

First Community Picnic

A Community Picnic for the residents of the Town of Bethlehem is planned for October 4 from 2 to 6 P.M. at the 80-acre site on the corner of Elm Ave. and Rte. 32. Among several attractions at the picnic will be the Captain Samuel Nicholas Battalion of the Brigade of the American Revolution. The Brigade is a reactivated unit of the Continental Marines forerunners for the present United States Marines. The men are outfitted in authentic style Continental Marine uniforms adopted in 1779. The flintlock muskets, the fifes, drums and music have been researched extensively to reflect the post Revolutionary War Period. The Brigade has participated in numerous Eastern United States Regional Drills, in Parades and Competition Musket Shoots.

The picnic will be the first public event to take place on the newly acquired site. Guided tours will be available for those who are interested to see the site. Refreshments will be available. Please bring your own picnic

Four Sémifinalists

Four Bethlehem Central seniors have been named semifinalists in the 1970-71 National Merit Scholarship Program. They are: Richmond Ackerman, Alice Clark, Clifford Hendler, and Francis Zeronda.

The 14,750 semifinalists appointed last week are among the nation's most intellectually talented high school seniors. They will compete for some 3,000 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1971.

Richard Ackerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Ackerman, lives at 24 East Bayberry, Glenmont. He was awarded a Brown Hasen Science Fellowship this past summer. Class president during his sophomore year, Ackerman is a member of the Bethlehem Central Physics Club, National Honor Society and enjoys playing the guitar and golfing.

Alice Clark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark of 30 McKinley Dr., Delmar. A member of the National Honor Society and Girls' Athletic Association, her hobbies include playing the guitar, folk singing, and astronomy.

Cliff Hendler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Sander, 36 Devon Rd., Elsmere, is Honor Society President, a member of the Debate Club and Student Senate, and the student representative to the Community Relations Committee of the School Board. His hobbies include stamp collecting, reading, tennis and soccer.

Francis J. Zeronda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zeronda, 15 Lyons Ave., Delmar, is a member of the National Honor Society, Debate Club and plays soccer.

All four top students are presently undecided about the colleges they will attend.

Here Are the Answers to the questions of how and when the flag may be flown:

(These excerpts are from a letter written by Major General Kenneth G. Wickham, USA, in reply to a letter asking questions about the flag.)

"The rules and customs pertaining to the display and use of the Flag of the United States by civilians, civilian groups or organizations are contained in Chapter 10, Title 36 of the United States Code, extracts from which are inclosed.

"The Code does not prohibit display of the flag at night or during inclement weather, nor does it require special authorization to do so. Section 174(a) of Title 36 states: "It is the universal custom to display the flag only from sunrise to sunset on buildings and on stationary flag-staffs in the open. However, the flag may be displayed at night upon special occasions when it is desired to produce a patriotic effect." This practice is presently being employed by many individuals and organizations for a variety of patriotic reasons and is considered permissible and in accordance with the provisions of the Flag Code.

"Those who fly the flag day and night should insure that it is made of material strong enough to withstand such wear and that it is replaced promptly when it begins to show signs of wear. While it would appear appropriate to illuminate the flag after sunset so that passersby will be aware of its display, the Code does not require that it be illuminated and its display without illumination is not considered an impropriety."

Y.E.S. Report

The Town of Bethlehem Youth Employment Service opened June 9 on Adams Street, across from The Coffee House, with the purpose of finding jobs for Bethlehem Youth and to assist area employers in locating competent help from applicants who range from age fourteen through college.

The young people have done an outstanding job this summer and area employers have been most helpful. As a result, the score, as of Aug. 31, stands as follows:

Applications received	377
Jobs received	271
Jobs filled	265

Of the total applications received, some who registered in the beginning soon found full-time summer jobs on their own. Many others applied for specific categories which were not available or which involved problems of age, experience, transportation or hours.

Inasmuch as most applicants registered for summer work, an invitation has been issued, through the High School, for those students who are interested, to register for after-school work in various categories. While a portion of the summer workers will be lost to sports and other extra-curricular activities at school, it is expected that a number of students who have not previously registered or were otherwise occupied this summer will now register.

Heaviest employer demands this season have been for various types of yard work and house work, with a generous scattering of miscellaneous categories, including grandma-sitting, dog-sitting, cat-sitting and mouse-sitting (believe it or not, a girl handled this one!) Full time summer jobs were in short supply, however and from present indi-

Meeting

After selecting new officers for the coming school year a change of name for the group was the initial action at the organizational meeting of the Bethlehem Central Senior High School Parent-Faculty Advisory Committee.

The new co-presidents are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence F. Klepper, 58 Lansing Drive, Delmar; with Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. McCarroll, 144 Kenwood Avenue, Elsmere, vice-presidents; Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Skubel, 59 Montrose Drive, Elsmere, Secretaries; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Cohn, 79 Kenaware Avenue, Delmar, Treasurers.

The name of the organization was set in 1963 when its articles of policy and purposes were established. Since then there have been changes in the school's structure which make obsolete several provisions of the articles. President Klepper named a study committee to update the articles and revise the name. It is intended to replace "association" for "committee" which was found to be a deterrent for parents participation at past meetings due to a misinterpretation of the term "committee."

To the Editor:

Are you - the public - going to help save the animals at the Delmar Game Farm? Are you writing the commissioner? Time is getting short! Thank you.

Marcia Kent

To the Editor:

Seeing how Mr. Bishop care for injured animals at the Delmar Game Farm is not only a living and most practical lesson for children, but a shining example of the need for nature conservancy.

How many of the animals are in the game farm because of thoughtless people who let their dog run deer, or had an extra shot in their gun chamber at the end of a day of hunting and thought it fun to try and hit a small bird or animal that happened to be going by?

Instead of closing this valuable liaison between the public and the Conservation Dept., I feel it should be incorporated into a trailside museum and nature study area. I understand it is the Conservation department's objective to eventually open up nature trails in the same area. Why not use the animals and present building facilities as a basis for a living classroom? As it stands now hundreds, perhaps thousands of school children visit the Delmar Game Farm every year. Wouldn't it be wonderful if in addition to seeing some of our native animals, they could also attend films and lectures which would bring home to them the important role all flora and fauna play in the balance of nature and why it is so essential to man, and his future on this planet earth, that he do his utmost to preserve and protect this balance?

I have visited a trailside museum set up in this manner in New Jersey, and, as a teacher, it was necessary to make reservations months in advance because of the museum's popularity with all the local schools. We certainly have enough school population in the area to support a project of this nature.

I honestly feel that the closing of the Delmar Game Farm would be a giant step backward for the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation.

Joan M. Mullen

Dear Sir:

I was surprised to read on page 26 of your paper of Sept. 10 a recommendation for the use of high phosphate detergents. It is, I think, quite well agreed that high phosphate detergents are one of the most serious causes of water pollution, and those most concerned with such matters strongly recommend the use of low phosphate cleaning materials.

Sincerely yours,

Frank S. Hawthorne

To the Editor:

Your September 10th issue carried what looked like a "filler" item on high phosphate content in detergents. It recommended purchase of detergents with the very highest phosphate counts for the cleanest wash. We assumed this filler was inserted inadvertently and anticipated the subsequent issue of Spotlight would report receiving a barrage of protest letters and print an embarrassed retraction.

Instead, the September 17th issue features the "Inside Story on Detergents" in a special Consumer's Column - a distorted piece of propaganda asserting that "phosphates don't cause pollution at all. Indeed, this charge was just an advertising gimmick to boost sales for phosphate-free products."

The information you printed is in bald contradiction to evidence released by the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration, and the Reuss Report, recently issued by the House Committee on Government Operations (House Report #91-1004, priced at 40 cents, available from the Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., 20402.) Newspapers and Television Shows throughout the country have been striving to educate the public on the issue and to pressure industry into changing and improving their detergent products.

Your articles, we submit, are undermining the efforts of concerned citizens to halt further deterioration of our environment and are a shameful disservice to the community. We can only surmise the source of your materials and suggest you henceforth publish these items as advertisements and not as consumer-oriented advice.

Sincerely yours,
Susan and Alan Roth
Ann Brandon

To The Editor:

On page 26 of your September 10, 1970 issue under "Budget Stretchers" you recommended the use of detergents with a high phosphate content. I would like to point out that phosphates are the chief causes of eutrophic lakes, or lakes covered with algae, and clogged with masses of rotted plants. In other words, the aging process is hastened, the lakes are no longer productive, and they can not be used as a water source. I would like to quote from the June-July issue of the magazine of the New York State Department of Environmental Control, "The Conservationist": "Aquatic vegetation is dependent upon the environment for different kinds of chemical building blocks . . . Experience has shown that plant growth is most often limited by a lack of available phosphorus and nitrogen, and of the two phosphorus is more often of critical supply. In other words if we add these two common fertilizers the chances are that plant growth will increase and this often happens when phosphorus alone is added . . . One scientist has estimated that one third of the lakes in the United States are eutrophic or rapidly becoming so . . . In 1967 it was estimated that five billion pounds of nitrogen and one billion pounds of phosphorus were added in one year to the waters of the United States." It is evident that anyone committed to the saving of our environment should try to refrain from the use of high phosphate detergents. It is possible that the source of this "Budget Stretcher" was the detergent industry. It is suggested that in the future the Spotlight be more selective in

Helpful Advice From Your Power People:

Some easy ways to make your home safer.

Here are some simple safety rules you may want to follow when using electric appliances in your home:

One. It's not good practice to connect too many lamps or appliances to the same circuit. (You usually can tell when you've done this because a fuse will burn out.)

Two. Never touch an electric appliance, radio, or light switch while you're in the bathtub, standing in a puddle, or have wet hands.

Three. If you yank on a cord to remove the plug from its socket, you may damage the cord. Instead it's safer to pull the plug itself.

Four. It's important to replace any cord that has frayed or cracked insulation since such a cord could cause a dangerous short circuit.

Five. If you want to have repairs or additions made to your home wiring, always employ a qualified electrical contractor. Wiring jobs are not "do-it-yourself" projects. Unless done by a professional, they may easily cause serious trouble.

If you follow these rules for home safety, you'll be able to count on your appliances for efficient, trouble-free service. Remember, we want you to be able to enjoy your electric service without giving it a thought. In fact, we take it as a compliment when you take us for granted.

"Hidden Island," a 30 minute dramatic motion picture, produced on the colorful San Blas Islands off the East Coast of Panama, will be shown Sunday, September 27, 1970 at 9:45 a.m. at the Normansville Community Church.

Primarily a sports story, "Hidden Island" chronicles the adventures of two boys. One of them, Iberio, was the son of the Principal at the Mission school on one of the Islands, the other, Manuel, a new boy whose athletic ability threatened to dethrone Iberio as school champion. Iberio's determination to prevent Manuel from emerging as the outstanding athlete on the Island forms the background for this adventure-packed tale.

types of yard work and housework, with a generous scattering of miscellaneous categories. We are presently filling some of the job openings which college students have had this summer and, needless to say, there will be demands for leaf-raking and snow removal.

If you want after-school work, visit the Y.E.S. office any weekday afternoon during the school year, between 1-4:30.

By the way, if working papers are needed, they can be obtained at the High School Main Office. If a Social Security number is needed, it can be obtained by going to the Social Security Office at 855 Central Avenue, Albany.

Senior applications to colleges should now be coming in to the Guidance Office.

New Counselors

Mrs. Helen Kozma is replacing Mrs. Blackmore this year. Mrs. Kozma has been counselor at St. Agnes and Ravena-Coeymans-Selkirk.

Mrs. Karen Farley, replacing Mr. D'Aprix, is coming from Catskill High School.

School Volunteers

An information meeting for all those interested in becoming School Volunteers in the Senior High School will be held on Tuesday, September 29, 1970, at 10 A.M., in Conference Room J at the Bethlehem Central Senior High. Volunteer opportunities are available in the Guidance Department, library, one to one academic help, language labs and clerical work.

For additional information, please call Mrs. E. B. Stringham, 439-2294.

Library Notes

Of course there will be pre-school story hours sponsored by the Bethlehem Public Library this fall and winter. Furthermore, Mrs. Barbara Cardell is planning wonderful hours filled with stories, songs and games. Here are a few suggestions to help things move smoothly into action.

Children are eligible if they will be ready for kindergarten in September 1971. Registration for children attending sessions at the Delmar Library will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, October 1 and 2 between 10 A.M. and 12 noon. At that time specific starting times will be mentioned and each mother may pick the one hour best suited to her schedule. Bear in mind that there two hours each Wednesday and Thursday during the school year - in other words there are four choices, so take your pick.

Glenmont and Clarksville will again offer their pre-schoolers story-hour fun at the schools. They will meet for the first time on Friday, October 9. Glenmont, remember 9:30 A.M. is your magic hour; Clarksville, be on tap at 1:00 P.M.

This seems to be the day for setting down rules and dispensing information. The annual Bizarre Bazaar at the Bethlehem Public Library will be held Friday through Sunday, Oct. 2, 3 and 4. However pictures must be in the library on Thursday, October 1, any time between 10 A.M. and 9 P.M. Each artist may have four entries. All entries must be original and ready for hanging with wire on the back. Please, oh please, plan to pick up entries on Sunday. It is so much better for all concerned, what with the shortage of storage space at the library. Here are the classes as listed on the registration blank: Junior - 10 to 12 years old; Senior - 14 to 18 years old; Adult amateur, and Professional. Judging will be Friday and the awards given out on Saturday. This is one of the popular events held at the library each fall and everyone has learned to enjoy it to the fullest. If you are feeling shy, don't. Everyone can't be a winner but it's good to share your talents.

Scott Baker is the Roketry Club exhibitor in the children's room at Bethlehem Library. He is a student in the Middle School.

Pop Warner

Bethlehem Pop Warner's two football teams are in the third week of their 1970 season under the direction of Steve Yelich, head coach who handles the Junior Bantoms, and his assistant, John Schoch, who coaches the Midgets.

The Midgets play their games on Saturdays and the Junior Bantoms play on Sundays. Home games for the Midgets are at 10:30 A.M. Saturday at the Hamagrael School field and home games for the Junior Bantoms

Octobersing

Members of the Pick'n and Sing'n' Gather'n', a folk music society of East Central, New York, will present "OCTOBERSING", an afternoon of family entertainment featuring traditional and contemporary folk music, for the benefit of FACT, on Sunday, October 4, at 2:30 P.M. in the Altamont village park. denominational group of Altamont area residents who first organized in April, 1968, in an effort to combat racism and alleviate ignorance, poverty, and oppression. FACT's projects have included two years of summer school exchange with Albany youngsters, three years of fresh air programs, two years of work program for Altamont and Albany boys, and a continuing food donation program. Proceeds from "OCTOBERSING" will be used to lend support to inner-city self-help groups.

Well-known in the Albany area, the Pick'n' and Sing'n' Gather'n' has grown in four years from a small group of about fifteen people to become one of the largest regional folk singing organizations in the country. Over 200 people, including many families, belong to the "Gather'n'", which meets monthly at the Caffe Lena in Saratoga. "Gather'n'" members have appeared at many area coffee houses and festivals, including appearances for the last three years at the Fox Hollow Beers Family Festival in Petersburg, New York. In addition to the guitar, the performers also play banjo, dobro (a fore runner of the electric guitar), autoharp and hammered dulcimer, a stringed instrument of ancient origin played with wooden mallets. Members of the "Gather'n'" who will participate include: Bill Spence, Jack Hume, Joan Pelton, Ray Andrews, Richard and Lee Wilkie, Linda Schrade, Diane Parker, and Del Spohr.

Mrs. Donald Stauffer, general chairman of the event, has announced that FACT will sell homemade doughnuts, apples, cider, and coffee at the sing. Mrs. James Hurley and Mrs. Joseph Dague are co-chairmen of the refreshment committee. Persons planning to attend "OCTOBERSING" should bring lawn chairs or blankets. Donation will be 50¢ for adults and 25¢ for children. Babes in arms will be admitted free. In case of rain, the event will be held indoors, at a place to be announced.

Hearing

The Town of Bethlehem Board of Appeals will hold a public hearing on the evening of October 7, at 8 P.M. at the Town Offices, 393 Delaware Avenue, Delmar. This hearing will be concerned with the petition of New Salem Builders who seek a Variance from the Town of Bethlehem Zoning Ordinance to permit the construction of an addition to a building at the site of the Ralston Purina Company plant in Selkirk, New York. This proposed addition would create a 28' front yard in a zone in which a 50' front yard is required by Article XI of the Town Zoning Ordinance.

Fish

Prospects for the formation of a Tri-Village Unit of Fish took a giant step forward at the well attended launching meeting held last Tuesday. Church and service organization representatives were unanimous in their enthusiasm for this project in which volunteers will give needed emergency help to the 16,500 residents of Delmar, Elsmere and Slinger-

The master chart appearing on the oversize blackboard at this meeting listed the kinds of services needed from volunteers to answer the expected emergency needs. Spaces represented every day of the month for which volunteers will be needed. Fish offers emergency help day after day all day. Pledge forms were distributed. Many were returned. Thus it seems assured that the total of one hundred and fifty volunteers it is estimated will be required to keep Fish active will surely be reached long before the projected starting date of November 1.

So that all Tri-Village residents may have the opportunity to volunteer their services, a pledge blank is printed in this issue of the Spotlight. It is the same as the one in the Sept. 17 issue. Decide what day of the week you can offer to serve and then what service you wish to offer. If you can adjust to any day just write "when needed." You will be contacted for the exact time, later.

There are four services that are needed to start Fish. They are: one telephone volunteer of the day, two transportation, three food service and four sitting for all ages. Telephone volunteer of the day pledges to be available to answer the phone taking calls from the Fish operator, receiving the problem, channeling it to the volunteer for that service and receiving the report on mission accomplished. Transportation means you agree to be available on a given day of the month to drive those who call for emergency transportation. Food service means that if a caller needs emergency lunch or dinner you will supply it on the day you have selected. Sitting for all ages means you agree on an emergency basis, to stay with a person who can't be left alone.

This is the Fish story. Now it all depends on you. The services Fish can offer in an emergency will depend on the services the 16,500 residents of Tri-Village offer or volunteer.

Connie's Summer

Reprinted courtesy of the Albany Times-Union.

Sometimes a college student would find summer volunteer work a rewarding experience, but might have to forfeit the idea for lack of funds.

Connie Strong

Connie Strong is more fortunate than most. When she was unable to find an interesting job at the beginning of the summer, her father offered to pay her an hourly wage for volunteer work.

So, through the help of the Volunteer Bureau and her father's generosity, Connie has been able to spend an interesting summer in a learning experience.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Strong of 51 Greenleaf Drive, Delmar, Connie is majoring in physical therapy at Boston University.

She has assisted on the waterfront at the Psychiatric Day Camp Patches, located and run by the Cerebral Palsy Center. She has assisted on the waterfront at the Psychiatric Day Camp on Lawson Lake for the past two weeks.

"I found work at Camp Patches a very interesting experience," says Connie. "The group I worked with there was made up of people between the ages of 16 and 21.

"We took them on field trips to Storytown, Fox's Animal Farm and Hoffman's Playland, in addition to trying to organize arts and crafts activities.

"Cerebral Palsy patients seem to have such a sense of humor, it's as if they were given a compensation for their defects.

"They never seem to show jealousy, although personal attention is very important to them. They don't always try to communicate with one another, but sometimes try to protect and mother each other."

Since she is not a licensed physical therapist, Connie was not able to perform any therapy work but found that she learned from watching other therapists at work.

"I am also able to notice an individual's personal handicaps and offer him things to do. For instance, there was a hemiplegic child there (a person who has difficulty using the left side of his body) so I encouraged him in activities that would force him to use both hands.

"In both camps I also learned about the psychological aspects of dealing with these people. The people at the Psychiatric Day Camp came from places like the Capital District Psychiatric Center, (CDPC), and the Eleanor Roosevelt Development Services (ERDS), and so were made up of emotionally disturbed, autistic and mentally disturbed people.

"You have to be careful with these people, because they are so sensitive. They can tell whether or not you like them and so you must be careful of what you say."

Connie feels that her experience this summer, and last summer when she was a physical therapy aide at Albany Medical Center Hospital, will help not only her learning benefits in her career choice, but also her chances of getting a job in that field.

"Sometimes a person wouldn't be able to get a job in a field like this. With volunteer experience, he stands a better chance of getting a position.

She feels that she would like work in a general hospital when she completes her studies. "That way I can become exposed to all types of therapy work and then go on to choose an area of specialization."

The Village Mart

At 10 A.M., Saturday, September 26, the Ladies' Guild of Bethlehem Lutheran Church will hold their third annual Village Mart on the church grounds at 85 Elm Avenue, Delmar. A rain date has been set for October 3.

The seven "Shoppes" which will make up the Village Mart Bazaar will offer a wide range of articles including books, games, toys, small household items, jewelry and sports equipment.

The Togs and Treasures Shoppe has amassed a large collection of clothing for its Rummage Sale and invites you to browse. Facilities will be available for "try-ons".

Homemade lasagna, baked beans, fresh bread and apple pie will be featured at the Baking Pan, in addition to the traditional favorites such as cakes, cookies, brownies and coffee cakes.

Want a baby's quilt, a one-of-a-kind Christmas ornament or some of the paper flowers so much in the home decoration news? Visit the Craft Shoppe. These items and many more will be available.

An art show and sale, a beautiful offering of ceramic pieces, taste-tempting preserves, jellies and candies, garden produce and plants - there's something to interest everybody at the Village Mart Bazaar.

At 1 P.M. many new and used items will go up on the block at the Country Auction. Sold to the highest bidder will be furniture and other large household items, appliances, televisions, etc.

Fun and prizes for the small-fry (and the not-so-small-fry!) will be found at the Village Mart game booths. Amusements will include a duck pond, ring-toss, cake walk, balloons and more.

Should you be overtaken by that hollow feeling, you're invited to fill up at the Snack Bar. Hamburgers, hot dogs, potato chips, soda, coffee, cotton candy, snowcones and other snackables will be available throughout the day.

Everyone is welcome, so come on out to the Village Mart.

Everyone is invited. "Bring the family," says William Swire, president of A. Swire Furniture. "Youngsters are fascinated by color and beauty and we'll have a lot of both to show everyone."

There will be live demonstrations by prominent regional artists and craftsmen, live demonstrations of refinishing and restoring furniture by Swire's own expert artisans and a continuous showing of films on how furniture is made and how to use color in carpeting.

The showing was developed with the cooperation of House & Garden magazine whose color research has set the standards of color in home furnishings for nearly a quarter of a century.

Model room settings of furniture and accessories will feature the new House & Garden colors, particularly the revival of deep colors, the birth of clear, vibrant pastels, the timelessness of earth colors and the new, fresh inspiration of touches of lavender.

Among the participating artists will be Louis Pelky, famous for his seascapes in oils; Matthew
