ALMADÉN Rosé Wines

Rosé seems to fit into the basic pattern of modern living—it's informal and uncomplicated, refreshing when it's chilled, fruity, light, and it's easy to serve. It requires no "ritual," no complicated menus.

Grenache Rosé

Here is an all-American favorite. It was the first vin rosé to be produced commercially in this country; in the opinion of most experts, it is still the best, quite comparable in character and quality to Tavel. Almadén Grenache Rosé (pronounced Grenash Ros-A) is in no sense a blend. Its color is its natural color and it owes a good deal of its freshness and fruit and charm to the fact that it is young. It is cheerful, pretty to look at, and it goes, quite literally, not with just some special dish, but with everything.

Mountain Nectar Vin Rosé

This Mountain Nectar, with its trace of not-too-obvious sweetness—like fresh ripe fruit—is a worthy companion to the dryer and immensely popular Grenache Rosé.

VOTE REPUBLICAN — VOTE ROW A ALL THE WAY!

A Democratic brochure says that Bethlehem needs certain things. Let's examine what they say Bethlehem needs and what the facts are.

"BETHLEHEM NEEDS:"

Alternate method of taxation

Real property exemption for elderly property owners

New industry

Recreation program for people of all ages

Full use of Federal and State aid

Specific and reasonable policy for police

Plans for future growth

Town budget presented for voter evaluation
before Election Day

FACTS:

This is a fine idea, and we are all for it! When Mr. Harder gets to be Governor (which he indicates he's really running for) maybe he can persuade the Legislature, (which is the only body that has the power) to provide alternate methods of taxation.

The Town has had such exemptions since they were authorized by the Legislature and recently increased the maximum income qualification from $3,000 to $5,000.

60 new businesses and industries in the last 12 years — multi-million dollar Southgate Shopping Mall on Route 9W ready to start construction. Town Squire Shopping Center already under construction at the corner of Route 9W and the Feura Bush Road.

We wonder if the Democrats have seen the recreation schedule and recreation brochure listing activities for people of all ages.

We have availed ourselves of all Federal and State aid possible (sewer, water, etc.) except for recreation. If we accept State aid, our recreation facilities would necessarily be available to any resident of the State of New York. We feel they should be for the use and enjoyment of our Town residents only.

The Town has a contract with the police for 1971 and just last week signed a similar contract for 1972. These contracts were entered into after full discussion between the Town Board and the Bethlehem Police Benevolent Association and their attorney, and both contracts are obviously acceptable to both sides.

We think the present situation in Bethlehem indicates pretty clearly that we have, and have had for years, plans for future growth. One needs only to read the newspapers about problems in other towns which we do not have in Bethlehem.

The preliminary budget has been available to anyone in the Town since October 4.

BETHLEHEM RECREATION

by Terry Bastian

The Bethlehem Youth Center at the Middle School will be closed October 29 & 30 during evening hours.

ADULT RECREATION

Adult Recreation classes at the Middle School are again very well attended. Tennis, Basketball and Slimnastics are the most popular activities and all have maximum attendance. Activities that still have plenty of openings include Volleyball for men, Badminton, Swimming and Scuba Diving for both men and women. If you feel a bit sluggish or need to release tensions a night or two a week participating in Adult Recreation might be the very thing you're looking for. The activities are available for all adults residing in the Town of Bethlehem.

DELMAR DOLPHINS SWIM CLUB

The Swim Club with John Whipple as instructor is very well attended by children participating in the club and parent spectators coaching behind the glass. If you want to watch some top notch swimmers as well as some hard-working beginners, visit the pool at the Middle School Tuesday or Thursday evening from 7 to 9 P.M.

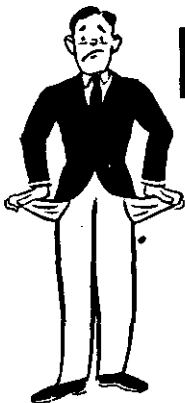

The Spotlight Goes to School

HIGH SCHOOL students in the Capital District who are interested in attending Bucknell University will soon have an opportunity to be interviewed by representatives of the University either on campus or in their home area.

If it is impossible for a student to come to the campus in Lewisburg, Pa. for an interview with a member of the University's admissions staff, or if the interviewing schedule is booked up, high school students may contact any one of the four Bucknell alumni who are participating in a program of alumni assistance in admissions.

The alumni interviewers in the area are Mr. and Mrs. John D. Gazley, 100 Orchard Street, Rensselaer, and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver W. Clowe, PICKPOCKETS? ... Look Who's Talking!

In the October 14 Spotlight, the Democratic candidate for Supervisor charged the Republican Town government with a "pickpocket philosophy." Let's look at the "philosophy" of the Albany Democratic City and County organization of which Mr. Harder and his running mates are all a part. They haven't announced their "independence", probably because they realize that no one would take them seriously.

Consider these items:

1. It is estimated by the Wall Street Journal that the taxpayers of Albany County will pay between $6,000,000 and $7,000,000 in additional interest because of the cancellation, without advance notice and without ever giving a reason, of a proposed and duly advertised sale of Mall bonds.

2. A $14,156,868.00 bond issue by the City of Albany, authorized by a special act of the Legislature, to enable the City to pay accumulated debts for which it did not have the money. Think of the interest the taxpayers of the City of Albany will pay on these bonds.

3. Newspaper articles reveal that hundreds of thousands of dollars have been wasted in architects' fees and other expenses for the abortive high school, the pilings of which are readily visible on Washington Avenue and have been visible for several years.

Do you want the Town of Bethlehem under the control of this organization?

CHILDREN in the Bethlehem Central School District WILL attend school on Tuesday, Nov. 2, the date originally scheduled for the annual Superintendent's Day Teachers' Workshop. There will be no classes on the following Monday, Nov. 8, when the workshop will be held.

The date has been changed for two basic reasons. One, it is educationally more desirable for pupils to have a day off at the beginning, rather than in the middle of, a school week. This also gives families the opportunity to enjoy a long weekend.
Secondly, Nov. 2 is Election

OUR EATING HABITS ARE DIFFERENT

One of the things that has become clearer in the past few years is that we Americans are eating in new ways with more "convenience" foods, more meals away from home and more snack foods.

Despite all of the availability of products and ways and places to eat - malnutrition (meaning over or under nutrition) seems to be on the increase.

In December 1969, I participated in the White House Conference on Food, Nutrition, and Health. This conference focused attention on the fact that no age group and no income group in our country was eating enough of the right foods to get the nutrients needed for good health.

Several developments came out of this attention and awareness. First, in the time since the conference grocery manufacturers have re-evaluated and are continuing to re-evaluate their products in terms of their nutritional contribution. This has resulted in many new products, as well as improved old products.

Here are just a few:

- Breakfast drinks with added nutrients
- Enriched bakery products
- Instant potatoes fortified with Vitamin C
- Soy protein (excellent protein value at low cost) added to one dish meals
- Dry milk fortified with Vitamins A & D

Be sure to read labels and see which products have these nutritional pluses.

Another development has been stepped up activity in the government to establish nutritional guidelines for minimum nutritional levels in some products as well as beginning steps toward nutritional labeling. Nutritional labeling is a difficult procedure since we consumers many times do not read or use presently available label information. So, it is difficult for companies and government to know what kind of nutritional label information you and I will read, understand, and use as a buying guide.

TOWN OF BETHLEHEM

Day and since many schools serve as polling places, this provides an opportunity for persons to observe a typical school day when they come to vote.

All parents of Bethlehem pupils are urged to make note of this scheduling change now, and to make plans accordingly.

ALL FIVE kindergarten classes at the Bethlehem Center School recently visited the Indian Ladder Apple Orchards in Altamont. They were accompanied by their teachers, Miss Dorothy Weiss, Mrs. Rozan Owens and Mrs. Mona Livesey, and several parents from each class.

A tour of the store and the sorting and packing facilities preceded a brief visit to the cooler, where the children were asked if they would like to pretend they were apples. Lights were flicked off so they could experience the cold, dark atmosphere in which the apples are stored.

Next came a visit to the location in the orchards where the pickers were working. Each child was invited to pick an apple off a tree to eat. Then they watched the men on the ladders, with their special canvas bags hung on straps around their necks so they have both hands free for picking. They saw the bags emptied through the bottom into crates, and how the bags are secured again to be refilled.

As the children watched, crates of apples were loaded onto flatbed trailers, and then the trailers were pulled by tractors to the sorting shed.

The day after this visit to the orchards, visitors to the Bethlehem Center Kindergarten classes would have found the children busily cutting apples while discussing wholes, halves, parts, use of numbers for measuring ingredients, how Mother reads and follows directions from the recipe book, and — best of all — how good the applesauce tastes when it's finished!

In a few days, my friends, we will go to the polls once more.

If you wonder why our roads are at a standstill and in need of repair, why our police are underpaid when we need them so badly, why we are refusing available tax relief money — then we must have two parties on our town council to breach the wall of silence.

"BETHLEHEM GENERAL TAXES HAVE NOT
INCREASED DUE TO GOOD GOVERNMENT INACTION"

This public image statement is attractive if accepted at face value but it is not the type of communication from Bethlehem's Town Hall that is needed to solve our community problems. We need factual comment on issues like tax and town finances. For a change let's talk fact:

- (1) General taxes did stabilize during the last two years but such an accomplishment resulted from revenues paid to Bethlehem which were derived from the County sales tax.
- (2) The $500,000.00 sales tax revenue projected for 1971 will enable our town to maintain a stabilized general tax bill.
- (3) Without such revenues, our local real estate tax would increase about $9.00 for each $1,000.00 of assessed value in order to meet anticipate expenses.

Now that Bethlehem is receiving sales tax money for the support of its local government, we believe the citizens should be asked at a public meeting to indicate their preference for either increased services or a tax reduction.

LET'S END THE THREE HAT SYNDROME.

If our ideas make sense to you, we will appreciate your support on election day November 2, 1971. TRY —

THE BETHLEHEM Central Choraliers have announced the movies to be shown in thier second annual film festival. The films are, "Lost Horizon", to be shown on November 13, "The Spiral Staircase," January 21, and "Fail-Safe," on Feburary 25. All the films will be shown at 7:30 P.M. in the High School Auditorium. The admission will be $1.00, and tickets will be available at the door.

The first film will be shown Saturday, November 13. The film, "Lost Horizon," is one of the most popular and enduring classics in the motion picture field. The film's opening lines establish its romantic theme, one which seems as meaningful today as when the film was released, just before World War 2. "In this world torn by wars and strife, who has not dreamed of finding a utopia — a paradise where peace and love reign supreme? Such a place was Shangri-La . . ."

A plane carrying foreigners out of war-torn China crashes in the mountains of Tibet. As the passengers, few of whom have been seriously hurt, attempt to find help, they stumble upon the magical land of Shangri-La. Hidden far away from the reach of modern civilization, it is a timeless world in which disease and hardship are unknown, and the inhabitants live for more than two hundred years without aging. How the foreigners react to this paradise, and what happens to them will entrance movie-goers of all ages.

FIREMEN VISIT CLASSES — Glenmont Fire Department Chief Joe Keller and Firemen William Mooney and Jim Corbett visited the Bethlehem Center Kindergarten classes during Fire Prevention Week early this month. The children were lifted into the cab of the new fire truck to see its interior equipment and then, as shown her, were given literature on fire safety to take home with them. Discussion in the classrooms, as well as film strips, books, paper bag puppets, and paper fire trucks were used to emphasize how the fireman helps the community, and the importance of fire safety rules.

There are 21,870 people in this headline. Every one of the 21,870 citizens of Bethlehem—even though more than a few are between the lines.

Al Fisher believes that you and the other 21,869 citizens of Bethlehem aren't getting all the justice you could be getting.

Bethlehem has been content to think of the Town Court as a place that hands out speeding tickets. But it can be more. Al Fisher can make more of it.

Al Fisher believes that the Court is a place where the citizens of Bethlehem can stand up one and all for their personal and property rights — without going to County Court.

Justice for all. That's what Al Fisher believes in. And Justice for all is not political business. Town Justice is not a political office. Vote for the man. Not for the party.

Read between the lines and find your own name. Then do yourself justice and vote for Al Fisher.

WHO DEFENDS THE VICTIM?

If you are accused of a crime, the court may appoint an attorney for you, or you can hire your own lawyer to defend you. If you have the money, you can retain the best lawyer in the country. But if you are the victim of a crime, who will defend your side?

The District Attorney.

When the District Attorney is ineffective, the criminal has the advantage. Where does the victim stand then?

This situation exists in Albany County.

This is one reason why I am running for District Attorney. I have been an effective lawyer, and I will be an effective District Attorney.

Let's give the victims of crime an equal chance.

Sincerely,

GUERRERA PRAISES KOHINKE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Dear Sir:

As a former member of the staff of the Bethlehem Central School District and as a citizen and taxpayer of this beautiful community, I feel I must write this letter commending Mr. Bertram E. Kohinke, Supervisor of the Town of Bethlehem for his achievements in the area of recreation. During all my years as District Director of Health, Physical Education and Recreation of the Bethlehem School System, it has been my privilege to work very closely with Mr. Kohinke in the planning and administration of the Bethlehem recreation program for the youth and adults of the school district and the Town. I have always found him to be genuinely concerned and most cooperative at every turn. Through his guidance and steadfast leadership, the means for the development of an outstanding recreation program has been made possible.

Mr. Kohinke is a man of vision and great strength. Through his efforts a brand new concept for an outstanding recreational facility will soon become a reality on Elm Avenue and will be enjoyed by the many residents, both young and old, in our community.

I sincerely believe that we are indeed fortunate to have a man of his caliber as our Supervisor and I congratulate him for the great job he is doing.

Sincerely yours,
Joseph A. Guerrera

The Editor:

It is quite rare for an elected official, such as the Mayor of Albany, to admit publicly that he did not perform a public duty by not reporting alleged criminal activities going on in the State Capitol while he was a New York State Senator. Gambling, at that time as well as now, was a criminal activity. Of course, he did not mean it that way; he just shot his mouth off thinking he would be embarrassing someone else but instead embarrassed himself.

The question is this. Would the Mayor, Erastus Corning the 2nd, have reported alleged gambling in the State Capitol had the District Attorney of Albany County been a Democrat? And suppose, I'm sure it isn't going to happen, but suppose Mr. Keegan does win the election and becomes District Attorney on January 1st next, will he pursue an inquiry into gambling at the State Capitol after taking office? You can bet all of your savings that Keegan will have forgotten all of what Erastus Corning, the 2nd, the permanent Mayor of the City of Albany, has said.

Now, about that Mayor of the City of Albany. How did he get that job? I know the people elected him — after he was selected by the equally permanent County Chairman Dan O'Connell. But would have Dan selected him had he been Izzy Cohen, excuse me — Erastus Cohen, the 2nd? I don't think so; he got the job because Dan needed "class" and the poor guy thought Erastus, the 2nd, had class. One should go to St. Mary's Park, on Washington Avenue, off Partridge St., and see for him or herself what that classy Mayor has done with the finances of the City of Albany; a lot of piles but no high school building. Ask the city firemen what they think of that classy Mayor who has been giving them a runaround in their desire to get a just compensation but it's OK to spend more than $2,000,000 to clean up Albany after that dreadful snowfall of December, 1969. Oh yes, he is sure a classy Mayor, no doubt and what has that classy Mayor got to show for almost thirty years of stewardship?

He calls himself a Democrat and yet that classy alleged Democrat has done everything in his power to break up the Firemen's Union as he did the Policemen's Union a number of years ago right after his reelection. He probably doesn't know (he should) that the national Democratic Party, since the days of Franklin D. Roosevelt, has had the support of the labor unions. This alleged Democrat just doesn't know what it means to be a true Democrat.

And now, about Arnold Proskin, the young District Attorney; he came up the hard way. He had no grandfather who was a railroad baron; nor did he have a relative who was Lt. Governor of New York State to push his political ambitions; he did it all by himself. In my opinion he did a good job as District Attorney, what with the strenuous obstructions of the Democratic majority in the County Legislature. A vote for Arnold Proskin is an acknowledgement that the American dream is still true in America.

POLICE ATTORNEY ANSWERS HARDER

Dear Sir:

Charges made in the October 21, 1971 morning Edition of the Albany "Times-Union" by George Harder, Democratic Candidate for Supervisor in the Town of Bethlehem, are misleading and unfairly and inaccurately reflect upon the members of the Bethlehem Town Police Department.

The allegation that burglaries increased by 42% thereby suggesting that Bethlehem is unsafe is a distortion of the fact that burglaries, like other crime, increased throughout every Town and every City of the United States by the middle of 1971; however, in Bethlehem the arrest record rose higher than the national average indicating that the Town Police are, in the least, keeping up with the rising national crime rate.

In the same misleading vein, Mr. Harder refers to "continuation of the drug problem" without pointing out that this common and unfortunate problem has lessened in the Town.

The Department of Police does not understand what Mr. Harder means when he says that bicycle theft is "rampant" unless he means more bicycles are stolen but fewer felons are free. The department admits spending more time searching for bombs reported regularly to be in the Senior High School, more time searching for stolen property of substantial value, more time preventing crime of heinous nature and more time apprehending perpetrators of violence than it has in searching for bicycles and bicycle thieves; perhaps it is a question of priorities.

As to the allegation that a contract of employment between the police and the town is currently held up, such is not the fact. A fair and equitable contract was amicably and cordially arrived at in a spirit of understanding of the problems of the department of police. This agreement was pleasantly formally executed between the Town and the Police Benevolent Association on October 19, 1971.

The agreement recognizes the diligence and labors of the Police Department over and above regular hours of duty by providing for increased over-time pay in realizing that crime prevention and apprehension is not a simple 40 hour a week profession.

The contract entered into was arrived at in less time than in many local areas and without bitterness; in fact, the Police Department is impressed with the care, attention and time given by the Town Supervisor and Town Board in recognizing and understanding police problems.

The members of the Bethlehem Police Benevolent Association resent the misuse of their position by any individual for personal or political motives. There has never been room for politics in the professionalization of police nor any such pressures brought upon this department and we would be pleased if candidates for political office would refrain from using the men and the department for footballs.

"It costs more to rent
a car from
Right?"

WRONG!

You see, we haven't been doing a very good job of letting you know just how inexpensively you can get all of the benefits that come from renting an Avis Plymouth or other fine car in your home town, in this country, or anywhere around the world. So if you think of us at all, it's probably as Number Two, or as "$16 a day, 16¢ a mile."

This brochure, and other information supporting it, is our way of changing things. We want you to know about the convenience, the comfort, and most of all, the economy of renting cars. And we want you to know why we feel Avis is your best choice among all rental car companies.

There are other rent-a-car companies around. A lot of them, and there are as many rates as there are companies, and then some. So when you need a car in a hurry, the lucky company that gets your business is often the one you call first — possibly one that promises LOWEST RATES IN TOWN. Unfortunately some people we know found out the hard way that lowest doesn't always mean lowest. So, we've included some helpful hints that may save you time, money, and may make for a safer, happier trip.

Some Helpful Hints

Before you rent a car from anyone check around for the best rates and services to suit your needs. And we emphasize services because there's nothing worse than being broken down in East Podunk with a rented car owned by some company the locals never heard of, and don't want to.

Check for the latest rates and applicable specials. Find out the minimum age for renting (25 with most companies, unless renter is on company business in which case the age drops to 21 but in few cases beyond that,) and find out what credit cards the company honors.

When the clerk quotes $15 a day, find out how many hours comprise the renting day, and how much each additional hour costs. Ask who pays for gasoline, you or them, including the first tankful. See what insurance coverage comes with the car, usually at least $100 deductible and how much is charged daily for no liability insurance. Ask if the car will be air conditioned and whether you're being charged extra for it. Find out what safety and cleanliness checks the rental company puts each car through BEFORE each rental. (A list of safety checks performed by Avis can be found on page 4 of this brochure.)

See if the car can be rented one-way, to where, and if there is a drop or return charge added on if you leave it there. And before you leave, check the company's office hours and the location of possible drop spots if you want to go one-way. Keep those hourly charges in mind when you do this. I think you get the picture. And remember, READ YOUR CONTRACT BEFORE YOU SIGN IT.

This special low Avis weekly rate applies to Plymouth Fury III and similar basic cars. Just $7 a day, 11¢ a mile, for a 7-day minimum rental. Make your reservation well in advance – to be sure of the car of your choice! These rates is not discountable; gas not included; and car must be returned to the station where rented. (See a listing of local Avis stations on page 4)

How to care for the "silent sentinels" in your home.

You have a small, dedicated squad of "silent sentinels" standing guard somewhere in your home. They're called fuses (unless you have circuit breakers), and they literally give their lives to protect your electric wiring against dangerous short circuits and serious overloading.

If a circuit does become overloaded (for example, when too many appliances are plugged into the same outlet), a metal link inside the fuse melts and shuts off the electricity before your wires or appliances can be damaged. Once a fuse has been installed in a fuse box, it does not need any maintenance until it burns out. Then, it must be replaced.

It's a good idea to know where your fuse box is before anything happens. It's also wise to find out which fuse controls which circuit. Mark them and make sure you have a supply of the same size fuses stored near the fuse box, so you can find them easily in the dark.

If a fuse should burn out, first disconnect all the lamps and appliances that were in use on that circuit. Next, throw open the main switch on the fuse box or pull the main-fuse block. This cuts off the current while you are replacing the fuse. You simply unscrew the burned fuse like a light bulb and replace it with a new one with the same amperage rating. Be sure your hands are dry and you are not standing on a wet floor when you do this. Now, close the main switch, and your circuit should start working again.

In the case of a modern circuit breaker, there is nothing to replace. Instead, you flip the switch that controls the circuit that is out back into the "on" position. (Some breakers must be switched to the full "off" position, and then to "on" position.)

If you have any difficulty, please call Niagara Mohawk. We're always ready to give you service.

The Spotlight POLITICAL ARENA

(Excerpts from remarks made by Al Fisher, Democratic Candidate for Justice, Town of Bethlehem, at a recent meeting of workers).

WE HAVE many concerns here in Bethlehem, Youth, Law and Order and maintaining the type of Community that we would like to live in.

As a parent and citizen, I am deeply concerned about youth, their problems and pressures.

The Court should not be a deadend for a youngster in trouble. It should actively help a youngster and family in need to secure guidance and help with their problems. The medical advisory board as proposed by my opponent is a step in the right direction, but is after the fact thinking in that it only deals with the youthful drug user after conviction. My feeling is that our concerns and emphasis should include prevention. We should strive towards using the vast resources of our community to educate & communicate with our youth about their problems before they get to our courts.

I am also concerned about you, the residents, and making the Court something more than just a place you're summoned to when you are in trouble.

We, in Bethlehem, have a real opportunity to maintain a Community where the individual voice can be heard. Too few people realize that the Town Court of Bethlehem can do more than hand down arraignments and uphold traffic laws. The Town Court can be, and should be, similar to a small Claims Court. People take their cases to the crowded County Court and are disappointed by delay and inattention. This need not happen — the Town Court exists to protect the property and personal rights of the citizens of Bethlehem.

Did you know that if you are a resident of the Town, you can have a Summons served on anyone in the County and bring them out here and have your case heard and settled before your own Town Justice? This applies to all Civil Suits up to $1000.00.

It applies to auto dealers, appliance dealers or anyone from whom you may have bought a defective product and cannot get satisfaction. It applies to moving companies who may have damaged your furniture in storage and many other similar situations. All these cases can be heard by your local Town Justice.

Another great advantage of the Justice Court is that the pleading need not be in writing. With this informal procedure, in many instances you may not need a lawyer. A resident could actually argue their own case.

I am not proposing that lawyers are not necessary, but just that in smaller cases it may be impractical.

A resident and citizen should not be denied Justice because someone feels their problem is too small.

HERE AND THERE

SUPERVISOR Bertram E. Kohinke has announced that the Town of Bethlehem Family Directory to Leisure Recreation is off the press and free copies may be obtained from Town Clerk Marion Camp at Town Hall. The 8-page booklet is crammed with activities that are available to all Town of Bethlehem residents, both young and old.

A FRIENDLY $25 wager took Mike DeLaney and Paul Van Ryn 371 miles in forty-six hours to Hamburg, New York, on a recent weekend. The sixteen year old boys left Delmar at 1:00 A.M. Saturday morning and arrived at the home of Mike's Grandparents on Sunday evening at 11 P.M. — tired and wet, after many hills and much rain.

TROOP 85 enjoyed the Fall Campout of Helderberg District at Pottersville October 15-17. All members attended the Show and Do sessions Saturday morning, climbed a mountain in the afternoon, and participated in the Patrol Cooking Contest. Stephen Hulme's patrol scored highest in the troop competition. Patrols of "Larry" Longo and "Rick" Dorsey tied for runner-up. The Scoutmaster, Frank R. Eyre, contributed to the Troop's success by winning the Scoutmasters Pie Eating Contest.

TO ALL YOU POOR pitiful borrowers trying to use the Bethlehem Public Library under the present shelving conditions, our sympathy. Every member of the staff is filled with sympathy for you (and a little sympathy for themselves working in the maddening welter of the stacks.) We are hopeful as winter borrowing gets underway that more books will be taken out and we all can once more walk down an aisle in safety.

Until then, any borrower who would like to volunteer to tidy a shelf or twenty will be more than warmly thanked.

ALTHOUGH THERE are no indications that the world of the Theatre is about to adopt the rating system used by the film industry, everything is G, GP, R, and X with the Drama Workshop of the Albany Jewish Community Center. Firstly comes "G" meaning there's G-read enthusiasm for the opening production, "A CASE OF LIBEL" by Henry Denker which has been chosen for presentation on November 17, 18, 20 and 21 in the Center's Auditorium. The story is based on the court case of Louis Nizer which created quite a furor in the 50's. This was the suit of the famous World War II correspondent, Quentin Reynolds, against the widely syndicated columnist Westbrook Pegler, that resulted in the award of over a half million dollars for the vilification Reynolds suffered at Pegler's hands.

Next classification, "GP" indicates that this engrossing drama, which ran for 242 performances on Broadway, will have wide appeal for the G-eneral P-ublic and, therefore, is why the Drama Workshop has decided to give four performances to open their new season.

"R" is for the R-hearsals which are already in progress with a fine cast including: Beverly Vener, Fred Goldfeder, Andrew Wyman, Andrew Bernstein, Ellyn Offricht, David Ference, Jack Sternbach, T. David Cameron, Hal Weinstein, Michael Steese and Leo W. Rausch.

And finally, "X" which stands for X-citement and something X-tra this year for those X-ceptionally nice people who buy their tickets in advance for both our Fall and

ON ELECTION DAY, November 2, at 2:30 P.M., Delta Psi Sorority is sponsoring a Magic Show, open to the public at the Albany Jewish Community Center, 340 Whitehall Rd. Admission will be 50¢ for children under 12 and $1.00 for adults.

The miraculous, mystical, and mischievous Richard "M" will perform. Richard "M" started out as a professional musician. He also did comedy with orchestras. After leaving the music business, he moved to Albany to go into the coat business. He was Master of Ceremonies on a series of local television shows. Being a past president of Congregation Ohav Shalom, he has been active in both civic and Synagogue work. He has studied magic as a hobby and has performed for most non-profit organizations in the Tri-City area; some being, Children's Ward at Albany Medical Center, Albany County Retarded Children and Adults, Daughters of Sarah Home for the Aged in Troy, Albany Veteran's Hospital, Jewish Community Center Lively Leisure Group, etc.

He has also performed for groups of magicians. Most recently, at the New York Canadian Conclave of Magicians, held in Syracuse, New York on October 8, 9 and 10, where he M.C.'d a show and also performed close-up (slight of Opened in 1970, the capitol district's only indoor tennis facility now offers six championship courts as well as complete locker, sauna, lounge, and nursery facilities. The courts are open from late September until mid-May, seven days a week from 8:00 A.M. to midnight. The playing surface is an innovation of a leading local concern, Albany Felt Company, and is manufactured in Sweden. The club's resident pro, Bruce Negri, a Rensselaer native, has been forming instructional groups of men, women, and even children from the age of seven who are anxious to learn and enjoy this popular sport. Bruce has a completely stocked pro shop and also strings racquets right at the club. Membership and court costs are extremely moderate. SNOWMOBILE OPERATORS in New York State will have five amendments to the Snowmobile Law to observe this season. Three affect the operation of snowmobiles on roadways, one reinforces the age limitation of operators, and the fifth deals with revocation of registration and permits. While all are important, the one with greatest impact is probably the liability insurance requirement.

This amendment makes insurance compulsory for any snowmobile operated on the shoulder or roadway of any public street or highway in New York. Minimum requirements for coverage are $10,000 for injury or death of one person, $20,000 for injury or death to two or more persons, and $5,000 for damage to or destruction of property of others in an accident due to negligent operation of a snowmobile.

Other restrictions on highway operation prohibit any person under the age of ten years operating a snowmobile on or across a public highway at any time, except on roads which are normally unused and unplowed during the winter. Finally, no one may ride in a trailer, sled or toboggan being towed by a snowmobile across a public highway.

This latter amendment also requires that any trailer, sled, or toboggan, if being towed, must be connected to the snowmobile by a rigid towbar or connection.

Now the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, under authority provided by the legislature, may revoke or suspend a dealer's registration, safety certificate issued to a youngster, permits for special events and snowmobile registrations for violations of any provisions of the Snowmobile Law or Rules and Regulations.

And lastly, no parent or guardian of a child or the owner of a snowmobile may authorize or knowingly permit any person under age 16 to operate a snowmobile unless the person is the holder of a snowmobile safety certificate.

Spotlight

For the past 16 years, the Spotlight has mailed a copy every week to every family in the area regardless of whether it was a PAID SUBSCRIPTION or not. During the 16 years, the cost of production and printing has more than quadrupled — yet we have increased our circulation every month during this period to take care of the thousands of additional people who have moved into our midst. These thousands of additional copies have further added to our weekly production costs.

NOW

we are faced with the difficult decision of how to maintain our present standards of mass circulation.

ONE WAY

is to increase our PAID SUBSCRIPTIONS. Yours would help!

Most weekly publications across the country are getting between $5 and $10 per year for a subscription. Ours is $4.00 — BUT, for a limited time, we are offering a full one-year subscription to the Spotlight for the special rate of:

Wandering & Wondering . . .

SOMETIMES A TYPOGRAPHICAL error is humorous — sometimes ridiculous — then there's the error that is embarrassing. It happened in last week's issue of the Spotlight. This fall the Bethlehem Town Board and the Bethlehem Police Department have been negotiating an agreement for the year ahead. An agreement which was acceptable to both sides was reached recently and Supervisor Bertram E. Kohinke released the information to the Spotlight. Naturally, we were happy to see those concerned reach an agreement — so we headed the box story: "AGREED!" But somehow, somewhere, the "A" got lost — and believe me, we were embarrassed! Our sincere and humble apology to both the Bethlehem Police and the Bethlehem Town Board!

IT SEEMS THAT THE "evils in the minds of men" (and women!) have a way of starting (at least the majority of the time!) in the urban areas. Once successful, they seem to creep into the suburban and country areas. As we think back to Halloween 1970 and the number of children reported poisoned and injured by the hellish things put into the items given away for "trick or treat," it seems to us that the best course to follow would be for parents to allow their children to go only to the homes of relatives or good friends — and then call it a night! We cannot believe that anyone in our area could or would be mean enough to secrete needles or pins in candy or apples — or otherwise poison them — but why take a chance, why gamble?

WE ARE INCLUDING a letter addressed to this column which disagrees with us and also has some gripes of its own. The writer feels that he might be the object of some unpleasantness, so we have omitted his name. The letter was signed, however, as all letters to the Spotlight must be. Here it is:

Dear Mr. Fuller:

This letter refers to the Spotlight of Oct. 7, page 43. Distress is expressed about the pollution and the noise produced by trucks, and I fully agree. The essay continues, however, that "the law seems to look only for the teenager with a sports car . . .".

As a resident of this village I consider the danger and noise produced by sports cars and other souped-up vehicles vastly more offensive. It is my observation that the average sports car is driven in excess of the legal speed limit, produces excessive noise and thereby irritates and in some cases jeopardises the health of the residents. These drivers gun their already noisy engines whether it is day or night, and they squeal or screech their tires in curves and at starts. These operators display total lack of consideration for the right of each citizen to privacy by deliberately inflicting noise on them, by muscling into traffic lanes and thereby increase the danger of collision, and by making the roads in our village unsafe because of high-speed driving.

If the law gets interested in these boors, then more power to the law.

(Name Submitted)

We agree with the writer that conditions change according to locality. For instance, there isn't any reason for the huge dump trucks to go over his street; there's no industry near him; and motorcycles are evidently in the minority. The letter in no way alters the conditions we were writing about. It's just that he's haunted by a different breed of cat.

SOMETIMES, like so many who write for a living, perhaps we have difficulty expressing exactly the thought behind our words. Our record over the past 40 years has always been one of support for our youth — except where they perform in bad taste or flaunt the law. Our record of working with our youth will stand up by itself. If the boys with the motorcycles had requested permission to use the woods for trails and if they had licensed their bikes so that they were covered on public roads, we would have had no criticism. Anyway, here's another letter:

Dear Mr. Fuller:

In your "Wandering & Wondering" of October 14, 1971 you asked "Has the Press become less effective?" The thought had not occurred to me before but after reading your last two articles on your motorcycle "friends," I can easily see how the press can become less effective if you continue to concentrate your efforts on such trivia.

It is apparent that it has not occurred to you that there possibly could be some who do not share your feelings that these boys are as big a menace as you would have us believe.

You, like so many people in this day and age do not hesitate to criticize our young people but do not make any constructive suggestions as to what better use they should do with their time and energy.

Perhaps you would like to devote your next article to suggesting that they take up booze or pot or maybe hang around the 4 Corners and rob people at knife point in broad daylight instead of riding trails in the woods in an attempt to expend their youthful energy in a manner that will be disturbing to as few as possible and shall be enjoyable for themselves.

You seem disturbed that the Police Department and people did not get up in arms over your article, but let me assure you that the Police do regulate these boys and how they use their motorcycles and with the conditions that exist nowadays, we have a whole lot more to be concerned with.

May I suggest that the next time you attempt to arouse some public sentiment that you forego the young boys who are doing their best to stay out of trouble and pick on someone your own size, for instance, how about: Poverty, Welfare, the Governors austerity budget, State Pensions, Demonstrations, or the war in Vietnam.

Just because the Spotlight is small physically, is no reason for your articles to match its size. Think big, Mr. Editor!
