A SLIDE, A GLIDE, and sometimes a fall but hundreds of Bethlehem residents have already enjoyed the ice skating rink at the Town of Bethlehem Recreation Park. Two well-maintained ice skating rinks are located at the junction of Elm Avenue South and Rte. 32. The whole family can safely use the larger rink, while the more spirited skater can play ice hockey on the other . . . and on the open spaces of the Recreation Park is plenty of room for snowmobiling. "Education in the 1970's and '80's." Prominent educational leaders will share the platform with students.

Good Work!

The surprise team in area high school basketball this year seems to be the Bethlehem Central Eagles. They have built up a 5 and 4 record with several stunning upset victories over Niskayuna, Shaker and Mohonasen. The success of this year's team is due to the fact that they have excellent depth, speed and shooting ability. The team has built up a feeling of confidence that is almost unbeatable. The losses this year are basically the result of mistakes, but these are being ironed out.

The Eagles are led by four returning seniors, Paul Spence, Bill Hauf, Bill Andrews, and Dave Abraham. The addition of Tom

Keenan, a junior, has given Coach Dale Walts an excellent starting group. John Mileson, a very capable transfer senior is 6th man, due probably to unfortunate illness this first half of the season. Paul Spence leads the team in shooting and scoring with a percentage of just under 60% and a 27.0 point average for 9 games. Bill Hauf leads the team in assists with 34, and Tom Keenan is the top rebounder with 62. The consistent foul-shooting of Paul

BILL HAUF, No. 12, scores for the BCHS Eagles in a recent Suburban Council contest with Scotia as Paul Spence, c, Bill Andrews, n, and Tom Kennan, l, wait for the score. A hustling team this year, the basketballers are providing local fans with plenty of excitement on Friday nights at the high school gym.

Spence and Bill Andrews and the hustle and muscle of Dave Abraham and John Mileson have been major contributions to the Eagle's success. Speaking of talent, Chuck O'Hara (a junior) B.C.'s own "Mr. Clutch" came off the bench in the Shaker game and with two clutch free throws that clinched the game.

Coach Walts can also call from the bench several capable forwards, senior Don Peterkin, juniors, Steve Tubbs, Joe McNamara, and Chuck Slater. Also available are two hard working sophomores Eric Nill and Doug Colbeth. The Eagle coach Dale Walts is one of the finest. His skill and knowledge of basketball have rubbed off on this surprising team.

Overcoming their comparatively small size and combining their confidence with the famous Eagle "press", this team could be right in the thick of things when the season ends.

"Bellylaff Festival"

If you enjoyed the first film of the Bethlehem Art Association's "Bellylaff Festival," come again. The second showing in the series will feature three silent film comedies (one is a Chaplin film). The arrangements are the same — everyone's invited. We ask a donation to defray cost of the films. Children must be accompanied by parents and bring along a pillow for them to sit on in case the seating fills up. The film will be shown Friday, January 29, at 7:30 in the Community Room of The Bank on Delaware Ave.

The monthly meeting of the Bethlehem Art Assoc., which is open to all, will have as guest speaker, Wendy Holt, noted area potter. Mrs. Holt will speak on Clay Processes and their Aesthetic affects. The artist will illustrate, by way of film, how good design results from the character of the clay and the way it's handled — as well as the intended use of the piece.

Wendy Holt's interest in pottery began in 1918 while watching Mexicans work. She has studied at the Pottery workshop in Boston and at Alfred University. She is presently teaching at the Capital District Psychiatric Center.

The meeting will take place on Wednesday, February 3, at 8 P.M. in The Community Room of The Bank.

Dance

Kevin Klersy, President of the Bethlehem Central High School Chapter of Distributive Education Clubs of America, has announced that the group will sponsor a dance on January 29, following the Bethlehem Central-Burnt Hills basketball game. Dancing will begin at approximately 9:30 and continue until 11:30 p.m., with music by the Stained Glass Window group.

Kathy Parks has been named general chairman of this event to raise money to send delegates to the Spring New York State Leadership Conference at the Concord. She has selected the following co-workers to head the committees: Gordon McAlpin, refreshments; Sandy Eck, Posters; Susan Bradley, Tickets; and Michael Dommermuth, Clean Up.

Re-elected

John E. Vroman was re-elected president of Home Savings Bank at the annual meeting held this week. All other officers and members of the Board of Trustees were re-elected. William J. Lytle Jr. of Greenwich, N.Y. was elected a vice president and a member of the Board of Trustees. He had been president of the Greenwich Savings and Loan Association which merged with Home Savings on January 1, 1971, to become the only savings bank in Washington County.

In his report to the Board, Mr. Vroman pointed out that mortgage accounts were converted in 1970 to an "on line" operation, permitting any teller at any of the bank's four offices to handle all types of savings bank transactions. He pointed out that in the one year that the Low Cost Savings Bank Life Insurance has been available, sales have exceeded $5,800,000, an accomplishment which he characterized as exceptional.

During the past years, the State Banking Department authorized a change in the corporate name from Home Savings Bank of the City of Albany to Home Savings Bank of Upstate New York.

At the start of the new year, the bank's assets, including the transfer of Greenwich S&L assets amounted to $125,533,665.41 compared to $117,734,138 last January 1.

Other Officers re-elected were Marshall S. Hannock, executive vice president; Storrs M. Bishop, secretary; Donald B. Tenney, vice president and treasurer; Andrew M. Sneddon, vice president; George L. Adams, assistant vice president; Raymond A. Griffin Jr. auditor; D. Edward Houle assistant treasurer; Stephen W. Chesley, assistant secretary, Paul J. Clarke, assistant treasurer manager of Central Avenue Office; Vincent J. Ganance assistant Treasurer, and manager Colonie-Wolf Road office and William J. Lytle Jr., vice president and manager Greenwich office.

Harry D. Yates was re-elected Chairman of the Board and the following trustees were re-elected. Edward S. Poole, Jacob H. Herzog, William Barnet II, Storrs M. Bishop, Herbert A. Jones, Albert Vander Veer II, Gerald W. Waldbillig, Hugh M. Flick, Marshall S. Hannock, Thomas M. Whalen Jr., William L. Thompson, John E. Vroman, John M. Watson and William J. Lytle Jr.

There's finally something an American can get in Europe quicker than a European. According to Helmut W. Lemke, Sales Manager of Langan Porsche/Audi, Inc., visitors to the Continent can now arrange for immediate delivery of new 1971 Audi sedans in any of five major European countries — Denmark, France, Germany, Italy and the Netherlands. In most of these countries, he said, local residents must wait from two to six months to obtain one of these new cars. The Audis, which are produced by Auto Union, a subsidiary of Volkswagen, in Ingolstadt, West Germany, are available in two- and four-door models in either the smaller "Super 90" or larger "100 LS" series. A station wagon in the "Super 90" series is also available for overseas delivery. Mr. Lemke said that aside from realizing substantial savings in the purchase of an Audi for delivery abroad, customers will also save money by obviating the need for renting a car if they're planning to motor their way around Europe. All arrangements for purchasing a car for delivery overseas can be made through the local Porsche/Audi facility located at 2240 Central Avenue, Schenectady, New York.

rick's Day parade on March 17, 1971.

One Soldier's Christmas

Private First Class Peter F. Rossman of Delmar celebrated Christmas deep in Vietnam's jungle.

Peter, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theron P. Rossman of 412 Delaware Ave., is a rifleman with Company D, 1st Battalion, 7th Cavalry, 1st Cavalry Division (Airmobile) and a 1969 graduate of Bethlehem Central High School.

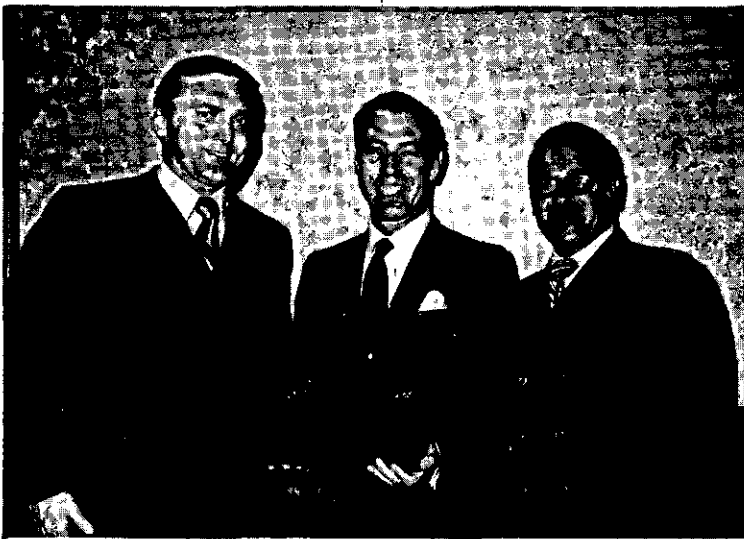

Home this Christmas was

Fire Support Base Green, a tiny cluster of sandbag bunkers, howitzers and dust located in a jungle clearing 60 miles north of Saigon.

Christmas began on the fire support base with an incredible proliferation of Christmas trees atop bunkers and gun pits as "Do not open till Christmas packages" fell before recipients' curiosity.

Surprises never ceased.

One soldier received an assortment of musical instruments plus 100 sheets of Christmas music from a mother determined that he and his buddies should celebrate Christmas in style.

IF YOU WANT TO STOP POLLUTION START WITH YOUR LAUNDRY!

Most laundry detergents are water polluters. They contain ingredients which corrode your plumbing, poison your drinking water and make rivers into smelly swamps and bogs.

GRAND UNION makes a detergent that's different. It gets your clothes "cleaner than clean" and "whiter than white" WITHOUT phosphates, NTA (a nitrogen compound) or skin irritating enzymes.

If you want to stop water pollution, start using Grand Union's no phosphate detergent with the red and green stripes on the box.

The water you save may be your own.

Another proud, if somewhat bewildered trooper, acquired a female mannequin's leg complete with nylon stocking and baby blue garter.

Christmas formally arrived at Rossman's battalion at 6 p.m. Christmas Eve when the cease fire brought 24 hours of precious peace.

Soon after, around an altar formed of ammunition crates, men joined in a traditional Christmas Eve worship service.

Darkness found flickering candles and men clustered in small groups under the starlit sky to share delicacies from home, visit, listen to tapes and sing to the accompaniment of a harmonica or guitar.

Only the mess tent hummed with steady activity.

Between 6 p.m. and midnight, three cooks prepared and baked 84 mincemeat and apple pies and a thousand rolls as preparations for the Christmas dinner commenced. By noon Christmas day they and their 15 cohorts had accomplished the seemingly impossible: complete Christmas dinners including shrimp, roast turkey, two kinds of dressing and potatoes for approximately 500 hungry men.

Midst these activities, somehow the cooks found time to pack Christmas dinner for men in the field, prepare bag lunches for 135 individuals flying to Bob Hope's show and cook and serve Christmas breakfast to 300.

Christmas Day was cool on Peter's little base. Two Red Cross girls helicoptered in to distribute gifts and cheer. Major General George W. Putnam Jr., Division Commander and a Congressman paid visits. At noon everyone gathered for dinner.

The day was even quieter in the jungle. In dimly lit caverns hacked from bamboo underbrush, infantrymen gathered and ate Christmas dinners flown in by helicopters proclaiming "Peace to All Men" and "Merry Xmas Grunts" scrawled on their sides.

Suddenly the radio crackled, "Element 4 is in contact." Someone muttered, "Damn Charlie, tell him to cancel the contact, it's Christmas." As if in answer the radio replied, "Negative contact, be advised we think it was just a pig."

One trooper received his best Christmas present Dec. 26. Returning from the Bob Hope show, the surprised soldier learned he'd been given a 46-day drop and should be home with his wife in five days.

Not everyone could be as lucky, but Peter and the rest could at least share one young soldier's Christmas thought: "All I want for Christmas is my life, my wife and my home. Something I'll have next year, God willing."

The Bethlehem Central Adult Education Class on pilots ground school will attend, according to Bob Hughes, Instructor. Club President Everiste Mielnik has issued an open invitation to the aviation community.

New Menus

Weight Watchers, the world's largest weight control organization, announced that it has developed new "legal" menus to substitute a wide variety of foods for fish.

However, the F.D.A. has reported that the amount of mercury found in fish has not constituted a health hazard. The modified Weight Watchers program, which includes alternate menus, would not affect the members' ability to lose weight safely and lastingly.

The foods that can be substituted for fish are: chicken, veal, sweet breads, white meat turkey, pheasant, cottage cheese, pot cheese, farmer cheese and ricotta cheese.

The Weight Watchers Program stresses a re-educating of members' eating habits and is not based on any one single food. Membership and regular attendance at Weight Watchers classes combined with determination to adhere to the Weight Watchers program, is the key to success in losing weight. The Capital District main office will gladly answer any questions. Call 489-8323.

Anniversary

Plans for a twentieth anniversary open house January 28-30 have been announced by Duncan S. Martin, President of Martin Business Furniture, inc., 330 Broadway, Albany, N.Y.

A general public open house will be held from 10:00 to 3:00 p.m. Saturday, January 30th, preceded by several special showings for selected groups on Thursday and Friday. During this time Martin's showrooms will be open for browsing, with members of the staff and manufacturers representatives on hand to answer questions.

The entire four story building, including showrooms and offices have been redesigned by Fred B. Hershey, N.S.I.D., head of the Interior Design Department at Martins'. Based on the theme of Environment '71, the displays will present the newest concepts in office and institutional furniture while giving particular emphasis to open plan or office landscape design.

The company was formed in 1951, when Henry W. Martin, now retired chairman of the board, purchased the business of Clayton E. Marsters, a half century old firm. Beginning with a staff of three which included one son, David W. Martin, now a dean at SUNY Albany, the company made its quarters in the old Times Union building at 23 Green Street. Two other sons, James H. and Duncan S. Martin returned from the service in 1955 to join the firm. In 1956 the move was made to its present location on Broadway. Continuing to grow in response to the needs of the business community, Martin Office Supplies was created in 1965 as an affiliate to branch out into an allied field. In 1966 a 20,000 square foot warehouse building was purchased at 1325 Broadway and the Supplies division moved to that location as well. Entry into the self service retail stationery business was made in 1969, when Martin Uptown was opened at 750 Central Avenue. Today there is a staff of 50 people at the three locations.

In analyzing twenty years of growth, Mr. Martin cited that the rate of change had accelerated greatly over the past few years. New concepts of office products have been added such as lateral filing and modular furniture. Over the past ten year span nothing has had more effect on office planning and product development than the Office Landscape or Open Planning. Brought on by expansion of the economy and growing government services, demands for space have become acute. Adding to this demand the cost of construction and maintenance, a new approach became necessary. The result is Open Plan, which offers flexible solutions to space planning with modular component furniture easily adapted to change and growth. The full impact of this has yet to be measured, however it will prove to be one of the most significant factors in office living for the next decade.

The company in Albany operates throughout New York State as a contractor to the State of New York. Its primary commercial market is centered in Metroland. Present officers of the company include James H. Martin, Executive Vice President, who is on leave of absence with the Peace Corps in Nepal;

Answers about..... BETHLEHEM CENTRAL Schools

By Ann Treadway
Director of Public Information
Bethlehem Central Schools

(Questions relating to school matters may be addressed to this column by mail to the High School, 700 Delaware Ave., Delmar, or by calling 439-4921, Ext. 267, weekday mornings.)

QUESTION: Why are some children being given physical examinations at school, free of charge, when parents were asked to have these done by family physicians?

ANSWER: A state law was passed last February requiring public school pupils entering a school district for the first time and all those starting grades 1, 3, 7 and 10 to furnish the school with a physician's health certificate.

A letter was sent to the parents of these children in our school district last summer, requesting their assistance in complying with the law by having their family physicians give these physical examinations. A follow-up letter was sent in the fall, making the same request of those parents who hadn't yet done so.

There are about 1,600 pupils in our district required by the new law to have these physical exams, and to date well over 1,000 have furnished certificates from their family physicians.

The state law also stipulates, however, that if a pupil does not submit the required health certificate, the school district must have the child examined by a physician.

The examinations provided in the schools are simply "health appraisals," and are much less thorough than those done by family physicians. Also, children of these ages should have booster shots — which are not provided in the schools.

Payment to doctors for health appraisals costs the school district $2 per appraisal. For 1970-71, a total of $1,200 was budgeted for this purpose. Since fewer than 600 pupils have failed to supply health certificates, the budgeted amount will be sufficient.

In past years, before the new state law was passed, the Bethlehem Central School District followed the same procedure of encouraging parents to have their children examined annually by their family physicians. Those pupils who didn't supply certificates were examined in the schools - and for the school year of 1969-70 this cost the school district $10,200.

School district officials appreciate the excellent cooperation shown by most parents in regard to this requirement.

QUESTION: My husband went to the High School to pick up our children from a basketball game on a recent Friday night. He arrived a few minutes before the game ended, but was told by a town policeman he could not enter the building. It was a very cold night and other parents were also made to wait outside. Why was this done?

ANSWER: School administrators regret that this happened. The policeman was acting upon the orders of an admissions official, who was following precedent based upon space limitations before we had the new gym facilities.

Mr. Max Karp, assistant High School principal, was present at the time and did over-rule the decision and allow people to enter the building. According to Miss Helen Hobbie, High School principal, the official policy from now on is that anybody may enter the building - for the purpose of picking up youngsters - anytime after the third quarter of the game is completed.

In regard to admittance to games, if the fire police at any time indicate that the maximum safe capacity of the gym has been reached, no more spectators can be admitted, with or without tickets. The school administration also reserves the right to refuse entry to any individual who has been asked to leave because of disorderly conduct.

Written copies of the official regulations governing admission to basketball games are available upon request from the principal's office at the High School.

On Saturday, January 30, 1971 beginning at 1:00 P.M. at La Salette Seminary Gymnasium (Rt. 156, Altamont, N.Y.) the Albany County Cooperative Extension 4-H Division will present a "4-H Horse Happening" for county youth.

Included in the program are informative displays on horse breeds, management, care, horsemanship techniques, movies, slides, talks presented by guest speakers and recreational activities. This is an attempt to bring various types of horse information to interested youth in addition to giving them the opportunity to share ideas.

Drama Workshop

A staged reading of one of the finest examples of modern theatrical writing will be presented by the Drama Workshop of the Albany Jewish Community Center at its annual Winter meeting. "No Exit" by famed French playwright Jean-Paul Sartre, will be offered in a workshop production and is one of a series in which members of the Drama Workshop try their hand at directing.

Assuming the directing chores will be Ellyn Offricht, Secretary of the group. Ellyn has appeared in several major productions, the latest being this past Fall in "Monique." She has also been assistant director of a major show, appeared in several scenes of workshop type and assisted in many backstage duties.

Featured in the reading, which deals with the reaction of three people who find themselves in Hell will be Gerald Duckor as the newspaperman, Phyllis Levine as the former office clerk, Beverly Vener as a young wife victim of a tragic love affair and Leo Burd as the room valet in the hotel in Hell.

The meeting will take place on Thursday, January 28th at 8:00 p.m. in the Center auditorium, 340 Whitehall Road. All persons interested are cordially invited.

To Appear

Howard da Silva will appear at the Albany Jewish Community Center in the first of the 1971 Performing Arts Series on Sunday, January 31 at 8:00 P.M.

The program, "An Evening of Theatre with Howard da Silva" will feature Mr. da Silva performing in scenes from plays he has acted in, written, produced and directed. From his long and varied career, he performs scenes from Fiorello, Cradle Will Rock, The World of Sholem Aleichem, David and Lisa, Galileo, The Zulu and the Zayda, Tevya and his Daughters and others. Mr. da Silva will introduce the scenes with a narrative describing the plays and anecdotes about the program.

The Performing Arts Series will also present "The Megilla of Itzik Manger" on Saturday, February 27th at 8:30 p.m. This satire will be performed in Yiddish and English and will star the internationally known husband and wife team of Lillian Lux and Pesach Burstein.

On Saturday, March 13th at 8:30 p.m., Arthur Cantor, Broadway producer will appear personally to conduct the viewers through his personal reminiscences of his experiences in producing the film "The Golden Age of Second Avenue." The film, narrated by Herschel Bernardi, will pay tribute to the 75 years of Yiddish Theatre in America and will include such greats as Boris Tomashevsky, Celia Adler, Molly Picon, Maurice Schwartz and Paul Muni.

There are still some series tickets available and anyone wishing tickets may contact Dave Lobei, general ticket chairman at 482-7282 or call or come to the Center office to purchase tickets. Individual admissions will be available the night of the performance. This series is made possible by the assistance of the New York State Council on the Arts and the invaluable support of the Center Patrons for the Performing Arts.

New Director

Mrs. George H. Phelps of Delmar will be the new executive director of the Albany Young Women's Christian Association as of February 1, it has been announced.

Mrs. Alexander Gibbons has resigned the post because of illness in her family. She has been executive director for the past 16 months.

In announcing Mrs. Phelps' appointment, Mrs. Robert L. Devitt, president of the Albany Y.W.C.A. board of directors, said:

"We are fortunate indeed to have a woman the calibre of Virginia Phelps to shoulder the responsibilities borne so capably these past 16 months by Harriet Gibbons.

"Mrs. Gibbons, by her dynamism and great talent, sparked the Y.W.C.A. into new avenues of service. Mrs. Phelps, with her special gifts, will help us to carry out the continuing development and expansion of our program for women of all creeds, all races, all conditions of life."

Mrs. Phelps, mother of five and wife of the minister of Delmar Presbyterian Church, holds a master's degree in rehabilitation counseling from SUNY. She was graduated from Wellesley and attended Yale Divinity School. She has served as a Director of Christian Education both at Yale and at the Delmar Presbyterian Church.

Among her many volunteer activities in the Albany area have been work on the Community Chest and the Budget Advisory committee of the Bethlehem school District. Long active in Wellesley Club, she organized the first of its annual house tours when she was club president in 1960.

of raising funds to support the local treatment center. In addition to the Center, the Telethon now provides the support for the School for the Disabled in New-tonville, as well as the programs carried out by Cerebral Palsy Affiliates in Ulster County, Berkshire County, the Glens Falls Tri-County area, and the Central Mohawk Valley.

The Telethon held last February produced more than $250,000 to be used in habilitating youngsters afflicted with cerebral palsy.

New System

The Saratoga Performing Arts Center has established a new priority system for filling ticket orders. A $100-or-more contribution to the 1971 season's operation will be the only means to gain priority over general mail order purchases.

In past years, anyone who had ever contributed such an amount would remain on priority lists from year to year. With the exception of Life and Charter members, these lists will now terminate at the end of each season. By this means, Arts Center officials hope to activate a more efficient and advantageous priority system and to inspire the Center's patrons to contribute annually at the beginning of the year.

Such a contribution also gains the donor a sustaining membership in the Center with an invitation to attend the annual Arts Center meeting and certain New York City Ballet and Philadelphia Orchestra rehearsals. This membership also entitles the member to advance notice of Ballet and Orchestra programs and a vote at the annual meeting plus two free tickets for the performance of that day. Other memberships and benefits also available are described in S.P.A.C. literature which is available upon request. Season Series Brochures listing discount ticket series, Ballet and Orchestra schedules, and some special events will be available at the end of February. For further information contact the Saratoga Performing Arts Center, Saratoga Springs, N.Y. 12866.

Officers Elected

Newly-elected officers of the Bethlehem Tennis Association were announced at the group's recent annual dinner-dance, held Jan. 9 at the Normanside Country Club.

Officers for 1971 are: President, Walter Gould; vice-president, Mrs. Jessie Witt; secretary, Mrs. Leonard Tucker; and treasurer, Jerome St. Clair.

Named to serve on the executive board were: Maynard Parsons, Vernon Smith, Mrs. Rue Moore, Mrs. John Manne, and Dr. Arthur Tomlinson.

Co-chairman of the dinner-dance, attended by more than 100 people, were Mrs. Raymond Ryan and Mrs. Witt.

The Bethlehem Tennis Association has recently become affiliated with the United States Eastern Lawn Tennis Association. It sponsors adult tennis classes, ladder and elimination tournaments, and inter-club matches locally.

Bond Purchase

The First Trust Company has been awarded the purchase of bonds totaling $1,500,000 on the new Bethlehem Public Library. The interest rate is 5.4 per cent.

VINCENT D. BYTNER has recently been elected to the Board of Directors of Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Albany County. Mr. Bytner is owner of Bytner Travel.

with a premium of $1,440.00.

Bids were opened on Jan. 7. The bonds are presently being printed and are scheduled for Feb. 9 delivery.

Present at the joint Library Board - Board of Education meeting when the action was taken were: Theodore Wenzl, Raymond Stout and Mrs. Barbara Rau, from the Library board; Lindsay Boutelle, Board of Education president; Delmar Everett, school district superintendent; Delbert Collis, school district business administrator; and Theodore Carlson, attorney for both the school and library boards. Mrs. Jean Adams, school district clerk, opened the bids.

Meeting

The Bethlehem Environmental Improvement Association announces that its January 26 meeting will include a workshop on waste paper recovery. Brigadier Martin L. Cox of the Salvation Army will direct the workshop and Scout officials and students from the Bethlehem schools will participate. The workshop will focus on the operation of paper drives in this area.

Brigadier Cox will explain the householder's role in separating and bundling the newspapers, magazines, cardboard boxes, and clothing for pickup service.

The workshop will attempt to make recommendations for establishing a neighborhood schedule for Salvation Army collection service. This schedule would carefully consider the paper collections regularly made by other service organizations and churches.

The Bethlehem Environmental Improvement Association wants the public to have the best possible plan for collecting paper materials. The plan should help alleviate the present and future solid waste problems of the Town of Bethlehem; should consider the various groups' reliance on paper collections for fund raising; and should meet the need for recovery of this important, reusable resource.

Mrs. Saul M. Caro represented the Bethlehem Environmental Improvement Association at the public forum on Ecology and the Consumer, held on January 11, in Schenectady. Mrs. Caro, while attending the workshop, Environmental Action in the Home, observed that the questions most raised by the participants concerned the practical aspects of collecting paper, bottles and aluminum for reuse. The need for the recovery of these materials was well recognized. However, the actual job of collecting and returning these materials remains a major household and community problem.

Now the Bethlehem Environmental Improvement Association is giving the public a chance to find out how to handle the waste paper materials and to help establish the most workable paper collection program for the Tri-Village.

Our guest, workshop director, Brigadier Cox, is the Director of the Men's Social Service Center of the Salvation Army at 452 Clinton Avenue, Albany. He is very familiar with the collection and handling of reusable materials since one of his department is the Waste and Salvage Department. This department collects and sells waste paper materials to recyclers and also sells reusable clothing, books, magazines and many other items at its store. The Waste and Salvage Department wholly supports the Service Center through its operation.

The BEIA meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, January 26, at 8 P.M., in the Community Room of The Bank, Four Corners, Delmar. Election of officers for 1971 will also take place at this meeting.

As always, the public is urged to attend.

Actually, more volunteers are needed in both transportation and sitting, so if you haven't volunteered and can help, let us know. Call "FISH" 439-3578 give your name and phone number and you will be contacted and assigned. Now we can accept transportation help for short periods of the day as well as for a twelve hour stint.

How many calls has FISH made? The answer is "lots." To be specific, the 275 volunteers have made the months of November and December of 1970, happier for 45 persons who had needs. One college student was given material about "Fish" for a speech. Two families have been helped six times with food shopping. Three families were helped eight times with baby-sitting. Three leaders of youth groups have volunteered group help to "Fish." Five families received approximately ten meals that served twenty-six persons. Five persons desiring to start "Fish" units in their areas have been advised. Eight persons have been given transportation thirteen times. Ten callers have been helped through use of the referral list prepared by Mr. and Mrs. James Gersitz.

try a little KINDNESS

Be kind to our fine feathered friends. Feed them in the winter—not the summer. Ornithologists say summer feeding robs birds of the training to hunt for their own food.

Don't take up two parking spaces.
