Silver Sleigh Ball

The word sleigh brings to mind an image of winter nights, snow, cold, bell-trotting horses and the fellowship of good friends. Although there won't be any horses with bells at the Normanside Country Club on December 12, there will be plenty of warmth and cheer as friends and neighbors meet for the Tri-Village Welcome Wagon Club's Silver Sleigh Ball. This will be the most gala occasion of the year for the Club with the ladies given the chance to wear their long dresses or holiday pants suits; the gentlemen may wear anything from suits to tux. The Country Club will be decorated in its Christmas finery and the dancing will be provided by the orchestra of Phil Foote, a 4-piece group well known to many area residents.

Cocktails will be available at 7 P.M. and the buffet dinner will be served at 8 P.M. followed by dancing til 1 A.M. The cost per couple is $15.50. Because of the great popularity of this dance and of the limited space, it is neces-

College. Master of ceremonies will be Edward Lange, Executive Deputy Commissioner of Labor, State of New York.

Mr. Crowley appeared on the first St. Matthew's Sports Nite program, and his enthusiastic reception by the audience at that time, prompted his return engagement for this year's affair. His knowledge of football is limitless, having coached such schools as Georgia Tech, Michigan State and Fordham. He will be remembered by those who attended the first Sports Nite for his amusing anecdotes of his playing days at Notre Dame under the tutelage of Knute Rockne.

Mr. Crowley's appearance is made possible through the courtesy of the Genesee Brewing Co., Inc. and Keis Distributors, local Genesee distributor.

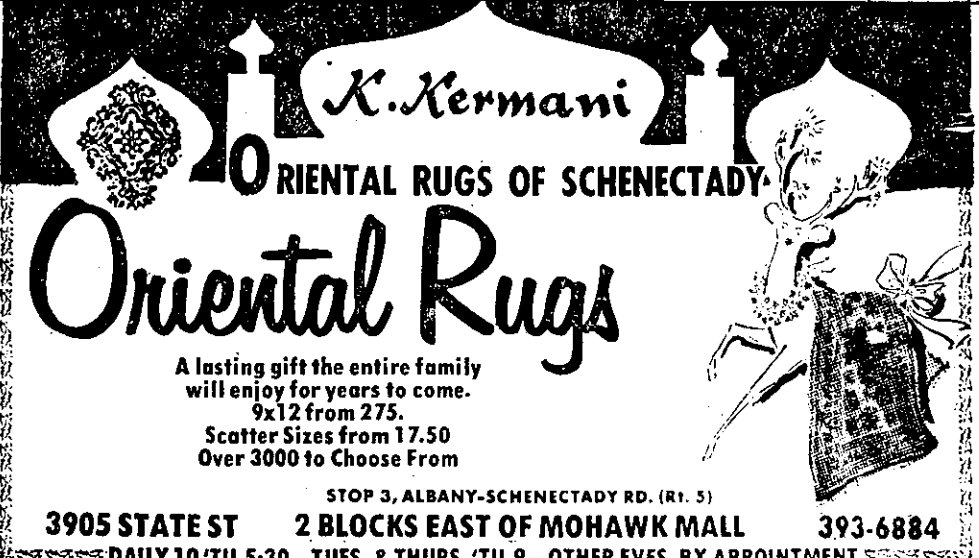

Father Ben, as he is popularly known in the area, is making his first appearance on the Sports Nite program.

A member of the original faculty of Siena College, he has gained a wide reputation as an after-dinner speaker and his wit and humor have always been a delight to all who have heard him.

Father Ben's place on a sports program is very appropriate as he has been a loyal and true supporter of Siena athletics through his many years at the Loudonville campus.

Ed Lange, who will MC the program, will be remembered by many as a member of the Siena basketball powerhouses of the late '40's which played under the direction of the late Dan Cunha. Competing against some of the top college teams of the country, Lange and his teammates were most instrumental in projecting the local college into national prominence.

The advance ticket sales have been brisk and the committee anticipates a record turnout. For ticket information and reservations, contact Hugh McDonald at 765-2093, John Zongrone, president of the Holy Name Society or any member of the local society. Refreshments will be served and a wide selection of door prizes will be given away during the program.

MEMORIAL CONCERT FOR ANNE ELBOW

Anne Elbow, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Matthew Elbow, 41 Fernbank Ave., Delmar, was killed last Aug. 9 in an airplane crash in Peru. She had been in Peru since June as a foreign exchange student, under sponsorship of the International Fellowship.

This Saturday Night, Anne's friends in the Bethlehem Central American Field Service Club, of which she was an active member, will hold a folk-singing concert in her memory. The concert will begin at 8 P.M., in the High School auditorium. Tickets will be sold at the door.

All proceeds from the concert will go into a memorial fund in Anne's name, to help pay for future foreign exchange programs. Even though Anne died while on such a visit, her family and friends know that she believed wholeheartedly in the value of foreign exchange visits, enjoyed her own trip to Peru immensely, and would want more young people to have such travel opportunities.

As the International Fellowship Memorial Bulletin said about Anne: "She felt strongly that the opportunity to travel gives the future generation of leaders a chance to bring this world closer together and help to make the people in it one brotherhood."

Persons who cannot attend the concert, but would like to contribute to the memorial fund, may do so by mailing contributions to: Mrs. Elfrieda Textores, AFS adviser, Bethlehem Central High School, 700 Delaware Ave., Delmar, N.Y. Checks should be made out to the American Field Service or the International Fellowship.

Before leaving for Peru last June, Anne had completed her sophomore year at Bethlehem Central. An active student, she was a member of the Pacific and Asian Affairs Club as well as the AFS Club, sang in the Swing Choir, was on the feature staff of the Star and served as a member of the Student-Faculty Administration Committee.

She was a leader in her church Youth Fellowship, and her hobbies included piano, ballet and modern dancing, scouting, reading and sewing.

The following are some excerpts from the letters Anne sent to her family while she was in Peru:

"... It's funny how easily one settles into a routine. I feel as if I'd been in Peru forever, but I'm really happy..."

"I've been to two parties since I last wrote. One was a cocktail party to welcome three U.S. American Field Service girls to Piura. It was a real surprise when they introduced me to the group as well. They gave us each a rose and we each had to say a few words in Spanish. Everything was so nice and friendly, it was really very touching..."

"Saturday, the 11th, there was a fiesta in honor of Lily and me at our house. I had the best time I have ever had in my whole life. There was a live orchestra and I danced with almost every guy there... It lasted until about 2 A.M. and even then no one wanted to leave... It was perfect."

"I'm already thinking about coming back to Piura. I wish my stay here wasn't so short..."

MEMORIAL CONCERT FOR ANNE ELBOW

"I am really happy here and I wish I were going to be here much, much longer. Lilianna and I are real sisters and the Saavedras (her host family) are just like a second pair of parents. They worry about us almost as much as you and Mom do."

"I thank you so much that you had enough faith and trust in me to let me come to Peru. My family, my friends and the places that I have come to know and love have all helped to make my stay here a wonderful and meaningful experience. I just wish you could be here sharing with me all my joys and exciting experiences in Peru."

"I am in Trujillo now and tomorrow I'm going to Lima. I'm well and I wish I never had to come home. But time is flying by!"

Just recently, the Elbow family received Anne's diary which she had with her on the plane when it crashed. The last entry in it was: "Ahorita, voy a dormir! — Right now, I am going to sleep."

Anne's mother noted that she had drawn a line under this final sentence — the only time in the entire diary when she did so.

Dear Alice,

MY problem is that I have just left my mother to live with my father and step mother (legally of course) but now it seems the only thing I do is babysit for my two sisters. I've very rarely a-loud to go out because I have to babysit. The only place I'm permitted to go is to the movies which I hate. Alice can you suggest anything.

Sister Sitter

Dear Sitter,

The only possible way to settle this would be to talk to your parents. I know you've probably heard that before but it is the only way. Also plan a date in advance, check it with your parents and mark it on the calendar for everyone to see and have a babysitter stand by just in case.

Tour Arsenal

More than 100 Bethlehem Central High School juniors and seniors toured Watervliet Arsenal facilities during the past week in a series of four visits arranged in connection with their studies in distributive education.

The students observed various manufacturing processes employed in the production and assembly of US Army weapons including the 175mm self-propelled gun, 105mm tank gun and the 152mm gun launcher for the Sheridan Weapon System. They also visited the installation water pollution control plant, chrome plating facilities, and quality control areas.

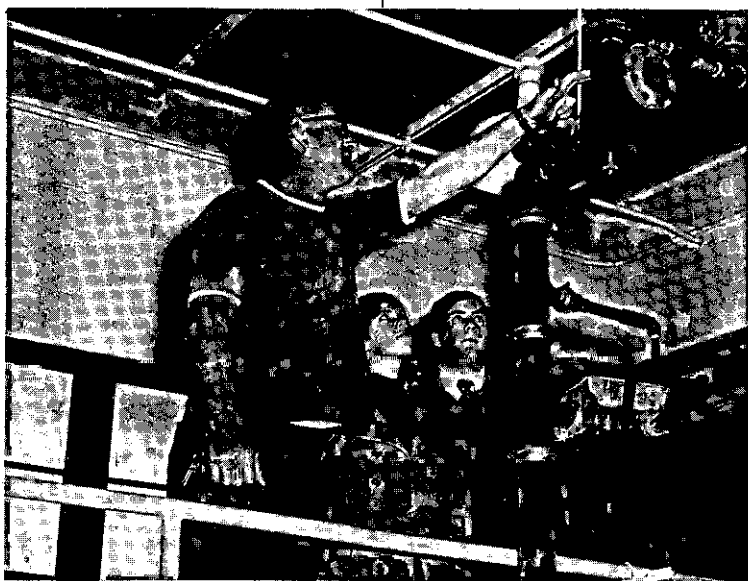

The visits were arranged by Robert Pearson of the BCHS faculty and Philip Lupe serving as tour coordinator for the arsenal.

Nightly Services

Nine United Methodist Churches in Albany and vicinity have joined forces to prepare for services to be held nightly from December 6-11 for combined congregations at the Delmar Church at 428 Kenwood Avenue.

The period marks the week of Proclamation, the second phase of a New Life Mission being conducted throughout the Troy United Methodist Conference.

The guest preacher at the Delmar services, Dec. 5-11, will be the Rev. Cornelius L. Henderson, Associate, Christian Community Section of the Board of Evangelism of the United Methodist Church at Nashville, Tenn. Each service will start at 7:30 P.M. and the Rev. Robert B. Thomas, host pastor will be in charge, assisted by the pastor of the eight cooperating churches of Slingerlands, Voorheesville, McKownville, Pine Grove (Colonie), Newtonville, and Albany's Trinity, Clavery (Pine Hills), and Calvary (Delaware Avenue).

Preceding each service at 6:30 P.M. there will be a "rap session" for the youth of all the cluster services, meeting with Rev. Henderson.

The first phase of the New Life Mission, sponsored by the United Methodist General Board of Evangelism, now in progress, is a period of preparation in each church, when members examine the basic function of the church and its relationship to the problems of the contemporary world.

There will be a third phase following the week of Proclamation, which is called "Penetration," and will be an effort to take the message of the church into each local community by studying social problems and ways in which Christians may help solve them.

Chairmen of the Conference-wide project are the Rev. Richard Chatterton, associate pastor

Cámara Club News

A pre-Christmas treat awaits members and friends of Delmar Camera Club on December 8. Florence Becker beckons us from the chill wintry winds to the sun-drenched islands of the Caribbean, as she presents a travelogue called "Columbus Was There." It will be a welcome respite at this hustle-bustle time of year to visit picturesque, out-of-the-way places through color slides.

On that date also a camera equipment sale will take place. Anyone having unused or unnecessary items he wishes to sell should price them and bring them to the meeting. Someone may have just the item you've needed to complete your photographic equipment.

The regular photography lesson at 7 P.M. on December 8 will cover "Problem Solving." Any questions you have regarding use of your particular camera, lighting, developing or any facet of photography can be answered at that time. A panel of semi-experts will be on hand to help you.

Commentary for the last monthly competition was given by Thomas Gwinn, a senior Fine Arts student at SUNY. Top winners in the color slide division for the assigned subject "Confrontation" were Howard Gallaher for "Why Can't I Sit Here?" Harry Bagley for "Cats and Snakes," Alice Porter for "Christmas Morning '69" and Florence Becker for "Make Me."

In the general category, honors went to Howard Gallaher for "Fall Scene," Marilyn Fancher for "Question Mark," Florence Becker for "Habitat of Human Mole" and Darwin Benedict for "Down East."

The black and white print competition winners were Cecil Terko for the assigned subject with "Friendly Confrontation," and Alice Porter and Charles Cross in the general category and "Still Life" and "The Race" respectively.

Christmas Dinner

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Elsmere Fire Co. will hold its annual Christmas dinner at the Silo Restaurant, Thursday, December 10, at 7:00 P.M. Cocktails will start at 6:30 P.M. Mrs. Paul Kleinke will preside at the meeting to follow.

Selkirk Travelogue

The second of the 1970-71 series of Travel Programs will be held at the Selkirk Fire Hall #1, Friday evening, December 4, at 8 P.M. when Miss Julia Damkoehler will present her program of color slides on Peru and other parts of South America.

The public is cordially invited to attend these programs. Refreshments will be served and there is no admission charge.

Excerpts

From "The Guidance Newsletter" of Bethlehem Central Senior High School

QUESTION: What do the High School guidance counselors do to help pupils get into colleges?

ANSWER: There are 401 seniors at Bethlehem Central High School this year, and about 85 per cent of them will be continuing their education, 55 per cent at four-year colleges and the rest at two-year colleges.

This means that the High School guidance counselors will be processing more than 1,000 college applications during this school year.

In addition, to help pupils narrow their choices of colleges, 75 representatives of college admissions offices have visited the High School from late September through November. Times and dates of these visits from admissions people are published regularly in the Guidance Newsletter. Parents are always welcome to come in and talk with the college representatives.

Chinese Auction

The St. Thomas Altar-Rosary Society will hold its second Annual Chinese Auction and Christmas Sale, at the school, Dec. 9 after the 7:30 P.M. Mass in the Church. Part of the proceeds are to be given to St. Anne's Institute. The Pastor, Father James D. Daley, will deliver a Christmas Message, and refreshments are to be served.

All the Ladies are urged to attend as this promises to be a delightful evening. Mrs. Joseph Gillespie has spent many months in organizing the preparation of handmade articles and baked goods.

Health Meetings

The Health Education Strand III study committees have been meeting weekly. The discussions are lively and additional participants are welcome. The High School committee recently met with Mr. Joseph Guerrero, director of health education and the two health teachers at the high school. They outlined the structure of the health program for this year, stressing that as with any new program it will be under constant scrutiny and review for several years. They recently completed a unit on Preparation for Marriage. This emphasized family structure and the purpose of marriage. Discussions included selection of a marriage partner, love vs. infatuation and engagement. The special stresses placed on a marriage by difference in age, economic factors educational and cultural backgrounds was a part of this unit.

Discussions on the prolonged life of family members today has led into the next teaching unit — Health, physiological and social. This includes diseases, personal health care, environment and pollution. The 3-5 study committee has received a series of narrated film strips recommended for those grades. In the next few weeks they will be discussing these. Their members have also been talking with teachers who taught the curriculum in '68. Reports will include classroom reaction and teacher response.

LETTERS

Dear Citizens of Bethlehem,

The following is the outline of the material the Gay Liberation Front was planning to speak on to a group of students at the Bethlehem Central Senior High School. The group has been invited by The Club, a civic-oriented organization, to give an educational discussion on Nov. 19.

I. What Society Does To The Gay Person

A. Economic Discrimination

1. Employment
2. Promotions
3. Termination

B. Political Discrimination

1. Entrapment by police
2. Blackmail

C. Social Discrimination

1. Imprisonment for crimes without victims
2. Ostracism from family, friends, schools, churches, and other social institutions
3. Segregation into gay ghettos and bars and the harassment involved.
4. Assumed unfitness to serve in armed forces and the harassment involved
5. Loved children taken from gay mothers
6. Daily personal harassment.
7. Murder of gay people

II. The Effect of Oppression On The Individual Gay Person

- A. Guilt
  - B. Alienation
  - C. Loss of Self-respect
  - D. The erroneous conviction that gay people are sick
- III. Question and Answer Period

The discussion was cancelled and the three speakers from the Gay Liberation Front were not allowed to speak. As you can see from reading the outline, the discussion is not about that taboo subject — sex. If you do not permit the G.L.F. speakers to speak you are violating the main values our country is supposed to be built on. We, the members of The Club, are trying to educate ourselves on many different oppressed peoples. Gay people are oppressed, and when they are not permitted to speak to the students, of BCHS they are denied their civil liberties — especially their freedom of speech. The students of The Club want to be educated. Give them your support, and please write a letter to the BC Sr. High today supporting the principles of our democratic country and saying the Gay Liberation Front should have the right to speak there.

Dear Sir:

A little over two years ago I wrote to the Spotlight asking that consideration be given to the installation of a traffic light at the corner of Elsmere and Kenwood Avenues.

Yesterday, in clearing my files, I came across the clipping from the Spotlight, and realized that nothing had been done, and blamed myself for not following up on the suggestion made by a lady in the previous issue. I had seen too many near-miss accidents at the intersection to continue sitting idly by.

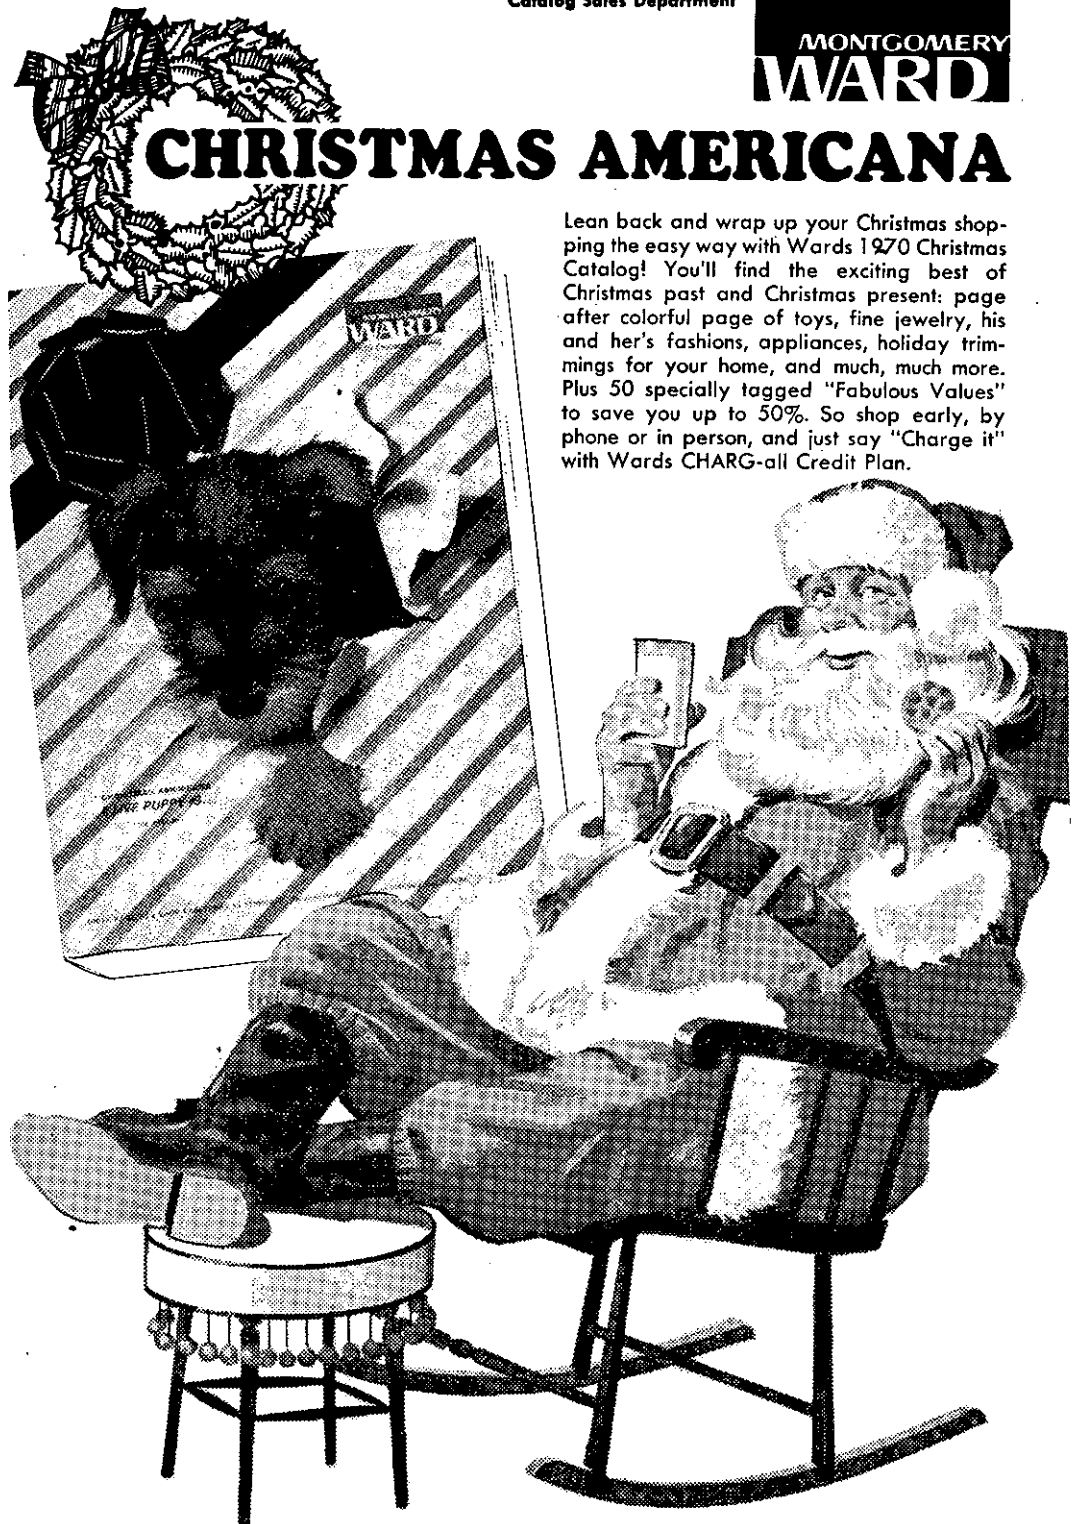

Tonight, on my way home I saw the blinking lights of an ambulance and police cars and the wreck of a rather new-looking automobile over on the sidewalk, I don't know the details at this moment, but came right home to write yet another appeal to all those concerned with traffic in our town to do something about putting up a light on the intersection of Elsmere and Kenwood Avenue. It must be done as soon

Bigger Dividend

State Bank of Albany's board of directors recently added an extra five cents per share to the quarterly dividend, increasing it to 45 cents per share.

At the same time, the directors announced plans for a five per cent stock dividend, the thirteenth consecutive stock dividend.

Hollis E. Harrington, president of State Bank, said "The increase in the quarterly dividend and the stock dividend reflect the excellent earnings of State Bank. We are equally confident of State Bank's future."

The 45-cents-per-share dividend will be payable Jan. 4, 1971 to stockholders of record Dec. 8, 1970.

The stock dividend must be approved by stockholders at State Bank's annual meeting March 9, 1971.

State Bank, the oldest financial institution in the region, has 31 offices.

New Law

Homeowners may have an extra battle to fight in their war against cockroaches, woodboring beetles and other household pest, a Cornell University researcher reports.

According to Prof. Edgar M. Raffensperger of the New York State College of Agriculture, Cornell, the enactment of the restricted pesticides section of the new Environmental Conservation Law will limit the use, distribution, and possession of a number of important pesticides to those possessing a special permit from the N.Y. State Department of Environmental Conservation.

Raffensperger explained that pesticides that were once commonly displayed on supermarket shelves will no longer be available on that basis. "Pesticides will have to be applied by those with the appropriate permit. These people will be professional pest-control operators," he explained.

Since the new law prohibits the possession or storage of certain insecticides, many markets are presently liquidating their supplies and are left with a minimum number of the permitted chemicals.

Prof. Raffensperger emphasized that "the pesticide problem of the homeowner is a year-around event." There are eight to 100 troublesome species and at any given time of the year one of these pests is at its maximum destructive ability.

"For this reason," stated Raffensperger, "we must now find improved methods of handling pesticides distribution to conform with the new law."

Raffensperger noted that New York State "is setting a precedent with the new restricted pesticide laws."

"Many states will be waiting to see how New York handles the administration of this new law," he added.

These comments were made last week at the 32nd annual meeting of the New York State Pesticide Conference held at Cornell.

Harold Moore

Mr. Moore is also a director of West End Federal Savings & Loan Association, director-treasurer of the Tracey Foundation, a director of the Adequate Wiring Bureau, a member of the Advisory Board to the Installment Credit Committee of the American Bankers Association and a director of the Consultation Service Center of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Albany. He is a communicant at St. Thomas Roman Catholic Church in Delmar.

New Director

Harold R. Moore, Senior Vice President in charge of the Installment Credit Department at National Commercial Bank and Trust Company, has been elected to the board of directors of the Eastern States Bankcard Association, Inc. The Association is the service in the eastern United States for Master Charge.

Mr. Moore, who joined National Commercial in 1966, is a resident of Delmar and a graduate of Catholic University, with an MBA degree, in Washington, D.C. He is a member of the Albany Chamber of Commerce, a director of the executive committee of the Albany Community Chest, president of the Northeastern New York Chapter of the Catholic University Alumni Association and a member of the Albany Country Club, the Fort Orange Club and the University Club.

New Franchise

Roy Feinberg, executive vice president, Austin Travel Centers, Inc., announced the opening of the firm's first franchise outside the new York metropolitan area with the assignment of franchise rights in the Albany area to the century old John G. Myers Co., Inc., a department and specialty store chain.

Grand opening ceremonies for the new unit were held on November 12th, when the storefront offices were officially opened at 37 North Pearl Street, next door to the Myers department store's former downtown location, recently closed by an urban renewal project. Albany's Mayor Erastus Corning II was in attendance to cut the ribbon.

The father and son franchisees, Robert E. and Robert N. Irish chose an AUSTIN franchise because of the "soundness of the Austin operation as well as the in-depth training and follow-up made available by the Austin organization.

The younger Irish, who is 30 years old and very active in the Jaycees, Elks and other community affairs displayed special interest in the group and corporate sales incentive areas of the business during a week of on-the-job training at the Austin Travel Centers headquarters building in Hicksville. The firm will rely heavily, during its initial campaign period, on a 30,000 name prime prospect list of John G. Myers Co. credit card holders. Louis Murnigham, formerly with Gill Travel, American Express and TWA will head up a staff of four agents.

Roy Feinberg, Austin Travel Centers' executive V.P. indicated that Austin expected to follow a conservative course, opening no more than ten franchise per year, to assure the success of every unit. An Austin franchise costs $10,000 and pays Austin 1% of the gross sales. "We're more interested in building and insuring our 1% interest in a franchisees business than we are in the front money in-involved," said Feinberg, "and in this regard we are unique."

Answers about..... BETHLEHEM CENTRAL Schools

By Ann Treadway
Director of Public Information
Bethlehem Central Schools

(It everybody happy? Only one question was submitted this past week. Parents and other school district residents are reminded that this column is your best available way to have questions about school matters answered. Call Mrs. Treadway weekday mornings at 439-4921, Ext. 261.)

QUESTION: What do the High School guidance counselors do to help pupils get into colleges?

ANSWER: There are 401 seniors at Bethlehem Central High School this year, and about 85 per cent of them will be continuing their education, 55 per cent at four-year colleges and the rest at two-year colleges.

This means that the High School guidance counselors will be processing more than 1,000 college applications during this school year.

In addition, to help pupils narrow their choices of colleges, 75 representatives of college admissions offices have visited the High School from late September through November. Times and dates of these visits from admissions people are published regularly in the Guidance Newsletter. Parents are always welcome to come in and talk with the college representatives.

Names of Bethlehem Central pupils on the Honor Roll of the BOCES (Board of Cooperative Educational Services) Area Occupational Center have recently been announced.

On the A Honor Roll are: James Mill and Kenneth Van Dyke.

Christmas Tea

The Town of Bethlehem Historical Association will hold its Christmas Tea at the Little Red Schoolhouse on Route 144 on Sunday, December 6, from 4 to 6 P.M. Members and friends are invited.

Mrs. Donald C. Hunter will have a number of her paintings on display.

Well known in this area, especially through his annual appearances with the Boston Symphony Orchestra at Tanglewood, Frager is internationally remarked for his musically and his mastery of Schumann. He studied with Carl Friedberg, a disciple of Brahms and Clara Schumann.

A magna cum laude graduate of Columbia University Frager speaks seven languages and has performed in 40 countries. He is the only pianist to win the Queen Elizabeth of Belgium and Leventritt competitions.

Julius Hegyi will conduct the concerts which will also include Colgrass' "As Quiet As," Prokofiev's Suite "A Love for Three Oranges" and Paul Creston's Marimba Concerto with soloist Richard Albagli.

The Extension Gardener

by

Dave Reville

Extension Horticulturist

Have you ever thought of creating an indoor garden area in your home - in the form of a planter box? This is an excellent way to divide a room, or provide a focal point in a room, suggests Dave Reville, Albany County Cooperative Extension Agent. Plants add life to a room and the thoughts of something alive and growing in these drab winter months offers us inspiration for spring.

As an example of how plants add life to a room, consider a tropical fish aquarium, with plants. It offers an amazing contrast to the aquarium devoid of aquatic plants. Plants, in this case, are focal points.

In your outdoor landscape plan color and texture are important components of your entire landscape. So also, in a different way, foliage plants can add texture and color. The Norfolk Island Pine - Araucarie - for example, is delicately fine textured compared to some of the larger leaved plants such as Ficus (rubber tree) and Philodendron. Color is also offered in abundance from foliage plants such as Caladiums, Dracaenas, and Wandering Jew, to name a few.

Mr. Reville states that in designing a planter, be original, use your creative talents and do not be afraid to try something new and different. Try and utilize unique containers you may have around the house. It makes no difference if they have holes in them or not, drainage can be provided by a bottom layer of gravel. The type and size of plant material will help determine planter size, especially depth because large foliage plants require good anchorage. Regardless of the planter size, it is a significant addition to the decor of a room. This fact should be considered when planning and maintaining it.

In selecting plants for an indoor planter, many factors must be considered. Two of the most important are: light requirements of the plants chosen and relating the plants to the location.

The Cooperative Extension Association of Albany County states that indoor light may be in the form of direct sunlight where the sun shines through the window onto the plant. Indirect bright light can be achieved by placing a plant in a window that does not receive direct sun or near a sunny window beyond the sun's rays. If indirect low light is needed, it can be found on or near an inside wall, or well into the middle of a room. But the light quality needed for normal growth, should be the same for all plants used in an individual planter. This is also true regarding the water requirements.

In relating the plants to the location, first determine where the planter will be located. If it is to be on a table, then foliage plants of average to moderate heights should be used. This would include plants like Ficus, Dracaena, Philodendron and Peperomia. The floor planters permit using larger plants such as Dieffenbachia, Schefflera and Monstera. If you choose to have a wall planter, utilize plants that are climbers and vines such as Ivy, Hoya and some Philodendrons.

In designing a planter, be sure the plants used will form a balanced design in proportion to the scale of the room.

To aid you in creating a planter, send for the following free bulletins:

1. Care and Use of Plants in the Home — Cornell #1073
2. Artificial Lighting for Decorative Plants — Cornell #1087.

Send your request to the Agricultural Division, Cooperative Extension Association of Albany County, Room 209, 441 Broadway, Albany, New York 12207 — or phone 472-3137.

Fund Appeal

George M. Elsey, American National Red Cross president, announced recently, that a nationwide appeal for funds to provide life-giving help for some three million Pakistan victims of what may be the worst disaster in world history was launched recently by the American National Red Cross. Earlier, the American society cabled an initial grant of $25,000 to the East Pakistan Red Cross. Thusfar, some 25 Red Cross societies throughout the world have contributed some $2 million in relief for Pakistan.

In announcing the urgent need for funds, Mr. Elsey said, reports of the devastation and suffering coming out of East Pakistan exceed anything his organization or the League of Red Societies in Geneva have ever before encountered in a natural catastrophe.

The ultimate death toll is beyond calculation and up to three million survivors in the disaster area are in desperate need of food, shelter and emergency medical aid. All resources of the world Red Cross organization and other relief sources will be required to prevent this from becoming an even greater catastrophe through starvation and spread of disease.

"GIVE ME BACK MY CAT!" Anne Frank (Cheryl Geurtze) is teasing Peter Van Daan (David Gazzetta), while in the background Mr. and Mrs. Van Daan (David Houghtaling and Nancy Mullenneaux) are going about their own business, unconcerned about the squabble. The scene is from the recent production of "The Diary of Anne Frank" at the Delmar Methodist Church. Charles Bradfield directed the show and Rev. Charles Wolfe produced it. An enthusiastic crowd over 225 people saw the production.

Jerry, Coren, Manager of the Hawaii American Red Cross chapter, is flying directly from Honolulu to the East Pakistan Capital of Dacca to help that country's Red Cross Society with its relief program. He will join teams of other Red Cross relief experts from around the world now in Pakistan or on the way.

Because of the great distance involved and the differences in clothing style and diet, most American Red Cross help and other U.S. aid is going to Pakistan in the form of funds for the purchase of relief supplies in that country and surrounding nations.

Our government has moved speedily and generously in this crisis, and it is now up to all of us to contribute whatever we can to help save millions of lives in Pakistan. The need is so great and unprecedented that all people everywhere must share this gigantic task.

Mr. Elsey said, all Americans Red Cross chapters are being asked to serve as a rallying point for the American people's generous fund contributions to this life saving relief operation.

He, also stated, that contributions made through the American Red Cross and marked for "Pakistan Relief" are tax deductible, and may be sent to the Albany Area Chapter, American Red Cross, Hackett Blvd. at Clara Barton Dr., Albany, N.Y. 12208. A number of contributions have already been received here in Albany and have been submitted.

To West Point

Three Bethlehem Central Senior High Tenth Graders recently toured West Point Military Academy as guests of the Capital District of New York Chapter of the Association of the United States Army.

The tourists are Michael Baxter, 58 Brookview Avenue, Elsmere; Scott Robertson, 44 Alden Court, Elsmere; and Bryant Kaczak of Clarksville. They were among a group of thirty Metro-landers who were bussed to West Point where they visited the Army Museum, attended a dress parade of the Cadet Corps and witnessed an awards ceremony for drill and sports achievements. An Army-Navy soccer game was also on the agenda.

The Capital District Chapter of the Association was established earlier this year. This was its first sponsored West Point visit. Of it, Chapter President Alexander J. Woehrle of Delmar said: "This is a voluntary, educational, non-profit organization made up of civilians and military personnel dedicated to the premise that a strong, modern, mobile Army, is vitally essential to our National defense. Sponsoring this bus ride to West Point for the young men from the community is a step in our educational program. It gives them a personal experience with the Army's major center of learning. It is a pleasure for the Chapter to serve the community in this manner. I am certain the Chapter will make the West Point visit a regularly scheduled event in its activities."
