

editors, legislatures, parents and everybody;
this is your concern:

again we turn to archy the third, the grandson of archy, the famous cockroach of don marquis, for his help in shedding some light on pressing problems haunting our public schools.

we are indebted to him for that report on school taxes as they relate to other taxes. all kids, school people and school board members are very grateful to mehitabel and him.

we now have another real tough problem which we have asked him to look into. the problem: how in the world do we get the public to support public schools? his answer to our plea follows:

well, school board members, another curve you throw me, a screwy screwball curve yet. that is a real tough nut of a problem, the kind of a hard hard nut where you have to dig and dig and dig for the neaty goodies which just don't want to leave the shell.

you and your friends, if you have any, are lucky because you just happened to have done a little research on the nutty nobby or knotty nutty problem you pose.

most people will support what they believe in and what they understand. all you have to do is to see that they believe in public education and understand what the schools are doing for your citizens of tomorrow.

easier said than done, you say. i know, i know. mehitabel tells me she knows some parents who believe in public schools, that is, for other parents' kids but not their own kids. she also tells me of other parents who believe in the schools even to the extent of sending their young ones to the public schools but — they are much much too busy busy to find out what goes on inside the school building. without the knowledge about the schools there is no understanding, mehitabel says — and she's right. without the understanding, there will be little or only lukewarm support — mehitabel is right again. she's a wise kitty kat.

then there are other parents who take a very active interest in and learn as much as they can about the goings-on in school, at least in the school where their pride-and-joys go to. why they might even learn some things from the kids themselves — if the kids want to tell them — but don't count too much on that. this interest of many parents in what the schools are doing for their little ones gradually lessens and lessens as the little ones become bigger ones. then the bigger ones tell mom and dad less and less about school as they wudge through the higher grades. less knowledge, less understanding, less support. you can see that you are fighting a losing battle in getting public support for your public schools — even from the parents who have kids in the schools. i told you that you were a damn fool for becoming a school board member. if i didn't believe so in public schools myself, i wouldn't even know you. back to the report.

then you have the parents whose kids are no longer in school, the parents who send their kids to non-public schools, the people who have no kids — all a part of the public, all a part of the voting people who will decide how many school dollars you can have to pay the teachers and to run the schools. looks pretty pretty dark and dismal, doesn't it? at this point in our consideration of your problem, mehitabel and i were about ready to throw in the sponge and to recommend that you close down the schools and let the parents teach the kids. it used to be done that way, i understand, back when our country was still wearing diapers. why not try it again for a year or two? a month or two? a week or two? how about a day? an hour? no, mehitabel and i decided not even a minute, a second. but what to do? what to do? what to do?

we decided that your public schools will be only as good - or as bad - as the public wants them to be. no, "want" is not nearly strong enough. we say that your public schools will be only as good as the people ACTIVELY HELP TO MAKE THEM. parenthetical surprise! with mehitabel's extra weight i was able to hit the typewriter's keys hard enough to achieve those capital letters which spell out something pretty darn important. mehitabel agrees, oh how she agrees.

you will need lots and lots and lots of people becoming actively involved on behalf of the schools. first we were going to recommend that you enlist friends of school board members in this effort. on second short thought, we quickly realized that you will need a helluva lot more people than that. parents and non-parents, teachers and non-teachers from the schools, children and youth, school administrators and even school board members - all need to work together in harmony to vigorously interpret school programs services and activities to more and more of the voting public. if the people understand, they will support your public schools.

at the same time you had better see to it that all of these people get after governor rocky and the state legislators for more state dollars for our public schools. also, have them get after the county legislators for a fair share of county sales tax dollars for our schools. you don't want to ask the local voting people to assume the full burden (or privilege) of your local school budget increase you know darn well you will have - unless you are prepared to cut program, services, and activities out of the offerings to your children and to your youth. on the other hand, your local voting people may be willing to pay for the full increase out of kindness for governor rocky and the state law makers - but don't count on it.

mehitabel and i are really worried about our public schools. right now, there just are not enough people asking the state legislators for more school dollars. there just are not enough who give a damn. mehitabel heard a real shocker today. one of the leading state law makers, who has been a real strong supporter of public schools, said that his main has been running about ten to one against more state dollars for public education. we are truly truly worried worried worried. what to do? what to do? what to do? and who is to do it? who is to do it?

worriedly yours,

archy the third in consultation with mehitabel

this is archy the third's second report. he has agreed to help with other school problems. bless archy the third and mehitabel.

State Cites GI Killed In Vietnam

The Conspicuous Service Cross, New York State's highest military honor, has been awarded to a young Selkirk Marine killed in action last summer.

Pfc. Jared A. Frisbie was killed in action Aug. 19 while under hostile rocket fire during a night operation in Quang Nam Province, Vietnam.

In Vietnam only 14 days, he was a member of L Company, 3d Battalion, 5th Marine Regiment, 1st Marine Division.

On behalf of Governor Rockefeller and the Legislature, the award was presented to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Frisbie, at their home on Pictway Road, Selkirk, by E. Thomas Dedeo of the State Division of Veteran's Affairs.

A graduate of Ravena-Coeymans-Selkirk High School, Pfc. Frisbie enlisted in the Marine Corps last February. He was 20 years old.

Captain Jack Adams

The State University at Albany basketball team posted a 6-4 record over the first half of the season, guided by captain and three-year veteran Jack Adams, a 1966 graduate of Clatsop A. Bouton High School, Vooheesville. Now a senior at the university, Jack has been a first string guard for coach Dick Sanders since his first game as a sophomore. During that 2 1/2 year period, Albany has won 42 games and lost just 14.

This year, the 5'9" peppercorn is averaging 9.5 points a game and is second on the team in assists (18). Despite having to play at a height disadvantage against most opponents, Adams is one of the toughest defensive players on the Great Danes, who ranked 16th in the country in small college defense. Through 10 games, Albany was permitting its foe only 62.1 points per contest.

His high-arching, long-range jump shots keep enemy defenses from sagging back and clogging

As a freshman, he led the team with an 18.9 scoring average and has been consistent as a varsity performer, averaging 10.0 and 9.0 points a game as a sophomore and junior. He has played every game since joining the varsity squad three years ago. His individual high game on the varsity was a 19-point output against Uti-ta as a soph and he has scored in double figures in exactly half of his 56 varsity contests.

At Voorheesville, Jack lettered three years each in football, basketball and baseball and was captain of the football and basketball teams his senior year. He is a mathematics major at Albany, a member of the Edward E. On the other hand, do the citizens of Bethlehem know what items are mandated? What items receive priority in case of budget cuts? Why do these items receive priority? Is there a formulated, long-range program to which the board addresses itself?

The Elsmere P-TA hopes that before arriving at the meeting, everyone will consider some personal feelings, such as: How much are we, as parents and citizens of Bethlehem, willing to pay in time, effort, and taxes for our schools? How important are the schools in shaping the lives of our children? And are the schools working toward the things we feel important for our children?

Apply Now!

The Community Nursery School of Voorheesville, located at the United Methodist Church on Maple Avenue is now in its fourth year. It is a cooperative nursery school, sponsored by the church and open to the community.

In order to keep pace with the growth of this area, there will now be a morning and an afternoon session. Both sessions will be taught by qualified nursery school teachers aided by the parents whose children are enrolled in the school. Participation in a cooperative nursery can be a rewarding experience for both parent and child.

Classes will be Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9:00-11:30 A.M. and 12:30-3:00 P.M. starting in October.

Applications for October 1970 will be available from February 1 onward both at the church and from the registration chairman (Nancy Dolin, 54 Scotch Pine Drive, Voorheesville - 785-4085). These will be accepted in the order in which they are received, with the older children being placed in the afternoon class. A balance of eight boys and eight girls per class will be maintained if at all possible. Children who are four years old before December 1, 1970 are eligible to apply.

Please note: Applications will be accepted through the mail only.

New Gym to Open, Someday

Ask Bethlehem Central Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Richard Moomaw, athletic director Joe Guerrero, basketball coach Dale Walts, the BCHS student or any Delmar resident when the new BCHS gym will open and you get the same response:

A long harty snicker.

And it isn't the sort of snicker you would hear following a Bob Hope comedy line, either. It's that a "your guess is as good as my mind" kind of snicker.

"That's probably the best reaction that we can give," says Eagles' coach Walts. "I guess we've learned to be that way over the past couple of months."

What has happened over these past couple of months is really a hurry up and wait situation. Pupils have been waiting

"Oh! My lovely draperies!"

Last month's snow blitz and freezing weather brought real anguish to many home makers when they discovered that water had seeped in from the roof and stained their beautiful draperies.

In most cases these draperies can be salvaged. But a word of caution: do not wait until the Spring before you have the damaged drapes refinished. If you do, there is a danger that the water stains will have become permanently "set." That's why it is so important that you act NOW!

Bear in mind that it is one thing to merely "dry clean" draperies, but quite another to undertake the critical stain removal and refinishing. There are not many establishments which have the space, the special equipment or the skilled personnel to handle this meticulous work.

At Killip's all draperies, whether lined or unlined, are processed on our own specially designed TRUE-MEASURE equipment. That's why we can guarantee (1) no shrinkage; (2) perfect decorator folds molded by steam and controlled tension; and (3) draperies that will "hang" with eye-pleasing grace.

The demand for our TRUE-MEASURE drapery service has already started and is bound to become inordinately high. Best to take our advice and act NOW so that you won't get caught in the log jam already building up. Thanks for your cooperation.

anxiously for the new facility to open after spending their gym classes in cramped quarters the last two years and the Eagles' basketball team could hardly wait for the Suburban Council season to start so that they could perform before 2,000 fans, rather than the 1,000 in the old gym.

But after five months of school, gym classes have only been able to operate in the new gym on an off and on basis because of yet to be completed construction. And when gym classes have been held in the new facility, they have been held amidst the construction workers.

And for the same reason, the basketball team, after six home dates, has not been allowed to use the gym for games.

"Last September we were told the gym was to open in November," said Dr. Moomaw. "In November we were told it would open in December. And so it has gone."

The opening of the gym, part of a $3.5 million dollar school enlargement program, has been postponed because of the following construction reasons, according to Dr. Moomaw:

One Section of the bleachers fails to open under the strength of the motor drive.

- The Floor in one small section has already started to buckle.

- The lighting at one basket is twice as bright as the other.

- The heating system doesn't work.

- There's padding behind one basket to cushion a player if he bumps the wall but the section behind the other basket isn't fully protected.

"Needless to say, everyone is very disappointed and very unhappy about the whole situation," says Dr. Moomaw. "I think it's a real fine facility basically and, it's going to do what it was designed to do (give valuable added gym space). I think it should serve us well. But I frankly don't care for the few bugs in it."

Once the new gym is opened, says athletic Director Guerrero, the old gym, which was constructed in 1951-52 will be used primarily, but not totally, for girls' recreational activities.

The BCHS basketball team, operating out of the old gym in its home games, has played the majority of its contests, before capacity crowds and several times the administration has had to turn away fans.

Late last Friday everything look set for the Eagles' game against Columbia in the new facility, (aptly called the Eagles' Nest) but because of the construction flaws the general contractor - McManus, Longe and Brockwell, Inc. of Latham - failed to give their okay for public use of the gym.

"The team practiced two weeks in advance in the new gym for last Friday's game so the players would get used to the new layout," said coach Walts, "but Thursday I got wind we might have to play in the old gym so we practiced there. I was worried about the psychological affect would have on the team."

But as it turned out, it didn't do a bit of harm at all to bid the old gym farewell (again). The Eagles turned in their best performance of the season, beating Columbia, 80-54.

"We had an overflow crowd for that game because people had heard that we were going to use the new gym and they wanted to see it," said Guerrero. "But we had to use the old gym and had to turn away quite a few at the door."

As it is Feb. 6 is now the date, the school is hoping the team can play its first game in the new facility (against Niskayuna). "I believe it when I see it," commented Guerrero.

To St. Lawrence

St. Lawrence University announced recently the names of 102 high school seniors who have been accepted for admission under its "early decision" plan.

According to Richard A. Metcalf, acting director of admissions, the plan is designed for those high school seniors who have decided that St. Lawrence University is their only college choice and who present unusually high qualities for admission.

Accepted from Delmar is Le E. Bailey, 540 Huron Road.

Report

It is the aim the Environmental Improvement Association to keep all interested people informed as to what the committee has done and possibly what we hope to do. With the ground covered by three feet of snow, you may think it's too early to be thinking of beautification. When the seed catalogs arrived the first of January, it was the signal to start planning your Spring garden.

No nation is any better than the people who live in it. This runs down the line to cities, villages, to the individual homes. Each resident should ask "What can I do to improve my home - its appearance?" It doesn't have to be a major operation. It can be a pick-up, paint-up or plant-up. Sow grass, plant shrubs and flowers. You improve the worth of your investment in your home and help to improve our town.

We have in our town a place of beauty. With everyone's help it

GOD AND COUNTRY AWARD TO BOY SCOUT - On February 8, Boy Scout Sunday, at the 9:30 A.M. worship service at the First United Methodist Church of Delmar, David Gazzetta will receive his God and Country Award. Since he is now a Life Scout, the God and Country Award will be worn above his rank badge, to show a higher prestige. It is worn side by side with the Eagle. David is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Vincent Gazzetta, 40 Poplar Drive. It takes at least a full year to earn the God and Country Award, and has quite a range of activities. There are six service projects, ranging in David's case from janitor and yard work for the church, to wrapping and mailing medical instruments to Vietnam. He memorized Bible verse, made maps of missions overseas, visited the Salvation Army headquarters, took leadership in the youth fellowship at the church. David is also captain of the acolyte group at the church. He has been to church camp and also to the Boy Scout camp at Philmont, New Mexico. These are a few of the things he has done to earn this award. Pictured is David Gazzetta receiving the award in the sanctuary of the church with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Vincent Gazzetta looking on. Rev. Charles Wolfe, associate pastor of the church and the counselor for the God and Country Award program, is pinning on the medal.

will become an outstandingly attractive place. People will say, "I would like to live there."

Our committee planted the circle at the four corners last spring. This fall over 100 tulips, donated by Schnurr & Wood, were planted. Later the evergreen bows and the live tree, donated by a member of the committee, were put in. Come spring, the evergreens will come out before the tulips bloom. Later it will be planted for the summer.

We have assurances that the new Slingerlands road will be grassed and trees planted.

There are several projects in the planning stages. These will be reported on later.

Let's all make a resolve not to litter. This applies to old as well as young. Litter comes about through carelessness of people and only from people.

Delmar Camera Club News:

Have you ever wondered how those beautiful, natural looking wildlife pictures find their way into books and magazines. In some instances, they may be the work of Ralph Palmer, State Zoologist in the State Museum and Sciences Service. Mr. Palmer has written and illustrated several books, and for the 1954 Doubleday publication of "North American Mammals," he painted all 40 plates. Since Mr. Palmer photographs wildlife all over the world, he has at his fingertips a file of over 20,000 pictures taken for the purpose of having reference material for his sketches and illustrations. He has a PhD from Cornell University and taught at Vassar before coming to this area.

The February 10 meeting of Delmar Camera Club to be held at 8 P.M. at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, will feature a lecture and demonstration on "Photographing Wildlife" by Zoologist Palmer. He will show 16mm film taken in Alaska as well as slides and prints from various parts of the world. The equipment and procedures used from various parts of the world. The equipment and procedures used for photographing animals and birds will be explained, and a question and answer period will follow.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

At the last competition of Delmar Camera Club, top places in the color slide competition of "People in Action" went to Joe Dell for "The Potter;" Mary Johnston for "Cleanup;" and Howard Gallaher for "The Artist." Black and white print winners were Alice Porter for "The Woodcarver," Florence Becker for "The Giant and the Pygmy," and Ross Hendrick for "Ah, It's Cold."

In the general competition, "Yosemite Valley" entered by Howard Gallaher, "Reeds" by Florence Becker, and "Rio Grande" by Elton Lowerree, won in the color slide division, with "Alpine Glacier" by Alice Porter taking first place in the black and white print division.

Richard Nowitz, a teacher at Albany High School and a knowledgeable photographer, was commentator and judge. His honest, forthright criticism of the entires started everyone thinking, and it is expected that more original pictures with instant impact will be the result of his efforts to arouse the club from its complacency.

The photography class which meets at 7 P.M. on the tenth will cover "Close-Ups."

Successful Test

On January 24 members of the Bethlehem Amateur Radio Emergency Corps under the leadership of Mr. Spencer L. McCarty, W2GTI, Emergency Coordinator of the American Radio Relay League, conducted a simulated Emergency Test of the Bethlehem Town's emergency plan. The purpose of this plan is to provide the Town of Bethlehem with emergency communications facilities in the event of a disaster that might damage or incapacitate the normal communications facilities. The local Amateur Radio Emergency Corps (AREC) is a group of 32 amateur radio operators who live in the town and have volunteered their time and radio equipment to the end that Bethlehem will never find itself without communication.

tion as a result of failure or overloading of telephone or power circuits and is part of a nationwide organization known as the Amateur Radio Public Service Corps.

This year's test demonstrated the mobility and versatility of the amateur owned stations put at the disposal of the town's needs. Four of the amateurs' cars equipped year around with two way mobile radios called at the homes of officers of the town and secured messages for town officers in other parts of the state and nation. An amateur radio station is always on the ready at the Police Department Building on Adams Street and the call letters K2BUV have been assigned by the Federal Communication Commission since 1952 for the Amateur use. Since the new building was constructed in 1967, Town Supervisor Bertram E. Kohinke has made sure that facilities were made available for amateur emergency communication adjacent to the communications of the Police Department, the Fire Department and the recently authorized Highway, Sewer and Water Department communications.

In the 1970 Simulated Emergency Test the local network of Amateur Stations was tied in with the city of Albany but also with the National Traffic System Division of ARPSC. Messages were sent to Alaska and many of the other states as well as cities and towns in New York State.

Messages were received for state and town officers from other states and points.

To test the speed and reliability of communication, under simulated emergency conditions with other parts of the state, Mr. Martin Cross, Superintendent of Highways was in touch with Superintendents in Ontario and Allegheny Counties. Dr. Albert Harris of Slingerlands, in charge of the Blood Bank of the Red Cross was in contact with the Rochester Red Cross Director and one in Saranac Lake.

Although these messages were of a test nature they demonstrated the potential of Amateur radio and gave an additional training under field conditions to the operators, many of whom handle messages as a hobby for servicemen throughout the year. Mr. Kenneth Kroth, WB2VJL of Elm Avenue was recently elected manager of the New York State net for the year 1970. This net operates 365 days a year. Other town officers participating in this year's test who volunteered messages were: Margaret Kneff, Town Clerk, Harry Rezemini, Town Justice, Robert Collins, Building inspector, Alval Worth, Town Engineer in addition to Supervisor Kohinke and many others.

The following are the names and FCC license signs of those local amateurs who participated:

Art Exhibit

Frederick W. Stolz, president of City & County Savings Bank, announces the opening, on Monday, February 2, of what many consider to be this area's art event of the year: the 10th Annual All-Member Show of the Albany Artists Group.

The exhibit of paintings, prints and sculpture in all media will be open to the public in City & County Savings Bank's Community Exhibit Room at 100 State Street, Albany, from February 2 through February 26. Hours are 9 A.M. to 3 P.M. daily, Thursdays until 8 P.M.

Commanding wider public attention and critical acclaim every year, the show will display the works of a 200-member group which includes many of upstate New York's most prominent artists.

Speaker

A national flavor will be added to the Albany political pot when President Nixon's choice of Director of the Peace Corps Joseph H. Blatchford, arrives in Albany to address local Republicans on the occasion of their Lincoln Day Dinner. The event is scheduled for Tuesday, February 17th, 7:30 P.M., at the Thruway Hyatt House on Washington Avenue in Albany and marks the 22nd annual such affair sponsored by the Albany County Republican Committee.

Joseph H. Blatchford

Mr. Blatchford who before becoming Peace Corps Director at the age of 34, headed up a privately supported, non-profit, organization called ACCION in Latin America for nine years. A community development program designed to help slum-dwellers set up self-help enterprises, it is estimated that nearly 300,000 persons have been helped by projects the program has set in motion. The dynamic new director of the vast federal agency has long been motivated with the objective of helping people improve their way of life. It was one of the reasons why the choice was so logical for his appointment to head up the "helping hand" agency.

Joseph C. Frangella, Albany County GOP Chairman, in announcing the appointment of Assemblyman Raymond Skuse, 102nd District, as General Chairman of the event, stated that "this dinner will mark the Kick-off for the most important campaign effort ever launched by the Albany County Republican Committee with an all-out drive waged to re-elect Representative Daniel E. Button (29th Congressional District), Senator Walter B. Langley, (40th Senatorial District), and Assemblymen Fred Field, Jr., (103rd District) and Raymond Skuse. Mr. Frangella also named Mrs. Spiro Vass of Loudonville, President of the North Colonie Women's Republican Club, to serve as Co-chairman of the Dinner.

Top committee appointments made by Assemblyman Skuse include: Kenneth S. MacAffer, Jr., Menands, Advertising Chairman; Charles E. Redmond, Delmar, Ticket Chairman and Robert Bush, New Scotland, Co-chairman; Arnold Heart, Albany, Club Co-ordinator Chairman; Edward Winders, Colonie, Arrangements Chairman and Lionel Sacks, Colonie, Co-chairman; Robert E. Richey, McKownville, Publicity Chairman and Mrs. Robert E. Richey, Co-chairman; Mrs. Carl Warner, East Berne, Communications Chairman; and Charles T. Lanigan, Jr., Glenmont, Youth Coordinator Chairman.

nounced the appointment of two area businessmen to the Board. They are John M. Watson, President of Tobin Packing Company, Albany and Freeman T. Putney, Jr., Vice President of the Investment Division, State Bank of Albany.

Mr. Watson attended the University of Iowa. He joined Tobin

Higher Interest

Lester W. Herzog, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer of National Commercial Bank and Trust Company announced recently that The Bank will pay new higher rates of interest on savings accounts, savings certificates and certificates of deposit as of Friday, January 23, 1970.

Mr. Herzog stated the new ruling of the Federal Reserve Board permits The Bank to increase interest rates on these accounts. The maximum interest rates allowable under the new regulation will be paid.

Type It

Employers who use typewriters or other business machines to prepare their quarterly employment tax return, Form 941, help to reduce processing costs for the government.

Donald T. Hartley, District Director of International Revenue for Northeastern N.Y. State, pointed out that special optical scanning equipment used by the Social Security Administration permits high speed accurate processing of typed or printed wage data on Schedule A, Form 941. This equipment is unable to read handwritten documents.

Handwritten returns are still acceptable, however. Mr. Hartley asked employers who do send in handwritten returns to write legibly.

File Early

The Internal Revenue Service has issued an appeal to 4,731,000 individual taxpayers in New York state to file their returns early so it can return an estimated $932 million in refunds as soon as possible.

IRS explained the early filing by those due refunds will not only enable it to return the overpayments speedily but help reduce processing costs at its Service Center in Andover, Massachusetts. All federal income tax returns from New York and New England are to be filed directly with the Service Center this year.

The estimated $932 million in refunds, IRS reveals, are as follows: Brooklyn district, $341 million; Manhattan, $270 million; Buffalo, $244 million and $77 million in the Albany district.

In the New York and New England areas, IRS reported, a total of $1.5 billion may be due 7.5 million taxpayers in the Form 1040 category.

IRS suggests taxpayers due these refunds should file as soon as they receive their 1969 Form W-2 (statement of taxes paid on wages) which is due from employers, including city and state departments, by February 2. The Form W-2 is to be attached face-up on the back of the new Form 1040. IRS also reminds taxpayers that those who had more than one job are to attach the additional W-2s.

Speaker

Russell A. Wylie, Electrical Studies Engineer, retired from the Niagara-Mohawk Power Corp., will be the guest speaker at the Albany Chapter of Administrative Management Society at its dinner meeting at 6:30 P.M. Tuesday, Feb. 10, at the Tom Sawyer Motor Inn, Western Ave., Albany.

"Transportation For Now and For The Future" will be the title of his speech, and he will be introduced by Edmund L. Heffner, Office Manager of Addressograph-Multigraph Corp., a Past President of the Albany Chapter and Director of the Administrative Services Division.

Mr. Wylie graduated from Tufts University with a B.S.E.E. degree and worked for the New York Power & Light Corp. as a District Engineer and Division Electric Superintendent. He is a member of the New York State Society of Professional Engineers and a Past President of the Albany County Chapter for this organization. Currently, he is a Consulting Engineer engaged in work for the Niagara-Mohawk Power Corp. where before retirement he was Engineering Supervisor-Special Electric Studies for them.

Reservations are being handled by Miss Alice Nielsen, Gabriel Industries, Nassau.

New Treasurer

James J. Mason, of Guilderland, assistant treasurer of the Albany Savings Bank, has been named treasurer of the 1970 Leukemia Fund drive in the Capital District.

Mr. Mason is also serving as treasurer of the Upstate New York chapter of the Leukemia Society of America, which conducts the area campaign to raise funds for the fight against leukemia.

The leukemia drive is now in progress in Albany, Schenectady and Rensselaer Counties. It seeks a total of $60,000 for leukemia research, patient aid and education. Some 4,600 volunteers are conducting the door-to-door phase of the drive.

Mr. Mason, whose appointment as treasurer was announced by Sidney Stein, Jr., chairman of the leukemia drive, is a native of Troy. He is an alumnus of Russell Sage College, the American Institute of Banking, and Brown University's Graduate School of Savings Banking.

Active in many civic undertakings, Mr. Mason is in charge of advertising, public relations and marketing for Albany Savings Bank.

Leukemia is second only to accidents as a cause of death among American children. Adults past the age of 40 are susceptible to a chronic form of the disease. Overall, leukemia and related diseases account for 30,000 deaths annually in the U.S.

Times have changed and methods of settling arguments are a bit more civilized. Opponents now may choose that most urbane of practices — parliamentary procedure.

A code of rules employed by an assembly to arrive at majority decisions, parliamentary procedure was formalized in America by Thomas Jefferson. Attempting to achieve an "accuracy of business, economy of time . . . uniformity and impartiality" in early Senate sessions, he committed the first set of rules to paper.

Jefferson's rules were used wisely and well through the formative years of the nation. But rules used by the legislatures were extremely complex and not very useful to those unskilled in legal procedure.

Realizing this, General Henry M. Robert in 1876 simplified the rules of the U.S. House of Representatives, adapting them for the use of "ordinary societies." "Robert's Rules of Order" has been the bible of parliamentary law since that time. It has helped bring coherence out of chaos at meetings of every kind of or-

THIS IS HOW early man settled his differences. Times have changed and now opponents solve their problems the civilized way, by following parliamentary procedure. "Your Parliamentary Partner: Mr. Main Motion," a new color filmstrip produced by the National P-TA, gives a concise, authoritative presentation of the main elements of parliamentary procedure and makes the learning process a pleasurable one.

A recently released color filmstrip, "Your Parliamentary Partner: Mr. Main Motion" fills the need for a concise, authoritative presentation of the main elements of parliamentary procedure and makes the learning process a pleasurable one.

Perfect Accident

It took a woman to have the perfect automobile accident.

Her case, one of the more than 10 million insurance claims, handed last year by Aetna Life & Casualty tops the list of 1969's weirdies."

The lady, a resident of Montreal, Canada, had this to offer by way of describing her accident: "My car had sustained no damage whatever and the other car somewhat less."

That may be true, but explanations have a way of stretching the truth. Consider the driver of a 10-ton truck was accounted for in this accident this way: "The Volkswagen passed and stopped in front of me in such a way that he damaged the rear of his car on my front bumper." The truck driver gets a periodical bonus for accident-free driving.

Youthfulness, as well as youth, had its say in 1969. How else could you account for two blithe grandmothers, aged 60 and 71, who tangled with a car and a truck in separate incidents — both while riding tricycles? Or the 81-year-old Hopkinsville, Ky., man who met misfortune while driving into the local "lover's lane."

Also have their problems were the Atlanta motorist who ran into a palm tree after noticing his passenger's hair on fire and the Vermont man who slammed into a guard rail while engrossed in a conversation with his dog.

From the mid-west comes the report of a crash involving a car pulling a two-headed cow. After investigation, the anxious Aetna claim man was able to deadpan: "We were greatly relieved to learn the cow did not have a double whiplash."

A Virginia man wasn't so lucky when he attempted to roll a monstrous snowball into his neighbor's lawn. Things really got rolling as the five-foot-wide sphere pinned the prankster by his ankle. He dislodged himself and ran down the hill only to be mowed flat by the pursuing Frankenstein. Days later his hat was found still imbedded in the thawing monster.

One accident, it seems, begets another. To save his house a Salt Lake City man swiftly threw a flaming can of oil and gasoline out an upstairs window. The house was spared, but not the man's car which was turned to ashes as the blazing container scored a direct hit.

In Topeka, a man, unable to reach a doctor after thinking he'd swallowed a piece of glass, hit upon a home remedy. As he waited for the laxative to take effect, his house became very warm. His urge to turn on the air conditioner was hastened by another urge. In a rush he turned the machine on too high and sat helplessly as it went up in smoke.

A Whittier, Calif., man also could blame glass for his problems. He chomped on a piece while enjoying a sandwich in the bathtub. Minutes later, after placing the offending sliver neatly on the floor, he hopped out of the tub and gashed his foot on it. He watched silently as a doctor put six stitches in his foot.

In Cincinnati a washing machine salesman gave a safety demonstration that left both him and his customers gasping. He placed his tie in the ringer and came within a scissor's snip of having his neck wrung too. He now sells sewing machines.

In Huntsville, Ala., an Aetna claim man was lost for an explanation. His client, a 62-year-old woman, asked why she was being billed for a circumcision after her ear operation. Neither her doctor nor the hospital could offer any reasons either.

No explanation was needed last summer in Reading, Pa. The actor's part called for him to fall down a flight of steps and injure himself. It was a perfect performance, reports the Aetna claim man who paid the $116 medical bill.

Deductions

The amount New York taxpayers can deduct for sales tax on Federal tax returns can be found in tables printed in the 1040 tax instructions.

Donald T. Hartley, District Director of Internal Revenue Service for Northeastern New York, said the tables show the sales tax deductions by family size and income.

The table is based on consumer spending patterns and shows the average sales tax paid by New York residents, he said.

The sales tax on automobiles purchased is not included in the table. Taxpayers who bought cars in 1969 may add deductible sales taxes paid on them to the amount shown in the table.

The table is furnished as a guide for the convenience of taxpayers who do not keep detailed records of payments. Taxpayers who prefer to deduct the actual amount of state sales taxes paid during the year should have records as proof of payment, Mr. Hartley said.

Luncheon

B'nai B'rith, Gideon Lodge #140 will host a Naturalization Luncheon for approximately 40 new citizens, together with their families and friends.

The luncheon will be held at noon, February 10, at the Ambassador Restaurant, Albany. The guest speaker at this event will be State Senator Walter B. Langley.

The Naturalization ceremony will take place, prior to the luncheon, in the State Supreme Court in Albany with Supreme Court Justice Conway presiding. The public is invited to attend as these 40 men and women assume the pride and responsibility of American Citizenship.

The luncheon is organized under the direction of William Kagan, Chairman of the Americanization and Naturalization Committee of Gideon Lodge. Assisting him will be Julius Feinstein and Samuel Ruge.

Northeastern New York State taxpayers who do this often catch income or deductions they have omitted or errors in arithmetic, he said.

Other things to check are whether the pre-addressed label attached to the return, all W-2 forms are enclosed and the return is signed.

This review is time well spent as it may prevent delays in processing the return and speed up any refund due. Mr. Hartley said.

 10 LBS. IN 10 DAYS ON
 DIET

HOLLYWOOD, CALF. (Special) — This is the revolutionary grapefruit diet that everyone is suddenly talking about. Literally thousands upon thousands of copies have been passed from hand to hand in factories, plants and offices throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Word of its success has spread like wildfire. Because this is the diet that really works. We have testimonials in our files reporting on the success of this diet. If you follow it exactly, you should lose 10 pounds in 10 days. There will be no weight loss in the first four days. But you will suddenly drop 5 pounds on the 5th day. Thereafter you will lose one pound a day until the 10th day. Then you will lose 1½ pounds every two days until you get down to your proper weight. Best of all there will be no hunger pangs. Now revised and enlarged, this new diet plan lets you stuff yourself with foods that were formerly "forbidden", such as big steaks trimmed with fat, roast or fried chicken, rich gravies, mayonnaise, lobster swimming in butter, bacon fats, sausages and scrambled eggs. You can eat until you are full until you cannot possibly eat any more. And still lose 10 pounds in the first ten days plus 1½ pounds every two days thereafter until your weight is down to normal.
 The secret behind this new "quick weight loss" diet is simple. Fat does not form fat. And the grapefruit juice in this new diet acts as a catalyst (the "trigger"), to start the fat burning process. You stuff yourself on the permitted food listed in the diet plan, and still lose unsightly fat and excess body fluids. When the fat and bloat are gone you will cease to lose weight and your weight will remain constant. A copy of this new and startlingly successful diet plan can be obtained by sending $2 to GRAPEFRUIT DIET PUBLISHERS, 1213 Premier Way, Calgary 6, Alberta. Money-back guarantee. If after trying the diet plan you have not lost 7 pounds in the first seven days, and 1½ pounds every two days thereafter simply return the diet plan and your $2 will be refunded promptly and without argument. Tear out this message as a reminder. Decide now to regain the trim, attractive
 lunches and dinners.
