at 9 A.M.

Appointed

Albert G. Hall, Director of the State Conservation Department's Division of Fish and Game, today announced the appointment, effective immediately, of Dirck Benson as Supervisor of Fish and Game for Region 5, headquartered at Ray Brook, Essex County. Mr. Benson, who next month celebrates 30 years with the Department, succeeds Robert Zilliox who recently died unexpectedly. Region 5 includes Clinton, Essex and Franklin Counties.

Mr. Benson, 55, joined the Conservation Department on November 1, 1938, as a Game Research Investigator. He has served continuously with the Department except for two years of service in the U.S. Army during World War II. The new regional supervisor earned a B.A. in biology from Pomona College in California. He went on to an M.A. and advanced graduate work in zoology at Cornell University.

Mr. Benson is married and has two grown children. His most

The Albany Area Chapter, American Red Cross is in dire need of volunteer swimming teachers for the handicapped on Saturday mornings. Three classes are scheduled at Bethlehem Central Junior High School swimming pool in Delmar, and start at 9:30 A.M. every Saturday. Persons who have had Red Cross Senior Life Saving and wishing to volunteer their services for this worthwhile project are urged to call Rose Joyce at 462-7461 now.

There will not be a class October 26. Class will resume November 2 and will have seven weeks to go.

Workshop

James H. Carnahan, Director of Health & Safety Services for the Albany Area Chapter Red Cross, and Consultant on First Aid and Water Safety to the Chapters of the Combined Services of Northeastern New York State, and Mrs. John Joyce, Volunteer Director of the Albany Area program will conduct a workshop and demonstration of the techniques of teaching swimming for educable groups of mentally retarded children at the second annual conference of New York State Association of Teachers of Mentally Handicapped.

The Conference will be held in Lake Placid, New York, and the demonstration will take place in a swimming pool on the afternoon of Saturday, October 26th, between 3 and 5 P.M.

Mr. Carnahan directed the first American Red Cross Swimming program in this country for veterans while working at the Hines Veterans Hospital, Chicago, Illinois, with a group of 300

Paraplegics back in 1946. He also established one of the first swimming programs for post-polios in the mid-west and for the past six years has been Director of the Health and Safety Services for the Albany Chapter of the American Red Cross. Under Mrs. Joyce and Mr. Carnahan's supervision comes the swimming for Physically Handicapped and Mentally Retarded Program being held at Bethlehem Central Junior High School, at the present time.

Of the 2,800 people who died of hunting and other accidental gunshot wounds last year, many might have been saved if their companions had known how to stem the flow of blood, according to Raymond Albertini, Chairman of First Aid of American Red Cross Safety Services for the Albany area.

"The best single method of controlling bleeding is to apply direct hand pressure to the wound with a thick pad of cloth," advises Mr. Albertini. "It is especially important for sportsmen to be aware of this as the hunting season gets underway, for hunting accidents usually occur many miles from community medical facilities."

Several layers of cloth or a folded piece of clothing will do as a compress. If a dressing is not immediately available, the bare hand should be used until a cloth pad can be brought into use. Although ideally the dressing should be clean, a dirty cloth is better than no cloth at all.

If the wound is deep, the fingers and/or dressing should be inserted into it and firm pressure applied.

Do not remove a dressing that becomes soaked with blood. Apply more layers on top of it. Direct pressure can be maintained by bandaging the compress firmly in place.

Also, elevate a bleeding arm or leg if there are no fractures and if such elevation will not cause additional damage to the injured part.

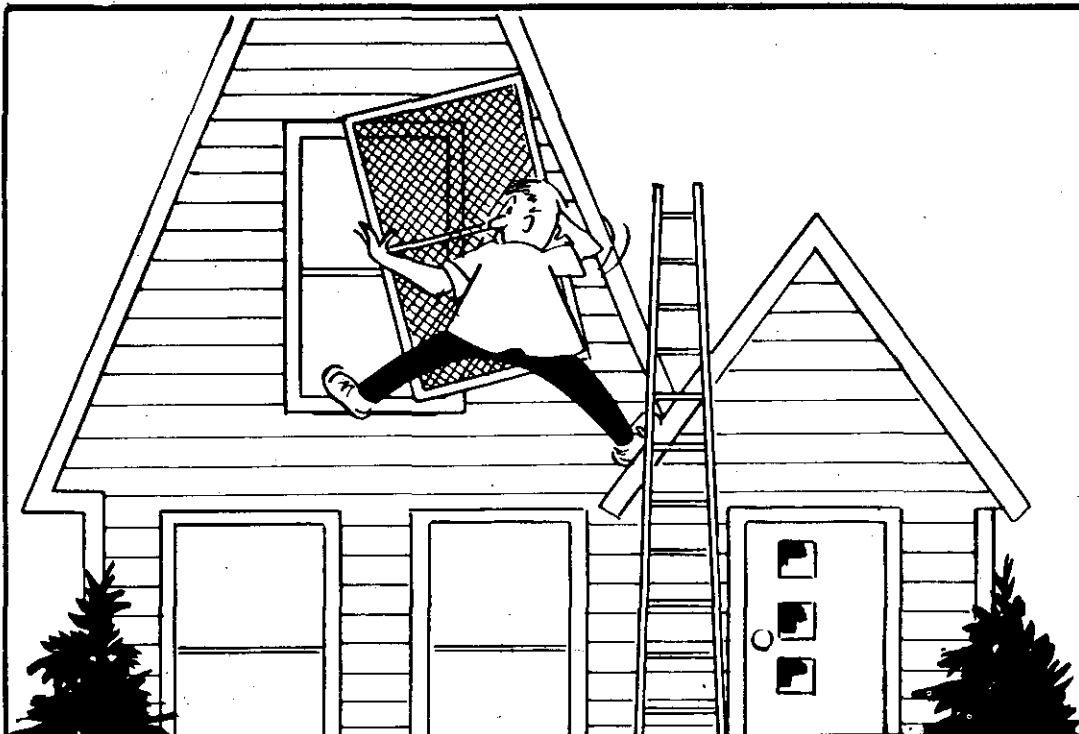

To treat for shock, lay the victim down, but keep the injured part higher than the victim's heart. Maintain normal body temperature, but do not overheat the victim.

Remember that the small entry wound of a gunshot may be misleading; extensive internal injuries may have occurred. All gunshot victims should receive medical attention as promptly as possible.

"Everyone who hunts should know first aid," Mr. Albertini said. "Most Red Cross chapters offer free courses in it regularly."

To prevent accidental gunshot wounds, he added, read and remember these rules:

Never point at anything you

The Light Touch

By Bob Jackson

The trouble with seniority is, when you finally get it, you're ready to retire.

Granddad saved his first dollar in a 10-cent frame. Now the frame's worth a dollar and the dollar's worth a dime.

One hippo to another: "Of course she's overweight — but on her it looks good!"

Then there was the karate expert who stuck out his hand to make a left turn, and cut a station wagon in half . . .

Husband: a bachelor whose luck finally failed.

Your luck won't fail when you come to us for attic insulation at Delmar Lumber.

G-G-Goosepimple Remedy Sale

There's one thing worse than outdoor goosepimples. Indoor goosepimples. Zonolite® Attic Insulation is the cure.

Hot air from your furnace rises right through your ceilings because the old fashioned, thin fluff insulation in your attic just can't stop it.

Zonolite Attic Insulation keeps the heat in. Pour Zonolite right over the old fluff, level it off at the top of the joists and leave it.

Heat bills go down, and so do goosepimples.
