

Parents & Taxpayers

Formation of a new organization called Parents and Taxpayers, PATS, was announced today by a steering committee at a meeting in the Bethlehem School District.

Members of the organization feel there is a need to coordinate the administration and application of education in the district, and to review the aims and direction of that education and its effect on our students and on the future of the community.

"Committees are forming to review past and present policies so that we, as taxpayers, receive our full measure of education from each tax dollar", a spokesman said.

Since there are outside pressures being brought to bear on local school districts by huge industries which have entered the educational field, it is imperative that local citizens assume an active role in the administrations of their schools, it was explained.

Parents and Taxpayers cited as one of their first aims to review the record of each school board member and the replacement of those members who do not reflect the will and interests of the people of the district.

Further aims of the Parents and Taxpayers are to watch needless spending, to hold down administrative posts and salaries, to analyze unnecessary frills; to watch school busing; to watch over-building; to scrutinize Boards of Cooperative Educational Services and demand actual spending figures.

Interested persons should contact Parents and Taxpayers by writing to P.O. Box 89, Delmar, New York or P.O. Box 88, Clarksville, New York.

Workshop Needs Funds

ADVENTURE IN LEARNING - That's what the Heldeberg Workshop is all about and young Shanda Moore, right, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore of 120 North Lake Avenue, Albany, appears fascinated as Mrs. Paul Richards of Voorheesville explains how to weave. More than 700 Metroland children attended the Workshop last summer. Of this number, 200 were on scholarships - like Shanda. This is fund-raising month for the scholarship fund and donors are urgently needed.

Funds are needed now to assure inner city and rural children summerscholarships at the Heldeberg Workshop.

Although the Workshop sessions will not begin until Aug. 4, scholarship funds must be collected by the end of May so planners may provide for the needy youngsters. Last year about 200 children attended on full or partial scholarships, a spokesman said.

Your School Board Needs a Woman's Viewpoint . . . No One Understands Children Like a Mother

Mrs. Greta Powers

Dear Fellow Citizen of Bethlehem:

We ask you to join with us in supporting Mrs. Greta Powers who is running for the Bethlehem Central Board of Education. We share Mrs. Powers' deep concern for maintaining quality education at the lowest possible cost.

Mrs. Greta Powers is very highly qualified for the school board. Mrs. Powers is an attorney; before she went to law school, she was a security analyst. Her legal and business experience would be valuable on the school board. She is the mother of four children who have attended our schools; her youngest daughter, Ruth, is a sophomore at BCSHS. Mrs. Powers was an active member of the Elsmere PTA and of the Parents' Steering Committee for the High School, for many years. She served on the board of directors of the Child Guidance Center in Albany for six years. At present, she is on the board of the Legal Aid Society, which provides legal services for poor people. Mrs. Powers was a girl scout leader for years, and she has been a Sunday School teacher and a counselor for teenagers in her church. She understands the problems of today's young people. Mrs. Powers' husband, Dr. Samuel Powers, is a professor of surgery at Albany Medical College. Both are deeply concerned about the narcotics problem which exists in Bethlehem and feel the schools must provide a much more extensive educational program in this area.

If there is one phrase that states the essence of Mrs. Powers' fine qualities, it is that in all her activities -- whether as girl scout leader or Sunday School teacher, as mother or community leader, as attorney or friend -- she has shown the deepest concern for the development and rights of each person as an individual.

Please join us in voting for Mrs. Powers. She will be speaking at the Bethlehem Senior High School at 8 P.M. on Wednesday, June 4. All members of the public are welcome.

Indoor Tennis

Tennis anyone?

That age-old cry of the white shorts and sneakers set will be shouted by Metroland residents not just a few-but all-the months of the year come October.

The reason is a group of Albany and Schenectady businessmen are going to build an indoor tennis complex in Latham. It will cost an estimated $350,000 and be known as the Tri-Cities Indoor Tennis Club.

Plans for the club were announced today at a press luncheon at the Thruway-Hyatt House.

THE TRI-CITIES CLUB is being built by a corporation headed by Sanford Bookstein, an Albany theater executive, and Lee Aronowitz, an Albany insurance man and prominent civic leader.

Eight other men, all from Schenectady, have an investment in the project. They are Samuel Frankel, Dr. Arthur Lobell, Dr. Stuart Yorkshire, Stanley Beerman, Larry Feldman, Dr. Marvin Englehardt, Daniel Fleischer and Joseph Scozzasaza.

The club will be located about half a mile north of Latham Circle on Route 9. It will be opposite a drive-in theater and steak house and near the Cohoes exit of the Northway.

A pre-fabricated steel building will house five championship tennis courts and an attached two-story brick and wood composition building will house a men's locker room, a women's locker room, sauna baths and a pro shop on the first floor and a lounge on the second floor. The lounge will have refreshment facilities and a glassed-in siding which will overlook the courts.

The building housing the tennis courts will be 260 feet by 120 feet and the two-story attached locker room and lounge complex 25 feet by 100 feet. The entire unit will be on 2½ acres of property that will allow room for possible expansion. A macadam parking lot is planned.

THE CLUB WILL be open to the public on either a seasonal basis or on an hourly basis. The operation will be similar to that of a bowling establishment, with parties contracting a specific time for the season and open play being permitted when courts are available.

The hours of operation will be 8 in the morning until 11 at night 32 weeks of the year, beginning in October and extending into May, Groundbreaking will take place in the near future and the club is expected to begin operation this fall.

The courts will be of a synthetic composition similar to clay and be illuminated by a non-glare type of lighting.

A tennis pro will be hired and tournament schedule set up as plans progress.

The architect is Alex Kaufman of Boston, who has been called one of the "Foremost experts in the field of indoor tennis facilities." A contractor has yet to be named.

COMMENTING on the reason for the formation of the Tri-Cities Club, Aronowitz said:

"It wasn't the idea of any one person, but just a natural outgrowth of the thinking of many sports-minded people. The facility will fulfill a deep desire of the tennis player; that is to play the year-round."

Aronowitz noted there are some 500 indoor tennis clubs in the country (the nearest is Springfield, Mass.) and they have proven immensely popular.

"Research has shown us that indoor courts have been enthusiastically received. We feel that it will prove popular in the Tri-City area, an area that has always been strong on tennis despite the limited season.

"In other regions," Aronowitz went on, "the trend has been for housewives to use the facilities during the day and men during the evening hours."

Aronowitz said inquiries concerning the club may be directed to PO Box 1121, Albany, N.Y., Zip 12201.

Open House

MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM

CAMP PINNACLE in the Helderbergs begins its season with an open house on Memorial Day (May 30). Special service will be at 3 P.M. The speaker will be the new Director, the Rev. William James. He just returned from a two year assignment in Korea with Youth for Christ International.

The program is open to the public at no charge for admission. Bring the whole family for a picnic on the mountain top.

Camp Pinnacle is approached via New Salem and route 157 to Beaver Dam road near Thacher Park or via route 43 to Pinnacle Road near Helderberg Lake.

Swim Program

Registration forms for the Bethlehem summer swim program were distributed to school children last week.

Parents who wish their youngsters to receive swimming lessons during the eight-week program are urged to sign promptly to assure placement in classes, a spokesman said. June 4, is the registration deadline.

The program provides for family recreational swimming, plus beginner and intermediate instruction and a junior lifesaving course.

The Bethlehem Swim Club, an advanced competitive swim team, is open to advanced swimmers. A fee of $2 per child is charged for instruction. Swim club membership or a season permit for recreational swimming costs $5.

Swimming pools at the junior and senior high schools in Bethlehem are used in the program which is jointly sponsored by the Board of Education and the Bethlehem Town Board.

New Hours

The Town Board of the Town of New Scotland has set new hours for the operation of the Town's Sanitary Land Fill near Clarksville, that will go into effect June 1, 1969.

The Land Fill will be open every day except Sunday, Monday and Holidays.

The hours for dumping will be 9:00 A.M. - 12:00 Noon and 1:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M.

The reason given for the new schedule change is that the Sanitary Code of the State Health Department requires that there be no burning of any kind and that the refuse be compacted and covered at the close of each day. This, of course, requires that the Land Fill be closed early enough so that the personnel at the site have time to comply with Health Department directives.

Almost all Municipalities are having various difficulties with Solid Waste Disposal and they cannot be solved without the help and support of it's citizens. Therefore, the Town Board requests that all citizens use the municipal collection service or a commercial Service if at all possible. It is much easier to care for a Land Fill Area when there are fewer cars, trailers and people entering and leaving the Refuse Area.

Off To The Woods Bethlehem

In early June, hundreds of Bethlehem school children will descend on the woods near Lawson's Lake for a week-long camping trip and outdoor education program.

For six months, teachers, parents and pupils have been making plans for the big event. Parents will help by cooking meals (although the children will serve and clean up) and by acting as dormitory residents in the evenings.

In addition to the fun of swimming, fishing, boating, hiking and living out-of-doors for five days, many educational programs have been planned. The Albany County Red Cross will conduct classes in Life Saving and Boating Safety. Science and Conservation demonstrations will be presented by the U.S. Geological Survey, U.S. Soil Conservation Department, State Dept. of Education, and State University at Albany. Students will come in contact with elements of geology, botany, meteorology, field mathematics, and entomology.

According to teachers planning the event the outdoor program is designed to serve three educational purposes: (1) Developing an appreciation and understanding of nature; (2) drawing together various classroom science activities; and (3) learning to live with others in a group living experience.

On June 2, several classes from Delmar and Glenmont schools will hold a joint program. Delmar teacher, Mr. Hugh Williams will serve as program coordinator, and the classes attending are: Mr. Williams' 5th grade, Mrs. Joanne Oliver's 4th grade (Delmar); and 6th grades from Glenmont supervised by Mr. Carl Bish, Don Knox and Dick Beyer.

The following week, Mr. Ronald Bovar will conduct a similar program for 4th grade children from Clarksville School.

The camp site is made available through Trinity Institute and Camp Opportunities.

Bethlehem Central Senior High School business students have qualified for more certificates in shorthand and typewriting under the Gregg Publishing Company Awards Program.

Seven girls in Shorthand II earned the 80-word per minute award by taking dictation for five minutes and transcribing their notes with 95 percent accuracy. They were: Kathryn Dollard, Victoria Heinrichs, Katherine Herrington, Nancy Odell, Mary Pike, Donna Smith and Sandra Wilson. In Shorthand I Linda Baker, Ramona Bradley and Anne Di Biase earned similar certificates by taking their notes at 60 words per minute.

In Shorthand II Karhryn Dollard, Kathleen Furey, Margaret Hasselwander, Victoria Heinrichs, Donna Myers and Mary Pike, also earned certificates for their proficiency in transcription production by taking three letters at 80 words per minute and transcribing two of them in mailable form in 20 minutes.

In Shorthand II three girls earned typing awards by typing for five minutes with no more than two errors. They were: Donna Smith, 53 wpm.; Sandra Wilson, 51 wpm.; and Donna Myers, 50 wpm.

In beginning typing four girls earned similar certificates. They and their speeds were: Debra Rudd 45 wpm.; Anne DiBiase 34 wpm.; Carol Kramer 40 wpm.; and Joyce Dolid 32 wpm.

How to put a malicious caller in his place.

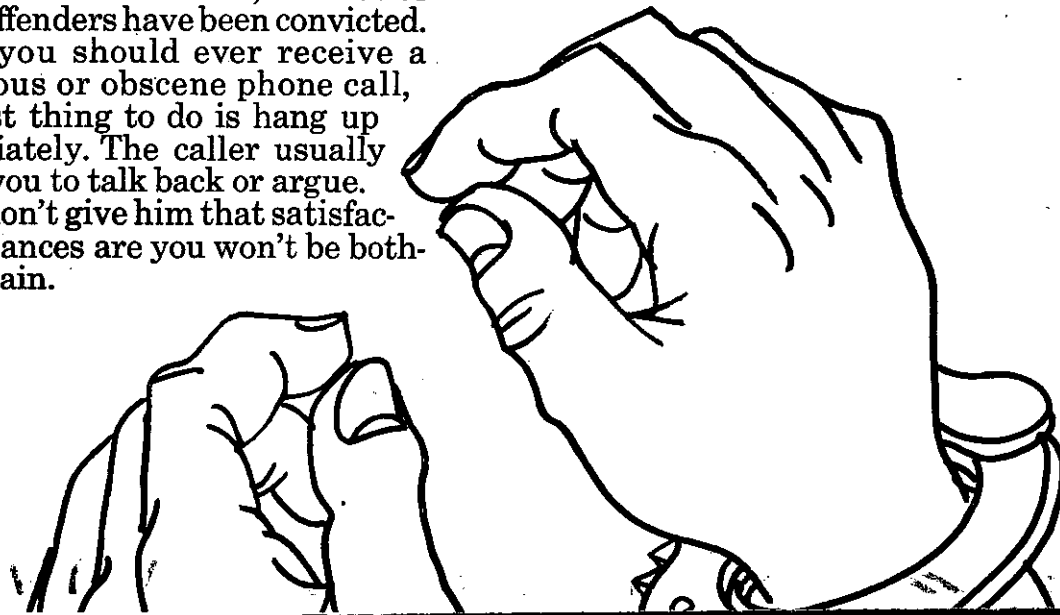

The penalty for making an obscene or harassing call (including those where the caller remains silent) can be as much as a year in jail and $1,000 fine.

We've installed special equipment and set up an Annoyance Call Bureau to work with you and the police to catch offenders. Since this bureau was established, the police have made 279 arrests, and 177 of these offenders have been convicted.

If you should ever receive a malicious or obscene phone call, the best thing to do is hang up immediately. The caller usually wants you to talk back or argue. If you don't give him that satisfaction, chances are you won't be bothered again.

But if the calls should persist, contact your telephone business office or, after hours, just dial Operator and the Annoyance Call Bureau will take it from there.

We believe your right of telephone privacy is important. We don't want to see it abused. And with your cooperation, we'll do our best to see that it isn't.

around the State. They received four weeks of work experience, beginning April 10, and learned such things as how to remove soil from the seedlings and how to grade and bunch the small trees.

Working six hours a day, the 28 men and women, who ranged in age from 24 to 56 years, were paid the going salary for nursery workers of $1.78 an hour. They deposited their paychecks in their own personal accounts at the school. From their salaries, they paid $5.00 a week for transportation from the school to the nursery and back.

"This project demonstrates very effectively that mentally retarded individuals can learn and can hold jobs in the community if given the opportunity," Governor Wilson said.

"I hope other State agencies as well as private industries will join together to explore ways in which the mentally retarded and other handicapped individuals can be helped," he said.

So successful was the nursery project, he added, that plans are already underway to expand the program next Spring.

State Nursery personnel reported that the residents were excellent workers and learned the necessary skills very quickly. Eight residents will continue working at the nursery this summer.

Wilton State School personnel, the Governor explained, selected residents for the project on the basis of their work abilities and social adjustment. The occupational therapy department at the school acquainted the residents with the type of work they would be doing, and also discussed such subjects as work habits and the meaning of earning money.

 Dr. Emanuel Rechter, director of Wilton State School, commented that the Conservation Department is also helping the school in a reforestation project. Eleven thousand seedlings will be planted, beginning this week, on the grounds of the future site of the school. About 16 residents will participate in this project.
 Wilton is one of 13 State schools for the mentally retarded operated by the Department of Mental Hygiene. It is located at Wilton, ten miles north of Saratoga Springs. There are 400 residents at the school now.

Unique Project

Lieutenant Governor and Acting Governor Malcolm Wilson today announced that the State Departments of Mental Hygiene and Conservation are cooperating in a unique project designed to provide mentally retarded residents at Wilton State School with work training and job experience.

Twenty-eight residents worked at the Saratoga State Tree Nursery, where 12 to 14 million seedlings are grown annually for reforestation

An envelope addressed to the Service Center, 11601 Roosevelt Boulevard, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19155, has also been included in the forms package mailed.

Any tax-exempt organizations that need information about their legal obligation to file or the requirements of the return should contact its local IRS office.

fraternal beneficiary associations.

On these information returns, organizations report their income and expenditures for the year. Failure to file a return could mean the loss of exempt status by an organization.

Mr. Hartley said the returns will be processed at the IRS Service Center in Philadelphia by a specially trained staff. Since the number of exempt organization returns represents less than 1 per cent of the total returns received each year and these returns require special procedures, IRS decided to centralize the processing at one location.

Returns that should be sent to Philadelphia are Forms 990, 990-A, 990-C and 990-T. Form 990 and 990-A filers with gross receipts for the year and total assets at the end of the year not exceeding $10,000 should use the new 990 (SF) and 990-A (SF) short forms.

TAX Exempt

A new system for handling annual information returns of tax-exempt organizations is now in effect, Donald T. Hartley, District Director of Internal Revenue for Northeastern New York State, said today. This year, tax-exempt organization returns other than those for pension trusts will be filed directly with one Service Center and computer processed there.

The calendar year returns are due to be filed by May 15, 1969.

Reduced costs and more efficient administration are expected from this method of processing returns from the 400,000 organizations in the Service's Exempt Organization Master File. With few exceptions, tax-exempt organizations are required to file annual information returns. The exceptions apply to organizations such as churches and religious institutions, publicly-supported health organizations, some types of youth organizations and

School Budget

Message from the Board of Education

On June 11, you will be asked to vote on the 1969-70 school budget. This budget has been approved by the majority of the Board, after months of examination and re-examination of the quality of our educational program, viewed against the severity of our revenue limitations.

The proposed budget is for $7,303,512, up $575,096 from the current year. This will mean a tax increase of approximately $11.26 per thousand in the town of Bethlehem, and $14.08 for residents of New Scotland.

In addition, the Board proposes for decision by the voters two additions to the main budget. One, for $85,043, would add ten teachers to the planned staff level. The other, for $52,761, is for three new school busses and salaries of three bus drivers presently employed.

The school budget normally increases each year for two reasons; more pupils, and higher costs.

An attractive suburb in a thriving metropolitan area grows rapidly. The addition of new homes to a primarily residential community, however, imposes a net cost on the school district which is not compensated for by our property taxes, high as they may be.

Operating costs reflect the general inflation in the American economy, which passed 5% in 1969—highest since the war years of the 'forties. Teachers' salaries, which are the largest segment of the budget, have been raised an average of 5% (exclusive of regular increments). This is only in line with increases voted state employees this year by the Legislature.

The increase in the tax rate is high because of Legislature this year has reduced the rates of state aid to all school districts. Bethlehem will receive from the state exactly what was granted last year - no more. In a rising budget, this is effectively a cut.

In the face of these conflicting pressures, the Board was determined (1) to maintain the high quality of the educational program for which this district is known; and (2) to make all possible economies. This has not been easy. Parents have a right to expect that children of widely varying abilities and emotional makeup be given the best possible chance to develop. For this reason, special education for handicapped children has not been curtailed, and vocational training will be continued for high school students. Most advanced classes for gifted students will similarly be maintained. We have also fulfilled our commitment, made three years ago, to implement the new Middle School program for 6th, 7th and 8th grade pupils next year.

All taxpayers have a right to expect that the school system is managed efficiently and economically, and that the program of teaching is focused on children's real needs, not on frills. There is no "fat" in this budget. Since January we have had every component of curriculum, staff, plant and equipment requests under the severest scrutiny. Initial requests, representing genuine and necessary proposals for improvement of the program have been cut and cut again.

In the opinion of the Board majority, further cuts will impair the quality of schooling that the parents of this district have pressed us constantly to maintain and improve. For the 240 new pupils expected next fall, and to cover present deficiencies, we should have 16 new teachers. In the main budget we have cut this to six. The remaining ten positions are submitted to your vote in Proposition 1. This is a crucial area where you may cast your vote for quality in the curriculum.

Similarly with the busses. No new busses will mean some double bus routings, and for many pupils and their families this will mean leaving earlier and time spent waiting at school until a bus is available.

Last year you, the voters, rejected the first budget submitted, and passed the reduced second version by only a narrow margin. This is a costly proceeding and potentially damaging to the school system. The Board has been acutely aware of the conflict between quality and economy.

The Board strongly urges that you approve this budget, arrived at in the best interests of all our citizens, including the generation most crucially affected -- our children.

Scout Fund Drive

Confidence and optimism were the key-words of Fort Orange-Uncle Sam Boy Scout Council executives and leaders as the Council's current $379,750 development fund drive entered its third and final phase earlier this week.

A total of $29,665 was pledged at the campaign leaders report meeting held at a Norton Company cafeteria dinner meeting in Watervliet.

The advanced gift phases brought the grand total to $265,153 as the Council continued to seek the necessary funds to expand and improve facilities at its three major Scouting camps-Rotary Scout Training Center in Poestenkill, Stratton Mountain Scout Reservation, Stratton, Vt., and Camp Lt. Robert N. Allen, South Bethlehem.

Maj. Gen. John C. Baker, general chairman of the campaign, and Raymond Siek, Council president, both expressed confidence the fund goal of over $300,000 would be reached shortly. Siek noted that a number of corporate and large gift pledges are still unreported and this, coupled with the Scout Family gift division effort, currently underway, should bring the campaign to a successful conclusion.

In addressing the campaign workers earlier this week, Siek said "the real reward will be seen when camp improvements are completed and we see 1,000 boys in camp at the same time this summer."

The last committee reports included pledges of $2,100 from the Special Gifts division headed by Don Rock; $930 from the Major Gifts group, William I. Clark, chairman; $24,135 from the Leadership committee, Chester L. Fienberg, chairman; $2,350, Columbia County division, Bernard T. Brennan, chairman, and $1,650, Pacesetters division, Don Waterfield, chairman.

Thomas Brazier's Scout Family Gift committee, which has a total of $17,916 in pledges, will now combine with the Clubs and Organizations division, headed by Leonard Friedlander, in the campaign's third and final phase.

Honeybee Research

Recognizing the honeybee for its tremendous service to mankind as a pollinator and food producer, Cornell University has built Dyce Laboratory for the study of honeybees.

It is located on Freese Road at Varna, about two miles east of the center of the campus of the N.Y. State College of Agriculture at Cornell.

Here, modern research is being conducted on honeybee activity and behavioral patterns to help man understand the bees' contribution to human environment.

The laboratory receives its name from a world bee authority, Prof. Emeritus E. J. Dyce, professor of apiculture at Cornell from 1942 until his retirement in 1966.

Costing nearly $60,000, the bright green, one story functional building houses an indoor bee flight room in which temperature, humidity, and light can be controlled within precise limits. This room makes it possible to study bees the year-round.

Also, the laboratory provides a shop room, a chemical laboratory and four offices. It is headed by Prof. Roger A. Morse, a former student of Prof. Dyce's and a noted bee authority in his own right.

Research at the laboratory includes work on sex attractants, drone congregation areas, swarming, and reproduction in honeybees.

Also methods of collecting bee venom in quantity, toxicity of the venom, and effects of pesticides on bees are being studied.

Since the honeybee is the chief pollinator in New York State, studies have and are being made of bee activity on a variety of agricultural crops.

More than 60,000 solitary and semi-social bees have been collected during the past few years to better assess the value of these insects as pollinators, Morse stated.

The university maintains more than 100 colonies of bees. An apiary has been established near the Dyce Laboratory where equipment is available for experimentation.

New Commander

Col. William Mulheron Jr. will be the new commanding officer of Watervliet Arsenal, effective January 1, 1969.

At Watervliet one of his chief responsibilities will be design and development of the tank's principal weapon, the 152mm gun-launcher.

A native of Chester, Pa., Colonel Mulheron attended Rutgers University and entered active Army service upon his graduation in 1942.

During World War II he earned seven battle stars in Africa and Italy as he participated in the campaigns in Algeria, Tunisia, Sicily, Naples, Anzio, Rome-Arno and the Po Valley.

THREE BIG WORDS: Paid in Full

Very often, a few consultations between a psychiatrist and the emotionally disturbed person can mean the difference between a normal, happy family life and a strained, emotion-packed existence. Blue Shield's new Plan C provides paid-in-full benefits for up to 30 days of in-hospital psychiatric care per year. It's just one of the many new benefits covered by this modern, new plan.

Under other Blue Shield programs, participating physicians agree to accept Blue Shield's allowances as full payment only for those subscribers whose income is below a certain level. Higher income families pay the difference between the Blue Shield allowance and the physician's regular charge.

Now, all physicians participating in Plan C have agreed to accept Blue Shield allowances as paid-in-full benefits, regardless of the subscriber's income. Think what this means to you as a subscriber. Ask the person in charge of your health insurance program about Plan C.

EMPLOYERS: For full details on this new, modern plan for groups of as few as four employees, contact your Blue Cross and Blue Shield representative today. He'll show you how you and your employees can enjoy paid-in-full benefits through Blue Shield's Plan C.

NYS Executive Chamber

Full-time service will be required after April 1, 1970, of the District Attorney in every county with a population of more than 100,000 under legislation approved by Governor Rockefeller.

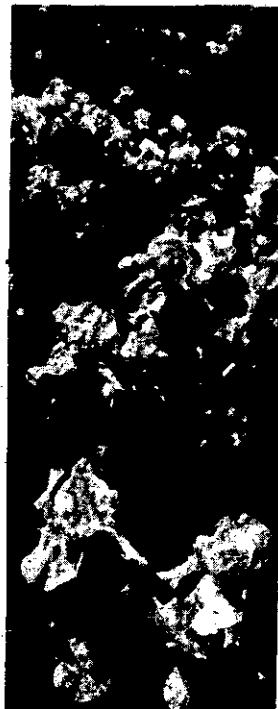

The bill, recommended by the Governor in his Annual Message to the 1969 Legislature, is effective on that date but applies only to district attorneys elected, re-elected or appointed after that time. Requirements of the act are expected to affect 23 counties.

District Attorneys subject to the new law will be required to devote their whole time to their duties as such and will be prohibited from engaging in the private practice of law or in any other profession that would interfere with their respective duties.

Declaring that full-time service by district attorneys in populous counties "is essential to an effective, modern law enforcement system that seeks a proper balance between the rights of the accused and the rights of the public," the Governor added:

"The district attorney is the key administrative officer in the processing of criminal cases. He is expected to give important guidance to the police in difficult law enforcement problems. He makes important decisions on whether to prosecute particular cases. He must exercise a great power of discretion in recommending lesser pleas and dismissals in appropriate cases.

"Yet in many of our larger counties, where crime problems are often most acute, the district attorney still engages in private law practice. This leads inevitably to conflicts between the demands of the office and the demands of private practice."

Ruling Debated

The Raveny-Coeymans Selkirk Board of Education has adopted a wait-and-see attitude on the problem of two junior high school teachers whose hair and moustache length were judged to exceed "reasonable standards."

It was indicated at a special board meeting that R-C-S school policymakers will await a ruling from Acting State Education Commissioner Ewald B. Nyquist on the case of teachers John Collins and Justine Holden.

Both teachers were to have been suspended after they refused to shorten their hair or trim their moustaches to conform with the instructions of R-C-S Superintendent Frank J. Fillippone. Attorneys for the State Teachers Association, however, filed a petition with the acting state commissioner and Dr. Nyquist granted a stay of execution on the dismissal order.

THREE PARENTS attending this meeting spoke on behalf of the two teachers, and five mothers sitting in the front row indicated displeasure that the controversy had been brought to public attention. Such matters should be handled quietly, they said.

The board discussed routing matters on the agenda for about an hour and then Board President Prescott Archibald announced: "The primary purpose of this meeting is to discuss the budget. If there are no more questions, we will move into executive session."

The first question came from Kenneth Livengood of Ravena who asked if any other letters concerning hair length or moustache length had been sent to other R-C-S teachers. Superintendent Filipone replied, "No."

MR. LIVENGOOD then asked the superintendent if he had taken any action against female readers because of their manner of dress. "What are your plans?" he asked Dr. Fillippone.

The superintendent did not indicate any plans but he defended his action by saying: "We try to get children to follow what we think are reasonable standards," indicating that teachers should set the example.

Mr. Livengood then inquired in Mr. Collins "was dressed like this" when he was engaged to teach in the R-C-S School District.

"As far as I can remember, his hair was not that long and he did not have a moustache," the superintendent replied. He added that as superintendent he attempts to adhere to policies of the R-C-S Board of Education.

A mother of a retarded child asked if the public will be informed of the meeting date at which the board will publicly discuss the Collins-Holden issue. After some hesitation, it was indicated that the public would be notified. The mother said she wanted to speak on behalf of Mr. Collins, a teacher of retarded children, whom she praised for his ability.

DAVID MARTIN of Coeymans Hollow rose to commend the board for its past "progressive" record, but expressed concern over the hair and moustache issue "because it is possibly setting the wrong value" for pupils.

"We should take a long look at this, Mr. Martin said, suggesting that school authorities might be considering the appearance of teachers rather than their abilities in the classroom.

Mr. Archibald, remarked that, while the school board's decisions sometimes "step on someone's toes," they are best for the entire school district.

"There will be a lot of soul-searching before this is settled," he concluded.

Running For Election

"Quality public education is Bethlehem's trademark. It must be preserved."

So says Mrs. Margrethe Powers of Elsmere, who is standing for election to a five-year term on the Bethlehem School Board. The election will be held June 11. Mrs. Powers, the mother of four, is a practicing attorney in Albany.

Mrs. Powers advocates passage of the budget submitted by the Bethlehem Central Board of Education, calling it "the minimum required to maintain schools of acceptable quality."

She says, "Before any further requests for funds are considered, the needs of our elementary schools must be met. Now we are spending only $26 a year for materials for each elementary pupil. That is not enough!"

Mrs. Powers believes that a woman would bring a new viewpoint to the School board."

Other planks in Mrs. Powers' platform are:

1. Long range planning for educational needs, "so we know where we are going."

2. More extensive use of volunteer help in the school district. "volunteers and save money and improve programs at the same time."

3. Better communication between the board and the people of Bethlehem.

4. A line by line budget, available to voters at least two weeks before the budget hearing.

5. Citizens of Clarksville and Glenmont should be able to vote in school elections at their local grade schools rather than the

Famous For Our Ice Cream

The TOLL GATE in Slingerlands . . .

Started in '49 with one idea in mind—to make ice cream as good as Mom made forty years ago in the old hand-turned ice and salt freezer. Mom made the "mix". Pop turned the freezer and we hung around anxiously waiting to lick the beater. Nothing in this world ever tasted so good as Mom's ice cream! And it's that hauntingly delicious memory that keeps us trying to make our Toll Gate ice cream measure up to Mom's.

Flag Day

New York State Conservation Commissioner R. Stewart Kilborne announced today that June 14, Flag Day, has been set for the official opening of the Prospect Mountain State Parkway.

Since the 1870's when the Prospect Mountain House catered to adventurous souls who made the trip to the 2,034-foot summit in horse-drawn carriages, the mountain has been a popular spot from which to enjoy panoramic views of beautiful Lake George and its surroundings.

In spite of the rough carriage road and a cable railway that operated for eight years at the turn of the century, the primary means of uphill transportation on Prospect Mountain has been foot travel. More than 8,000 hikers in a season have been logged as visitors to the summit fire tower.

Construction of the new five and a half mile highway to the top, discussed and planned for 40-odd years since George Foster Peabody presented the land and right-of-way to the state, was completed last fall. Though a summit building is still to be erected and other development is planned, the highway, parking and picnic facilities are ready for public use. Following the official opening on June 14, the Parkway will be open daily from 10 a.m. to dusk. Charge for cars using the highway will be $1.50. For buses, the charge will be $3.00. There is no additional charge for passengers.

Parking space for 800 cars is provided just below the summit, with "Viewmobiles" available to carry visitors from the parking area to the summit at no additional charge.

The new highway will be operated by the New York State Conservation Department's Division of Lands and Forests, which also is responsible for operation of the Whiteface Memorial Highway and other forest recreation facilities including Whiteface, Gore and Belleayre ski centers.

Parade

The Bethlehem Memorial Post No. 3185 Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U.S. invites the Veterans of Viet-Nam and any others that would like to participate to parade with them in uniform on Memorial Day May 30th, at 9:30 A.M.

Starting at Elsmere Ave. & Poplar Drive Elsmere N.Y.

Open house will be observed at the Post Rooms 404 Delaware Ave. Delmar, N.Y. after the Parade.

That's why it makes sense to warm it up with Modern Electric Heat. You can buy it by the room, and it's a cinch to install. In fact, it's the ideal way to stamp out any cold spot in your house... nursery, porch or playroom. Why not think about installing a roomful of Modern Electric Heat? ## Lions Club Choir

It has been announced by Mr. Sidney Kaplan, President of the Bethlehem Lions Club, that the choral ensemble from Colonie Central High School, under the direction of Robert Oliver, performed for their Club meeting, Wednesday, June 21, at the Nathaniel Adams Blanchard American Legion Post.

Mr. Oliver is a native of Delmar and a graduate of the Bethlehem Central Schools. He is a WW II Veteran and a Past Commander of Bethlehem Memorial Post, Veteran of Foreign Wars and a member of Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post. He is 3rd Vice-President elect of the Bethlehem Lions Club.

The Choral Ensemble, a group of 80 senior high school boys and girls. During the Easter Vacation the Ensemble made a 5 day 1,500 mile tour making stops in Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia and Ohio. The money to defray the cost of the trip was raised by the students thru concerts and an add and booster program. It is hoped that through these projects the trip will be almost completely cost free to the student.

In addition to many appearances in the Capitol District, the Choral Ensemble has also performed at the New York State World's Fair and at EXPO 67.

Gets Aid

The Village of Voorheesville is scheduled to receive $1,520 for a community youth recreation project.

The money is part of the aid program of the State Division for Youth.

The application for the state aid submitted by Voorheesville Mayor Richard Bailey indicated the village will spend a total of $3,200 during the year for organized youth activities.

Legislation Approved

Governor Rockefeller has approved legislation to authorize work release programs for those in State prisons, terming it "a significant further step in helping prison inmates to return to a normal and productive life."

Similar legislation enacted a year ago permits such programs in county jails and penitentiaries.

"The prevention of the return to crime of previously convicted criminals stands high among the goals that must be achieved if crime is to be reduced," the Governor said.

He explained that the newly approved bill "will permit the development of programs under which these inmates will be reintroduced into society for limited purposes under highly controlled circumstances, while continuing to reside in an institution.

"When implemented, these programs should increase the likelihood of successful parole adjustment for those inmates who participate, since they will have had both outside work experience and some degree of exposure to parole supervision before release from the institution."

NYS Executive Chamber

Legislation designed to insure the reception and treatment of emergency cases by general hospitals has been signed into law by Governor Rockefeller.

The bill, recommended by the State Department of Health, becomes effective July 1. It authorizes the State Commissioner of Health, or the Commissioner of Hospitals of the City of New York, to revoke, suspend or exert other sanctions against the operating certificate of any general hospital that refuses, or fails to admit or to provide for necessary emergency care and treatment for an unidentified person brought to it in an unconscious, seriously ill or wounded condition.

The Governor noted that a 1942 law requires all "public" hospitals to admit and provide hospitalization for unidentified and seriously ill persons.

"A survey of the New York City hospital system conducted by the State Commission of Investigation indicated, however," he said, "that some hospitals in New York City abdicate their responsibility to accept unidentified emergency cases, causing increased risk to

Interest Of Young People OGS News

A communal attempt to kick the tobacco habit, a growing interest on the part of young people in the occult, a rapid sterilization procedure for commuters in Bombay, and the job attitudes of airline stewardesses are among the subjects of filmed reports to be presented on NBC News FIRST TUESDAY, June 3, in color at 9 PM on WRGB, Channel 6.

The Five-Day Plan Smokers' Withdrawal Clinic, held at

Teacher Honored

Helen Hobbie

Miss Helen E. Hobbie, a Senior High math teacher at Bethlehem schools, has been selected as a Distinguished Alumnus by the Alumni Association of the State University at Albany.

In commemoration of the 125th anniversary of the State University, this award is being presented to a group of "distinguished alumni whose achievements bring honor to the entire alumni body and to the University."

Miss Hobbie was nominated and chosen under the selection criteria of Excellence in Teaching. She received both her B.A. and M.A. degrees from State University, and has been a teacher at Bethlehem High School for the past 13 years.

In 1967, Miss Hobbie was also honored for her teaching as the recipient of the Bertha E. Brimmer Award presented to "the outstanding teacher of the year" from the entire N.Y. State University alumni membership.

Hewlett High School in New York's Nassau County, will be shown in action on the program. The clinic, under auspices of the Nassau County Health Department is typical of week-long anti-smoking clinics promoted by the National Health Foundation.

"For years, Monopoly has been the leading American parlor game," says Bob Rogers, producing the "FIRST TUESDAY" feature on the young and the occult. "This year, Monopoly is being outsold by Ouija boards. The fact is the kids are interested in the occult, and we think this is part of trend."

A report on the sterilization clinic in Bombay Central Railway Station shows one of India's many birth-control programs in action. A station shed supposedly built of empty contraceptive boxes covered with slogans, serves as a surgical center where men can be sterilized in 10 minutes.

"Motivators," described as Runyonesque characters, hang around the station and supply the clinic with customers after touting the idea of permanent sterilization. The motivators are paid for every client they bring into the clinic.

NBC News correspondent Sander Vanocur is anchorman of FIRST TUESDAY. Eliot Frankel is the executive producer.

Read The Fine Print

"The vital processes of civilization require, and the combined interests of millions guarantee, the security of property. A society in which property was insecure would speedily degenerate into barbarism. A society in which property was absolutely secure, irrespective of all conceptions of justice in regard to the manner of its acquisition, would degenerate, not into barbarism, but death."

—Winston Churchill.

One perpetual law runs through all our dealings with others. It is that we may rightly possess nothing without rendering just compensation therefore.

Many detailed agreements and legal documents play a part in the secure ownership of your property. Before you buy or sell, be sure you read and understand them. If questions arise, ask your real estate agent. His training and experience enable him to help and advise you. It's part of his job.
