On May 14 hundreds of Spotlight readers will be calling on their neighbors for contributions for the 1971 MS Hope Chest Campaign.

Poppy Day

Legion Auxiliary are justly proud of the little red crepe paper poppies they present to the public as a Flower of Remembrance. The idea of the poppy as a memorial flower for the war dead sprang up as naturally as the little wild flower itself. In the days of World War I, the flower was the one touch of beauty which survived amid the hideous destruction of war. The soldiers of all nations were awed and impressed by nature's profusion of these bright red poppies in a region where death reigned supreme, and they came to look upon them as the living symbol of the sacrifices of their dead comrades.

Hands that make the crepe paper poppies belong to the disabled comrades of the men in whose honor the little memorial flowers are worn. They are made in Veterans Hospitals and nursing homes in many states — and the work occupies the patients during empty hours of illness and convalescence, meanwhile enabling them to make a little spending money. The Auxiliary pays the men for fashioning the blossoms by hand.

Mrs. Oliver Palmer, Chairman of the Poppy Committee for Unit 1040 Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post here in the Tri-Village Area, said that members will have poppies for the public again this year, Wednesday, May 21.

"We are so grateful for the warm-hearted response we get here in the Tri-Village Area because all monies donated for the poppies are used solely for the welfare and comfort of veterans and their families. It is to Honor the Dead and Aid the Disabled that we carry on our poppy program each year."

Retires

Russell W. Scofield, assistant vice president of personnel for New York Telephone in Albany, is retiring after a communications career that spanned four decades.

Russell W. Scofield

Mr. Scofield, who came to this company in 1950 as general plant manager Upstate, served as the company's first general manager of its then newly created Eastern Area from 1957 until he was appointed to his present position in 1965.

A native of Wappingers Falls, he received his degree in electrical engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 1929 and joined the telephone company shortly thereafter - nearly 42 years ago.

His telephone career has been varied, as have been his community endeavors.

Following assignments as a lineman, installer-repairman and engineer in Poughkeepsie, Schenectady, and Albany, he became a service foreman in Kingston in 1938. Later that year he came to Albany as methods engineer and, in 1940, was named supervising construction foreman in the Glens Falls area.

After serving as plant chief in Elmira, he returned to Albany in 1944 as division plant engineer and, three years later, was made Central Division plant superintendent. Before coming Upstate to stay he was assigned briefly in 1950 to AT&T's engineering department.

Mr. Scofield is a director of the Albany Boys' Club, Albany Better Living, Inc., and Blue Cross of Northeastern New York; a trustee of City and County Savings Bank, and a member of the Albany Country Club, Fort Orange Club and the Albany Area Chamber of Commerce.

Active in Community Chest work for several years, he serves on the Salvation Army Advisory Board and the Regional Hospital Review and Planning Council.

He and his wife live at 36 Hawthorne Avenue, Delmar. They have a daughter, two sons and eight grandchildren.

Concert

On Tuesday, May 18, at 8 P.M. at the Delmar Reformed Church the Choirs of Annville Institute, Jackson County, Kentucky, will present a program of Choral and Handbell Music under the direction of Mrs. Jack Marema and Miss Noreen Preheim. Annville Institute is a Christian Boarding School operated by the Reformed Church in America, serving the youth of Appalachia since 1909.

This year marks the tenth consecutive tour in recent years, spreading from the East coast as far West as Denver, Colorado. In 1961 the touring group consisted of just the Girls' Choir. Other choral groups were added, as well as a handbell choir, ringing a set of thirty-three bells. Today, in addition to the Girls' Choir and handbell ringers, the program also includes the varied contributions of the Boys' Choir, the Concert Choir of forty-two boys and girls, and a select mixed group named the "Chinquapin

You haven't been to Niagara Mohawk's Progress Center even once?

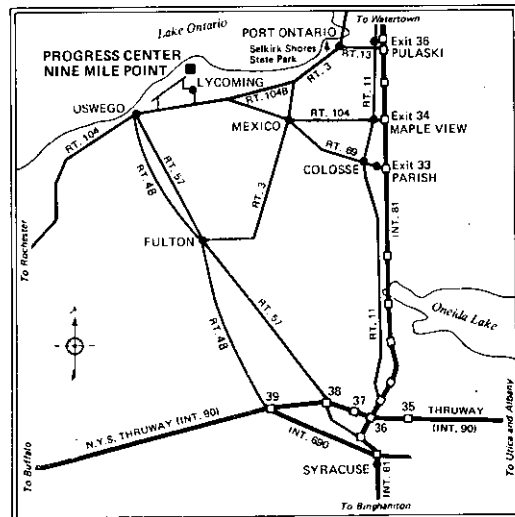

There are many people who have visited Niagara Mohawk's Progress Center on Lake Ontario, six miles northeast of Oswego. And then, they have returned again, usually bringing their friends and neighbors to enjoy this exciting, unique tour.

The handsome Progress Center building, with exterior walls made of 400-million-year-old stone, houses the largest, exact-scale replica of a nuclear-electric station ever built in the United States. Eight feet high and nearly forty feet long, this model comes to life with lights and sound effects, showing how the actual counterpart produces electricity. Then there's the Center's eerie Fission Chamber. Visitors feel like they're floating in outer space as a lifelike chain reaction is unleashed. The Progress Center tour also includes a thrilling show that tells the story of electricity from the first waterwheel generator to the generator powered by the atom.

There's lots more to see, and it's all free at the Progress Center. Visiting school and college classes and other groups are welcome to reserve and use a fully equipped classroom as part of their tour program.

The Center is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday; noon until 6 p.m., Sunday; and is closed on Monday.

You'll learn a lot you never knew about electricity and atomic power.

Singers" (after a small tree which used to be prevalent in that part of Appalachia.)

Most of these high school singers have had no formal musical training in their elementary years, but they demonstrate vividly the musical heritage of their people in the Kentucky hills. Besides their own mountain hymns, the groups are proficient in traditional, gospel, folk, and contemporary styles.

This year's concert is entitled "YOUNG AND FREE . . . SINGING FOR GOD AND COUNTRY," and will take the group to Ohio, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Attired in striking red, white and blue, as well as in their formal robes, these enthusiastic young people sing about what has become a part of their lives at Annville Institute.

will hold its final luncheon and business meeting of the year. The luncheon will take place at Jack's Oyster House, State St., Albany, a famous landmark of the Albany area. The menu will be a choice of either tuna or fruit salad.

Following lunch, Mrs. William C. Bennett, Town Historian of Bethlehem, will give a slide presentation of historic homes in the Bethlehem area. Albany has a rich and fascinating history and many of the area's old homes date back to the early settlement of Albany and as such have seen and witnessed many changes as the years have gone by. Mrs. Bennett's presentation will add greatly to our knowledge of the area in which we now live.

At this final meeting of the year the officers for next year will be installed. The newly-elected officers of the club are: Mrs. Richard Estes, President; Mrs. Alden Clark, 1st Vice-President; Mrs. Clark Shaughnessy, 2nd Vice-President; Mrs. Judd Gilmour, Secretary; and Mrs. James Holbrook, Treasurer.

For all members with babies and pre-school children, baby sitting will be provided at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Elm Ave., Delmar, in the old church building for a charge of $1.00 per child. Toys and sleeping facilities are not provided so if you wish toys, bring your own. Children may be left at the church anytime after 11:30 A.M.

The luncheon will begin at 12 noon and will cost $4.00. Reservations must be made to Mrs.

Ronald Gerhard, 524 Delaware Ave., Delmar, no later than May 14.

Horses! Horses!

The beautiful white horses featured in the 1971 edition of "The Wonderful World of Horses," and The Royal Lipizzan Stallion Show, playing at the R.P.I. Field House in Troy on May 18 & 19, have a unique and exciting history.

More than thirty of the rare and noble breed, created in the 16th century for Austria's royal house of Hapsburg, have been imported for this show. Only a few hundred Lipizzaners have been alive at any one time, as they had been the exclusive property of the monarchy, and their breeding was strictly controlled.

No commoner was allowed to own one, but nobles serving with the Austrian army were given Lipizzaners to ride. The exacting balance movements and great leaps called the "airs above the ground" which today are performed solely for their beauty, were originally a tactic of war, used by mounted men to inspire terror in foot soldiers. No other breed can duplicate these maneuvers.

Known for its exceptional conformation, beauty and intelligence, the Lipizzaner is the result of centuries of crossbreeding of Spanish and Arabic-Oriental bloodlines. The horses were first bred by Spanish Moors from Andalusian and Arabian stock and the line remained essentially stable for the 700 years of the Moorish occupation.

During the Renaissance, the art of classical horsemanship was revived and several European countries established studs to preserve the Spanish strain. Emperor Maximilian II brought the Spanish horses to Austria in 1562. His brother, Archduke Charles, established a similar stud in 1580 in Lipizza near Trieste. The Lipizzan stud flourished and was infused toward the end of the 18th century with additional oriental blood.

After 200 years of peaceful development, the stud was forced to flee on three occasions during the Napoleonic Wars, and was again evacuated in 1915.

In 1942 the Lipizzan stud was shipped for safekeeping to Czechoslovakia where, without the mares, the breed faced extinction. The dramatic tale of the stud's rescue and return to Austria by the forces of General George S. Patton is vividly recounted in Walt Disney's film, "The Miracle of the White Stallions." One of the Lipizzans featured in the show - Conversano-Aleros - was sired by one of the stallions presented to Patton for saving the herd.

The 1971 production of "The Wonderful World of Horses" featuring The Royal Lipizzan Stallion Show also features other fine dressage breeds like the Arabian, Andalusian, American Saddle Bred, Quarter Horse, Palomino, American Albino, Thoroughbred, and Morgan, mounted by internationally famous riders such as Albert Ostermaier, Friedel Paster, Col. E. Trevor Bale, and many more. It is produced by Don Woods and Gary and Philip Lashinsky.

Voting Set: June 30

The Bethlehem Central Board of Education has scheduled Wednesday, June 30, as the date for voting on candidates for two additional seats on the board, and another school budget.

District residents approved the proposition to increase the size of the board from five to seven members, at last week's annual election. Candidate petitions for the additional board seats must be filed with the district clerk by June 3.

The board also decided last week that one of the additional seats will be for a three-year term and one will be for a five-year term. Candidates must file for one or the other of these terms of office.

The Board of Education will hold a regular meeting at 8 p.m. today (Thursday, May 13) at the High School. It is anticipated that a decision will be made tonight on what type of revised budget will be submitted to the voters on June 30.

The two probable alternatives to be considered by the board tonight are submission of a reduced budget, (including further cuts in program) or adoption of a contingency budget with separate propositions put to a vote by district residents. (This was the procedure followed after last year's budget defeat.) There is also the possibility that the board would decide to adopt a contingency budget without allowance for voting on propositions.

The board also scheduled Saturday, June 19, as another registration date. Any school district resident who didn't register either last year or this year can do so between 7 a.m. and 9 p.m. on June 19, at the Middle School.

Persons who register at this time will be eligible to vote on the budget and board candidates on June 30.

Clean-up Roundup

An honor roll and a hearty applause are due for all the groups and individuals who worked to clean up the roadsides and vacant lots in the Town of Bethlehem during April.

Martin J. Cross, Superintendent of Highways, reported to BEIA that approximately 1,056 truck loads of trash were collected during April. Our thanks to the pickup crews who, in removing the householder's accumulated trash, did the residents and the Town of Bethlehem a great service.

Our own "yellow brick road," Old Road through Normansville, was unsightly. To its heavily littered roadsides, add a stove, junked washing machines, tires, and an armchair and the whole area becomes a shameful eyesore. The eyesores were photographed by Mrs. Alice Porter and reported to the Town of Bethlehem by BEIA. Town help was swift in coming. They hauled out the heavy pieces of trash for

REV. CHATTERTON to leave Delmar - Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke has announced his intention to appoint Rev. Open Letter

To the Editor:

The following letter sent to all the Board of Education Members as well as Mr. Everett to whom it was addressed. Names have been omitted.

Dear Mr. Everett:

Friday, April 23, 1971, we attended the final meeting of the Strand III, Mental Health Program for Grades K-5.

As you know, this workshop was conducted by an extremely versatile leader. We have attended all the meetings since November 4, 1970, with the exception of one. The 3-5 group started with about 40 or more parents in attendance and was later combined with the K-2 group of about the same number of parents. The workshops were not conducted by a neutral-minded leader, but by one who is definitely for this program. It would have been more advantageous and fairer to have someone who could have led this group who was more or less without definite convictions as to whether the program was a worthwhile one. Every time a parent brought up something against the program, they were put down. We were not even recognized, thus we had to continually interrupt and speak out.

Our generation, we were told, is composed of people who are "hung up" because of our Puritanical ideas, our Christian teaching and the strict discipline of our parents. I'll admit that we are "hung up." The new sex program not only teaches them to become obsessed with sex long before they would normally be involved, let alone think about such a subject, other than on a natural basis.

The purpose of this meeting was to hear the final report which will be submitted to the Advisory Committee. The report was read to us, but we feel that stated in this report is the concrete will of the leader and not that of the group who attended the meetings. The meetings had an average attendance of between 10-20 people, however, approximately 90 questionnaires were sent out. Those who did not attend do not know of the time and effort that was put into these meetings, and, therefore, cannot know all the questions and doubts that were raised during these sessions. It was agreed, at the previous meeting, that each of the members of the group would receive a copy of this report before it went to the Advisory Committee. However, the workshop leader said it would be impossible to print so many copies and that "The Clinic" where she works, had already put in some 16 hours on it. We will, therefore, have to wait until it has been processed, and perhaps changed, by the Advisory Committee before we receive a copy.

The tabulations are so close on this issue, that we request that the Board of Education receive copies of all the questionnaires which were returned and review them carefully. Some of the comments were not recorded, and in many instances, people answered NO to the question as to whether or not sex education should be taught and left all other questions blank. Those questions that were left blank were recorded as NO OPINION. We feel that if a parent answered NO to the first question, then all others were automatically NO.

We feel that this subject is too delicate to even be considered. If morals and religious ethics cannot be taught along with this and handled in a Judeo-Christian manner, then it is far better not to have it taught at all. If this program should be brought into and made a part of the school's curriculum, then we feel that it will be necessary to have our children excused and perhaps taken out of the school district altogether. It is about time that the parents gave some consideration to the subjects which their children are being taught, other than academic, and by whom. Are they qualified enough to teach such a subject to children at such an early age and are they prepared to take the consequences? We have run into several aspects that have tried to undermine our moral standards and principles so far and see that this can lead to only more.

Very truly yours,
(Name Submitted)

LETTER

Dear Sir,

John Clyne, in his open letter to SPOTLIGHT, April 29, 1971, has made an unjustified attack on his fellow members of the Board of Education.

Mr. Clyne well knows that under the provisions of the Taylor Law, the Board may not disclose its negotiating position vis-a-vis the teachers' union. There is, therefore, no question of "hocus-pocus" on the part of the Board, but rather an honest effort to estimate (not "guestimate") the budget figure.

It might be constructive for Mr. Clyne to suggest what budget items he would select for reduction.

If he finds that he cannot in good conscience support the majority findings of the board, there is nevertheless, no reason for him to attack its integrity.

Sincerely yours,
Charlotte Turoff

Recycle

In anticipation of the drive for recycled materials on Saturday, May 22, the Bethlehem Environmental Improvement Association offers a few suggestions for handling your cans and bottles:

CANS:

1. Wash.
2. Remove both ends and flatten. (This does not have to be done with beer and soft-drink cans.)
3. Remove paper labels.
4. Do not bring aerosol cans or bottle tops.

BOTTLES:

1. All kinds of bottles will be accepted if metal tops and tabs are removed.
2. Wash.
3. Separate into three colors: white or clear, green, and amber (yellow-brown and orange).
4. If paper label is easy to remove, remove it. If not, the glass is still recyclable.

It is very important that the cans and bottles to be recycled are clean. Large quantities may be stored for period of time at different plants and food remains will attract rodents and insects. Also it makes sense to clean the cans and bottles so that these pests will not be attracted to your home storage area.

The Salvation Army will again be collecting newspapers, magazines, flattened cardboard, and reusable household goods and clothing on this fourth Saturday of the month, May 22.

Be sure to check the May 20 issue of The Spotlight for further details.

Time for Camp

Ecology will play a large part in the camp program for Girl Scouts attending Camp IS-SHO-DA this summer, according to Camp Director, Mrs. William O. Goodrich, 10 Homestead Avenue, Albany. On opening day, July 6, portions of the camp site will have already been improved by several hundred Girl Scouts who are currently working on tree clearing, trail laying, soil contamination, conservation and wild life. This will be continued throughout the summer in an attempt to show each camper what she as an individual and her family can contribute to the entire ecology program.

Mrs. Goodrich begins her twelfth year as director of Camp IS-SHO-DA which is located on Mannix Road, East Greenbush. The camp is open to all girls, scouts and non-scouts in the second grade and over. Program activities include swimming, boating, hand arts, mountain climbing in the Catskills and Adirondacks. Older girls may join the Outposters and spend one entire week camping overnight, others will select a site away from the camp.

Daily programs include discovering wild life in and around the farm pond or having fun with archery or in the Covered Wagon Unit.

Presented by the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts and the Smithsonian Institution, this year's Festival involved 240 colleges and over 10,000 students on the local and regional level. SUNY'S production was selected for the national event after having been judged as one of the ten best in the country.

Only one person can end the war.

You.

Yes, you. The average American who has felt so powerless up until now.

As a matter of fact, the more average-American you are, the more power you have to influence events at this crucial moment in American history.

The Gallup poll of January 31st showed that 73% of the American people want all U.S. troops brought home from Indochina before the end of this year.

73% of the people. You can't get much more average-American than that.

Now all you have to do is ask for it.

If you speak up, it means that other Americans like you will speak up. But if you remain silent, you have no right to expect anyone else to open his mouth.

Congress can and should act.

The battle of public opinion has been won. Now we must organize for a legislative end to the war.

The Congress of the United States should be the target of your message. It can legislate an end to the war. And members of Congress will do so if they know that is what the people want. Particularly the people from their own states and districts.

That is why it is so essential for your elected representatives to hear from you.

A major—perhaps historic—battle is beginning to shape up in the Senate and House to restore the Constitutional powers of the Congress. The Constitution of the United States asserts that the power to determine when and where we go to war rests with Congress, not the President. But recent Presidents have viewed this assertion lightly.

Many Senators and Representatives—Republicans as well as Democrats, conservatives as well as liberals—are profoundly concerned over the erosion of their historical powers under the Constitution.

As you read this, a bipartisan group of influential Senators and Representatives is working to restore the Constitutional role of Congress, and to exercise the authority they have under the Constitution to withhold war appropriations in order to get all our troops out of Indochina before the end of 1971.

Urge your Congressman and your two Senators to join this movement. Tell them that we want all our armed forces and our prisoners of war withdrawn from Indochina no later than December 31st, 1971. They can do it.

Appoint yourself a committee of one.

Ask everyone you know to write. Remember: 73% of your fellow citizens are against this war and want us to get out. But they don't know what to do about it. You can help them make their voices heard.

Write to the newspapers about it. Call up the talk shows and DJs on your local radio stations. Introduce the subject in your union, your lodge, your church or synagogue group. Start a "Letters to Congress" chain letter going. Use your imagination!

Common Cause is bringing fresh forces into the battle.

Common Cause is the new citizen's lobby organized in September by John W. Gardner, former Secretary of Health, Education & Welfare.

We already have a cadre of more than 115,000 active members in every state of the union, and we are growing at the rate of 1,000 new members a day.

We have experience in lobbying. We are organized to tackle tough issues and fight them through.

To give you an idea of the scope of our efforts, Common Cause is running this full page advertisement today in the following newspapers:

Atlanta Journal/Constitution	National Observer
Boston Globe	New York Times
Chicago Sun-Times	Omaha World Herald
Christian Science Monitor	Phoenix Republic
Denver Post	Sacramento Bee
Los Angeles Times	San Francisco Chronicle/Examiner
Minneapolis Tribune	Seattle Times
Washington Post

And this is only the beginning.

A recent Gallup poll showed:

73% of the people want all our troops home by the end of this year.

Can you imagine what would happen
if they all spoke up?

This is a powerful, broadly-based, Middle of the Road movement to end the war. Pro-war elements like to claim that only a "fringe" of the American people is anti-war. But 73% isn't a fringe. It's the Middle of the Road. The movement has strong and responsible backing within the halls of Congress.

We can win this.

On the basis of soundings that we have taken in the Senate and the House, we believe that this fight can be won.

The American people want this endless war to end. They want all the soldiers home. They want the prisoners released.

In contrast, the President has not only not set a date for complete termination of our involvement, he has never said flatly and explicitly that he ever intends that all American military forces be withdrawn from Vietnam.

And the war goes on. And on. And on. And our sons are still being drafted to fight and die in that endless war. Meanwhile, at home, the war divides the nation, undermines our economy and diverts us from crucial domestic problems.

If we can end this disastrous war even one day sooner, it will be worth our best effort.

If you want to do more...

Join us in Common Cause, the new citizen's lobby.

Common Cause is independent and non-partisan, a third force in American life, but not a third party.

It aims to revitalize our institutions of government and make them more responsive to the people.

It defends the public interest against all encroachment, particularly by the special interests that dominate our lives today.

It believes that politics had better become "everybody's business".

Our members played a leading role in the recent fight to reform the seniority system in Congress, in which significant changes were made for the first time in 25 years.

We have filed suit against the major political parties for violation of election campaign spending laws. We have launched a major drive to reform restrictive state laws on registration and voting.

We invite you to join us in Common Cause.

We cannot and should not depend on big contributors. The money to support our work must come from the members themselves.

Therefore we ask you to enclose a check for $15 with your application.

With a large and determined membership, we can help end the war and begin to rebuild America.

About Common Cause:

"...The aim of Mr. Gardner's effort is not to found a new party or win a particular campaign. It is to rally the moderates and stop the process of polarization.

...It is a bold and ambitious undertaking which Mr. Gardner and his colleagues are attempting. Self-government lives by that kind of boldness and ambition."

—The New York Times

"...Gardner has perceived something few politicians are willing to admit publicly: disillusionment with "the system" is not confined to the college youths or radicals or blacks. Much of educated, affluent, middle-class America is equally turned off by government and politics today, distrustful of the ability or willingness of elected officials to meet the problems that plague America. As much as anything, Gardner is seeking to revive a hope and confidence in them..."

First Phase

BETHLEHEM PARK CONSTRUCTION — Bertram E. Kohinke, Supervisor, Town of Bethlehem, has announced that the initial construction phase of the Town's Elm Avenue park site is expected to be started about August 1, 1971. Detailed plans and specifications are now being prepared for the Town by the consulting engineering firm of Myrick and Chevalier. The first phase construction will be limited to an area of about 20 acres adjacent to the Elm Avenue side of the park. The work will include the necessary grading, utilities, roads, parking areas, swimming pool complex including small children's water play area, bath house, concession structure, storage and filter equipment building, tennis courts, and paved area for basketball courts and winter skating. July 1 is the target date for bid advertisement of the first contract which will be for the swimming pool portion of the work. All other construction is planned to be let to contract a little later during the summer months. The target date for completion of this first phase of the park development is June 1, 1972.

will be the highlight of the evening where consumer questions on gardening will be answered. Everyone interested in creating a greener environment is urged to attend.

At Coffee House

This Saturday, May 15, at 9 P.M., the Bethlehem Coffee House will present Tom Winslow, in his second appearance here. For the past few years Tom has been singing his own traditional and original compositions in this area, working toward a cleaner environment in conjunction with the Hudson River Sloop. Currently Tom makes his home in New Baltimore and has a regular radio program on WABY at 8:15 A.M. Sundays.

A second Special Concert will be featured by the coffee house on May 20 at 8 P.M. The performers represent a collective load of talent and perform under the name, Wildflowers. Wildflowers is a newly-formed cooperative for folk musicians located in Saratoga. Members of Wildflowers who will be performing will be Andy Cohen, Kurt Anderson, Patti Nunn, Nano Riley, Alan Stowel, Bill Vanaver, "Rat", Jack McGann and Bob White, all accomplished musicians both instrumentally and vocally. Admission to this special concert will be $1.25. Saturday night's admission is $1.00 for non-members and $.50 for members. The Coffee House is located at 125 Adams, Delmar. The public is invited.

Meeting

There will be a regular meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Delmar Fire Department on Thursday, May 13, at 8 P.M. at the fire hall.

Open Letter

I would like to thank the people of Bethlehem for their endorsement in this past school board election. The responsibility for education and its cost to this community ultimately lies with all of the citizens of this community. I hope that I can feel free and the board can feel free to call upon you all to share this very real responsibility.

Sincerely,
Tim Harris, M.D.

Country Fair

The annual Country Fair of the Delmar Presbyterian Church will vary only slightly from the successful pattern established 2 years ago.

This year the candy booth will become the confection stand, move outside and feature individually wrapped brownies and cupcakes, as well as candy. Apricot balls, nougat bars, and chocolate coconut drops will be added to the variety of sweets available.

Flowers of burlap and crepe paper, planter ornaments, miniature arrangements, wooden candlesticks in colonial colors, and lightweight, hand-crocheted, beaded jewelry are but a few of the items which will be sold at the handicraft tables. These will be in the education wing of the church, as will baked goods, assorted "trinkets and treasures," and children's clothing ready-to-be-worn again.

SENIOR BABE RUTH BASEBALL

Boys (16-18 years old) eligible to play Senior Babe Ruth baseball will have a special registration night in the Tri-Village Area this FRI-DAY, MAY 14, from 7:30 to 8:30 P.M. at the ELSMERE PHARMACY (next door to Albany Public Market).

All games in the area Senior Babe Ruth League are played at the League's own field located in Cook Park, Colonie. Eight teams play an 18-game-per-team schedule with a post-season tournament to determine the champion. Many of the Capitol District's finest players are on the team rosters. In fact, the 1970 Babe Ruth All-Stars beat the Suburban American Legion All-Stars in a post-season tournament which also featured Saratoga and Albany Legion All-Star teams.

The Senior Babe Ruth season opens on June 27 and winds up before the 10th of August.

There are a few openings on the team which will represent the Bethlehem-Ravena area — so if you're eligible, you can still sign up! Bring your birth certificate with you.

Have two great experiences in one.

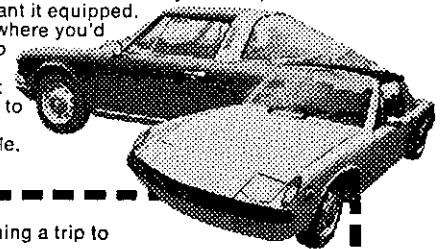

Drive a new Porsche® all over Europe.

Then bring it home.

See Europe on your own timetable. At your own pace. In your own Porsche.

Here's how. Come in and look at our Porsches. Test drive a few models. Let us know which one you want, what color and how you want it equipped.

Then tell us where you'd like to pick it up in Europe. And where you want it shipped back to in America. It's that simple.

I'm planning a trip to Europe in _____ and would like information on the Porsche Tourist Delivery Program.
