JACQUES VAN RYN of Troop 56, Glenmont, receives his Eagle Scout Award from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon VanRyn of Elm Avenue, Delmar. Double congratulations were in order, for Jacques' appointment to the Air Force Academy was received on the day of the Eagle Award ceremony.

Set for Trip

The Choraliers, Bethlehem Central's select mixed choir, will present a sacred concert in the National Cathedral of Washington D.C. this Sunday, March 14, from 3:30 to 4 P.M.

There are 64 juniors and seniors in the Choraliers, and the group has, over the years, gained a wide reputation for musical excellence. Mrs. Magdalene York directs them.

The invitation to sing at the National Cathedral was received last May, and the date was set in September. Since last fall, members of the Choraliers have sponsored a number of fund-raising projects to pay for their transportation to Washington D.C.

More than $1,000 — enough to pay for the two buses needed — has been raised by the pupils themselves. Among their fund-raising projects were leaf-raking, dinners, and Halloween insurance.

All other expenses of the trip will be paid for by the pupils. Four teachers and a school nurse, in addition to Mrs. York, will accompany the singing group as chaperones.

At the Sunday afternoon concert, the Choraliers will sing six selections, including "Psalm 90" by the American composer Charles Ives, which has never before been presented. Mr. Don Ingram, organist at St. Peter's Church in Albany, is the group accompanist.

The 64 Bethlehem Central pupils will leave for Washington Saturday morning and return Monday evening. They have been granted permission to miss school here on Monday, and will spend the day visiting educational sites of interest in the nation's capital.

Mothers to Meet

The Tri-Village Little League Auxiliary is having an Open Meeting on Tuesday, March 16, at 7:30 P.M. in the Community Room of the National Commercial Bank and Trust Company, Delaware Avenue, Delmar.

HELLO

We're a neighbor of yours. And we happen to be in a group of more than 55 offices with the same name.

And because we're a bank with 145 years of know-how behind us, we have a lot to offer.

Like top professionals who have the experience, knowledge and training to serve you best.

And our resources: last year alone we made more than 75,000 loans to people in northeastern New York.

And then there are a lot of extras you wouldn't find in just any bank. Like a complete trust division, a specially trained farm department, The Bank Master Charge service, and a full service travel headquarters that can get you where you want to go.

Come to your office of The Bank soon. Customers tell us, it's nice to know we're always near. In more than 40 communities, no matter where you are in Northeastern New York.

Awards Earned

Secretarial practice and shorthand students at Bethlehem Central High School earned awards for their proficiency in taking shorthand, for their transcription ability, for filing and for typing production.

Susan Strickland earned a Gregg Award Certificate by taking five minutes of dictation at 60 words per minute and transcribing her notes with 95 percent accuracy.

Robin Crewell, Danielle Furey, Brenda Jefferson, and Kathleen Lenseth earned certificates for their transcription skills. They each took three letters at 60

Typing production certificates were earned by five secretarial practice students who completed a Gregg Senior Production test acceptably. They were: Ramona Bradley, Brenda Jefferson, Deborah Leonard, Joan Taub, Patricia Thompson and Yvonne Wilkie.

Certificates for proficiency in geographic filing were earned by the following girls: Ramona Bradley, Susan Bradley, Charlene Lee, Brenda Jefferson, Deborah Leonard, Joan Taub, Patricia Thompson and Yvonne Wilkie.

At Conference

This week Robert A. Pierson, Coordinator of Distributive Education at Bethlehem Central, has announced that 23 of the Distributive Education of America members of the BCHS Chapter will attend the eleventh Annual State Leadership Conference at the Concord Hotel, March 15-17. The BCHS delegation will be led by Kevin Klersy, Chapter President. Linda Constantino, Sandra Eck, Georgianne Felos, Gordon McAlpin, John Zboray, Van Wilkie and Karen Bauer will represent the DECA Chapter as voting delegates. Nancy Appleby and Cathy Parks will be officer candidates and carry on election campaigns. Michael omermuth will participate in the student government aspects of the conference, and Roberta Bylsma will serve on the Nominating Committee for the next year's State Officers.

Those participating in the contests during the conference will be: Midge Baum, Public Speaking; Susan Bradley, Math; Paul Bunzey, Job Interview; Carol Dottino, Display Judging; Diane Hobbs, Ad Layout; Elaine Mosley, DECA Sweetheart; John France and Steven Sutter, Display Construction; Gary Palmer, Sales Demonstration alternate; Roberta Bylsma, Job Interview alternate; and Linda Baker and Diana Levine, Store Layout.

Participation in this State Leadership Conference is a highlight of the year's activities in distributive education. The students will be accompanied by both Mr. Pierson and Hugh J. Brown, the Distributive Education teachers at BCHS.

What Is A Girl Scout?

To most of us, girl scouting is represented by youngsters in a Brownie uniform or the green uniform of the older scout, who ring our doorbells selling their cookies once a year. But a girl scout is much more than a cookie salesman.

Scouting offers girls from 7 to 17 a continuing program of activities which center around the arts, home, service to others, good citizenship, and love for the out-of-doors. The main purpose of scouting is to inspire girls with the highest ideals of character, conduct, patriotism, and service so that they may become happy and resourceful citizens of tomorrow.

Since Juliette Low organized the first troop of 18 girls in 1912 in Savannah, Georgia, scouting has spread to 81 countries throughout the world and now has a membership of almost 4 million.

Getting closer to home, the Hudson Valley Girl Scout Council, which serves Albany, Rensselaer, Greene, Columbia, and part of Saratoga Counties has 11,121 girls enrolled in 559 troops. The Hudson Valley Council owns three camps. Camp Little Notch at West Fort Ann, which is a resident camp in summer, and has spring and fall troop camping. Camp IS-SHO-DA, in East Greenbush offers summer day camping and year round troop camping. Camp SHA-TE-MUC in Chatham has both summer day and resident camping besides year round troop camping.

So the next time a girl scout rings your door bell, look beyond the cookie sale she's seeking to the future woman that scouting is helping to make.

The students were elected by a vote based on scholastic accomplishment and leadership ability. The announcement of the recipients to this honorary organization was made by Dr. Robert L. Tree, Dean of the Faculty, at the College's 96th Annual Founder's Day Convocation.

The overall purpose of the newly elected Monx Head group is dedication to service and leadership training. The group works closely with Green Key, junior leadership honorary, with future members of Green Key emerging from within the ranks of Monx Head.

In Partnership

James A. Cohen has been ad-

James A. Cohen

mitted to partnership in the firm of Blatner, Mendel and Mesick, architects, at 11 North Pearl Street.

Cohen, a graduate of the School of Architecture at Syracuse University, joined the firm in 1963. He spent two years as a project architect for the London firm of Anthony B. Davies and Associates, rejoining the local firm upon his return.

Cohen and his wife the former Judith Mazar of London, reside at 494 Kenwood Avenue, Delmar.

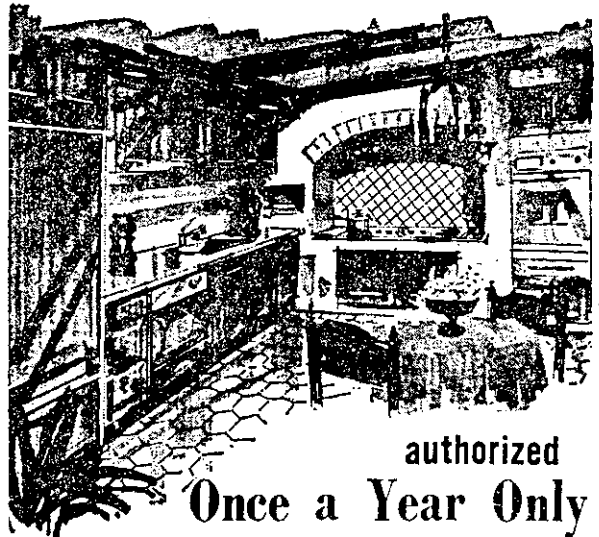

Mr. Denton E. Conklin has accepted the call as Pastor at the Normansville Community Chapel in Delmar, replacing Rev. J. McClenaghan who has taken pastoral duties at Union Springs, N.Y. Mr. Conklin, the son of Mrs. Harmon Tryon, is married to the former Dorothea Schenk. Mr. & Mrs. Conklin both attended Nyack Missionary College, Nyack, N.Y. They began their ministry as teenagers at the Capital City Rescue Mission and Settlement House in Albany. They currently were active in the Christian Education Department as teacher and youth leader in their home church, Colonie Alliance. They reside with their seven children presently in Ballston Spa but will relocate in the Delmar area when housing is available. The services at the Normansville Chapel are open to the public and all are welcome.

Public Hearing

A Public Hearing will be held by the Town Board of the Town of Bethlehem at the Town Hall on April 7, 1971, at 7:30 P.M. to consider amending the Zoning Ordinance and Zoning Map of the Town of Bethlehem by rezoning a certain area bounded by Rockefeller Rd., the center line of a proposed highway to be known as White Oak Road, Mason Rd. and the center line of the right of way of the Delaware and Hudson Railroad Company from a Residence "A" District to a Residence "B" District. This amendment to the zoning ordinance has been recommended by the Planning Board.

GUARANTEED ADVERTISED SPECIALS!

Our policy is to plan, order and stock carefully so that you should never have to ask - "Are you out of the special?"

But even our best planning occasionally goes awry - your demand is greater than we expected; the delivery system breaks down or something else happens. Those are our problems, not yours.

For many years, we at Grand Union have had a policy on advertised specials called a RAINCHECK POLICY, to cover the few times we are out of an advertised special. This is the policy that applies in every Grand Union store.

Whenever any of our stores is out of an advertised special for any reason, you are entitled to a RAINCHECK. This means that the customer service desk located at the manager's office will give you a slip (raincheck) entitling you to buy the product at its special price the next time you are in the store.

Our RAINCHECK POLICY is just one of the many policies established for your shopping satisfaction. We would appreciate hearing from you if this policy is not carried out at any of our stores.

DOUBLE STAMPS WEDNESDAY

Meeting

The Town of Bethlehem Historical Association will hold a meeting, March 18 at the school at 8 P.M.

G. Caroll Lindsay, Director of the new Museum at the Mall, will give a slide lecture. Refreshments will be served.

To Jr. College

Eight Delmar residents have been accepted by the Junior College of Albany for the Fall Semester: Peter Circelli, 46 Wellington Road; Steven Circelli, 46 Wellington Road; Linda Grant, 20 Park Place; William O'Neil, 3 Evelyn Drive; and David Serwanski, 515 Delaware Avenue, into the Liberal Arts Program.

Also, Lisa Scurrah, 22 Woodbine Road, into the Business Administration Program; Karen Sutter, Marvin Street, into the Nursing Program; and Linda Finger, 6 Glendale Avenue, into the Fine Arts Program.

Speaker at Conference

Richard Rossuck, counselor at the Bethlehem Central High School, recently spoke at a conference in Buffalo sponsored by the Association for Children with Learning Disabilities, Western New York Chapter. The conference designed primarily for guidance counselors dealt with vocational information as well as educational information to children with learning difficulties at the high school level. Over one hundred counselors from the western part of New York State were in attendance.

4-H Program

Over 400 Albany County 4-H

members will stage demonstrations in the next three weeks. There will be no protests, no violence, and no arrests. What's more, the demonstrations will be approved by parents, teachers, government officials, and businessmen.

These young people will present information which they have learned through their 4-H project work. Demonstration topics cover a wide variety of subjects from "Mounting Butterflies for an Insect Collection" to "Preparing a Relish Tray" to "Types of Saddles" to "How to Take a Picture." The list could go on and on because there are dozens of categories wherein the 4-H'ers "learn by doing" with the guidance of volunteer leaders.

4-H members give demonstrations in order to teach others what they have learned and also to gain poise and self-confidence when speaking before a group. Each demonstrator is awarded a Certificate of Participation with a blue, red or green seal. The demonstrations are not judged by comparison, but rather each is evaluated individually on the basis of the subject matter information given and the actual method of presentation.

Teen-age 4-H'ers will pass on what they have learned as they work in pairs to help younger 4-H members. These "teen-teams" will meet with each first year 4-H'er to help him evaluate his presentation.

Demonstration Days in Albany County are scheduled for Saturday, March 13, 9:00-12:30 a.m., at the Clarksville Elementary School; Saturday, March 20, 9:00-12:30 a.m., at the Altamont Elementary School; and Saturday, March 27, 9:00-12:30 a.m. at the Bethlehem Middle School.

Sponsor

Miss Florence G. Allen, 20 Plymouth Ave., Delmar, is sponsoring Joseph, a 7 year old American Indian boy of the Papago Tribe, through Save the Children Federation, international child welfare organization of Norwalk, Connecticut, it was announced today by Dallas Johnson, Director of the organization's American Indian program. The sponsorship will help provide funds for the clothing, school supplies, personal books and spending money which will enable the child to take part in school activities. The average Indian youngster leaves school before the eighth grade, often for lack of these bare essentials.

Trip Planned

On Mar. 15, the Garden Group of the Delmar Progress Club will visit Boston, Mass., to see the New England Spring Flower Show and have dinner at Anthony's Pier 4. The bus will leave from the parking lot of the Delmar Reformed Church at 8 A.M.

Meeting

The Literature Group of the Delmar Progress Club will meet on March 16, at the Delmar Library at 9:30 A.M. The meeting is called "Library Scene Described" and the hostesses are Barbara Rau and Mrs. Neal C. Baldwin, Jr.

An Open Letter to Local Merchants:

All merchants whether they are members or not are cordially invited to an open meeting of the Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce on Monday evening, 7 p.m. March 15, at the New Elsmirian Restaurant located at Delaware Plaza.

Kindly give this some serious thought and bring ideas of what you would like your Chamber to do for you. We will have the Chairman of the Hudson-Mohawk Volunteer Firemen's Association Convention Committee at this meeting to give us information on the convention planned for this summer which will bring approximately 10,000 to 15,000 visitors into the town. They will also give us ideas in what way we can help to make this successful, not only for them, but all the merchants in the area.

Following the meeting there will be refreshments.

The bar will be open for Dutch Treat.

Reservations: Call 439-4475

Please call as early as possible so that reservations can be made.

(Last minute decision - come anyway)

St. Patrick's Dance

Bethlehem Veterans of Foreign Wars invites everyone to attend a fun filled evening. Saturday night, March 13, from 9 to 1 or 2, there will be dancing at the Post Rooms, 404 Delaware Ave. in Delmar. Music by the well known Two and Half Beats. Donation $1.50.

Pancake Supper

Boy Scout Troop #72 of Slingers Community Church, will serve its 26th Annual Pancake and Sausage supper on Mar. 18 from 5 to 7 P.M., at the church. Tickets for the supper are available from troop members, or at the door, at $1.75 for adults, and 75¢ for children under 12.

Proceeds from this supper will be applied toward the Troop's summer Scout Camp program.

Art Auction

The Women's Auxiliary of the Albany County Medical Society will sponsor a gala art auction on Saturday evening, March 27, at Saint Sophia's Greek Orthodox Church, for the benefit of Hope House, the unique rehabilitation center for narcotic addicts, under the direction of Reverend Howard Hubbard.

Preview will begin at seven o'clock, accompanied by the serving of champagne donated by Mead Johnson Laboratories. The auction will get under way promptly at 8, under the auspices of the Haber Galleries of New York, which is widely known for the choice lithographs, prints, drawings and watercolors by Chagall, Miro, Picasso, Buffet, and other artists, which it keeps its agents here and abroad busy collecting. Prices are reasonable, beginning at twenty dollars. During the course of the auction, an autographed engraving of the White House, donated by Mrs. Richard Nixon, will be offered, and at ten o'clock, coffee and refreshments will be served. Donations of seven dollars and fifty cents will be taken at the door, and the public is most cordially invited.

The Concert Band, directed by Samuel Bozzella will continue the program with a selection from the Romantic Period: "Nobles of the Mystic Shrine" by J.P. Sousa. The turn of the century will be represented by "Variations on a merica" by Charles Ives, who was one of a merica's foremost composers at the time. "Danzon," from Leonard Bernstein's ballet, "Fancy Free," a modern, sophisticated tune will bring the program up to the present time.

The Dance Band, also under the direction of Mr. Gangi, will represent the Swing and Jazz Eras in American music with some modern numbers arranged for dance band.

Valhalla, the music department's own rock group, consisting of two guitars, drums, an organ, trumpet and trombone will feature music relative to present day society: the electric sound.

The concert will come to a close with a new sound; music of the future. The Concert Band will play the highly contemporary piece "Stargazing." This music demands independent playing and individualized sounds and must be heard to be believed.

The money raised will hopefully be used for exchange concerts; a great way to hear what other state music organizations sound like. The donation is $1.00 and tickets may be purchased from Orchestra and Band members or at the door.

Open Letter

Last week, an article appeared in the "Spotlight" which stated that "The Club" of Bethlehem Central High School would hole a program on the Black Panthers on the evening of March 4. However, due to disputes arising between the club members and the Superintendent of Schools, the program was postponed until March 23. The students were not informed of the delay in time to correct their publicity, and therefore, the club members would like to express their apologies for any inconvenience the cancellation might have caused.

The program has been rescheduled to March 23, (Tuesday night), from 7:30 to 10:00 P.M. in the High School Auditorium. Three films, "Stagolee," "Huey," and "Now" will be shown followed by a speaker and general discussion. Admission will be 25 cents, which will help cover the cost of the film rentals.

We hope the community understands the reason why "the Club" decided to present this program. We are doing so completely in the interest of education. We believe that any opinions of the Black Panthers, pro or con, should be based on information and fact. We believe it is our responsibility to make available to the community this type of programming. We hope we are not offending anyone by showing these films.

MILK GLASS - PUPPETS

Treasured milk glass from the collection of Mrs. Geoffrey Maclay is on display at the Bethlehem Public Library during March.

Two shelves of the exhibit case hold antique milk glass, with several butter moulds topped with lion, lamb, rabbit and hen. Plates of various shapes with the rare S pattern, some with lattice, some with loop pattern will delight the viewer. Handpainted designs on pieces from the Thirties, contrast with the 100-year-old design on a bowl. A collector's delight, a most unusual box found in a deserted attic, has Chinese designs and is darkened by its former contents.

The modern milk glass, placed on the lower shelf for comparison, shows why collecting this opaque glass is still a most popular hobby. The Library is very grateful to Mrs. Maclay for loaning these pieces.

The third annual Tri-Village Nursery School art exhibit is now in the children's room of the Bethlehem Public Library. Over 50 original art pieces are displayed along with an underwater bulletin board and mobiles. These pictures represent art projects undertaken by the children in the 1970-71 school year. Come in and see the variety of things displayed.

While you're in the Children's room, don't forget to take a look at the hand-carved Punch & Judy & Company Puppets. Sister Hill from the Kenwood Academy has loaned her German puppets for all to see and enjoy.

A new Spring (March & April) schedule is available for such activities as Kindergarten Day, Story Hour and The Spies. Puppeteers, don't forget, there's one more performance on March 20. You'll be hearing from Miss Alric for details.

Baby Sitter Class

The snowstorm cancelled the opening Baby-Sitter Class on March 4 and attention is drawn to the following corrected announcement:

All interested Bethlehem girls and boys over the age of 12, are invited to attend a Mothers-aid and Baby-sitter course under the direction of the Delmar Fire Department and given at the Delmar Fire House. This is a six-hour course, which will consist of three 2-hour sessions, starting Thursday, March 18, and continuing on March 25 and April 1, from 7-9 P.M. Attendance at all three sessions is required.

There will be trained instructors and training films covering basic instructions and emergency procedures. This is a much-needed and most welcome community service.

Any questions may be directed to the Youth Employment Service, telephone 439-2238.

Children Killers

The analgesic-type pain-killers are the drugs most frequently involved in accidental poisonings of children, Erich Krugman of the Delmar Pharmacy, reports as National Poison Prevention Week officially began in the United States.

"Aspirin was involved in 19% of the poisoning reports concerning children under five years of age in 1969," Mr. Krugman stated. "This is a decrease from the 21.7% reported in 1968 by the National Clearing House for Poison Control Centers, but in all years since 1959, aspirin has caused the largest number of poisonings among the 26 categories of products listed.

Vitamins were second among those products involved in most accidental ingestions in 1969, with soaps, detergents and cleaners being third. Other substances included antihistamines and cold medicines, tranquilizers, hormones, cough medicines and anti-septics.

President Nixon has proclaimed the week of March 21-27 as National Poison Prevention Week, emphasizing the need for the public to become aware of the danger of accidental poisoning of children, and of the steps that should be taken to avoid or minimize the effects of such accidents.

Pharmacist Krugman offers these observations:

"When an accidental ingestion of a potentially toxic substance occurs or is suspected, contact the family physician or the emergency room of the local hospital. If another adult is present, the latter could do the calling while the parent reads the label on the container of the swallowed substance for appropriate first-aid measures. It is important to get professional advice quickly; do not wait to see if "anything happens" to the child.

"In the case of an accidental ingestion of prescription medicine, check to see if the name of the medicine is on the prescription container, then call your physician for instructions. If the name is not on the container, give the physician the name and telephone number of the pharmacy and the prescription number that appears on the label of the prescription container, including the name of the person for whom it was dispensed. He can then determine with the pharmacist what was dispensed, and provide you with the proper first-aid instructions.

Parent Meetings

A five-week series of meetings with parents is now being conducted by Dr. Kathryn Bookbinder, Bethlehem Central School Psychologist, at the Glenmont Elementary School. The sessions began on March 1 and are being held every Monday, from 1:15 to 2:45 P.M., in the Music Room at the school.

Purpose of the meetings is to give parents a chance to discuss some of the problems they face as parents and to evaluate some of the techniques they may be using as parents with research knowledge of child development, human behavior, and learning.

The discussion sessions are particularly for parents of pupils at the Glenmont School, but parents of children in other district schools are also invited to attend.

Pizza, Anyone?

A pizza drive is again being sponsored by Bethlehem Central High School pupils, to raise money for student exchange programs.

Uncooked pizzas, made by the pupils, will be delivered between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. this Saturday, March 13. Cost of a pizza is $1.25.

Pupils have been going door-to-door obtaining orders for pizzas. Persons who haven't been visited, but who would like to order pizzas, may call 434-4296 between 5 and 8 p.m. tomorrow, Friday, May 12.

All proceeds from the pizza drive will go toward funding student exchange programs, under sponsorship of the International

Bethlehem Central Schools

(Questions about school matters may be addressed to this column by calling 439-4921, Ext. 267, any weekday morning, or by mail to the High School. Please be patient if your question hasn't yet been answered here - some require much time and research).

QUESTION: Why don't school officials do something about the behavior of kids waiting for school buses? They throw snowballs at cars and run all over the streets, endangering both themselves and other people.

ANSWER: School administrators have received many calls and complaints on this subject. But the school district does not have legal responsibility for controlling the behavior of children until they are on school property.

This is a responsibility of the parents. It's obvious that many hazardous situations are created by unsupervised groups of children at bus stops, and school officials would urge parents to observe and take appropriate action if their own children are among the offenders. As many callers have pointed out - the children themselves are frequently in danger of getting hurt.

Program

The first of three morning-long programs on Drugs was conducted at the Bethlehem Central Middle School today, March 11, for the entire sixth grade.

Similar programs will be conducted for the 7th grade on Mar. 18 and for the 8th grade on April 1.

Participants in the three programs include: Dr. Lawrence Gifford and Dr. Robert Giombetti, discussing the physical and emotional effects of drugs; Mr. Bruce Austin and some High School students, discussing pressures for drug use and how to handle them - and what can be done about friends who use drugs.

Also, Father Howard Hubbard of Hope House and some ex-addicts, on reasons for drug use and abuse and some first-hand experiences while under the influence of drugs; students from the Albany College of Pharmacy, on the hazards of over-the-counter drugs; Richard LaChappelle of the Bethlehem Police Department, on the legal aspects of drug use and what arrest on this charge can mean; Dr. Kathryn Bookbinder, school psychologist, and Dr. Carl Mindell, a psychiatrist, on how young people can be tempted into drug use and abuse by personality problems, and how they can cope with these problems and combat the influence of their peers toward drug use.

At the 8th grade program on April 1, a film entitled "Trip Back" will be shown. Also as part of this program, Mr. Joseph Farrell, district music teacher, will discuss the topic: "Drugs and Music."

Every Middle School pupil is required to attend one of the Drug programs, and the speakers at each program will be addressing different groups within each class at different times throughout the morning sessions.

The three programs have been planned by the Drug Education Committee of the Bethlehem Central School District, chaired by Mr. David Murphy, Middle School assistant principal.

She is also a member of the Youth Fellowship and Senior Choir and a Sunday School teacher at the Delmar Reformed Church.

The Glenmont PTA Scholarship (originally $300 and increased to $500 last year) is awarded annually to a Bethlehem Central senior who completed the final two years of his or her elementary education at the Glenmont School. Candidates are also judged on these three criteria: 1) Evidence of a genuine desire to continue their education, 2) Demonstration of a need for financial assistance, and 3) Maintenance of a good scholarship record.

Named alternates for this year's scholarship were: Thomas Zelker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zelker of 12 Vagele Lane, Glenmont; and Charlene Vagele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vagele of 23 Vagele Lane, Glenmont.

The Scholarship Award will be presented to Mary Lou at the March meeting of the Glenmont PTA.

Meeting

There is a new awareness that Art has many forms. Weaving has come to the forefront as one of those forms as evidenced by the Craft shows at the Albany Institute and Skidmore College in Saratoga.

Janet Nyquist, weaver, will be guest speaker at the next meeting of the Bethlehem Art Assoc. She will bring her loom and demonstrate and lecture on "Weaving As An Art Form." The meeting will take place on Wed., March 17, at 8 P.M. in the Community Room of The Bank, Delaware Ave., in Delmar.

Mrs. Nyquist's introduction into weaving was a gradual progression. She began spinning in order to get a satisfactory yarn and became fascinated by "strings across strings." She took a short course at the Philadelphia College of Textiles and then began developing on her own.

Her work has been exhibited at the A&P (Arts and Presents) in Altamont, and she is presently teaching weaving at the Art Center at Marylrose. Guests are welcome.

New Life Classes have begun on Thursdays at 7:45 P.M. The fee is $2 per session or $6 for five consecutive sessions. Call Marion Bers at 439-6613 for whereabouts and further information.

New Idea

The Boston Symphony Orchestra and the Philadelphia Orchestra will exchange concerts this summer, each travelling to the other's customary summer home for a single performance. On Saturday evening, August 7, the Boston Symphony plays at the Saratoga Performing Arts Center, Saratoga Springs, New York, while the Philadelphia Orchestra plays at Tanglewood, Lenox, Mass. Each orchestra will be conducted by its respective Music Director, William Steinberg, Boston, and Eugene Ormandy, Philadelphia.

Although both orchestras have played during the summer in concert halls other than their own, this is the first time that two major summer festivals have exchanged concerts. Saratoga has been the Philadelphia Orchestra's summer home since 1966. Tanglewood has been the scene of the Boston Symphony's Berkshire Festival since 1937.

Commenting on the announced exchange, which has been under discussion for over a year, William Steinberg said, "I am delighted that plans have come to fruition and that, in a spirit of good neighborliness, Maestro Ormandy and I can go visiting with our orchestras. The marvelous Philadelphia Orchestra will have a triumph at Tanglewood, I know, and am sure the Boston Symphony will enjoy no less success at Saratoga."

Please Help!

The Onesquethaw Reformatory Church Youth Fellowship will hold a benefit Round and Square Dance featuring the Nashville Sound with Kenny Hallenbeck, Ray Evans and Larry MacIntosh at Fellowship Hall on Tarrytown Road on Saturday, March 13, beginning at 7 P.M.

Proceeds from the dance will go into the fund the young people are raising to help their neighbor, Joe Peragine, Jr., who has Multiple Sclerosis. At 6:30, preceding the dance, the film, "My Friend, Joe," which shows a young man in the prime of life struck down by MS.

Donations are $1.50 for adults and $1 for children under 12. Refreshments will be sold and there will be a door prize awarded.

Joe Peragine, Jr., is now at the Spears Chiropractic Hospital in Denver, Colorado, thanks to the generosity of his family and friends who have paid for a 4-week stay, and to the members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society who purchased his round trip ticket. Joe is improving but he needs additional therapy which means more money. Since the Youth Fellowship has taken the responsibility to raise this money, the young people are determined that Joe will be able to have the additional medical attention - AND YOU CAN HELP!

To those who cannot attend the dance, a donation would be greatly appreciated. Call the president of the group, Mia Geel (768-2172) or vice president Laurie Van Atten (768-2292).

At Coffee House

Bertilla Baker will be the attraction at the Coffee House on Adams Street on Saturday, March 13 beginning at 9. She is a singer of popular songs with her own guitar and banjo accompaniment.

Speaker

Mrs. Grace Cutts, Missionary to West Irian, will give an illustrated talk on West Irian & New Guinea on Sunday, March 14 at 4 P.M. at the Albany Bible Institute, 281 State St., Albany.

The program and the reception at 5 P.M. are both open to the public.

Aid to Victims

Red Cross disaster relief specialists from many parts of the United States are hard at work providing assistance to the thousands of victims affected by the tornadoes that tore through many communities last Sunday in the Mississippi and Louisiana Deltas and on Monday when two additional tornadoes hit the Fayetteville and Cumberland County region of North Carolina.

Shelters have been set-up to administer to the needs of the victims which involves providing immediate emergency assistance and services as well as recovery aid to individuals and families in need as a result of the disasters.

This disaster assistance includes food for the victims and emergency workers, shelter, clothing and medical and nursing aid, information to persons concerned about relatives and close friends in the disaster area, assistance in warning, rescue and evacuation as requested by government authority.

These Red Cross specialists are providing grants to families to meet their recovery needs which may include food, clothing, and other maintenance; rebuilding and repairing of owner-occupied homes; furniture and other home furnishings; medical, nursing and hospital care; work tools, occupational equipment, and supplies.

Such assistance is designed to help bridge the gap between what the family can do for itself and what it needs to resume normal family life in the home and the community. In developing recovery plans with a family, the Red Cross takes into consideration all factors related to the family's ability to help itself, including income, savings, insurance, credit, and other available resources.

Disaster grants are an outright gift . . . with no strings attached. No charges are ever made for Red Cross disaster services or assistance.

Red Cross representatives in the disaster areas have indicated the assistance program is massive. Shelters are in operation in all areas and are handling upwards of 500 persons in each designated locality.

Officials indicate food and clothing supplies are adequate in all of the stricken areas and are not being sought locally.

Due to an extremely heavy disaster year, which includes the recent earthquake in the Los Angeles area when Red Cross sheltered 6,000 people and continues to meet its full responsibility for emergency feeding, clothing, shelter and other urgent needs, all funds set aside for such purposes are nearly exhausted.

Because of this, all Red Cross chapters will accept contributions from the public to help the distressed victims of these disasters as well as others which may occur in the near future, particularly this summer when the hurricane season will again be a threat to many coastal areas in this country.

Persons in the Albany area wishing to make a contribution may do so in care of the Albany Area Chapter, American Red Cross, Hackett Blvd. at Clara Barton Dr., Albany, N.Y. 12208. Checks should be marked "American Red Cross Disaster Relief."

PR Man

Fred D. Shavor has been appointed to the professional staff of the United Fund of the Albany Area, Inc. in the capacity of Public Relations Director. The appointment was announced by Leo P. Cornelius, Executive Director of the fund.

Mr. Shavor replaces Kenneth R. Hunter who held the position for the past few years. Shavor will also direct the publicity and promotion activity of the United Fund - Red Cross Joint Appeal.

For the past 14 years, Shavor was Program Manager of WAST-TV, Channel 13, in Albany. While Program Manager, he also served the station as Production and Promotion Manager at various times.

Fred D. Shavor

A graduate of Syracuse University, Shavor received his B.S. degree in Speech and his M.S. degree in Communications.

A veteran of 30 years in broadcasting, he has worked for radio and television stations in the Capital District; Syracuse and Watertown, N.Y.; Des Moines, Iowa and Providence, R.I. His work has included programming, promotion, production, public affairs, directing, writing, acting and announcing.

Shavor, a native-born Schenectadian, makes his home at 13 River Hill in Menands.

ty Bureau.

Within the next few weeks the speed computers will be in full use by patrols operating out of 98 stations in eight troops. The equipment will augment, not replace, the State Police radar capability.

The device computes speed by determining the time taken by a car to travel a known distance as, for example, between a telephone pole and the shadow of a bridge on the road. These are referred to as "reference points."

On toggle switch records the distance to be measured and a second switch is activated as the car enters and leaves the area. The average speed is then shown visually and remains on display until cleared for the next speed check. The computer will measure the speed of a vehicle in front or behind a patrol car, traveling toward it or crossing an intersection.

Although the trooper must still bring the violator to a stop, he can take his time in doing so for he already has computerized evidence of speeding, making it unnecessary for him to pursue the vehicle solely to determine the rate of speed.

Among its other advantages are these: It can clock speeders in areas unsuitable for radar. It is a functioning part of the troop car whether parked or moving and unlike radar is designed for operation by one man, the driver. It enables the patrol trooper to cut the distance of high-speed chases in many instances. And it increases the patrol trooper's exposure; studies show the presence of a troop car is a deterrent to speed and other violations.

Although "speed computer" is the generic term for the instrument, it is sometimes referred to by a brand name, VASCAR, an acronym standing for "visual average speed computer and recorder."

State Police began pilot studies in 1967 with six units and since then have made 5,000 arrests with them.

Superintendent Kirwan, a member of the state's Interdepartmental Traffic Safety Committee which was instrumental in securing the federal grant,

Many Gains

Lester W. Herzog, Jr., President of National Commercial Bank and Trust Company, reported at the annual meeting of shareholders that The Bank had record levels in earnings, assets, and capital funds during 1970. Presiding at the session today, February 19, was Frank Wells McCabe, Chairman of the Board of The Bank.

Mr. Herzog said that "long term economic planning became increasingly difficult" because of the nation's economy last year. In the latter half of 1970, the Federal Reserve System slowly eased severe restrictions, he said, so that during the last few months of the year one of the most dramatic changes in credit conditions in the postwar period took place.

The Bank had a substantial increase in income before securities gains or losses - a record of nine million dollars for the year. Mr. Herzog announced that these earnings amounted to $6.33 per share, as compared with $4.83 per share in 1969. The Bank also increased its cash dividends to $2.25 per share and shareholders received a 10 per cent stock dividend during the year. At the meeting today, shareholders voted an additional 10 per cent stock dividend to be paid in 1971 when approved by the Comptroller of the Currency.

Total assets also rose to a record level, Mr. Herzog said, to $816,946,000 at the end of 1970. He pointed out that capital funds were the highest in The Bank's history, $62,036,000. Consolidated equity per share increased from $32.29 last year to $36.41 in 1970. Noted also was continued growth in The Bank's average deposits, which allowed enlargement of loan and investment portfolios. December 11, 1970 the Boards of Directors of The Bank and First Trust and Deposit Company of Syracuse announced plans to form a holding company, subject to approval by the shareholders and the proper regulating authorities. Their conclusion is firm that such an association would bring benefits to all communities where each bank has branch offices, as well as to shareholders and bank employees.

Mr. Herzog noted vigorous growth during 1970. Four new offices were opened during the year: The State House Office in downtown Albany, the Northway Mall Office near the junction of the Northway and Route 5, the Plattsburgh West Office in a rapidly growing area of Plattsburgh, and the Mohawk Mall Office in Niskayuna on the outskirts of Schenectady. Two more offices will open early this year, the Voorheesville Office on Rt. 85A in the Town of New Scotland, and the Twin Towers Office opposite the Alfred E. Smith Office Building on Capital Hill. Other branch locations are being planned for the future, and renovation and modernization of existing offices was extensive during 1970.

Additional changes were noted in the planned replacement in the Spring of 1971 of the banking bus which serves four rural locations in Schoharie and Albany Counties, the increased use of banking facilities on Saturdays at eight branch offices, inclusion of Travel Headquarters in Albany under The Bank's regular operation, and The Bank's entry into the credit card field with Master Charge.

John M. Lang, Vice President in the Instalment Credit Department of The Bank, reported in a brief speech to shareholders on the progress made so far in the credit card field. To date, about 140,000 Master Charge cards are in the hands of bank customers.

Vice President, Weston F.
Cowles said that the International Department of The Bank provides complete international service through its correspondent bank network. Since the department's inception in 1966, he said, it has generated local business expansion by encouraging local export-import business on a worldwide basis.

Mr. Herzog also spoke of the regional character of The Bank, which has 55 offices in the northeastern sector of New York State. Regional boards located in each banking area offer advice and counsel. In 1970 two new appointments were made to the Saratoga County Board: William H. Keniry and John E. Mc-Kane, and three in Schenectady:
Howard Goldstock, Wade Lupe
and Dr. Dominick J. DeLuke.

Announcing the end of the conventional station wagon.

Up 'til now station wagons have been pretty much the same. But the end is in sight. Because Audi has developed a station wagon that's every bit as different as the Audi sedan.

It's called the Audi Wagon. And it has front wheel drive, for better tracking and easier handling. Power inboard front disc brakes, located in the car's airstream to help keep them cooler. Rack-and-pinion steering, like on famous racing cars, so the driver has more feel for the road. An engine that'll accelerate from 0-60 in 12 seconds, yet give you an economical 26 mpg.

And the Audi Wagon is only 172.4 inches long (which makes it very easy to park), yet has 33.5 cu. ft. of storage space in the back. And 56.5 cu. ft. when the back seat is down. And to help you get things into the back storage space easily, there's a top-hinged loading gate.

So you see, the Audi Wagon isn't like conventional station wagons. But then what did you expect from a car company that doesn't make conventional cars?

Come see and test drive the Audi Wagon yourself.
