1973 PANCAKE BREAKFAST
TO BE HOSTED BY
TOWN OF BETHLEHEM
LIONS CLUB APRIL 1st

Stacks of Flapjacks and Links of Savory Sausage to be Served
Sunday A.M.

The Bethlehem Lions Club will be serving the community continuously from 8:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. April 1st at the annual Pancake and Sausage Breakfast. A choice of beverages will augment an "all you can eat" menu. The Sunday service will be held in the Community Room of the Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post American Legion, Elsmere Avenue, Elsmere.

Ticket contributions are $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children under 12 years. Tickets are available in area stores and will be sold at the door of the Community Room during the Breakfast.

Breakfast proceeds will be used for the continuing Town of Bethlehem services the "We Serve" organization actively engages in.

Sight conservation work is the best known of all Lion community services and includes: operation of the Glaucoma Protection Clinic with local medical groups and the Eye Cornea Service for the delivering of donated eyes for sight restoration. Financial help has been made available to the Ophthalmological Department of the Albany Medical College by the Purchase of a "slit" lamp, special camera and cryopreservation unit to freeze and preserve corneal material.

In addition, the Bethlehem Lions Club continues to provide door-to-door bus transportation with escort to regular and special Senior Citizen meetings for area senior citizens.

Plans are currently underway for a Bethlehem Lions Hearing Conservation program to test for hearing deficiencies by the use of audiometers. With the initiation of this program as a major service activity of local Lions, it is expected there will be allied hearing conservation projects that will include: preventative clinics, educational programs, information distribution and the maintenance of a "hearing aid bank".

ABOUT THE CALENDAR

The information printed in this column is a FREE service to Spotlight readers. We neither charge nor receive any fee for publicizing these events. It is for this reason that we ask those who send in information to make sure that it is complete; we cannot (repeat: CANNOT) make weekly changes in running announcements.

Because the Calendar condenses the coming event in capsule form, it has become one of the most widely-read weekly Spotlight features. It was so designed to allow for more space for additional features. Therefore, organizations should not expect to find a duplication of facts in another place. If we were to run all of the events twice, we'd be cutting down on our available space and thereby defeat the whole concept.

IT TAKES MORE THAN PACKAGING

National Poison Prevention Week will be observed March 18-24, and the community's pharmacists are calling attention to steps being taken to reduce accidental poisonings, especially among children under five years old.

The nation's 120,000 pharmacists were among the first to implement the new regulations for the Poison Prevention Packaging Act of 1970. Under this federal legislation, pharmacists began last August to dispense all medication containing aspirin in special child-resistant containers designed so that small children will have great difficulty opening them. Manufacturers also now are packaging non-prescription aspirin in safety containers.

Effective last October, pharmacists began using child-resistant containers for dispensing some 4,300 prescription drugs subject to misuse—the so-called dangerous drugs or "controlled substances." This year, pharmacists expect to comply with additional regulations requiring all prescription drugs taken orally to be in child-resistant packaging.

However, adult alertness to potential poisonings continues to be essential. None of the so-called "child-proof" packages is absolutely safe. Children are ingenious and can figure out ways to gain entry, ways that an adult would not conceive. The packaging law recognized this in that it requires that the special packaging be difficult for most children to get into but not all. The testing procedures require that a minimum of 80% of those children tested shall be inhibited from opening the package.

Thus, poison prevention will take more than packaging if we are to reduce the accident toll. In 1971, there were 46,000 reports of accidental ingestions of medicines tabulated by poison control centers, including 40,000 reports of accidental ingestions of medicines by children under five. Furthermore, safety packaging will be useless if the containers are not properly closed after each use, or if the contents are transferred to a non-safety container for adult convenience.

In addition to using safety packaging properly, adults should follow these common sense rules to prevent accidental poisonings:

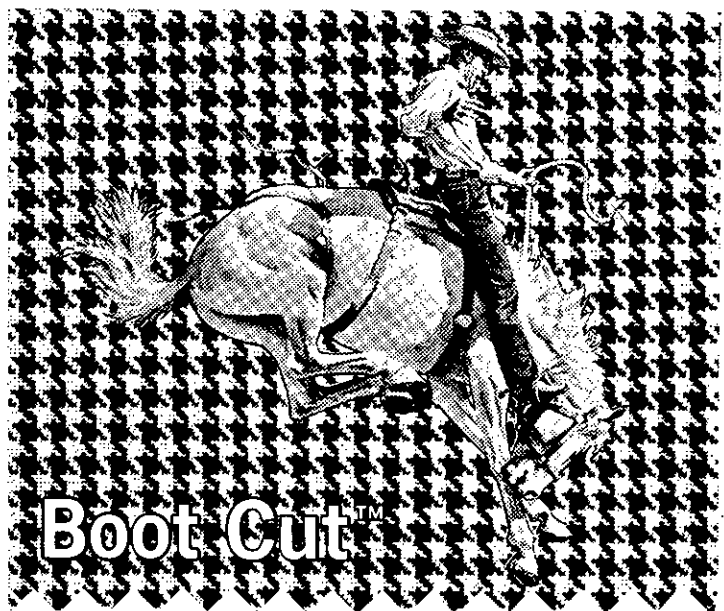

- Keep all household products and medicines out of the reach of youngsters, preferably locked up when not in use. When the products are in use, they should never be out of sight of adults—even if it involves taking the container with you when answering the telephone or door;
- Store internal medicines separately from household products;

LIBRARY NOTES

A TRAGIC ballerina, played by Moira Shearer, is the heroine of the film "Red Shoes" which will be shown at 2 P.M., Sunday, March 18, in the Large Community Room of the Bethlehem Public Library. This moving film with beautiful photography will be shown without charge. Parking is available in the lot behind the Library; the lot is entered from Borthwick Avenue.

THE BETHLEHEM Public Library needs another stroller for the use of its borrowers. In order to get another one, staff members are frantically saving trading stamps. Won't you help? Please bring in your extra trading stamps. (we'll take any kind, and then trade ones we don't want for ones we do) and deposit them in the box at the Circulation Desk at the Library. And then, bring your youngster in for a ride when we get the new stroller!

Thank you for helping.

A NEW FEATURE soon available at the Bethlehem Public Library is "The Pattern Patch." With your library card you'll be able to check out a sewing pattern. During the month of March, the townspeople are asked to "recycle" their used sewing patterns by depositing the pattern envelopes in the "Pattern Patch" boxes that are located in the following stores: Mullen's, the Grand Union, the Bank, and of course, the Library.

AN ISOLATED mansion in a haunted Louisiana swamp and a killer on the loose are primary ingredients in "The Cat and The Canary", a 1927 horror film which will be shown at 2 P.M. Sunday, March 25, in the Large Community Room of the Bethlehem Public Library, 451 Delaware Avenue, Delmar. There is no admission charge, and parking is available in the lot behind the Library which is entered from Borthwick Avenue.

THE BETHLEHEM Public Library has been working to acquire back issues of The Spotlight so that they may be bound in volumes for reference use in the Library. With the help of generous borrowers, the Library has been able to acquire four complete years of Spotlights. Many more missing issues are needed to compile a complete set for the Library, so when you are doing your spring cleaning, don't throw out those old Spotlights. Check them against the following list and donate them to the Bethlehem Public Library. It will be greatly appreciated.

BARBARA M. DAHL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George
J. Dahl of 123 Elm Avenue, Delmar, received her cap
at the ceremonies of the Albany Medical Center School of Nursing held on March 5, 1973 at Junior College of Albany. The reception of the cap signifies satisfactory completion of the first six months in the School and was presented by Miss Marie W. Treut-ler, Director of the School of Nursing. Miss Dahl is a graduate of Bethlehem Central High School.

WESTMINSTER College's semi-annual Dean's List, which recognizes students who have achieved 3.5 averages or better out of a possible 4.0 during the Fall Term has been released by Dr. Phillip A.
Lewis, dean of the college.

From this area is Diane Appleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Appleton, 107 Marlboro Rd., Delmar.
Miss Appleton, a graduate of Bethlehem Central High School, is a senior elementary major at Westminster. She is a member of Alpha Gamma

Delta sorority and Panhellenic Council.

THE FUTURE Business Leaders of America at Bethlehem Central High School have decided that this year a part of the proceeds from their Annual Carnival with GAA on March 30 will be donated to the March of Dimes.

Carmen Lee and Mira Lewis have agreed to head up this effort. At the Carnival they circulate as the Pick-A-Pocket Clown. The money collected from their sale of surprise packages will be completely donated to this community effort.

In preparation for their Carnival undertaking, Miss Lee and Miss Lewis met recently with Thomas McEnaney,
Chairman of the Albany
County March of Dimes. Mr.
McEnaney provided them with literature which they will distribute to those attending the Carnival.

THE WIND Ensemble section of the Bethlehem Central High School Band has scheduled its annual exchange concert tour for March 28-31, and a final fund-raising project is being held this weekend to help finance the trip.

Band members are now taking orders for a Submarine Sandwich Sale, with the sandwiches to be delivered this Saturday afternoon (March 17). Parents of the band members will assist in sandwich preparation and delivery.

Anyone who would like to support the tour project—and enjoy some submarine sandwiches for a Saturday snack or supper—may call these High School pupils to place an order: Jean MacHarg, chairman; 439-3688; Audrey Hendler, 439-5301; or Gladys Chu, 462-0649.

Four fund-raising events have already been sponsored by the band members this year, but they still need more money to finance their trip.

The itinerary they have planned calls for traveling to New York City on Wed., March 28, for dinner, a stage show, and overnight hotel stay. The next day, they will arrive in Glen Burnie, Maryland, hold an open rehearsal, and then spend the night with the families of Glen Burnie band members. On March 30, they will have a sightseeing excursion in Washington D.C., and then present an evening concert at Glen Burnie, with both the Bethlehem Central and Glen Burnie bands participating. They will return to Delmar the following day, March 31.

The exchange concert tour is an annual spring event for the Bethlehem Central Band, and this year's members are hoping their "Sub Sale" will provide the balance of funds needed for a successful trip.

THE BETHLEHEM Central High School delegates to the Annual State Leadership Conference of the Distributive Education Clubs of America returned to classes on Thursday, March 8, after an exciting, informative and exhausting three days in the Catskills.

Some seventeen hundred boys and girls currently enrolled in the distributive education programs in the schools of New York State gathered to attend workshops, participate in contests, carry out the organization's business and elect new officers for the coming year.

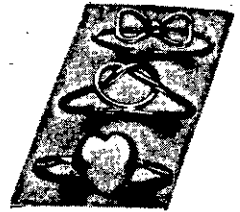

Three BCHS students returned with honorable mention certificates. Carol Jenks, DECA Sweetheart; Mira Lewis, her miniature window display in the Display Diorama Contest; and Linda O'Connell in Job Interview, Girls.

The Bethlehem Central Group was accompanied by Robert A. Pierson, Coordinator of Distributive Education at Bethlehem Central, and Hugh J. Brown, a business education, distributive education teacher. Mr. Brown also

THREE FRIDAY night social programs are being conducted this month for Bethlehem Central Middle School pupils, with chaperoning being provided by teachers and parents.

Sixth-graders had their
"Friday Night Fling" on Mar.
9, seventh-graders have theirs
tomorrow night (Mar. 16),
and the eighth-grade program
is scheduled for Friday, Mar.
23.

Activities open to the pupils on these dates, between 7 and 9 p.m., include: Ping pong, basketball, tumbling, trampoline, swimming, and movies. An admission fee of 50 cents is being charged, so the programs can be self supporting.

The Friday night social events are being coordinated by Mr. Terry Ulion of the Middle School faculty, in cooperation with the Parents'

Steering Committee. They are being held this year on an experimental basis, with the possibility of future expansion, "to give children the opportunity to participate in various activities in a healthy social atmosphere with people of their own age group."

THE CONTRIBUTION of a
Bethlehem Central High School pupil, Miss Barbara DeSantis, has been selected for inclusion in an Art Show presently on exhibit in the rotunda of the South Mall Legislative Building in Albany.

Every high school in New York State submitted entries
for the "Youth Art Month" exhibit, and only about 90 were chosen for display. Miss DeSantis' work is an untitled abstract combining silk screen and water color techniques.

The exhibit was formally opened on March 1, at a ceremony attended by State legis-

COVER STORY

E. NORMAN McGRATTAN, RACONTEUR

FOR YEARS WE HAVE WAITED FOR THE opportunity to get a picture of E. Norman McGrattan that would be classed in the "news" category. Now we have it. Last Friday evening he presented the last travelogue of the season at the Fire House on Maple Avenue in Selkirk. His stories were based on slides which he had taken on a visit to China.

But who is Norman McGrattan? First, he is a teacher of fourth grade students at Becker Elementary in the R-C-S School District — and, first again, he is one of the finest teachers of pre-teen youngsters. He has traveled extensively, not only around the world, but all across the United States — and periodically his classes are treated to an authentic travelogue complete with beautiful color slides.

Mr. McGrattan has another forte: the ability to direct children's musicals. He directs the choreography and drama in concert with Martin Ainspan who is another genius with children — in the music field. What an experience for those youngsters fortunate enough to come under the influence and teaching of these two men!

One last observation: Mr. McGrattan has a passion for Lincoln cars and generally has two, sometimes three, in his garage at Van Wies Point. Photo by Jim Fuller

student artists and their teachers. Mr. Stanley Reich, art supervisor for Bethlehem schools, and Mr. Henrik Post, Miss DeSantis' graphics teacher, were present. These seven Bethlehem Central pupils also served as receptionists at the event: Dagmar VonSchwerin, Helen Burgraff, Mary Ann Guard, Mary Zulgit, Pat Falvey, Dianne Pompa, and Jane Kilo.

HERE and THERE

CHILDREN in Grades 3 through 6 will have an opportunity to join an art group which will meet at the Bethlehem Coffeehouse for 10 weeks from March to June.

Some of the explored projects will be: simple graphics, sculpture, ceramics, puppets, tie dye and batik.

The fee for the 10 weeks will be $20. Interested parents may call Mary Dorsey (439-1900) or Barb DeSantis (439-4322).

THE MARCH MEETING of the Tri-Village Chapter of the American Association for Retired Persons will be held on Tuesday (Mar. 20) at 1:30 P.M. at the First United Methodist Church of Delmar. The speaker will be John E. Wagar, Field Representative of the NYS office for the Aging.

The local chapter, which now has 340 members, was organized to help retired people find purpose and security in their lives through service to the community.

THE "ARKANSAS Lassies," a world renowned all-girl basketball team, will appear at the Bethlehem Central High School on Tuesday, March 27, at 8 P.M.

The "Lassies" are the female basketball wizards of the sports world who have won all but two of their last 150 games. The "Lassies," in addition to playing outstanding SCENE FROM NEW PLAY — On Saturday afternoon, March 17, at 2 P.M. and 4 P.M., the drama students of the College of Saint Rose will present an original children's play: THE BAFFLING BOOHUNK. The work was written by Katharyn Machan, a student at the College. The performances will be held in Saint Joseph's Hall, 985 Madison Avenue.

ment Services will speak on the immediate job market which a youth faces.

The evening is open to all parents for whom this is a matter of concern.

AT A RECENT meeting, the Delmar Kiwanis Club heard Stanley Beran of the Town of Charleston, a Montgomery County small town to be partially flooded for a park project, discuss whether today's popular environmental concern is "public or political". A member of the group of County residents who have formed an Okwari Park Committee for Fair Play, Beran reported on the alleged secrecy with which the 3,7000 acre, ten million dollar project developed, how this citizen's committee helped to bring about a public hearing by the State Department of Environmental Concern on granting a water permit to the County, and how the hearing - which already has three days of testimony on the record and will continue for at least another three days this week - has revealed the high cost and the "text book planning" of what Beran calls "a fun-and-games project" that is putting people out of their homes and destroying environment under the guise of protecting it.

According to Beran, who is a General Electric Co. planning engineer, the County Planner has testified that this lake project would be five times the size of the biggest County park now in existence and will raise taxes at least $1.32 per thousand IF the Federal Government agrees to pay half. If no federal money is available, this amount probably would double. Deran also said that the hearing brought out that costs of administration and roads and services around the park area are not included in the costs now predicted by the County. Nor does the County know what its administrative plan, drinking and other water supplies, sewage treatment method and fire portection etc.

Good news for crabgrass haters!

If you had crabgrass last summer, you can prevent it this year by spreading Scotts HALTS PLUS For Established Lawns. Spread it on your lawn in late winter or early spring, and it sets up a barrier that will prevent crabgrass from showing its ugly head this year. Halts Plus fertilizes your lawn at the same time. Makes your grass grow thicker, greener, sturdier. All from a single application.

"THE NEW Gordon-McCarthy Law is the most harsh no-fault statute in the country", according to a member of the Auto Insurance Committees of the State Bar Association and the Albany County Bar Association is an address before the Latham Rotary Club March 5th. Attorney Ernest I. Lyons criticized the Republican consensus bill "for abolishing the right of 80% of the injured to any recourse for pain and suffering damages and for cutting in half benefits previously available to fault-free passengers & pedestrians seriously maimed, disfigured or crippled by negligent motorists."

Reviewing the no-fault controversy the speaker claimed "For three years the press displayed an amazing unwillingness to admit to the difficulty of clarifying the complex issues, of explaining the fundamental principals involved in eliminating the fault concept, and of reporting the motivations of the contending special interest groups." The press had difficulty telling the "good guys" from the "bad guys", he said. "For the first two years they grouped the in-

words & pictures by Jim Fuller

WE WENT TOURING AGAIN LAST SATURDAY, first to Delmar where we found traffic at a standstill on Delaware Avenue at the corner of Adams Street.

1) Neither the big "stop" signs on Adams Street nor the mourning-draped Town Hall prevented these two cars from tangling. 2) Then, on to the Bethlehem Public Library where Robert G. King, (center) Spotlight publisher, inspected and heartily approved the clothbound copies of the Spotlight which are now available for reference. On the left is Madeline R. Schnabel, Reference Librarian, and right, Mrs. Ann P. D'Attilio, Administrative Assistant at the Library. 3) At the Middle School on Kenwood Avenue in Delmar, Tawasentha Chapter, DAR, was sponsoring an Antique Show and Sale. The displays were beautifully arranged and the capacity crowd seemed to be enjoying everything they saw. 4) Last, back to the Town Squire Shopping Center in Glenmont to get a picture of the manager of the Giant Store, Phil Ward. In case you've been wondering, the Garden Shop next to Giant is actually a part of the department store and entrance is from the Giant Store.

ance companies and all lawyers together as opponents of no-fault, and for the past year they lined the companies up with the "goodguys", without any explanation for the switch or apology for their prior error."

The lawyer added, "An uncensored press, free of any control, is essential to American democracy. However, each of us, individually, must demand responsible and professionally competent journalists, equal to the task of making important, but technical, issues understandable to the average citizen."

Mr. Lyons emphasized that a press corps lacking in technical expertise may be "manoeuvred and manipulated" by special interest groups and those who are politically motivated: "It is apparent by the way the newspapers' editorial responsibility was exercised statewide with almost complete uniformity, both in error and in accuracy, that a very powerful force was at work behind the scenes developing a public attitude appropriate to a particular political point of view."

"The real winners in no-fault", he concluded, "were not the injured victims of car accidents but the politicians who ended up on the politically "right" side of the issue."

THE MEMBERS of the Abbott family are more than happy with their combined weight loss of over 368 pounds. Star loser of the group was son David who has lost 122 lbs., followed by sister Nancy with a decrease of 69 pounds. Mother Evelyn, who was the family's inspiration, is a 40 pound loser, while Aunt Leona Michaud took off 28 pounds. Dad, who wasn't really too heavy, added another 15 lbs. to the decrease column.

Mom and Dad

Evelyn Abbott's success inspired her son David but she herself became a member of Weight Watchers after experiencing the minor shock of seeing herself in a home movie film. She couldn't possibly look like that, she thought, but there was the evidence right before her eyes and everyone else's. And the image remained strong enough to drive her to take some action to get rid of the aging fat and flab that mortified her son. Her husband couldn't have been happier and he decided to share a meal or two. As Dave and Nancy joined the program, he found the whole process easier and easier. Just as a sort of innocent bystander, he became a loser.

All flights will originate from John F. Kennedy International Airport in New York, with the exception of those to be used by customers of Grand Union's Washington, D.C., vicinity stores. Residents of the Washington, Virginia and Maryland areas will depart from Dulles International Airport at similar low rates.

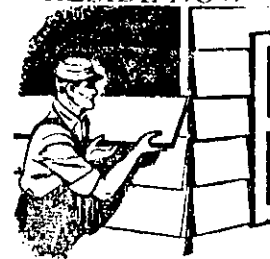

Operating under federal regulations, the fully-bonded program requires club members to pay 25 per cent of their fare 90 days prior to departure. Complete payment must be made 60 days prior to departure. Final payment will be accompanied by $100 in Grand Union register tapes.

"Grand Union is happy to be able to provide this further cost reducing as a special service to customers who shop in our stores regularly," noted William H. Preis, Senior Vice President of Grand Union, the nation's tenth largest food chain.

"There is a large and growing public demand for efficient, dependable charter flight service," Mr. Preis said. "Grand Union customers now have the opportunity to avail themselves of low-cost international air travel by bonded charter flights operated by major air carriers on a regular basis."

PLANS ARE NOW under way to offer this spring a course of instruction in the Science of Creative Intelligence. This will be the first time that such a program will be available in the Capitol District area.

Creativity can be defined as the cause of change and is present everywhere at all times. Intelligence is a basic quality of existence exemplified in the purpose and order of change. The single and branching flow of energy (creativity) and directedness (intelligence) is called creative intelligence. The science of creative intelligence is the knowledge of the nature, origin, range, growth and application of creative intelligence. This science arose from the major discovery that there exists in every human being the constant source of energy, intelligence and happiness. This source can easily and systematically be drawn upon by everyone for spontaneous use in everyday life, bringing personal integration and a harmoniously productive relationship with others and the world. Like every science, therefore, the science of creative intelligence is founded on practice; regular experiential contact with the source of energy and intelligence.

The practical aspect of this science is a technique of proven efficacy which allows the individual systematically to enjoy increasingly refined states of awareness until its pure state, the field of pure intelligence, is reached. Through this simple and natural procedure alternated with activity the whole mind and body gradually gain permanent access to the full value of creative intelligence.

Those who practice the technique report improved efficiency in all spheres of thought and action. It is a process of direct experience and not of intellectual analysis. This practice is known as Transcendental Meditation.

The locally offered course in SCI will begin within the next few weeks as soon as a suitable location at which to hold the eleven-week course can be secured. Classes will be held three times per week during evening hours. Each session will include a color video-taped lecture by Maharishi. Enrollment will necessarily be limited by available space. For further information about starting date, location or enrollment contact Dorothy or George Wiesner at 439-9198. A public information meeting to explain the science of creative intelligence and the practice of Transcendental Meditation will be held Friday evening, March 16, at 8 at the Bethlehem Public Library.

CONSTRUCTION PROGRAMS by Niagara Mohawk Power Corp. over the next five years will exceed over a billion dollars in capital investment, the utility noted in its 1972 Annual Report to Shareowners, issued today.

In a foreword to shareowners, James A. O'Neill, president and chief executive officer, described efforts at keeping ahead of growing energy requirements under continually rising pressures, primarily from inflation and environmental demands.

"Environmental requirements alone, for example, added capital costs of $57 million in 1972," O'Neill noted. "It will be difficult for Niagara Mohawk to maintain a high earnings level as inflationary pressures continue, wages and taxes consistently rise and environmental requirements add heavy capital costs and related operating expenses without compensating increases in revenue," he told shareowners.

"Our 1972 operations reflect virtually a full year of an electric rate increase of $46.5 million annually, made effective in January 1972. Nevertheless, expenses, including servicing of capital, are outrunning revenue gains."

"Consequently," the executive disclosed, "new electric rate adjustments will be filed in March 1973 in an endeavor to produce earning adequate to offset rising expenses and to provide a sufficient return on investment."

O'Neill emphasized, "Energy supplies, both electric and natural gas, are a matter of continuing concern. The nationwide shortage of gas continues to limit any growth in this area of our business in the foreseeable future. Under PSC rules, essentially restricting new gas installations to one-and two-family homes and other limited classifications, growth is small. However, we are protecting the supply to present customers."

The Annual Report said the firm is now making plans for generation expansion needed for the 1980's. Construction expenditures for 1973-77 are estimated at $1.274 billion. The 1973 construction budget alone is estimated at $262 million.

"Our extensive program of generation and transmission facilities under construction or design will take care of load growth through this decade," O'Neill assured stockholders.

The Annual Report underlined the importance of research and development projects and pointed out that Niagara Mohawk's R & D expenditures for the year surpassed $3 million.

DELMAR, N. Y.

Question:

Under what circumstances is an amount for funeral expenses available under the Railroad Retirement Act?

Answer:

If an employee who is completely or partially insured under the Railroad Retirement Act dies leaving no survivor eligible for an annuity at the time of his death, a lump sum is payable. This is equal to ten times the basic amount, and is paid to the surviving widow if she was legally living with her husband when he died.

If there is no eligible spouse, and the funeral expenses are unpaid, the lump sum may be assigned to our funeral home by the person who assumed the responsibility for these expenses. If our costs are paid, reimbursement will be made to the person who paid them. This will be either the amount he paid, or the lump sum maximum.

Under certain circumstances the lump sum may be paid to us, without an assignment, if no one assumed responsibility for the funeral costs.

entire utility industry intensified R & D and related support activities in 1972. Enhancing reliability, preserving environmental quality and natural resources while reducing costs are all overriding objectives of our R & D efforts," said the report.

Wandering & Wondering . . .

A NEWS STORY (IF TRUE) OUT OF HANOI poses an interesting question: a pilot for one of the big planes bringing out prisoners of war went into a jewelry store and made a $6 purchase. He paid the Hanoi merchant with a $20 bill. Without any hesitation, the merchant supposedly handed him his $14 change — in American money. Question: How is it that American dollars are so common in Hanoi and how would a jewelry merchant be so cognizant of American dollars that he could make change? Think about that one for awhile!

AND NOW ONE GLEANED from the daily papers that almost made us jump out of our chair: SUNY students brought a rock group to the Palace in Albany. 3000 rock followers crowded into the theatre. There was a reported bomb-threat with everybody being herded outside while a search was made. It proved false and most of the 3000 filed back in. Now here's a direct, accurate quote from the by-lined review: "And the good feeling that started with Wet Willie two hours before started all over again. The music got better. There was beer, and dope, and for two hours the band and the audience happily fed off each other."

This whole thing makes us very ill.

TWO TOWN OF BETHLEHEM STALWARTS left the scene during the past week and thereby left us more than a little sad at their passing. Both were friends.

First, it was Harold C. Barkhuff who had so much to do with the planning and building of Water District #1 in our town. He was also one of the most distinguished of Past Commanders of Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post #1040, American Legion. Then, a few days later, Judge Harold White who was a Niagara Mohawk attorney for most of his adult life; he was the Peace Justice in the Town of Bethlehem who made headlines when he announced that he would be harsh in his treatment of teen-age drivers who defied the law. Harold believed that he could save lives by making the penalty high for ignoring motor vehicle laws. Many believe that he was successful and this may be the reason so many judges lean on the younger drivers today.

WE KNOW THAT JIM CREEPS or bursts into this column frequently — maybe too frequently for some. But there's always a rather good story connected with it. Like this: Last week, State Photo Supply in Albany and Bell & Howell placed an-almost full-page ad in the TU to introduce a brand new camera. The camera description seemed too good to be true — so Jim went in to see it. We'll make the story short by saying that he thought it just about perfection — it was just a matter of digging up slightly more than half a thousand dollars. Pouf! That was easy! and the next thing he knew he was the proud new owner of a Bell & Howell Canon F-1 camera.

One feature is an electronic time setting device that lets the photographer set up the camera, leave it and get in the picture — then the camera automatically takes the picture. This feature especially appealed to Ed and Wayne Smith, two of Jim's small nephews.

We had to print the result:

If you'd like to see this camera in action and you have a newsworthy event — or want some commercial shots — call Jim at 767-2760. He'll be there.

OUR 16 TO 60 SUMMER BASEBALL PROGRAM is off and running as we write this column. That "our" is not used in its possessive form; by "our," we mean the program which Sam Capone has gotten started with a small assist from us.

To date (March 9), 35 plus have signed up to play. 10 plus are 20 years or older. Bethlehem Parks and Recreation is supplying the playing field(s). With the ever mounting interest, it now looks as though there will be in excess of the number needed to field four excellent teams.

Here's the next meeting notice: a general meeting of those already registered, those who want to register and all who are interested in the program will be held at the Bethlehem Public Library on Thursday evening, March 22, at 7 P.M. This will be the LAST opportunity for prospective players to register and be assured of playing. After this date, registrations will be taken on a strictly "maybe"-you'll-be-able-to-be-assigned-to-a-team basis.

Again, we'd like to ask any business man in the Town of Bethlehem who will consider sponsoring a team or giving any assistance to this fledgling league to call Sam Capone (439-1345) and make the offer. We believe it unnecessary to remind potential sponsors of the good they will be doing, or how much it will be appreciated, or any of that sales pitch. Just call Sam and tell him you're willing!

WE RECEIVED A LETTER from Charles R. Siple of Schenectady giving us a lot more information on what we thought was the "lost" art of that special penmanship. Mr. Siple tells us: there are some 100 "flourishing penmen" in the United States today, most famous is of Japanese extraction. Best known of the engrossing* houses is the firm of Ames & Rollinson in New York City. Only about a dozen of the 100 make their living from "engrossing." We are reproducing the envelope containing Mr. Siple's letter below:

The Spotlight
154 Delaware Ave
Delmar NY 12054

Charles R. Siple
12104 Dean St.
Schenectady NY 12309

Delmar's Betty Roberts was kind enough to send our column on penmanship to Mr. Siple, and we thank them both for giving us this added information.

*We learned added meaning to a rather common word through this exchange. We had always used "engrossed" to mean completely absorbed in something. But take off the "ed" and add "ing" and it means large writing or the penmanship we've been writing about. Another word (this one new to us) was "interpretative" which means essentially the same as the much more common (to us) "interpretive." And we thought we had some small knowledge of the English language!
