FISH

November 1 is the date for three hundred friendly neighbors to initiate volunteer help for the neighbor in need known around the world as FISH.

For five months, representatives of the ten area churches, the Tri-Village Jewish Group and Service Organizations have been working toward this day. To insure success volunteers, both men & women, boys and girls, have offered to help. When you need emergency transportation, food service or sitting for all ages call the number listed in the Albany Directory under the name FISH: 439-3578. That number is the open Sesame to emergency help offered by your neighbors.

Members of the Steering Committee and volunteers at their meetings this week reached the same conclusions. Many generous volunteers are ready and eagerly expecting calls for help in solving problems. Whether the problem requires voluntary service or referral to professional agencies, all volunteers will cope to the best of their ability.

LETTER

Dear Sir,

Last Fall, especially for the Library Art Show, my daughter put together a sculpture-collage made of wallboard, magazine cutouts, poems and drawings. For her efforts she won honorable mention.

When the Coffee House opened she lent it to be displayed. It hung there until one Friday night in midsummer when someone took it — through a window.

I put a large advertisement in the Spotlight describing it and asking for its return. There was no response at all. I am making a last effort through the "Letters" to locate it. Perhaps some parent will recognize by my description. What's been hanging in their child's bedroom or the person who took it will call and tell us what has become of it.

Don't Burn Leaves

In compliance with Air Pollution Regulations, residents of the Town of Bethlehem are not permitted to burn leaves.

During the Fall season the Town Highway Department, with the use of vacuum leaf loaders, regularly picks up leaves left at the curb in all areas of the Town. In the event an area is overlooked, requests for service may be made to the Town Hall at 439-4955.

Fliers describing the program and giving the FISH number 439-3578 will be distributed by Boy Scouts on Saturday the seventh. Although service starts November first, flier distribution was scheduled for the seventh to avoid conflict with Trick or Treat and UNICEF activities.

Don't Litter

Housewives who complain of our littered streets and highways can take a cue from Mrs. Saul Caro. When she goes for a walk with her twins in their stroller, she has a basket fastened to the handle in which she collects roadside trash.

She says its easy to identify the snacking habits of Bethlehem residents from the pop bottles, beer cans, pizza boxes, etc. Most of these snack places have convenient trash receptacles which should be made use of. If you take out food containers, please take them all the way home for proper disposal.

The majority of the people of the Town of Bethlehem are interested in keeping business districts, suburban neighborhoods, and rural roadsides litter free. Won't you please do your part?

Public Hearings

Two Public Hearings will be held by the Town Board of the Town of Bethlehem at the Town Hall in Delmar on the evening of November 4, 1970.

(1) At 7:30 P.M., a Public Hearing will be held concerning the assessment roll of the Bethlehem Sewer District.

(2) At 8:00 P.M., a Public Hearing will be held on the Preliminary Budget for the year 1971. At such hearing, any person may be heard in favor of or against the preliminary budget as compiled, or for or against any item or items therein contained.

Movies

An evening of BCHS football movies has been scheduled by the Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post of the American Legion on Monday, November 2, at 9:00 P.M. at the Legion Hall.

In making the announcement, Legion Commander John Ennis extended an invitation to parents and other interested people in the community to view the color films of 1970 football action. The films are being secured through the cooperation of the BCHS Men's Association and the High School athletic staff.

You are urged to bring a friend to enjoy an hour watching your home town athletics in suburban council football play. There will be no admission charge. There is plenty of parking around the new Legion hall.

Hearings Set

The Town of Bethlehem Board of Appeals has set two hearings for the evening of November 10, 1970 at the Town Offices, 393 Delaware Avenue, Delmar. The hearing to be conducted at 8:00 P.M. is concerned with the appeal of Mrs. Ellis E. Osterhout, 21 Magee Road, Glenmont, for a Variance from Article XII of the Bethlehem Town Zoning Ordinance. Mrs. Osterhout desires to erect a carport at her above premises which would create a side yard of less than eight feet. The Ordinance requires an eight foot side yard for one-family residences in an A Residential District.

The appeal of Arnold F. and Rosemarie M. Mosmen, 553A Kenwood Avenue, Delmar, for a Special Exception from Article V of the Town Zoning Ordinance will be heard by the Board at 8:15 P.M. Petitioners seek permission to locate the parking area and driveway for the triplex located at 556 Kenwood Avenue, Delmar, different from the location previously granted by the Board of Appeals.

These two previously-described hearings shall be conducted in the Town Clerk's office of the Town Offices.

"Trick or Treat" is a Halloween tradition almost as old as this nation, but in recent years October 31st has taken on a new meaning in the Capital District, as well as in more than 13,000 other communities. Since 1950, when one small group of Pennsylvania youngsters collected $17.00 and turned it over to the United Nations Children's Fund, "Trick or Treat for UNICEF" has grown to tremendous proportions. Last fall, 3 1/2 million children raised 3 1/4 million dollars in nickels, dimes and quarters for UNICEF.

In the Capital District, UNICEF Trick or Treaters will be cut during the week of the 31st of October under the sponsorship of the United Nations Association of Albany. Dressed in a variety of costumes, these ambassadors of international good will are planning to visit local homes in small, supervised groups. "Every penny they get will mean six glasses of milk for hungry youngsters," Co-chairman Lee Miller said. "A nickel buys the penicillin to cure two little victims of yaws, an ugly, crippling tropical disease. A dime provides the antibiotics to save a child suffering from trachoma from total blindness. A quarter means enough BCG vaccine to protect 20 children against tuberculosis.

The UNICEF Trick or Treaters will be identified by their official collection box; a small orange and black carton with the UNICEF symbol of the mother and child. "Only those carrying this particular carton are authorized to collect for UNICEF," said Co-chairman Mrs. Jeannette Wright of the UNA. Children or groups interested in participating in the program this year should first have the approval of their parents or advisor, and should then contact Mrs. Wright at 482-4240, for additional aid and information.

THE SPOTLIGHT

Coxsackie, New York, honoring Captain Thomas Houghtaling.

The marker was placed by Mohawk Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Van Rensselaer Society, Children of the American Revolution.

The dedicating ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Dirk Olton, Regent of Mohawk Chapter. Wesley Jakovic, Chaplain, led the prayer, and Jay Jakevic, Van Rensselaer Society president and New York State First Vice President, C.A.R. gave a brief history of the soldier's service.

Thomas Houghtaling was a descendant of Matthias Houghtaling, an early settler who was granted a patent of land south of Rensselaerswyck by Governor Fletcher on July 5, 1697. He was one of the signers of the Cossackie Declaration of 1775 and in the same year he became Captain of the 1st district of the 11th regiment from "Coxakey and the Groote Imboght" under Colonel Anthony Van Bergen.

When the New York State Thruway was routed through the burying ground where three generations of Houghtalings lay buried, the graves and markers were moved to Riverside Cemetery.

In honoring Captain Houghtaling, the Societies honor as well all those Patriots whose sacrifices have given the priceless heritage of freedom belonging to our country.

The dedication program was attended by several decendants of Captain Houghtaling; Mrs. W. Harry Tomlinson, Mrs. Werner Kelp, Miss Elsa Marie Kelp, Miss Lisa Kelp, and Mrs. Louis Jakovic.

These services climaxed a week long celebration in which Van Rensselaer Society, C. A. R. honored Patriotic Education Week: October 12, Columbus Day, through October 19, Yorktown Day.

There was also an exhibit at the Center Branch Library in Colonie Shopping Center, which stressed price in America's growth in the field of transportation.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Bake Sale

The Annual Election Day Bake Sale sponsored by the WGCS of the Clarksville Community Church will be held at the Clarksville Fire Hall, November 3 from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.

The annual Trick or Treat for UNICEF, the children's organization of the United Nations, will be sponsored again this year by the Tri-Village Clergy Association. It will be on Sunday afternoon, November 1, and the various churches of the area will be cooperating in the drive. Children who come to your door will be identified by a UNICEF collection box and a leaflet. Be sure that you do not give to anyone without this official collection box.

Some people may have more than one child come to the door and others may not have anyone come. The ministers are aware of this and have tried to avoid it, but we know of no way to make sure that it does not happen. So if you are solicited by more than one child, please do not be irritated, but just tell him or her that you have already given. If no one comes to your door, we regret that also. You may send your contribution to the treasurer of the Tri-Village Clergy Association, Rev. Charles Wolfe, at the First Methodist Church, 428 Kenwood Avenue, Delmar.

Progress Report

The outline of the future Bethlehem Public Library now greets the passersby at its site on Delaware Avenue, just beyond Borthwick Avenue. The ramparts of earth, thrown up in excavation for foundation footings, define most of its shape, with little digging remaining to be done.

Staff, walking over the site, visual windows will be, where the Adult Lounge will offer a relaxing quiet haven. The deeper pit for the Bookmobile garage drops down at the rear of the building near the entrance road.

Though its drainage system is three-fourths completed, though its foundation footings are underway, the new structure is still "underground." Join the Staff in watching it emerge the next few weeks, as this six year dream begins to put on the steel and concrete of reality. (And keep your fingers crossed about snow).

BAA

A fascinating, informal discussion of all aspects of the Arts was presided over by our guest, Robert E. Krieger, Executive Art Editor of the Times-Union at the October meeting of the Bethlehem Art Association. Thus began the 4th year of the B.A.A.'s existence under the exciting new leadership of our president, Dr. John Hotchin. New officers are Herman Rasker, vice-president and program chairman; Helen St. Clair, recording secretary; Jean Bronk, corresponding secretary; Peggy Hotchin, treasurer; Max Feinbloom, exhibitions chairman; Marion Bers, membership, and Sally Weinstein, publicity.

"Who sez, Art ain't fun?" and I quote our president. For starters there's the Bethlehem Art Association's annual juried Art Show to be held at the First Trust Bank in Elmsmere. The show will open Nov. 22. Work is due Nov. 18, and is open to all media (painting, sculpture, prints, photography, drawings, crafts). For more information call Max Feinbloom 439-6926.

Meeting

Even if you speak five languages fluently, chances are you need to brush up on your "Chil-drenese."

This is the lingo Dr. Elizabeth R. Taylor, one of its principal proponents, describes as a "language for lessening family friction."

Dr. Taylor will be here November 5 to discuss the subject with members of the Elsmere PTA at their first program of the fall. The meeting, starting at 8 P.M. is open to the public.

A brief business session, during which proposed new by-laws will be acted upon, will precede the program. Mrs. Harvey Milowe will preside.

Dr. Taylor, a consultant in the field of guidance, has worked closely with Dr. H. G. Ginott, noted child psychologist and author. In the introduction to his book, "Between Parent and Teenager," Dr. Ginott acknowledges Dr. Taylor's helpful suggestions.

Dr. Taylor has been a member of the faculties of Teachers College, Columbia University, and Hunter College, New York City. From 1966 to 1969 she was a guidance counselor with the N.Y. City Board of Education, and prior to that was an elementary school teacher. She completed her doctoral dissertation in counselor education at Yeshiva University, and also holds an M.A. degree in guidance from New York University and M. S. and B. S. degrees in education from Wagner College, New York City.

Pathways to a Nursing Career

You can prepare to become a registered nurse in any one of three different programs. Most schools in all three categories are co-educational. 1) Collegiate-level schools (usually called baccalaureate programs) call for four or five years of study in a college or university, with clinical experience in one or more hospitals and public health agencies. Nursing students participate with other college groups in the varied activities of campus life, major in nursing, and earn a B.S. — bachelor of science — degree. As in other fields, university-level study is the most direct route to top jobs with higher pay and greater responsibilities. 2) Associate degree programs usually are two-year courses, conducted at a junior or community college. The school offers some general educational subjects and coordinates the nursing portions with community hospitals and health agencies. This kind of program draws a relatively high percentage of men. Students usually live at home or in other off-campus housing. Many a young man sees this advantage in the associate degree program: he can become an R.N. in two years, then work as a nurse to pay for further education. 3) Diploma schools are 2 to 3-year programs conducted by hospitals — sometimes with science courses at nearby colleges. Students may or may not "live in," according to the school's pattern. Hospital-centered nursing schools provide day-in, day-out actual experience with patients and with doctors, nurses, and other health-care professionals. A strong school spirit often prevails, too, sparked by athletic events and social activities. The student earns a diploma when he graduates.

Meet the Dolphins

The Delmar Dolphin Swin Club made their strongest showing of the Club's history when they placed second in dual meet competition in the Tri-City Swim League this past summer. The Dolphins showed particular strength in the boys 11 and 12 year old class. Scoring often for the Delmar team in dual meets were: Dennis Fitzpatrick and Lennie Steele in the 50 and 100 yard freestyle and 100 yard Individual Medley, Lorren Elkins in the 50 yard butterfly, and Jim Clyne in the 50 yard breaststroke. Other Dolphins who enjoyed success in the dual meet competition were: Leslie LeFevere and Jackie Maar in girls diving, Beth Clyne in the girls 9 and 10 competition, Katie Fitzpatrick in the girls 8 and under, Greg Brannick in boys 13 & 14 100 yard breaststroke, and Mike Delaney in the boys 15 and up freestyle.

Everybody should know how to use the telephone.

You've been using the phone all your life.

Yet there are all kinds of ways to get more out of it you may not know about. This ad was put together to help make you an expert.

4. The Child-Return Kit.

You'd feel better if your child had one.

1. A short guide to out-of-state calls.

You can save a lot on long distance calls if you save this simple chart. Or go by the information in the front of your phone book.

Either way you'll have all the hours and prices.

Dial-it-yourself rates on interstate station-to-station calls of 3 minutes or less to anywhere in the U.S. except Alaska and Hawaii. Tax not included.
	Mon. Tues. Wed. Thurs. Fri. Sat. Sun.
8am to 5pm	$1.35 or less	70¢ or less
5pm to 11pm	85¢ or less		85¢ or less
11pm to 8am	35¢ or less (one minute)

2. A good thing about a bad connection.

We handle millions of calls every day. So once in a while you may get a bad connection. When you do we never want you to put up with it.

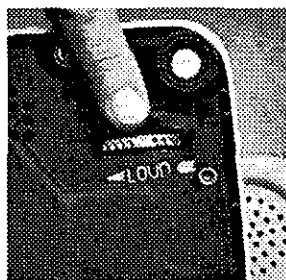

So just ask the operator for a good connection. Which is the only one you'll get charged for.

3. Two things about your phone bell.

You can make the bell louder or softer yourself, just by turning the dial on the bottom of most phones.

And if somebody in your family has trouble hearing, special bells are available at an extra charge.

Call your business office for more information.

phone number on one side. And a place for an emergency dime on the other side.

So if he gets lost or is going to be late, he has all he needs to call you.

Or to have somebody else call you.

All you do to get one is call your local telephone business office. Or write to New York Telephone, Room 1375, 140 West Street, N.Y., N.Y. 10007.

There's no charge for it. But when you put the emergency dime in, don't forget to remind your child not to spend it on an emergency like bubble gum.

5. A friend never has to pay for your calls.

It is possible to make a long distance call from a friend's house without ending your friendship.

You can ask the operator to charge the call to your home phone.

6. There's no charge for wrong numbers.

Getting a wrong number is bad enough. We don't want you to pay for it, too. All you have to do is tell the operator.

And she'll make sure you don't get charged for it.

7. Your phone bill is open for discussion.

If you have a question about a bill, we want to know about it. Just call your local business office. And talk it over with one of our representatives.

There are also lots of other things to know about how to get more out of your telephone. Like our aids for the handicapped. And what to do about an annoyance call.

Just look in the front pages of your telephone directory or call your local business office.

So now you should feel a lot more like a member of a very select group.

People who know how to use the telephone.

Answers about..... BETHLEHEM CENTRAL Schools.

By Ann Treadway
Director of Public Information
Bethlehem Central Schools

(This column is a regular weekly feature in the Spotlight. Questions may be mailed to Mrs. Treadway at the High School or called in weekday mornings between 9 and 11 A.M., at 439-4921, Ext. 261 or 267.)

QUESTION: What is the future of the Delmar School? I have heard rumors over the past few years that it may be converted to some use other than as an elementary school.

ANSWER: The Board of Education has decided to continue to use the Delmar School building as an elementary school. Many maintenance and capital improvement items for the building were included in this year's budget, and most of those improvements have now been made.

Other renovations will be needed, in order to have this facility made comparable to the other elementary schools. The Board is now studying whether to raise funds for this through an annual budget or through bond or note programs.

QUESTION: Why don't we have a High School band to play at football games?

ANSWER: There is no music staff person available to train and conduct a marching band. Mr. Sam Bozzella, head of the Music Department, was hired with the understanding that he would direct a concert band and, together with his teaching duties at all Bethlehem schools, has time only for that.

A small brass group has played at basketball games in the past and its members were recently asked if they could also play for football games. They are not able to do so, because of job and weekend travel commitments.

The question of whether we should have a marching band play at football games in the future is not a closed matter. Anyone who feels strongly about this may write or speak to the superintendent of schools or to any member of the Board of Education.

QUESTION: Is it possible to vote on only non-mandated portions of a school budget? Can this be further divided, so people can vote issue by issue?

ANSWER: The Board of Education is required to present the total budget for public approval or disapproval. Options may be presented, as they were this year, upon the judgement of the board.

QUESTION: Is it fair to use New York State salaries (those of government employees) as a guideline for setting our school district salaries?

ANSWER: Civil Service salary schedules are used as a guideline for non-instructional personnel salaries in our school district. We feel this is fair, for we must compete for the employment of these persons with State government units.

QUESTION: What subjects are state mandated for grades 9-12?

ANSWER: Social Studies including one year of American History, 3 units; English, 4 units; Science, 1 unit; Mathematics, 1 unit; Health, 1/2 unit; and Physical Education. (Our local requirement is 4 units in Social Studies).

QUESTION: Is there going to be any change in the distance of walkers to school? On the high school level, might it be changed from a mile and a half to a mile?

ANSWER: The Board of Education has no plans at this time to change any of the required walking distances.

forcement procedures that will shave six months off the time required to take action against water polluters.

Speaking before the Finger Lakes Association in Canandaigua last night, Oct. 15, Commissioner Diamond said, "We are taking immediate steps to shorten the enforcement proceedings. In effect, we're putting the uncooperative polluter on notice to stop polluting first, then come in and discuss plans for an abatement program."

Under the new enforcement procedure, the Department notifies a polluter it is polluting and tells it to stop. The notice mentions the polluter's right to a hearing and specifies a date - within 23 days of the notice - for the hearing, if the polluter should desire one. If the polluter doesn't respond either by ceasing to pollute or coming to the hearing, the Department can immediately fix a date for the assessment of penalties.

If the polluter does respond to the Department's notice to come to the hearing and admits being in violation, he will have to be ready then to negotiate an abatement schedule. If he fails to meet the schedule he will be fined.

These procedures will apply to all polluters whether industrial, municipal or individual.

The Commissioner explained that provisions of the Health Law direct the Department to "encourage voluntary compliance" in abating pollution.

"The new procedures meet the spirit of the Law to encourage voluntary compliance in pollution abatement, but we will not permit foot dragging," the Commissioner said.

"Voluntary compliance was an important factor during the early stages of the State's Pure Waters program. As the nation's leader in water pollution abatement we were breaking new ground in the effort to clean up generations of abuse to our lakes, rivers and streams. We were developing new technology for sewage treatment, we were investing billions in new plants and we were pioneering in methods for pollution abatement," Commissioner Diamond pointed out.

"Now, we've gone beyond that point in history. The very fact that this new Department of Environment Conservation was established is testimony to the fact that we've got to move even faster," he said.

LEAVING ALL YOUR LIGHTS OUT AT NIGHT IS LIKE LEAVING YOUR KEY UNDER THE DOORMAT.

A dark house is an open invitation to prowlers of every kind. Yet the sight of even one lighted light can stop them. That's why we call it a Stop Light. So tonight, before you go to bed, don't turn off all the lights. Leave on a Stop Light or two.

Safety Starts with a Stop Light.

NIAGARA MOHAWK YOUR POWER PEOPLE

Commissioner Diamond emphasized that "pollution abatement is the responsibility of the polluter - not those polluted against. We will continue to seek voluntary compliance to stop pollution but we will come down hard on the occasional laggard."

Under earlier procedures, a polluter was notified it was polluting and told that it could answer the pollution charge at a hearing. When the polluter responded - often by denying the charges - a date would be set for a trial. The trial, appointment of hearing officer, transcript of the trial and subsequent report of the hearing officer often used up six to eight months.

State Law provides a penalty of up to $2,500 per violation and an additional $500 per day maximum for each day the violation continues.

What Kind?

What kind of county government is best for Albany county? That's the question the League of Women Voters of Albany county hopes to thrash out in unit meetings Nov. 3-5.

Study committee members under the leadership of Mrs. David Brandon, Delmar, will present a capsule of the present county government form. They also will provide a look at alternatives, including the charter form.

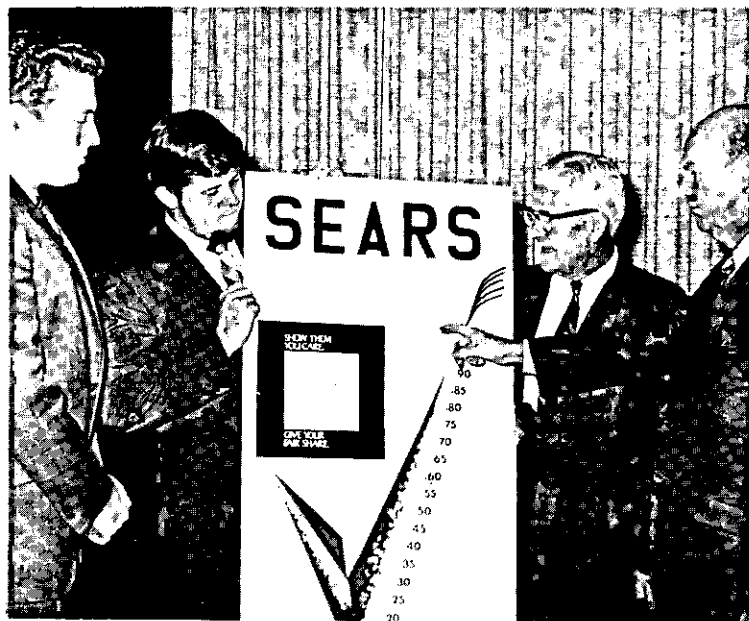

Following discussion, consensus will be taken with a view toward action.

Units will meet in Loudonville, Tuesday, Nov. 3, at 9:30 A.M. at the home of Mrs. Gates Barnett, 376 Shaker Road.

Guilderland unit meets Wednesday, Nov. 4 at 9:30 A.M., at the community room of the National Commercial Bank, Route 20 and State Farm Road. That night, at 8, the Albany unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Michael Dworkin, 144 N. Pine St.

Two Delmar units will meet Nov. 5, one at 9:30 A.M. at the home of Mrs. Maxwell Feinbloom, 22 Forest Rd., and one at 8 P.M. at the home of Mrs. G. A. Obenauer, 495 Huron Rd.

Treatment of Gourds for Orna-mental Use

Ornamental gourds belong to the Cucurbitaceae family which includes the melons, squashes and pumpkins. The term gourd, however, is usually applied to hard shelled, non-edible types suitable for ornaments or utensils.

After picking, wash the gourds in warm, soapy water and rinse them in clean water to which a household disinfectant has been added. This removes any soil and soilborne bacteria clinging to the shell. Dry each gourd with a soft cloth to avoid bruising or scratching the tender skin.

The Cooperative Extension As-sociation of Albany County states that to remove surface moisture, spread the gourds out on several layers of newspaper in a warm, dry place. A sun porch or a sunny window is ideal. On sunny days, the fruit may be put outside, but must be brought indoors be-fore the dew falls. Space the gourds so that they do not touch. This allows air to circulate and speeds drying. Turn the fruits daily and replace newspapers that are dampened by moisture absorbed from the gourds. They dry in one week.

Final Drying - Wipe the gourds with a soft cloth soaked in household disinfectant; then spread them on newspapers in a warm, dry, dark place for three or four weeks. An attic is ideal for final drying. Other locations might be a closet floor, a dry, warm basement, or under a bed or chest of drawers. Heat encourages rapid drying; darkness prevents fading of color; and dryness discourages mold and mildew.

According to David Reville, Albany County Extension Agent, gourds can be displayed in their natural state or by treating them in one of the following ways:

WAX gourds with paste wax, then buff with a soft cloth to produce a soft shiny surface with highlights.

SHELLAC gourds to give a hard, glossy finish.

PAINT gourds that have a poor, dull color. Use spray or regular paint in flat or enamel finish. Paint the entire gourd by suspending it by the stem, or set the painted gourds on the rims of empty cans to dry.

GILD gourds with silver or gold paint. A bright, shiny gild can be applied with brush or spray paint, or a dull sheen can be produced by shellacing the gourds and shaking them in a paper bag with gold or silver.

Arrangements with Gourds — A combination of colors, designs and forms is most pleasing for ornamental display. From an aesthetic point, it is not good practice to combine natural, gilded or painted treatments in a single arrangement.

Fresh flowers, such as pompon chrysanthemums, make arrangements of gourds more festive. Small tubes of water concealed among the gourds can keep the flowers fresh. Ivy, or autumn leaves can also be put in water tubes.

Bittersweet and other dried berries and seed pods add contrast in line, color and form.

Grapes, lemons, oranges, apples and other fruits lend a colorful effect to an arrangement of natural gourds. For a more lasting effect some of the real-looking artificial fruits might be used in-
