CONGRATULATIONS, JOE ROSS

SPOTLIGHT EXCLUSIVE — Yes, it's congratulations to Sgt. Joe Ross of the Bethlehem Police. On Wednesday, May 19, Sgt. Ross was appointed Chief of the Lake George Village Police Department. He takes over up there today — if he has sufficiently recovered from an accident which came right after the appointment. In getting up out of his chair, Joe tore a cartilage in his knee which necessitated an operation last Friday (May 21). At press time, he was recuperating so well that his doctors believed he would be able to assume his duties in Lake George today.

Joe Ross joined the Bethlehem Police Department on April 18, 1960. He liked the work so well that he decided to make it his career. To make himself a better peace officer, he enrolled in the New York State Police School and was graduated in 1961. In 1965 he was promoted to sergeant. He was graduated from Hudson Valley Community College in 1970 with an associate degree in Police Science. And finally, he attended a Traffic Science Training Program this year and received his diploma.

The 33-year old Chief spent two years in Uncle Sam's Army and while in the service he attended the Military Police Academy in Georgia. He is married and lives on Union Avenue in Slingerlands.

It is often said that there are three kinds of policemen: (1) the paperhangers (ticket-happy), (2) the ones who get a kick out of bawling their victims out and (3) the "do-gooders." When his co-workers were asked for their opinion of Joe as a cop, they all said: Joe was just an all-around good policeman. If he believed that an infraction of the law warranted a ticket, he issued it; if he thought a good talking to would do the same amount of good, he talked; and he never shirked his duty to help people. There are a great many in the Town of Bethlehem who will miss Joe because he worked so hard at his job; because he gave of himself freely and his offer of help was always there.

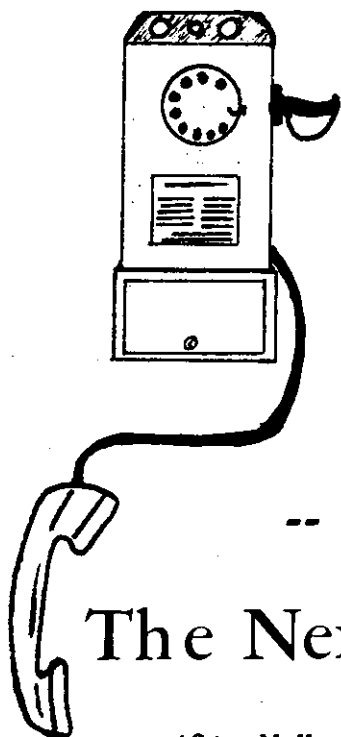

So, again, it's congratulations, Joe Ross! We wish you every success in your new position; it's a big step forward!

keynote speaker. During the meeting Mrs. Gladys V. Hosey, Chairman of the BCHS Business Department, was presented the Clinton A. Reed Memorial Plaque, honoring her as an outstanding person and business educator.

Business Educators, both high school and college, from all areas of New York State attend this conference.

Receives Award

Mrs. Gladys V. Hosey, who is retiring this year as Chairman of the Business Department at Bethlehem Central High School, received a state-wide award Friday night in honor of her outstanding contribution in the field of business education.

She was presented the Clinton A. Reed Award at the annual conference of the New York State Business Teachers Association held in Rochester on Friday and Saturday. This is the second year the award has been made, in memory of Dr. Reed who was Chairman of the Bureau of Business Education for the State Education Department.

Attending the conference with Mrs. Hosey, as representatives from Bethlehem Central, were Mr. Robert A. Pierson, Mr. Hugh J. Brown, Mr. Merle Miller, Mrs. Mary Elliott, and Mrs. Margaret Westervelt.

Mrs. Hosey began teaching at Bethlehem Central in 1948, and was named chair an of the business department in 1964. She submitted her retirement resignation to the Bethlehem Central Board of Education last week.

A native of Albany, Mrs. Hosey earned bachelor's and master's degrees from Albany State Teachers College (now the State University at Albany). She has earned many graduate study credits since then, and has been active in many community organizations.

Trainer, teaches the defensive "block and turn" in the part one division of the American Red Cross Water Safety course being given at the Bethlehem Central Senior High School in preparation for the Annual Water Safety Institute.

More than one hundred students, many from Bethlehem, have enrolled in the Annual Institute to be held at the Troy Y.M.C.A. Camp Von Schoonhoven, Averill Park on the week-end of June 4, 5 and 6, but enrollment will be kept open until June 1, according to Robert Carr, Volunteer Chairman of the Institute.

Students will bring their own sleeping bags and will sleep in A-Frame cottages, newly constructed at the Y Camp, it was announced by James H. Carnahan, Director of First Aid and Water Safety for the Albany Area Chapter of the American Red Cross.

A complete Senior Life Saving course for prospective summer life guards will be given during the Institute. People who have completed Part I of the Water Safety Instructor course will be eligible to take Part II during the week-end. Students must be at least 15 years of age for the life saving and life guard courses and 17 for the Water Safety Instructor course. There is no charge for the instruction. Mr. Carr pointed out that the only expense involved is $16.00 for board, room and textbooks.

Enrollment may be made by calling the Albany Area Chapter of the American Red Cross Water Safety Department, 462-7461.

The Dolphins

The second registration of the Bethlehem Co-Ed Swim Club will be held on Wednesday, June 2, from 7:30 to 8:30 P.M. at the Middle School in the Main Foyer. The following criteria must be met before being eligible for registration.

- 8 years old and under — open to all boys and girls who are able to swim one length of the pool — 25 yds.
- 9 years old and up — open to swimmers who are extremely competent or have had previous competitive swimming experience.

Answers about..... ABC BETHLEHEM CENTRAL Schools

By Ann Treadway
Director of Public Information
Bethlehem Central Schools

(Any school district resident with a question about a school matter may address it to this column by mail to 700 Delaware Ave., Delmar, N.Y., or by calling 439-4921 any weekday morning.)

QUESTION: Why are pupils at the Middle School required to bring in stamped envelopes for the mailing of their final report cards? Isn't there money in the school budget for mailing costs?

ANSWER: Middle School pupils are asked to bring in stamped envelopes, which they then address to themselves under the supervision of homeroom teachers, for use in the mailing of final report cards.

According to Mr. Fred Burdick, Middle School principal, this procedure not only saves the school district the cost of envelopes and stamps for 1,150 pupils, but it also saves the expense of secretarial time for the addressing.

TOWN OF BETHLEHEM SUPERVISOR BERTRAM KOHINKE with Past Chief and President Henry Kleinke of the Delmar Fire Department, apply a bumper sticker. The Hudson-Mohawk Firemen's Convention will be held in Delmar July 14-18. It is also the 60th Anniversary of the Delmar Fire Department. Delmar will open a sub-station next month on the Feura Bush Road near Elm Avenue.

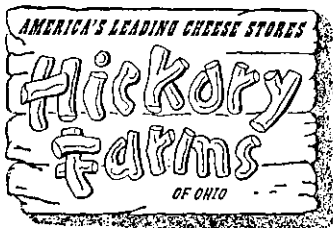

Any parent who wishes to avoid the expense of a stamped envelope may pick up his child's final report card personally during the first week in July.

QUESTION: Is it true that, because of lost time due to bomb threats and weather, some driver education pupils at the High School will not receive their "blue cards" for this spring semester?

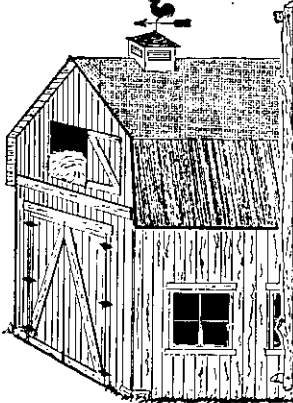

ANSWER: No, according to Mr. Richard Robinson, High School assistant principal, that is not true.

CHILDREN GIVE TO "JOINT APPEAL" — Six youngsters from Delmar who live on "The Crossway" are shown making a contribution to the United Fund—Red Cross Joint Appeal. Accepting is Marshall Hannock, first vice-president of the United Fund of the Albany Area. The children raised $7.79 recently by holding a Springtime Carnival in their neighborhood which featured games and refreshments. Shown are (front row, left to right) Melissa Ryan, Martha Ryan, Dudley Ryan and Claire Hooper; (back row, left to right) Tricia Grovenger and Laurie Howard.

The Light Touch

By Bob Jackson

"An eye to the future, an ear to the ground" gives you a faraway look and a dirty ear.

Insanity IS hereditary. You can get it from your children!

The first signs of spring are those warning that the highway is under construction.

Draftee: "I was head of a hospital in civilian life."
Sergeant: "Okay, we'll make you a semi-private."

It used to be our aim to make as much money as some folks are going broke on today!

These days, we aim to spruce up your home with a Bilco door.

The BILCO Basement Door seals out snow and ice - and seals.

To The Editor:

When a School Board will not communicate, what recourse is left? It bothers me to be critical about a group of men who unselfishly serve this community without compensation. Yet as a taxpayer, I simply cannot vote for a budget when there is a credibility gap.

On May 13, 1971 the Bethlehem School Board, for the second year, voted a contingency budget. Apparently State Law condones a School Board to bypass its stewardship to the electorate. What does a contingency budget mean to this Board?

For 1970-71, it submitted a budget of $7,843,000 which was voted down. The Board then voted a contingency budget of $7,511,654 plus submitting for vote 8 propositions amounting to $332,016. Together, this adds to the same $7,843,000 the voters asked the Board to re-examine. One of the items submitted for vote was the purchase of three buses which, in fact, are substantially funded by State Aid. Using the "scare" technique, it was implied that unless the taxpayers voted for this item, high school students within three miles of the school would not be eligible for transportation. In other words, Bethlehem's fleet of buses would be traveling empty while students from the Normanside bridge, far beyond Route 32, from as far away as New Scotland would be walking to school. What credibility can be attributed to the Board's "contingency" $7.5 million budget after it submitted this item for vote.

For 1971-72 the Board submitted a budget of $8,341,744, apparently without including an estimated amount for negotiated increases in teachers' salaries. This incomplete presentation was voted down by a wide margin. Now, once again this Board (3-2) has foisted a contingency budget upon the community.

By what method does the Board support its presentation of a budget? The answer is: by relating the current budget to the previous year's budget and "estimated" expenditures. This makes the immediate assumption that the previous year's budget and administration was proper. Using this technique, we might ask, is this a proper base and how the Moomaw administration compared with that of his predecessor, to wit,

	Increase in Budget Submitted (Excluding Debt Services)	Increase in Students
1961-64 (Mr. Bookhout)	+ 5.8% per year	+ 2.7% per year
1967-70 (Mr. Moomaw)	+10.1% per year	+ 1.4% per year

Why does the Board not follow the example of other schools and publish comparative cost figures for the schools in the Suburban Council? What is the budget dollar cost per student to be spent by each related to the major categories of the budget? What is the dollar cost per student for the more controversial items such as psychological services, program development, guidance, etc.? What is the comparative transportation cost per student-mile bussed? What does the total teacher package (salaries, benefits, aids) amount to? Where Bethlehem spends more, presumably it can be explained or corrective adjustment made.

The Bethlehem Board has carefully avoided these comparisons. The closest it has come was in 1970 when it published a comparison of the 1969 true evaluation tax rate of the 10 Suburban Council schools as "the only fair method of making comparisons." Fiddlesticks — this comparison is influenced by the tax base and is not a measurement of the efficiency of school operation. In 1971, the Bethlehem Board did not even include the student population in its brochure.

No longer can Bethlehem say it has the best educational system in the vicinity — dollars alone do not buy quality. At least the Board has presented nothing to dispute this. Yes, in 1970 the Director of Program Development issued a 124 page document. Again the principle of self measurement was used and, to prove the quality, Bethlehem was compared with county and state averages, not with the schools in its own league.

Where dollars are concerned, how can a highly ranked neighboring school serving more students present a budget roughly the same as Bethlehem's but including an estimated $300,000 increase for salary adjustments while Bethlehem still has adjustments to be added?

It is my belief that the foregoing concerns are not mine alone. A number of people have told me that they, too, are concerned because of lack of information on which to make a knowledgeable judgment.

How does the taxpayer get a School Board to COMMUNICATE?

J. R. Hawkins

To the Editor:

I should like to express appreciation to Roger Quackenbush, Thomas Cunningham and Richard Simon for establishing the nature trail behind the high school. I understand this was done by these and other teachers with the help of many students at a minimal cost . . . $14. Several hundred trees were planted and though the cost was small, expressed in dollars, the planning and the planting must have taken many man hours. This trail will be available for all of the community, as well as the students.

In addition I should like to thank the teachers of the 6A team at the middle school who worked so hard with their students to hold the successful auction at the end of Earth week.

There have been many complaints about the Bethlehem Central School system, the teachers and students. I feel it is time to thank them for a small part of the good work they have done.

Sincerely,
Patricia Bernard

Maurie G. Flanigan, Postmaster at Slingerlands, wishes to thank all customers on the Rural Delivery for their response to the Mailbox Improvement Week. Following is an excerpt from the Rural Carriers' Magazine with regard to mailboxes:

Mailbox Lament

You'll see me often, thru Country and Town
On a Wobbly Pole, I'm stuck in the ground.
I lean Forward or Backwards, to the Left or Right
And to every Mailman, I'm an irksome sight!

I'm Old and I'm Rusty, Worn out or Bent
Yet, my usefulness, is never spent.
I'm up too High or down too Low
And for all that I reap, I never sow!

My door hangs loosely, on a wiry hinge,
I look like a hangover, from a nightly binge!
Day in and Day out, my head droops with shame,
Many of my owners, won't give me their Name!

A Beautiful home and a Beautiful drive,
Yet, a few feet away, I stand, without Pride.
I wish I could boast, wish I could brag,
But I'm left without Honor, for I have no Flag!

I render the contents of pleasure and joy,
Bring words to a Mother from an Overseas boy.
I feed a Nation with that Monthly Check
And all around me, they don't give a Heck!

So listen, my friends, to all that I say:
Run out, take a good look at Me Today.
And if you're guilty of my Lament,
Remember, on me, a dollar's well spent!

Gift to School

Recently the Tri-Village Welcome Wagon Club, as part of its continuing policy to take an active interest in the civic and spiritual welfare of the community, donated $175 to the running of the Inner City Nursery School held at the First United Methodist Church, Kenwood Avenue, Delmar.

The private nursery school is the creation of Mrs. A. Scott Rowe and Mrs. Theodore Carlson, who felt there was a real need to be met in preparing the inner city pre-school child for the challenges he would meet in school. With the help of Mrs. Carlson and others, Mrs. Rowe started her school 5 years ago with 3 rooms donated by the Methodist Church, although the school is non-denominational, with approximately 15-20 children. She still likes to keep the size of the school at this number.

Each day the children, age 3-5, come from Albany by bus before

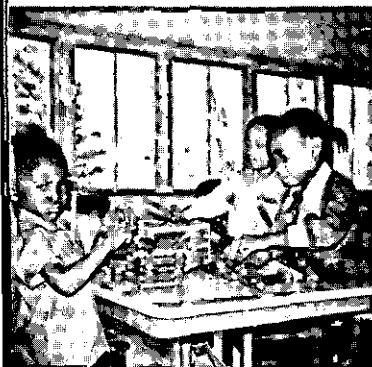

10 A.M., spend the morning learning and playing and are served a hot lunch before returning to Albany around 12:30 P.M. Each child is taught 3 "academic" subjects: language, reading and arithmetic. Between each of these subjects there is a 15-20 minute structured play period, where the child still learns, although he may not realize it.

Besides Mrs. Rowe and Mrs. Carlson there are 10 regular teachers and 4 substitutes. On any one day 3 of the teachers are present. "Help is always needed," said Mrs. Rowe. "No previous teaching experience is required, only an interest in children and a willingness to help."

The nursery is a success and Mrs. Rowe plans to continue it indefinitely. The members of the Tri-Village Welcome Wagon Club are proud to contribute to such a worthwhile community project.

Please Register ... and VOTE!

All residents of the Bethlehem Central School District are reminded that Saturday, June 19, is another date on which persons can register to be eligible to vote in the school district election on June 30.

Registration will take place from 7 A.M. to 9 P.M., at the Middle School on Kenwood Avenue.

School district registration is a separate procedure from general election registration. Eligible voters in school elections must have registered either last year or this year, on specified dates last year, and two so far this year, plus the first Election Day, May 5, when persons were also registered.

School district officials estimate that about half of the approximately 12,000 eligible voters in the district have registered. Of the registered voters, only about two-thirds actually voted in the May 5 election.

In a sample survey recently made by the school administration of 252 district families with children, it was found that 167 families were registered and 85 were not. Of those 167 registered families, representing a possible vote total of 334, a total of 198 voted and 136 did not.

Of the 252 families in the sample survey, representing 504 possible voters, only 198 (or 39.2 per cent) actually voted on May 5.

The survey was limited to district families with children, so it is evident that many parents did not bother to register or to vote in the May 5 school election, which saw the proposed budget for 1971-72 defeated by an almost 2 to 1 margin.

The Board of Education has voted to adopt a contingency budget, which does not require voter approval, but will put up several budget options to a vote on June 30. School district residents will also elect two additional members to the Board of Education on that date.

ing Mr. Camp at 439-1046. Cost of the 12-week course is $18.

This is the 4th summer that this popular tennis program has been offered in Delmar, under sponsorship of the Bethlehem Tennis Association.

Mr. Camp's Bethlehem Central tennis team recently lost its first match since 1964, ending a 90-match winning streak. School officials are now investigating to determine if this is a state-wide, or possibly a nation-wide, high school record.

Even with that 4-3 loss to Niskayuna, this year's Bethlehem team is in a three-way race, with Niskayuna and Shaker, for the Suburban Council tennis title.

Student Art Exhibit

Art work done this year by pupils at all grade levels in Bethlehem Central schools will be on display during the weekend of June 4-6, in the boys' gymnasium at the Middle School.

This will be the first school district art show to be held in recent years, and it is being organized by Stanley Reich, art supervisor for the Bethlehem Central School District. All district art teachers will select and prepare the works to be shown.

The art show will be open to the public from 7 to 9:30 P.M. on Friday, June 4, and from 1 to 4 P.M. on Saturday and Sunday, June 5 and 6.

The show will include such projects as paintings, sculptures, ceramics and prints. There will also be some student demonstrations of such techniques as carving, print-making, and working on the potter's wheel.

Honored

Joseph Guerrero, director of health, physical education and recreation for the Bethlehem Central School District, will be guest of honor at a reunion dinner being held by athletes from Baldwinsville, N.Y., who were coached by Mr. Guerrero prior to his coming to Delmar.

The testimonial dinner is scheduled for Saturday, June 12, at the Fireside Inn in Baldwinsville.

Attending the dinner to honor Mr. Guerrero will be members of the 1946 through 1950 baseball teams which won a recordsetting 46 consecutive league games, leading to their being entered in the Baseball Hall of Fame.

Jets Are Here

On Wednesday, May 19, the Delmar Reformed Church was the site of a Pot Luck Supper for the visiting Jet group and other Experimenters in the area, the host families, and friends. About 100 people gathered for an evening of pleasant international fellowship and a delicious dinner. Town Supervisor Bertram E. Kohinke joined the group to bring official greetings from the town and to meet the boys personally.

Tri-Village Little League Opens '71 Season

Raising "Old Glory" at McGee Park on May 15 heralded the opening of the 1971 season of Tri-Village Little League. As in past years, the American Flag was donated by the Nathaniel Blanchard Post 1040, American Legion. Photos by L. Spelich

Five hundred twenty-seven boys have registered on thirty-two teams of the Tri-Village Little League. These boys are managed and coached by over eighty men of the community.

Throwing the first ball on opening day of the 1971 Tri-Village Little League season was Bertram Kohinke, Supervisor of the Town of Bethlehem.

"Play Ball" means serious work on the Klersy diamond.

In recognition of his years as supporter, worker and two years as President of Tri-Village Little League, Daniel Furey, on right, was presented a plaque of appreciation by Ronald Dutil, current President.

You can also learn about nuclear power—see a working model of a nuclear plant and watch a simulated nuclear reaction.

You can do all this in a day and you can do it for free at Niagara

Lloyd Nurick, a 31-year-old State executive who is experienced in local government finances and public employee relations, today announced his candidacy for one of the two new seats on the Bethlehem School Board.

Mr. Nurick, who is a member and past chairman of the school district's Citizen's Advisory Committee, submitted the required petition today. A resident of 136 Kenwood Avenue,

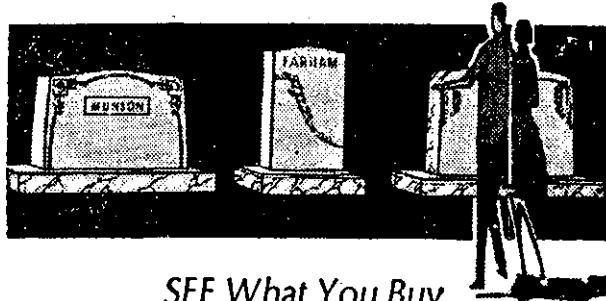

Lloyd Nurick

Elsmere, Mr. Nurick is a candidate for a three-year term on the board.

In voting on May 5, Bethlehem voters sanctioned enlarging the School Board from five to seven members. The two new seats will be filled at an election on June 30.

Mr. Nurick said the primary thrust of his campaign will be advocacy of additional revenue sources for the Bethlehem School District, as a means of relieving the homeowner of what he called "an increasingly oppressive tax burden."

Doug Is Coming!

"The Pleasure of His Company," the witty, "drawing-room" comedy starring debonaire Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., is the latest addition to the Colonie Coliseum Summer Theatre season opening June 21.

Producer Bill Ross announced today that the comedy of manners by Samuel Taylor, with Cornelia Otis Skinner, will be presented the week of August 17-22 at the Latham theatre-in-the-round just off Route 9.

Unlike his famous father, handsome Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., has spent more film time in drawing-rooms than on castle battlements. "Stephen Steps Out" was the first of many screen successes that have included such classics as "prisoner of Zenda," "Gunga Din," and "Fighting O'Flynn."

Budget Option

Residents of the Bethlehem Central School District will be asked to vote "yes" or "no" on a single budget option totaling $340,236, at the special election set for June 30.

At its meeting last Thursday night, the Board of Education voted to lump together the seven expense categories which cannot legally be included in a contingency budget, rather than have them voted upon as separate propositions.

The seven option items are: Transportation, $128,753; Equipment, $59,599; Elementary text-

In "The Pleasure of His Company," he appears as Pogo Poole, the suave, international playboy who derives solitary pleasure when he shows up, decidedly uninvited, at his daughter's wedding.

Witty lines and situations abound in the play that had a 13-month run in New York and comparable successes in other American cities and in London.

books and pupil supplies, $45,916; Plant operation and maintenance, $53,912; Inter-scholastic athletics, including coaches' salaries, $37,553; Library books, $12,643; and Membership in educational organizations, $1,360.

Defeat of the option would mean, for one thing, that school district pupils in grades K through 8 who live within two miles of their school would not be bused, nor would High School pupils who live within three miles of that building.

If voters reject the package option, it would also mean that — for the second straight year — no school equipment could be purchased even to replace items no longer usable. A "no" vote would mean, as another example, that parents of elementary age children would be required to purchase their textbooks and supplies.

Dr. Robert Bair, who made the motion to submit the items as a single option vote, stressed his belief that all are equally important. The board vote on the action was 4 to 1, with John Clyne dissenting.

Prior to the package option decision, the board at last week's meeting cut slightly more than $30,000 from the proposed budget, which does not require voter approval, will reflect these cuts in addition to the $340,236 contained in the option package.

If the option is endorsed by district voters, this means that that total amount would be put back in the budget.

Residents who are not yet registered as SCHOOL DISTRICT VOTERS may do so on Saturday, June 19, from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m., at the Middle School on Kenwood Avenue. Persons who register on that date will be eligible to vote on the budget option and on candidates for two new seats on the Board of Education.

In Competition

On the weekend of May 14 and 15 music organizations from the Bethlehem Central High School Music Department participated in the New York State School Music Association Competition held at the Saratoga Springs

High School, Saratoga, New York. All High School music groups earned an "A" rating in the following grade level of difficulty: Choraliers 6 plus A, Orchestra 6A, Senior High Concert Band 6A, and Choristers (9th and 10th choir) 4A.

At this competition music organizations were judged according to NYSSMA state-wide standards and were evaluated on six aspects of performance: tone, intonation, technique, rhythm, balance and interpretation. In addition, each group selects a level of difficulty, ranging from grade one to grade six. Grade six is the highest level of difficulty for high school performers.

Directors of the High School music organizations are as follows: Choraliers and Choristers, Mrs. Magdalene York; Orchestra, Salvatore Gangi; and Senior High Concert Band, Samuel Bozzella.

Sony Sunset Portable TV

The Sony TV-720U is called the Sun Set. Because its black screen gives the same sharp picture outdoors that it does indoors. Even when the glare is strong. And since it weighs a little over 9 lbs., you can take it anywhere—beach, boat, boudoir or backyard. Plus a 7-inch diagonal screen that let's you share the fun with the whole family. Sharp picture? You bet. TV-720U owes it all to Sony's advanced solid state circuitry—and a forward AGC system for sensitive reception. Operates on AC or rechargeable battery (optional) that can be recharged with set's built-in battery charger. Plugs into cars and boats with optional accessories. You've got to see it to believe it.

ceive a final report and recommendation from the citizens' committee formed to investigate and evaluate Mental Health Strand III at its meeting tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m. at the High School.

The committee was organized at the direction of the board last fall, after polls taken among parents of Bethlehem elementary pupils indicated that the majority of parents wished such a study to be undertaken.

About 200 persons from the community have taken part in regular discussion meetings since last November, with the aim of reaching a consensus on what subjects should be included in health education curriculums at different grade levels, and how these subjects should be taught.

Participation in the study groups, divided according to grade level interest, was open to all residents of the school district. In addition to the 200 persons who took part in the discussion sessions, about 70 asked to be allowed to review the conclusions reached and to add their comments.

A course of study based on Mental Health Strand III was introduced into the elementary grades of the school district in the fall of 1968. It was removed from the curriculum in the spring of 1969 by the Board of Educa-

Updated New York State Strand III curriculum guidelines, published last fall, were used by the citizens' study groups in their investigations. For anyone interested, copies of the curriculum guidelines have been placed on reserve at the Delmar Public Library.

A Green Memory

Over the years, the Bethlehem Public Library had received gifts of books, magazines and money for special wants from Mrs. Alvin Whitney who was a close neighbor of the Library's. After her death, a further kindness came with the arrival of 800 books from her large collection.

Mrs. Whitney's friends have been adding to the gratitude the Library Staff has long felt toward her.

A reproduction of an ancient sculpture of the Egyptian falcon god, Horus, is the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Combs in Mrs. Whitney's memory. This bronzed statue shows the bird in his characteristic pose, shown on many Egyptian mummy cases and temple portals.

In a more familiar setting, the collection of carved native birds started by Miss Marjorie Terrill in Mrs. Whitney's name makes a whimsical display of redpoll,

Display

The week of May 24 at the Bethlehem Central Middle School there will be a special display from one of the Adult Education Classes. Students who took Swedish Rya have been busily making rugs, wall hangings, and pillows for the past two months. Many students have created their own designs - others have used ideas from Scandinavian artists. The students learned the centuries-old knotting technique of making Rya as well as the exquisite art of blending colors the way the Scandinavians do so effectively in their handicrafts.

Members of the class who have worked in the show include: Mrs. Ann Brink, Mrs. Pat Taylor, Mrs. Margaret Tubbs, Mrs. Sue Nichols, Mrs. Dorothy Leonard, Mrs. Jo Garvey, Mrs. Pat Bork, Mrs. Peg Tedeschi, Mrs. Virginia Peters and Mrs. Doris Stephany.

Arthur Crudup is one of the few remaining performers of a type of music originated by Southern Negroes many years ago. A great many of the people that he has played with in the past have been dead many years but Arthur is, luckily, still alive and playing the Blues.

Mr. Crudup was born in 1905 in Forest, Mississippi, and started to work at 14 to help support his family. Up to the present day he has held menial jobs to support his family and himself.

Currently he is self employed as a farmer in Virginia.

Since his first recording date in 1937, his songs have been recorded by many other artists. For example, Elvis Presley's first big hit was a reworking of Crudup's "That's All Right Mama." Rock groups which have recorded his material include: Canned Heat, Al Kooper, Creedence Clearwater Revival, Paul Butterfield, plus others.

Arthur toured England in the winter of 1969-70 and was very well received. Blues World said of him: "His rich, expressive singing and thoughtful compositions have impressed many audiences already. Arthur's music is part of the very lifeblood of the Blues..."

His appearance at the Bethlehem Coffee House will surely be the only one he will ever make in this area. The concert itself will provide a unique opportunity to see an all too rapidly dying form of traditional Black Music. He will be here on Thursday June 3 at 8 P.M. Admission is $2.

Art Show

An Art Show with displays of art work done by pupils in Bethlehem Central schools will be held Friday through Sunday, June 4, 5 and 6, in the Middle School boys' gym.

There will be district-wide participation in the Art Show, with displays by pupils in grades kindergarten through 12. The Show will be open to the public from 7 to 9:30 p.m. on June 4, and from 1 to 4 p.m. on June 5 and 6.

In addition to the displays, there will be pupil demonstrations in such art techniques as print making, carving, and work on the potter's wheel.

This is the first School District Art Show that has been held in many years, and Mr. Stanley Reich, art supervisor for the Bethlehem Central schools, is overall chairman. Work to be displayed will be selected by all the art teachers in the school district.

Dual purpose of the Art Show is to give pupils the opportunity to have their work displayed, and

Buddy Rich Coming

The Buddy Rich Orchestra will present one of the special single-night performances highlighting the 1971 season at Colonie Coliseum Summer Theatre.

The 16-piece orchestra featuring the man long recognized as "the world's greatest drummer" will bring its "distinctively Rich music of today" to the theater-in-the-round at Latham on July 12.

Donald Winig, Coliseum Theatre general manager, also announced as Monday night special performers "soul" singer Roberta Flack, July 26; pianist-comedian Victor Borge, August 2; and the Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra, with Bob Eberle conducting, August 16. Other season specials are still to be announced.

Buddy Rich made his debut in vaudeville playing the drums when he was just 18 months old. His development as a mature artist was during the days of the big bands, and he played with the best: Tommy Dorsey, Artie Shaw and Bunny Berigan. His own band, organized in 1966, plays theaters, concert halls, colleges and the modern caverns of light and sound in the United States, Canada and world-wide.

The 11-week season at Colonie Coliseum Summer Theatre opens June 21 with "The Jerry Lewis Revue." Vocalist Helen O'Connell is featured in the large revue cast.

Season subscriptions, group sales and mail order reservations are being handled by the theater box office. For ticket information, write or call Colonie Coliseum Summer Theatre, Post Office Box 41, Latham, New York, 12110, telephone 785-3393.

Best Year

Reflecting the best fund raising year in its history, Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America has appropriated a record $3,061,000 for scientific research for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 1971, Mr. Paul O'Keefe, President of MDAA's Albany Area Chapter announced today.

More than half the budgeted funds, approximately $1,711,000, have been earmarked for the Institute for Muscle Disease - the research center MDAA sponsors in New York City. The remainder will be spent for individual projects, in this country or elsewhere in the world, which show promise of advancing basic biological knowledge or contributing to the understanding of the specific disease entities with which MDAA is concerned. These include, in addition to the many different types of muscular dystrophy, such neurogenic disorders as amyotrophic lateral scler osis, the various spinal muscular atrophies and the inflammatory diseases of muscle subsumed under the general term of myositis.

"In addition to our vast program of research," Mr. O'Keefe said, "the Association provides, through its chapters and its clinics, extensive services to patients suffering from these progressively crippling conditions. I'm proud to say that these services are available at no charge. Here in Albany, our local clinic is St. Peter's Hospital located at 315 S. Manning Blvd., Albany, New York, and is under the direction of Dr. Edward H. Polkanzer, M.D."

The Association's broadly-conceived research commitment is guided by its Scientific Advisory Committee which - in the first meeting it held in the new fiscal year - approved grants-in-aid to 50 senior scientific investigators and ten post-doctoral fellowship awards. Twelve of the grants are for projects not previously funded by MDA and seven of the Fellows are also receiving initial support.

Mr. O'Keefe noted that the geographical scope of MDA's research program is evidenced by the fact that scientists in eight foreign countries are among those for whom the Committee recommended assistance. The 16 projects located abroad include one each in Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Czechoslovakia and Ireland, two in Israel (both at the Weizmann Institute of Science), six in England and five in Japan. As for the United States which, naturally, accounts for the bulk of the grants and awards, 20 states coast to coast, as far north as Maine and as far south as Texas and New Mexico are represented.

Final Conference

The Finjan Coffee House of the Albany Jewish Community Center will present Michael Devlin of the New York City Center and Lake George Opera Companies at its final program of the season on Sunday, June 6 at 7:30 P.M.

Mr. Devlin will put on a program of popular songs, Broad-

THE YAMAHA Music School held its first graduation recently. The children had completed a music preparatory course which included music terminology, reading and writing notes, ear training, rhythm and general preparation for private instrumental study.

This handy guide is published by Suburban Propane, one of the nation's largest independent distributors of LP-gas (propane). This year more than 80 new dealers have been added to the guide which also carries valuable information regarding roads, bridges and tunnels that permit or restrict vehicles carrying LP-gas. New regulations regarding the three major bridge-tunnel links between Maryland and Virginia have been added and are explained in detail.

way tunes in addition to operatic selections. Richard Vincent, Music Critic of the Times Union, says of Mr. Devlin, "he is affable, attractive and a good performer on stage, which is by no means always the case." "I have heard Devlin sing several times and for what it is worth, if you have a chance, make an effort to hear him." Mr. Devlin is only 28 years old and Mr. Vincent says, "he is very effective with young people; they relate to him quite easily." The Finjan intentionally changed its opening time to 7:30 to accommodate young people this year and the response has been heartwarming.

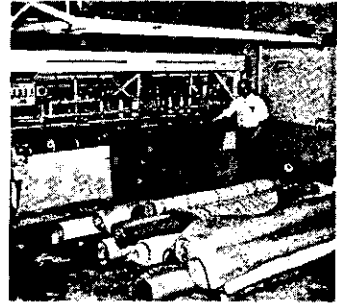

The New York Times reviewer writing about Mr. Devlin's performance in Mephistopheles wrote, "Mr. Devlin convincingly made each gesture a telling one, forcefully dominating every scene in which he appeared; there was an ample measure of diabolical intensity and expressive variance. Altogether an extraordinarily accomplished piece of work in one of the most demanding parts ever penned for a bass-

Michael Steinberg of the Boston Globe, wrote, "thanks to both his strong presence and to a really singing bass-baritone voice, Michael Devlin made a tremendous impact." Marianne T. Ozmer of the Chattanooga New Free Press said, "his production is silky smooth . . . he has color resonance and tasteful phrasing." Robert Cooper of the Chattanooga Times said, "Michael Devlin was superb . . . it is difficult to say which contributed more toward his unqualified success in the role, his singing or his acting." Another New York Times review says, "Devlin's days in the Minor Leagues are over." Mr. Devlin has been appointed affiliate artist in the area under a State Arts Council Grant and the Finjan is fortunate in being able to bring him to the Center. He will conduct a discussion & question & answer period after his performance, as is the custom in the Finjan. Admission is 50¢ per person to cover the cost of coffee, tea and cake.

TO CONVERT AN OPEN PORCH into a beautiful year-around outdoor room and plant conservatory, close it in with walls of glass on all open sides. Use horizontally-sliding glass windows—the kind that come with detachable storm windows and screens—to provide ventilation in summer, and install new heating to keep it warm during the cold months.

DINGY BATHROOMS AND KITCHENS are easily brightened up with touches of "Corian" methacrylate material, a durable and beautiful new product that is veined like rich marble and comes in three warm colors. A "Corian" vanity top and bowl that is made all in one piece, without dirt-catching seams or folds, has a wide vanity area that literally surrounds the bowl with usable space. It attaches easily to matching walls of "Corian" or to any existing wall. A do-it-yourself kit comes complete with five beautiful panels of "Corian", optional adhesive and caulk, and full instructions for installing the panels around a recessed tub. "Corian" is easily worked with household tools and has a re-istance to stains and a cleanability that recommends it for kitchen counter and cabinet tops.

UNUSED SPACE between walls can be put to excellent use by breaking through one side and installing 5 or 6 inch shelves for paperback books, jars or bric-a-brac.

ONE AREA RESTAURANT is providing most unusual musical background for its patrons. Ed Schrauth, manager of the Cranberry Bog Restaurant and Loggér-head Tavern, 56 Wolf Road, Colonie is shown (above) holding his "resident musician". It's a Humpback Whale and Schrauth programs the songs of the whale over his public address system daily. The idea of a whale singing may seem odd but the great mammals do sing and sing in long sequences much in the manner of birds. The result is eerie but interesting.

ROMAN LUXURY IN THE HOME

If the ancient Romans knew one thing, it was how to build with marble, as the remains of their splendid palaces and public baths show. Now, the modern kitchen and bath can be Romanized with an interior material called "Corian". Manufactured by DuPont, "Corian" comes in three rich colors—dawn beige, regal gray, and olive mist—and each has the rich veining and warm beauty of Roman marble.

In the bath, a one-piece "Corian" vanity top and bowl is available that has no seams or folds to trap cosmetics and toothpaste. The vanity area literally surrounds the bowl with generous counter space. The sink attaches easily to matching wall panels of "Corian" or to any bare or tiled wall. Panels of "Corian" are available for bathroom walls and floors and a special bathtub wall kit contains five panels, optional caulk and adhesive, and complete instructions for do-it-yourself installation around a recessed bathtub.

The material is durable as well as beautiful, and is easily worked with home workshop tools. In the kitchen, its resistance to heat and easy cleanability make it a desirable material for counter tops. Because it is a solid material, there are no bonding seams or strips at the edges to catch spills or complicate cleaning operations. The marble pattern runs throughout the material—not just on the surface. If the Romans could have used "Corian", there is little doubt that it would have been one of their favorite interior materials.

The latest improvement in bathroom materials is DuPont's durable, easy-care "Corian" methacrylate material which adds lasting marble-veined beauty to bathroom walls, vanity tops, floors and bowls.
