Film

On Sunday, February 14th, a film will be shown in the Community Room of the National Commercial Bank of Delmar. The new film, "No Greater Love," is put out by World Vision, an organization that cares for the orphans in the war torn countries of Vietnam, Cambodia and Pakistan. Filmed entirely in Vietnam, under combat newsreel conditions, it presents a different kind of Vietnam report. "No Greater Love" emphasizes one often overlooked aspect of the complex situation which is Vietnam today. It is the story of

Resolution Adopted

The Town Board of the Town of Bethlehem adopted a resolution at its meeting held January 27, 1971, granting residents of the Town of Bethlehem who are eligible, sixty-five years of age or older and with income of $5,000 per year or less, an exemption from taxation by the Town to the extent of 50% of the assessed valuation of their property.

Application must be applied for through the Board of Assessors of the Town of Bethlehem at Town Hall, 393 Delaware Avenue, Delmar, New York.

This resolution was adopted following a public hearing and becomes effective February 15, 1971

The film is sponsored by the Christian Underground, a group of senior high youth who meet regularly in homes to pray, study the Bible, and proclaim the gospel of Christ.

The film will be shown once at 3:00 P.M. and again at 3:45. A free will offering for the ministry in caring for these small victims of war will be taken after each showing.

Time to Share

On the evening of February 17, all members of the Tri-Village Welcome Wagon Club will have the opportunity to donate a few hours of their time to some worthwhile community projects. All of us probably wish we could do more volunteer work, but somehow can't seem to find the time. Now you can change all that. Leave the children home with your husbands and come to the Community Room of the National Commercial Bank in Delmar at 8 P.M., where we will share our time in 3 work projects.

The evening will be divided into 2 parts. During the 1st half, we will listen to Mrs. David Philips, placement director of the Volunteer Bureau of Albany, discuss the wide range of possibilities for volunteer work in the Albany area. Perhaps she will mention an area of volunteer work some of the members have not considered before.

Mrs. Lawrence J. Ward, TIE Co-ordinator, will speak to us about this highly successful program. TIE gives families in our area the rich experience of sharing our homes and ourselves with children of the Inner City for a day.

The second half of the evening will be devoted to completing 3 work projects. One of these will be preparing packets to be used in the Multiple Sclerosis fund drive.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Donald Stevens of the Albany Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, we will make 200 tray favors for patients at Memorial Hospital.

The 3rd project will be something brought by the Albany Volunteer Bureau, which project as yet undecided.

There is also a special request from the Albany Volunteer Bureau that any of us who have scraps of material around the house that would be suitable for making quilts, to please bring them to the meeting. There is a real need for these scraps, so you sewers check that box of leftover material.

Co-chairmen of this evening of sharing are Mrs. Steven Haycock and Mrs. Richard Mericle, assisted by Mrs. Robert Brenner, Mrs. John Watson, and Mrs. Robert Reinecke.

Is one evening of your time too much to ask? Come lend a helping hand for a couple of hours.

Applications Ready

Bethlehem Central High School pupils may apply now for the Anne Elbow Scholarship Fund, which will provide travel expenses for a student exchange visit to Latin America this summer.

Application forms are available in the Guidance Office of the High School. Deadline for applying is Feb. 22.

Pupils in grades 9 through 12 are eligible to apply for the scholarship money, to participate in the exchange program sponsored by the International Fellowship.

The pupil selected to make the trip will be expected to share his or her travel experiences with school and community groups next year. This means that seniors who apply for the travel scholarship should plan to be located in the area after the summer.

The Bethlehem Central chapter of the American Field Service has established the summer exchange scholarship in memory of Anne Elbow, who was killed in an airplane crash while visiting Peru as an exchange student last summer.

The local AFS group is also raising money to help pay expenses for a foreign student to visit our community next year. A pizza drive, to raise funds for this purpose, will be held on March 13.

New Patrol

A new Safety Patrol has been installed to serve for the remainder of this school year at the Slingerlands Elementary School. The whole student body attended the ceremonies held Monday at 9:30 A.M., February 1.

Girl Scout Troops #546 and #116, under the leadership of Mrs. Frederick Holler and Mrs. Ralph Schoeffer, opened the assembly. Color bearers presented the flag for salute and "The Star Spangled Banner." Mrs. Edna Ableman, teacher, accompanied on the piano. The two troops recited the Girl Scout Laws.

Miss Mary Bida, principal of Slingerlands Elementary School, thanked the outgoing Safety Patrol for their fine and helpful. services rendered to the school for the past semester.

A congratulatory message was given by Miss Bida to the incoming Safety Patrol members. Miss Bida pointed out that the good citizenship qualities of scouting School Patrols provide an educational experience for all who participate and they serve to remind the entire student body of safe practices.

(Residents of the school district with questions about school matters are invited to address them to this column by calling Mrs. Treadway weekday mornings at 439-4921, Ext. 267, or mailing them to her at the High School.)

QUESTION: Why does my son have to wait so long to see his High School guidance counselor?

ANSWER: There are 1,645 pupils at Bethlehem Central High School, and five guidance counselors.

Every High School pupil is assigned a counselor when he enters the school as a freshman. The counselor assignments are made alphabetically and every counselor is assigned pupils in grades 9 through 12. Every counselor is responsible for from between 310 to 340 pupils.

Guidance counseling is done throughout the school year, and includes course scheduling and post-graduate planning, (which are related) dealing with academic difficulties, and personal counseling.

If a pupil wishes to talk with his counselor, he signs up on the counselor's schedule in the Guidance Office and then is called in when time is available. Usually he sees his counselor that day or the next day, with a three-day wait being unusual.

As in many fields, guidance counseling tends to be "seasonal." The big rush is on at the start of every school year and then directly after mid-term examinations (like now!) when pupils realize some course adjustments are needed because of how they fared on the exams.

The five guidance counselors at the High School are Mr. Bruce Austin, Mrs. Karen Farley, Mrs. Helen Kozma, Mrs. Mary-Dorothy Morand, and Mr. Richard Rossuck. According to Mr. Austin, they are loing more and more personal counseling all the time. "This is a definite trend," Mr. Austin said recently, "and we see some kids with problems as often as two or three times a week."

The guidance counselors believe one of their most important unctions is to help pupils — and their parents — assess a pupil's apabilities realistically. "There are a lot of pressures on students oday," Mr. Austin said, "and we try to help each one, individually, o find his own educational goals and direction."

There are no plans at present to increase the High School couneling staff. In order to give them enough counseling time, however, teps are being taken to have some other Guidance Office tasks taken wer by school volunteers.

For example, the career visitation program now going on (pupils isiting local people on-the-job) has been organized and administered nostly by two volunteers.

Choraliers, a choir composed of sixty-four musically inclined juniors and seniors at Bethlehem Central Senior High under the direction of Mrs. Magdelene York, have been assiduously working toward their March 14 concert date. A concert different from others in that they have been invited to sing a half hour concert at the Washington National Cathedral in Washington, D.C.

They have accepted the challenge of saving enough money, and are now earnestly asking that anyone having either Triple-S Blue Stamps or S&H Green Stamps that they will not be using or would like to donate, call either 439-3109 or 439-5390 to arrange for a pick-up. They will accept either of these trading stamps even not pasted in books, so if you have them throughout your car and purse please search and call one of the numbers. It will be appreciated.

A chicken dinner, film festival, Hallowe'en insurance, and leaf raking include the choir's other money-making adventures which have met with success, but a three-day-two-night-trip is costly even when buying peanut butter and jelly sandwiches by the

Since receiving permission from Miss Helen Hobbie, principal, to miss a day of school to tour our nation's capital, they have been going full speed ahead on learning new choral pieces to present in Washington, and watching their bank account

They would like to thank all of those in the community who have supported their previous projects and hope for the same amount of success with this drive.

Come In and Get Warm!

In midst of winter's doldrums there's a hearth fire burning each day from one to nine p.m. in the Lounge of the Bethlehem Public Library. Warming to the heart as every open fireplace is, this is a very special fire as the Library uses the wood from donors over the years. There are a few apple tree sticks left, from down Adams Place, a big burly chunk of maple which came in a basket from Unionville, the remnants of the first old elm of the Library to go in 1954. The Staff hopes you'll drop in and sniff the memories as cellar and attic are being cleared toward our moving day. How many borrowers have known we had an attic? The Library is going on record to say no skeletons have appeared, to date at least.

Come get your book and nod before our fire these bitter days.

Horse Happening

La Salette termed the Albany County 4-H Horse Happening a success despite bitter winds and inclement weather. An enthusiastic crowd of forty visitors and fifteen workers were recorded present Saturday, January 30, during the three hour program. The seminary gymnasium set the scene for the "Kids and Kolts 4-H Club" tack room display that exhibited various types of equipment used by horse owners and showers. Carolyn Harvey of the Hoofbeats 4-H Club in Voorheesville handsomely displayed the various breeds of horses with pictures, games, books and sheets with recorded breed association addresses. Mrs. Jennings of Circling Hawks Farms invited all to try their hand at labeling of colors, conformation and anatomy features of the horse with her Color-Conformation Display. A health exhibit processed by 4-H Horse Field Representative Mrs. Marilyn Miles and 4-Her Donna Wright displayed some thirty books on health hints and horse care with bibliography sheets for everyone's personal reference. The Cooperative Extension 4-H Division of Albany furnished written horse material that is available to 4-H members at no charge.

Mrs. Bouchard, 4-H leader, gave a helpful demonstration and talk with the aid of slides on the proper haltering and typing procedures. Dr. Ted Sprinkle of the Delmar Animal Hospital, graciously gave one hour of his time to the program on Health and Nutrition of which he spoke and by answering the personal health questions raised by his audience. to end the program a movie was viewed after a soda break. John Herman of La Salette showed the guests Monty Foreman's film called "Riding by Reasoning." At approximately 3:45 P.M. the activities came to an end. Now, the project arises for all those who attended to put the wealth of knowledge gained at La Salette's Horse Happening into useful practice!

New Service

An independent, unbiased Professional Engineer's report on the structural and mechanical features of a house is now being offered to prospective home buyers.

"Robert B. Norton, Consulting Engineer" is offering this service on the assumption that the final decision on a proposed purchase, especially a "resale" often hinges on unresolved doubts about the structural and mechanical qualities of the home. This is due to the fact that the majority of home purchasers are unfamiliar with construction and are about to acquire their first piece of real estate.

New home purchasers can also take advantage of this service before entering into final contract in order to determine whether or not deficiencies or omissions exist.

The buyer may directly request this service from Robert B. Norton, Consulting Engineer; the buyer's attorney may advise his client to seek expert advice before signing the actual sales contract; a real estate broker may feel a potential buyer's doubts will be resolved by a detailed inspection.

The service is performed at the expense of the prospective buyer for a moderate fixed fee amount and reports are made directly to him. All work is performed by graduate Engineers

The inspection report is not an appraisal of the property nor does it make recommendations to buy or withdraw. It merely cites, in a series of inspection sheets the condition of every detail that affects the house structurally and mechanically.

This report, for example, gives condition of drainage system, sidewalls, roof, leaders and gutters, exterior paint and hardware: cellar inspection takes note of such items as floor, walls. electrical system, heating and hot water system, plumbing, ventilation as well as checking for possible evidences of termites. Each room is inspected as to condition of walls, ceiling, floor and outlets; kitchen appliances and bathroom plumbing are checked also.

The report serves also as a ready reference sheet after the property has been acquired.

The purpose of this service, according to Mr. Norton, head of the firm, is to give the client detailed information about features he is not able to judge himself, and to ascertain whether allowances have been made in the purchase price for any defects.

Robert B. Norton, Consulting Engineer has offices at 44 Fairway Avenue, Delmar, and has available a free descriptive brochure describing this service in more detail.

BEIA Report

The Bethlehem Environmental

Improvement Association thanks Brigadier Martin L. Cox of the Salvation Army for his informative discussion of the process of collecting and recycling waste paper products. Brigadier Cox's positive and practical approach to this increasingly complex process was based in part on the Salvation Army's 100 years' involvement in this business. The Men's Social Service Center of the Salvation Army at 452 Clinton Avenue, Albany, is wholly supported through the operation of its Waste and Salvage Department.

For the present, Brigadier Cox gave some directions for handling waste paper products in the home. Stack newspapers separately from the other waste paper products. Collapse card board boxes and stack. Bundle magazines separately. Magazines should be tied up or packed in a carton as their glossy covers cause much slipping when handled. Books, clothing, and other reusable household items will also be collected by the Salvation Army.

At this time, homeowners should request pickup service from Scout and service group paper drives when these are announced in the paper or they may call Salvation Army (465-2416).

For the future, hopefully this Spring, the Salvation Army plans a pilot project for more efficient and increased paper co ection service in parts of Latham and Guilderland, and now in Bethlehem. As collection service schedules and local operating procedures are announced by the Salvation Army, the Bethlehem Environmental Improvement Association will report them to the public.

Brigadier Cox invited Mrs. V. Van Volkenburgh of Delmar, as a representative of BEIA, to join the committee of participating communities working on this pilot project.

The Bethlehem Environmental Improvement Association also thanks Supervisor Bertram E. Kohinke for attending our meeting. We were pleased to hear Mr. Kohinke's appreciative comments regarding our concern

They Have A Goal

Swimming has become a major sport in the Town of Bethlehem as both quantity and quality show us that the citizen-backed program is paying off. Led by Co-Captains Jim Terwilliger and Jack Van Ryn, the varsity team of Eagles remains undefeated as of this writing for the 1971 season. Varsity Coach Ray Sliter, Diving & JV Coach Bob Keens and Freshman Coach Jack Whipple are seeing the results of a foundation laid approximately nine years ago. The team of Delmar Dolfins has fed the present Varsity swimming team to the point where they are in the midst of a possible second undefeated dual meet season.

Led by Seniors Scott Gill (undefeated in the breaststroke this year), the team with Jim Terwilliger a steady winner in the freestyle and Jack Van Ryn, a strong backstroker and Individual Medley competition has contributed strongly to the title our swimmers are seeking. Eric Sweet, the leading diver in the conference, can always be depended upon to add points to the winning team.

Juniors Matt Reagan, striking out strongly in the tough 400 freestyle, and Steve Anderson, a fine backstroker, are coming on strong to continue the pattern for another year. The sophomores are loaded with free stylers in Mike Delaney, Bob Hedderman, Paul Van Ryn, and Rich Bailey who is used in many events to plug the gaps. The depth of the team brings to the front of the line other good prospects for our future: Freshman Greg Brannick in the breaststroke & Individual Medley and Rolf Olsen, a diver who through lots of hard practice, has shown great potential.

The leadup teams of Junior Varsity (one loss in two years) and Freshman (unbeaten in two years) indicates the potential depth in years to come. Boys such as Larry Macomber, Mark Smith, Jim Brewster, Gordon Dingman, Dave Paepke, Tim Foy, Craig Doremus, Bob Treiling, Jim Harder, Mike Eyre, Dave Brossman, Hank Byer, Ken Mosher, Gary Hickey, Mike Fitzpatrick, Malcom Cooper, Leonard & John Steele have helped to make these teams successful.

What are the team goals of the B.C. Eagles? On Wed., Feb. 17, they meet Troy High in what could decide the Adirondack Championships. On Wed., Feb. 24, they also meet, at home, their old rival, Shaker. The season for the team is climaxed on Sat., March 6, at SUNYA here in Albany as the Eagles strive to win their first Section II Swimming Championship.

many other areas in which FISH with its roster of generous volunteers is ready to render assistance or service. In addition, there has been an upsurge of volunteers. This is due no doubt to the first progress report which clearly demonstrated that in the first two months of operation Tri-Village FISH had answered positive needs in Delmar, Elsmere & Slingerlands.

Residents of the Tri-Village area are asked to keep in mind that FISH is ready, able and eager to give emergency aid to any who need to be taken to the doctor, the hospital or on other urgent transportation calls. FISH will supply emergency sitting for all ages or help you find a sitter through its referral list which covers countless other unexpected problems. Food service may be the lift that a family whose homemaker is temporarily incapacitated needs to keep them going through the emergency. Remember the phone for FISH is in the Albany Telephone Directory. Just look up FISH. Then call 439-3578. Call FISH for help. Call it also if you want to give help. Transportation volunteers are still needed on weekends and sitters for week days and weekends. Call Mrs. Jordan Vail 439-1647 or Marion M. "Antigone"

The Man and Science class of the Bethlehem Central Senior High School will present "Antigone" on Friday, February 12. Although the play was first written by Sophocles 2400 years ago, its message is as fresh today as it was then. The play, directed by Mr. Turner, was revised by Jean Anouilh for modern audiences and the result is a truly absorbing tragedy. Tickets are $1.00 for students and $1.50 for adults.

2nd Program

The Albany Jewish Community Center with the assistance of the New York State Council on the Arts will present "The Megilla of Itzik Manger" as the second program for the 1970-71 Performing Arts Series on Saturday, February 27 at 8:30 p.m.

The Megilla, starring the internationally renowned stars, Pesach Burstein and Lillian Lux. takes the story of Esther and tells it in a new or rather different way. Manger, the author of the text, is a true folk poet. Starting with the heroic Book of Esther, he has added the wisdom, the tears and the laughter of a culture he was born into and knew very well, that of the Jewish "shtetl." The story was written as a series of related poems.

Dov Seltzer, the composer of the Megilla with Smuel Bunim who dramatized the Manger poems, have produced not a continuation of the Yiddish theatre as we know it, but a complete departure from it into a new form.

This highly successful show was produced in Israel where it won the Israeli "Oscar" for best musical of the year.

Lillian Lux, who has performed with such greats as Maurice Schwartz, is Mrs. Burstein offstage. Her husband Paul (Pesach) Burstein has performed with Boris Thomashevsky on Broadway in a production of the "Jolly Tailors" with Rudolph Schildkraut and Ludwig Satz. This led to a contract with Columbia Records where he subsequently made over 300 recordings. How, after seven years in Israel, both he and his wife have been giving performances of the Megilla throughout the United States.

General admission tickets are $3.50 and $1.50 for students and are available in the Center office at 340 Whitehall Road or at the door on the night of the performance.

Ski Races

The largest international alpine ski race ever held in the State of New York is scheduled this year for the state's biggest ski mountain, Whiteface, in the Lake Placid — Wilmington region, March 11-14 when nine countries send teams of their best collegiate skiers to the preliminary F.I.S.U. (International Federation of University Sports)

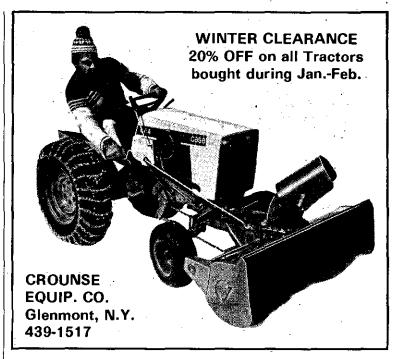

Plans are well advanced for preparation of the race courses on the 4,867-foot peak where the ski center is operated by the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation.

Downhill, slalom and giant slalom races for both men and women will be held during the our-day meet in a preview of the fullscale 1972 F.I.S.U. games events involving more than 20 countries.

Yugoslavia, Austria, Germany, Italy, France, Canada and the United States are sending full teams of five men three women and a coach to this year's preliminary F.I.S.U. races, while Switzerland and Norway have indicated that they, too, will participate.

The March events at Whiteface, a part of the 1971 Kennedy Memorial International Winter Games program, are sanctioned by the Lake Placid Ski Club, with the Capital District Winter Sports Council of Albany assisting in staging the races.

Responsible for the 1972 F.I.S.U. winter games, a series of Nordic and alpine skiing, speed skating and ice hockey events, are the Temporary State F.I.S.U. Commission created by the 1970 Legislature, and headed by Assemblyman Willis Stephens of Brewster, N.Y. and the F.I.S.U. Organizing Committee of the Lake Placid Winter Sports Council, headed by Ron McKenzie of Lake Placid.

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

- Q) To have you compute my tax, should I just bring my return into an IRS office?
- A) No, the computation is done at the IRS service center for your area when you file your return. The IRS will figure your tax if your income is $20,000 or less and consists only of wages or salaries, and tips, dividends, interest, pensions, and annuities and you choose the standard deduction instead of itemizing deductions.

The IRS will figure both the retirement income credit and your tax for you if you meet the income and deduction requirements. Just follow the instructions at the top of Schedule R. Be sure to attach the necessary schedules and W-2's and sign your return. Further details on this can be found on Page 2 of the 1040 instructions.

- Q) My son made over $1,000 last year. Does that mean I'il lose his exemption?
- A) The amount of your son's earnings will not change his dependency status if he was either a full-time student during five months of the year' or under 19 at year's end. The support and other dependency tests must still be met, however.
- Q) Since I was not married until last fall, I was single most of the year. Can I file a joint return?
- A) Yes, your marital status for tax purposes is determined by what it was on the last day of your tax year. For example, someone married on the last day of the year is considered married for the entire

Q) I've been told I don't have to pay tax on the pay I received while I was out sick. Is that right?

A) You may not be taxed on all or part of your pay received for periods of sickness provided certain conditions are met. Details on how to claim this benefit are given on Form 2440 which may be obtained from any local IRS office.

To summarize the sick pay provisions, if your company paid you more than 75 percent of your regular pay then you must wait 30 days before you can exclude any pay from income. After the waiting period, you may exclude up to $100 a week.

If you received 75 percent or less of your pay there is a 7-day waiting period. Afterwards, you may exclude up to $75 a week. After 30 days you may exclude up to $100 a week. However, if you were hospitalized there is no 7-day waiting period.

Q) I had about $45 in interest last year from several savings accounts. Do I have to list how much I got from each of them?

A) In cases where interest income is $100 or less, just.
