The Spotlight CALENDAR

ABOUT THE CALENDAR

The information printed in this column is a FREE service to Spotlight readers. We neither charge nor receive any fee for publicizing these events. It is for this reason that we ask those who send in information to make sure that it is complete; we cannot (repeat: CANNOT) make weekly changes in running announcements.

Because the Calendar condenses the coming event in capsule form, it has become one of the most widely-read weekly Spotlight features. It was so designed to allow for more space for additional features. Therefore, organizations should not expect to find a duplication of facts in another place. If we were to run all of the events twice, we'd be cutting down on our available space and thereby defeat the whole concept.

The Spotlight Goes to School

NEXT WEDNESDAY, June 14, is the date for voting on the proposed school budget for 1972-73 for the Bethlehem Central School District, a budget which does not call for any tax rate increases. Residents of the district will also elect one member of the Board of Education.

The polls will be open at the Middle School on Kenwood Avenue, from 7 A.M. to 9 P.M.

The Annual Meeting of the School District will take place at 7:30 P.M., next Thursday, June 13, at Bethlehem Central High School. At this time, the proposed budget, adopted unanimously by the Board of Education, will be explained, and the two Board candidates, Ralph A. Holmgren and Bernard E. Har-with, will be introduced.

A 12-page budget issue of "Central Highlights" was mailed to all district residents early this week. It contains budget facts and figures and information on plans for administrative reorganization.

Copies of the detailed "Program Budget," which relates cost figures to specific school district programs, will be available at tonight's informational meeting at the Middle School and at the Annual Meeting next Tuesday. There are also some copies available at each school.

Persons with questions about the proposed budget may call the Director of Public Information weekday mornings at 439-4921. Board members, administrators, and Budget Information Committee members are also available to attend small group or neighborhood meetings for anyone who wishes to hold one for the purpose of discussion about the proposed budget.

Having eliminated the pre-registration process, in effect for the past two years, the Bethlehem Central Board of Education hopes for a large turn-out of voters.

THE MEMBERS of the Future Business Leaders of America at Bethlehem Central High School completed a very successful year's program with their Annual Banquet held on May 18 at the Bavarian Chalet.

Arrangements for the festive event were made by Donna Colen, assisted by Charlene Allen and Ann Tierney. The spring theme was carried out with programs and name cards in a butterfly motif. Mrs. Mary T. Elliott, the group's advisor, presented awards to the girls who had made outstanding contributions during the year. Bonnie Myers, the outgoing President, served as the Mistress of Ceremonies and introduced the guests. The climax of the evening occurred when the new officers were installed by their outgoing counter-parts. The 1972-73 officers will be: President, Wendy Furman; Vice President, Carol Totten; Secretary, Donna Grovenger; and Treasurer, Joanne Campbell. The Publicity Chairman and the Historian will be elected in the Fall.

ON MAY 18 and 19 Mrs. Margaret H. Westervelt, a business teacher at Bethlehem Central High School, served on a committee of shorthand teachers at the State Education Department.

The committee, which consists of nine shorthand teachers from schools throughout the State of New York, worked under the direction of Elton T. Murphy, Associate in Business Education.

The ensemble calling itself "The Make Believe Theater," has already performed for sixth graders at the Middle School. The group performs without the aid of costumes, props, scenery, special lighting, or even a script.

A program note describes the production this way: "Today you'll see a special performance that never took place before and will never take place again. Although our actors know the story they will present, they will not know which roles they will play until YOU have picked them. The actors will probably be playing roles they've never played before. There are no memorized lines in our performance. The actors know what happens in each scene and they make up their lines as they go along."

District schools are now making arrangements and setting dates for presentation of this unique dramatic production.

THE GREAT DANE Summer Basketball School is being conducted this summer at SUNY at Albany.

The school is for boys between 10 and 12 years of age and will be divided into three 1-week sessions, June 26-30, July 10-14, and July 17-21. It will be conducted from 9:00 A.M. to 12:00 Noon at the SUNYA gymnasium.

For further information, contact co-directors, Dr. Michael Sauers, 457-4526 or 489-1963, or Robert Lewis at 457-4554 or 765-4617.

A NEW SERVICE, created by Donald M. Winkelman, will be performed at Congregation Ohav Sholom in Albany on Friday, June 9, at 8:00 P.M. Mr. Winkelman lives at 9 Park Place in Elsmere.

Congregation president, Howard Gruft, noted that the service follows the traditional design but includes new readings and music which reflect the experiences of the Jews in recent times as well as in antiquity.

The service is being performed for the first time on the eve and in honor of the Bar Mitzvah of his son, Stuart, who will participate in the service. The Bar Mitzvah will take place on Saturday, June 10.

"If there is a single theme for this service," Mr. Winkelman said, "it is the concept that there is a unity of God, man, and nature which is, in itself, sacred. We violate that unity at our peril, but in our love and responsibility for those about us, we meet our obligations to the World in which we live."

A special feature will be a new Kaddish, the memorial prayer for the departed, which commemorates the six million Jews who were murdered during the Second World War.

McGOVERN-for-President informational meetings will be held on Monday, June 12, at the following locations: 52 Wisconsin Avenue and 10 Huntersfield

FUNNY ABOUT BARGAINS. THEY USUALLY TURN OUT NOT TO BE SUCH BARGAINS, AFTER ALL.

Like bargain air conditioners, for instance. For a little more, you can get so much more—Kelvinator's best. It'll set you free. From summer and from the serviceman.

- Fine-tuning automatic thermostat. You set the temperature precisely where you want it.
- Finger-Tip filter removal. Drop-down front makes filter removal easy. You get cleaner, cooler air and more efficient operation.
- Bonus coil for incredibly efficient cooling.

Come turn one on. At your Kelvinator dealer's. You'll see, when you spend your money on Kelvinator's best, you get your money's worth.

And after all, isn't that what really makes a bargain?

Road, Delmar, and 35 Southwood Drive, Slingerlands. Speakers will include representative from the delegate slate to be voted on in the June 20 Democratic Primary.

THE MEETING at which parents will seek a new alternative open school for children 5 through 13, originally scheduled for June 4, will now be held on Monday evening, June 12, 8 P.M., at the Morris home, 25 Enclid Avenue, Delmar.

The group will endeavor to create a school based on the idea that children are individual learners; that they need opportunities to express and develop their own interests; and that adults, materials and learning space must foster independent, joyous learning.

Anyone interested in such a program is invited to this meeting.

MEMBERS OF Nathaniel Adams Blanchard, Unit 1040, American Legion Auxiliary, have selected delegates to attend the Department Convention, to be held in Syracuse, July 20-22. The delegates are: Mrs. Robert Smith, President; and Mrs. Oliver Palmer, Junior Past President. Their alternates are: Mrs. John Brady and Mrs. LeRoy Cooke.

Also attending from the Unit will be Mrs. Roger Reynolds, Albany County Delegate, and Mrs Herbert Hafley, Past Department President.

THIS SATURDAY, June 10, will be "Distribution Day" for brochures giving complete course and enrollment information on the 1972 Bethlehem Christian Workshop to be held July 10-14.

Residents of outlying area — Voorheesville, Selkirk, etc. — who have not received a brochure by 3 P.M. on that date may obtain one at one of the following locations.

The Fischbach residence, 146 Stonington Hill Road, Salem Hills, Voorheesville; Bethlehem Public Library, Delaware Avenue, Delmar, or the Bethlehem Community Church, 201 Elm Avenue, Delmar. Brochures will be available at these locations between 3 and 6 P.M. on June 10.

Workshop registration forms must be mailed to the address indicated in the brochure.

The Bethlehem Christian Workshop, sponsored by the Bethlehem Community Church, is open to all area boys and girls from pre-kindergarten through high school age. More than 40 courses, in morning and evening sessions, will be offered, plus interdenominational Bible Study for each student.

THE EMPIRE State Ballet School will be offering a dance summer camp for the month of July at Saint Agnes School in Loundon-

DONALD T. HARTLEY, Chairman of the Regional Red Cross Blood Program, displays hour glass in recognizing the 10,000 hours of volunteer service given to the Blood Program by (l. to r.) Miss Elizabeth Judd, Mrs. Newell Herrick, and Mrs. Charles McCullouch. The ladies, who are familiar faces to donors at the Blood Center on Hackett Blvd., were honored at the Albany Area Chapter Activities Luncheon. Mrs. David Thorstrand, a 1,000 hour-plus volunteer, was absent.

ville. Being held for the fourth year, the dance camp is open to students of four years of age and up. This year's curriculum includes an expanded program of theatre crafts in addition to daily classes in Ballet, Character, Spanish or Modern Dance. The theatre crafts program offers training in the basic theory and operation of a stage, a working knowledge of lighting and sound techniques, and the principals of decor and costume design.

Weekly field trips to professional concerts at Saratoga Performing Arts Center and Jacobs Pillow are planned. Cookouts, informal indoor and outdoor games, swimming sessions and optional swimming lessons under competent supervision will complement the dance summer camp activities. For a brochure and application, write: Dance Summer Camp Box 324 Albany N.Y. or phone 393-0929 and 346-1186.

LEONARD A. WEISS, Democratic Candidate for the New York State Senate, 42nd. District, Albany and Greene Counties, and an attorney, was born at Rochester, Pa., Aug. 4, 1923. He was educated at the University of Buffalo, where he was president of the Board of Managers of the Student Union and a member of the varsity basketball team; the University of Oregon, and Albany Law School, where he received his law degree in 1948. Mr. Weiss is married to the former Shirley Sanders, who is secretary of the Empire State Chapter of the National Society of Interior Designers. They live at 190 Marion Ave., Albany, and have two children, Jeffrey A., a senior at Ithaca College, and Cathy M., a senior at St. Agnes School.

JOHN R. SPADARO, Democratic candidate for Assembly, today said Republican incumbent Assemblyman Clarence D. Lane showed lack of concern for Columbia & Greene Counties by doing nothing to prevent the proposed phasing out of the New York State School for Girls here.

Spadaro also said the $2.5 million tax dollars the governor gave his top staff in pay raises could have been put to good use in saving the school.

Spadaro said the two counties stand to lose economically by eliminating the $2 million a year it takes to run the school, a point he said could have a catastrophic effect."

I would have thought that Lane would have shown some concern in trying to do something about saving the school and the jobs of 200 or more employees," Spadaro said. "But no, Mr. Lane in the last eight or 10 years could not even take the time out to visit the institution.

But being the politician he is after the Legislature recesses, he made a grand stand play and announced that Route 32 from Greenville to Cairo is to be resurfaced. This project has been needed for years and it took several thousand signatures on a petition to get some action now.

Is this a man who has the interests of the people in mind? Do we have to get a petition signed to get anything done?"

"CHRISTIAN HEALING: The Demand on Everyone" was the theme of a meeting in Boston attended by Christian Scientists from around the world, including a number from the Tri-Village area.

In a special message to the Annual Meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, on June 5, Arthur P. Wuth, the new Chairman of The Christian Science Board of Directors, called on the members to dedicate themselves anew to the practice of Christian healing.

"Each one heal one is the imperative of today," Mr. Wuth declared, specifically noting the "great need of healing" drug addiction and disease, poverty and materialism.

mense practicality of Christian healing is presented each week at Wednesday evening testimony meetings held at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 555 Delaware Ave., Delmar and other branches of The Mother Church in the Capital District according to Duncan S. Martin, the Assistant Committee on Publication for Delmar.

Fulfillment of the Church's purpose depends upon nothing less than Christian healing, enlightenment and regeneration, Mr. Wuth told the gathering.

"We urge each branch church and each church member ...to measure their progress in the light of their increased devotion to the healing ministry," he declared.

"The first love of our Church is spelled out," he said, "in its Manual described purpose--To organize a church to commemorate the word and works of our Master, which should reinstate primitive Christianity and its lost element of healing."

Relating this to the new Christian Science Center, he described its purpose in terms of preparing "for the second century of Christian Science healing by unifying our headquarters, by providing much needed room, and by symbolizing the spiritual building that's taking place in the hearts and minds of all members."

It was announced at the meeting that the 28-story Church Administration Building and the Arthur P. Wuth, the new Chairman of the denomination's top administrative body, is a native of Denver, Colorado. He has served the Christian Science movement in many capacities including Committee on Publication for Colorado, Christian Science lecturer, First Reader of The Mother Church, and Trustee of The Christian Science Publishing Society. TWO 122-YEAR OLD funeral homes in Albany became one last week when officers for M.W. Tebbutt's Sons and John W. Brasure and Sons made the announcement of the merger. The two Tebbutt addresses will be the facilities used by the new firm: 633 Central Avenue, Albany, and 420 Kenwood Avenue, Delmar. Both firms will continue to use their present names.

Brasure Chapel which has been at 342 Hamilton Street for 60 years, will be closed.

Taking part in the announcement were James G. Tebbutt Jr. and his son, Robert G. Tebbutt, fourth and fifth generations of the Tebbutt firm, along with Edward C. Tebbutt, brother of James, and Frederick McCredie Brasure and Arthur McCredie Brasure, brothers, the third generation of that firm.

"The affiliation is one that not only brings the two businesses in common facilities, but continues the warm relationship of the Tebbutt and Brasure families which has been constant for the last 120 plus years," officials of the two firms said.

Records of both establishments go back to pre-Civil War Days, including burial of slaves of many prominent Albany families.

The Brasure concern was in charge of arrangements when President Lincoln's body was in state at the Capitol in Albany en route to burial in Illinois.

"Our files show that the President's body was brought across the Hudson River from Rensselaer by flat boat," the Brasures said. "It was before the railroad bridges were constructed."

The Brasure firm was founded by John Winchell Brasure, who invented the hinged casket.

Until that time the bier had a detached top.

J. W. Brasure's original patent is among the firm's memorabilia.

The elder Brasure was also known for his ornately carved hearses which he designed and carved himself.

The Brasure funeral home was established at 104 Lydius Street — now Madison Avenue.

The elder Brasure ultimately was joined in the business by his son, J. W. Brasure, Jr., father of Frederick and Arthur.

The firm later moved to 80

Hudson Avenue then to a second Hudson Avenue address near Grand Street, before locating in Hamilton.

Tebbutt's was started at what is now the site of Farnum's Restaurant at Chapel Street and Maiden Lane.

It later moved to North Pearl Street near Columbia Street then to 176 State Street — currently in the South Mall site — and to 633 Central Avenue.

The Delmar Chapel was opened several years ago to serve residents in the rapidly growing Town of Bethlehem area.

The long history of the Tebbutt firm started with Marshall Tebbutt and was continued by his sons, Marshall W. and Harry K. Tebbutt. The late James G. and M. W. Tebbutt Jr., sons of Marshall, along with Dr. Harry K. Tebbutt Jr., maintained the business until Dr. Tebbutt eventually left because of his wide medical practice.

The firm continues under management of James G. and Edward C. Tebbutt, son of the late James G. Sr., World War 2 commander of the New York State Guard.

REMINISCENCES OF BETHLEHEM FROM THE HISTORIAN'S FILES

Allison P. Bennett
Bethlehem Town Historian

(From the D. M. Niver collection of writings concerning Bethlehem published in 1887- the youth of our Town particularly are always requesting information about "folklore" in the Town—this should answer their questions in part)

AN AMUSING story is related of an old Dutch burgher who having dreamed three nights in succession where the famous Captain Kidd's money was concealed, and having also seen blue lights hovering over the place, concluded to know just where to dig to secure the coveted prize. He confided his dreams and visions to none but his faithful negro, Pomp, who was to be rewarded with his freedom and a goodly portion of the shining lucre, if successful. They had to wait until the sign was right which consisted of the moon being in the right position in the heavens. Secrecy had to be strictly observed and not a word spoken during the labor, for even then should they be in sight of the treasure it would disappear upon their utterance of the first word. The night chosen was dark and sultry and to keep out the heat and at the same time, to make them courageous, they provided themselves with a little brown jug. Twelve o'clock arrived when the honest burgher and his faithful Pomp started out for their field of operations. On their way they frequently stopped to discuss the merits of the contents of the little brown jug, the old burgher at each discussion impressing upon Pomp's mind the duty of silence and not to speak even if the heavens should fall or Lucifer himself make his appearance, who, it was supposed, guarded all ill-gotten treasures.

Arriving at their place of operations, after one more discussion with the brown jug, Pomp fell to work. Scarcely had he made the first stroke with his pick when an antlered deer, who, after having quenched his thirst at the kill, had laid down to rest, being surprised at having his nocturnal repose thus interrupted, spring up before them and, with glaring eye-balls and antlers erect, took a survey of the situation. The honest burgher gazed but one moment, when he started as fast as his ponderous weight would allow, upsetting Pomp, who, by this time also saw the apparition, and hearing the peculiar snort of the frightened deer, yelled at the top of his voice "Gott in himmel! meester, de tuyvell! de tuyvell!" The old burgher by this time was trying to crawl under Pomp, thinking, no doubt, if his Satanic Majesty could carry away but one he would take the one on the top, at the same time crying lustily to Pomp to keep quiet in good old Dutch: "How your back, you dunders nager or eck slawn your dote." But Pomp was no more willing or ready to be captured than his master and suddenly felt such an affectionate regard for his master that he embraced him cordially. In their struggles of who should be on top they both rolled into the Normanskill, each thinking he was in the embrace of the devil or Capt. Kidd's ghost, but the dampness of the water caused them to separate. In after years, when the faithful old slave was interrogated upon this night's adventure he would say: "Dat was a dreadful night, massa. You see de fac was I taut we was in de hands of de debil, an' taut if I could only keep on de under-side I would cone out de best anyhow, and in de 'cietment ob de moment we boff rolled down de hill and fetched up in de water. Well, arter rollin' in dere a spell, massa begin to pray 'Now I lay me down to sleep.' He pray in English dat time cause he taut dat Capt. Kidd's ghost or de debil didn't understand de Dutch language. About dis time I 'stinguish massa's voice and we disembraced and shook hands and comprised mejitty." Well, Pompy, but don't think the little brown jug had something to do with that night's adventure? "No sah, no sah. Might have had some effect on massa's prayin' but it was de debil suah, cause I seed his horns and smell de brimstone when Massa and I were conjugating down de hill."

Since that night's adventure, money digging has been abandoned on Kidden houghten, but for years after, many of our old Dutch ancestors, having heard of the old burgher's and Pomp's adventure, believed it was haunted ground.

GOOD THEATRE

by Richard J. Herrmann, Principal
Elsmere Elementary School

GOOD THEATRE has always been an important part of a productive culture, and the experience of live theatre should not be the peculiar luxury of metropolitan communities. Parents in the Bethlehem Central School District may look with pride at the record of student theatre in their own schools. It began in 1938 when the Delmar Progress Club booked an evening performance by that master of marionettes, Tony Sarg. It seemed an opportune time to offer an afternoon show for the elementary schools. The suggestion was enthusiastically received by Mr. Hamilton Bookhout, Supervising Principal, and the Student Theatre Committee was formed. Members of that original group included Mrs. A. F. Dappert, Mrs. Richard Kraft, Mrs. Henry MacMillan, and Mrs. V. A. Van Volkenburgh. Since then, with the exception of a few years during World War II, P.T.A. committees, in cooperation with the school administration, have sponsored live theatre for children in the elementary grades.

In the early years, the Antrim Bureau for school assemblies, and Junior Programs, Inc. provided most of the programs. Later, such groups as the Albany Chamber Orchestra, Hartt Opera Company, Harkness School of Ballet, Strawbridge Theatre, Travelling Playhouse, Tuscon Arizona Boys Chorus, Little Singers of Paris, Knickerty Knockerty Players, and many others whose names are equally well known in the world of theatre have presented live performances of drama, dance, and music. In 1960 the program was expanded to include students in the Junior and Senior High Schools. Members of the Parent-Faculty Steering Committee took over the responsibility for this series. In 1962, Mrs. Robert Deily was appointed coordinator to serve in the advisory capacity for the Student Theatre Committee in the school district. She had previously served in various capacities on the Elementary Committees for a period of ten years.

On the retirement of Mr. Bookhout, who had always taken a special interest in the theatre program, administration of the Elementary Student Theatre was delegated by the Superintendent to Mr. Richard Herrmann, and he has continued to guide the group since 1964.

The theatre series continues in the Middle School, but modular scheduling at the Senior High School has made it impossible to continue it there.

Committee members work throughout the year, pre-viewing programs, preparing educational material for use in classrooms, and arranging for publicity and ticket sales. All programs are presented during school hours in the Senior High school auditorium and are considered part of the school curriculum. PTA's have been generous in providing tickets for families where there might be hardship, and special rates are offered where there are four or more children in a family. In this way every child is able to participate if he chooses to do so. It is the goal of the Committee to select the very best that is available in professional theatre for our children and to give them experience in a variety of the performing arts.

packaged in Tenite cellulose acetate supplied by Eastman, the package is sturdy and transparent — plus a real eye-catcher to dazzle dad on his special day.

Pierre Cardin selected Eastman's material for packaging its cologne — a favored fragrance for men all over the world. The blend of dad-enhancing scents is packaged in slate-gray Tenite acetate and holds the ultra-modern cologne container seemingly suspended in the air.

This 1972 Packaging Design Award winner is designed to delight and complement dad's sense of smell and have him floating on air, as well.

and error. Sometimes expensive trial and error.

But once you've gone through a bit of this "shopping around" and recognized that many service stations can provide the same basic service, you must go a step further and make your choice on the basis of a certain instinct. That instinct is the same one that tells you you can trust certain people.

When you deal with people, you either believe what they say or you don't. When the man at the service station says, "Gee, sorry, Mrs. Smith, but your car needs a new frammissat," you either believe him or you don't. If you do, at least give him a chance to demonstrate his honesty and competence. Know this: you need such a man in your car's life and you should select him with care and consideration. And once you do select him, believe him. If he recommends the best grade of motor oil, go along with him. If he tells you you need new tires, get new tires.

If your instincts are right, he'll turn out to be the best friend your car ever had.

HELPFUL HINTS ON BUYING A CARPET

One of the most widely used areas of the home is the floor so your decorating plans should ideally start from the bottom up. Professional decorators attach such importance to the floor that they refer to it as the fifth wall and make it the focal point for the entire room design.

That's why choosing appropriate floor covering should come in for an early and important part of your own color scheme plans. Keep in mind that neutrals allow flexibility. They provide a quiet background for dramatic color in other furnishings. Bold floor colors are best with subdued backgrounds.

For minimum maintenance choose a color that doesn't show soil readily — medium shades, color mixtures, tweeds. In heavy traffic areas you don't want every footprint to show. Look for tight, dense textures.

The best clue to quality is "the deeper, the denser, the better." This refers to surface pile. Dense pile wears longest because yarns support each other to resist bending and abrasion.

Other criteria include how well the fabric takes dyes, whether it will melt or support combustion, and its resilience. The classic carpet fiber, wool meets these challenges beautifully, offering adaptability to styling, warmth to touch and soil resistance.

For a free booklet entitled "The Carpet Buying Guide," write The Wool Bureau, Inc., 360 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. 10017.

Why you need us now.

Today, approximately 105 million vehicles pack the roads. You need protection. At any speed. SAAB 99 has unique Roll-Cage construction. Reinforced steel beams run the length of the car. Around the roof. Windshield pillars. Side windows. You're safer in the well-built Swede.

Protection. Only one reason you need a SAAB 99. Now.

Now we can give you broad car insurance.

At a
price.

Auto insurance may never be the same around here again. Because we have something special to offer you: Auto-Rite, the policy for safe drivers.

If you have a good driving record, we think you should get something out of it... such as a lower rate for your insurance.

It's not only what you pay that'll come as a happy surprise. The real surprise is in how much you get.

Because Auto-Rite is not the trimmed-down, minimum-coverage policy you might expect for the price. It's the opposite.

It's quality insurance that can give you a full range of coverages. Liability — up to $500,000. Collision. Fire. Theft and comprehensive. Medical payments. You can even have emergency road service.

You get another advantage: Aetna's country wide claim service. Take our word for it, it lives up to its reputation for speed and fair play. And naturally, our agency is always here to give you personal service and attention.

Find out if you qualify for Auto-Rite. Let us quote you the facts and figures. You could be in for a happy surprise.

DELMAR, N. Y.

Why a $2,000 Volkswagen* costs a lot less than any other $2,000 car.

Listen to the logic:

Give or take a few dollars, most new economy cars are priced just about the same these days.

Around $2,000.

But come trade-in time, a weird thing happens. Some are worth more to you than others.

And based on what's happened in the past, after 3 or 4 years, not one is worth more cash than you-know-who:

The Volkswagen Beetle!

So the real price you pay for a car is the difference between what you pay now and what you get back later, when you sell it.

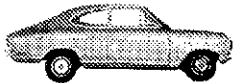

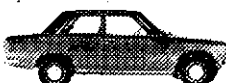

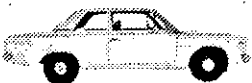

Anyhow, take a good look at the chart on the right.

And please be careful.

It's one thing to say today, "I just bought the lowest-priced car in town."

It's another thing tomorrow to say, "I just sold the lowest-priced car in town."

Who lost the least?'	Depreciation as of January, 1972.

Wandering & Wondering . . .

IT ISN'T OFTEN that anything even slightly controversial in this column draws the unqualified backing of our readers. There are always a few (or more) who dissent. At this writing, this was not true of our observations on the treatment accorded our teenagers by their after-the-Prom or -Ball hosts. All seemed to agree that they were receiving shabby treatment at best.

WE'RE AGAIN SPONSORING (and managing?) a team in the Senior Babe Ruth League which plays all its games at its own home field in Cook Park, Colonie. As we write this, the team hasn't as yet jelled — but from the R-C-S area, we have: Jim Fuller, Mark Vatalaro and Fred Spence; BCHS has given us our two coaches: Bill and Jim Neumann, plus Bob Stulmaker, Bob Davies and Richard Howton. The rest of our fifteen come from as far away as Latham, Albany and, of course, Colonie. The season opens June 10 (Saturday) at 2:30. The best quality and most highly competitive baseball in the 16-18 age group is played in Senior Babe Ruth. Come on out for a baseball treat!

AFTER MANY YEARS, we understand that the Town has a softball league again. For some reason we've not had any information come in on it. We'll be glad to tell you about it as soon as we can track it down.

RECEIVED A RELEASE on a PTA theatre party scheduled for August 9 at Colonie Coliseum Theatre, sent in by Mrs. Benjamin Brewster. When we read the date, we couldn't understand why so early with the publicity. A second note from her gave us the answer. The show is "1776" starring Hugh O'Brian which means that the seats are already being gobbled up. However, there are still good seats available at either $6.50 or $5.75 — and if you follow a couple of simple directions, you can have a fine time and also help swell the treasury of your PTA.

Send your check for the number of seats you desire, a self-addressed envelope and the name of your PTA to Mrs. Michael Hodom, 117 Orchard Street, Delmar. If you can't understand our gibberish, call Barb Hodom (439-4513) and she'll fill you in.

Again, we urge you to get your tickets to this hit show from the PTA.

Sorry we left you out last week, Mrs. Brewster — sometimes it takes a rock on the head to make us see the light.

HEY! THE SPOTLIGHT HAS ARRIVED! No, we're not kidding! Maybe it's because "we try harder?" Anyway Congressman Sam Stratton has now put our telephone number in his desk directory so we get a call when something affecting the local scene breaks in the nation's capitol. The good Congressman called on May 31 to tell us that the Bethlehem Sewer District had been awarded a total of $1,652,040 to help fight water pollution in our Town. The grant will be used for the construction of interceptor sewers, force mains, pumping stations and a secondary water protection control plant. Congressman Sam also said, "This increases the Town of Bethlehem's Federal share of the seven million dollar project from $718,450 to $2,370,490."

Seems to us that back a few months our Town Administration was roundly criticized for even mentioning that funds would be forthcoming from the Federal Government.

BIG BASH AT THE CENTER INN (that's the place to have a celebration!) on Saturday, May 27, when the Albany County Rural Carriers Association and the Selkirk Post Office staff dined to honor Wilbur E. Hallenbeck for his 42 years of service. Selkirk Postmaster Picarazzi presented him with a special Achievement Award and $150 in cash.

Just to serve in the same job for 42 years is no mean accomplishment — but to be held in high esteem by the 458 families on his route and his co-workers, to have a 27 year safe driving record, to fail only once in all those years to deliver all of the mail because of inclement weather — and there's lots more in the life of this Rural Route Carrier that those present at the dinner talked about in paying respect to their co-worker.

ALEX WOEHRLE AND LOUIS SPELICH reminded us this week that although the campaign for funds for a community gift to the new Bethlehem Public Library has gotten off to a roaring start, much more is needed to attain the $1,000 goal.

Youngsters are raising some of the money through car washes and bake sales — but the fund also needs your

MAYBE IT'S BECAUSE we make some rather outstanding errors that we get a kick out of others' miscues. For instance, this picture of Bernard Harvith, Bethlehem School Board candidate, delivering his nominating petition to Board Secretary Delbert Collis with campaign worker Mrs. Gerald B. Austin, appeared in one of our local dailies. The caption read "... 944 names and stretched for some SIX feet." Obviously, it should have read 60 feet.

The School Board election is June 14 at the Middle School.
