Look what we found! IN THE MAILBAG

Letter to the Editor:

We would like to publicly praise and thank the Lord for the Godly ministry of Reverend and Mrs. Arthur E. Gay, Jr. of the Bethlehem Community Church, who will soon be leaving for the South Park Church in Park Ridge, Illinois.

Their willingness to serve the Lord in numerous ways has been an inspiration to many. Most evident in their lives has been Christ's love which has nourished, sustained, edified, and bound together the assembly at the Bethlehem Community Church. We have been truly blessed these past years by their ministry and friendship.

May the Holy Spirit continue to work through these gracious people and bless all who know them.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. H. Lewis Lovelace

THE HUDSON VALLEY Girl Scout Council has announced plans for a council wide Fair to be held at the Schaghticoke Fair Ground from 10 A.M. to 8 P.M. on Saturday, June 2. The theme of the Fair, Festival of the Arts, will feature creative art work taking place in Girl Scout Troops throughout the five county council area.

Work on the Fair began last summer when the program committee decided to sponsor an event that all 9,000 girls in the council could join in. Throughout the fall and winter months, troops prepared entries, and adult committees under the leadership of Mrs. John Hawn put the plans together. The day will start with display, demonstration puppet shows and dances done by various Girl Scouts from the Council. At 2 P.M. a parade featuring floats, bands and costumed marchers will sweep the Fair Grounds. A closing ceremony featuring a Girl Scout Chorus of 200 voices will commence at 6 p.m.

The public is cordially invited. Tickets may be obtained from Girl Scouts.

MORE THAN 300 volunteers attended a kick-off meeting recently to offically launch activity for WMHT's fifth annual television auction, set for May 11-19. Master of ceremonies was radio personality Bill Edwardsen, and music was furnished by the Nick Brignola combo.

Fund-raising goal for the Channel 17 auction this year is $120,000, with net proceeds providing approximately 1/8 of the public, non-commercial radio and television station's annual budget of $850,000.

At the kick-off, volunteers "go-getters" attended training workshops in preparation for contacting area merchants

THAT WOMEN of all ages are potential powers for social change will be the message when the Young Women's Christian Association of the USA observes National YWCA Week, April 22-28.

Thousands of local members and program participants will join with the total national membership of 2,378,000 for the 26th annual celebration. Teen women, students, homemakers, young mothers, working women, volunteers, the mature will be focusing upon how they can translate their woman power into effective action relevant to today's needs and interest of women.

A highlight of the week will be the first in a continuing series of public affairs luncheon meetings at the "Y" Wednesday, April 25, at 12:15 p.m., devoted to "Women and the Law" with noted Albany attorneys as guests.

While seeking solutions to crucial social issues such as justice, sexism, poverty, and child care, foremost in the organization's program for action for the next triennium is its reaffirmation at its 26th National Convention is San Diego last month of the historic action taken three years ago - the adoption of the One Imperative: "to thrust our collective power toward the elimination of racism wherever it exists and by any means necessary."

According to Dorothy I. Height, director of the YWCA Center for Racial Justice, "The YWCA is the only organization in which black, white, brown, yellow, and red women come together from all different economic and social backgrounds to conquer common problems."

Getting all those women together through its varied activities is another unique domain of the YWCA.

"That's why our classes and activities are so important," Miss Height added. "Women who don't get out of the house are not likely to become involved with issues."

Attending the San Diego convention as delegates from the Albany Association were Mrs. Everett J. Parry, Old Road, New Salem; Ms. Donna George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip George, 27 Cranel Avenue, Elsmere; and Mrs. Bernard F. Ashe, 7 Bedford Court, Delmar.

The Albany Association serves Bethlehem residents through YW Wives programs now being offered at the Delmar Reformed Church, 4 Corners.

SPENCER L. McCARTHY, C.L.U., of Delmar, executive vice president of the New York State Association of Life Underwriters, has received a unique award from the Buffalo Life Underwriters Association.

The Buffalo Association saluted McCarthy in a special citation: "For a lifetime of dedicated, unselfish, inspiring leadership to establish, achieve and maintain the high professional standards in industry and client relationship which we all espouse."

First of its kind in the 86-year history of the organization, the citation was presented to McCarthy at a luncheon meeting at Buffalo's Statler Hilton Hotel March 22 by Chester A. Majewski, president of the Buffalo Association.

It declares that the Buffalo Association "proudly makes public acknowledgement of the enormous debt and undying respect which all life underwriters owe" McCarty, and says "Agent, builder, educator, advisor, leader, concerned citizen, consumer service advocate are less than adequate to describe the courageous life underwriter whose principles we should all try to emulate."

PRICES OF ALL CUTS of fresh beef, pork, lamb and veal will be set a minimum lowable ceiling prices in more than 500 Grand Union supermarkets which began Friday April 6, it was announced by Charles G. Rodman, President of The Grand Union Company, the nation's tenth largest food chain. The price cuts will be in effect through the month of April.

Mr. Rodman said that further reductions in retails for fresh meats would be made if drops in wholesale costs make them possible. He added that setting fresh meat prices 10¢-a-pound below allowable ceiling would be in additon to Grand Union's regular weekly programs of specials on meats, groceries, produce and other items. The Grand Union Company has more than 3-million customer transactions a week in its food stores along the eastern seaboard.

"We are doing this, of course, to attract customers to our stores," Mr. Rodman said. "There are also other, very fundamental reasons for reducing retail meat prices even at a time when wholesale prices that our company must pay are still at or near their all-time highs."

Mr. Rodman said that through its action, Grand Union wanted to help re-establish quickly an adequate flow of meat from farm to table.

"If the flow of meat from producer to consumer is effectively and sizably reduced through boycotts and legislative fiat, recent meat prices in supermarkets will seem like rock-bottom bargains to consumers in a year or two," he said.

PRICE REDUCTION — Prices of all cuts of fresh beef, pork, lamb and veal have been set a minimum of 10¢ a pound under the allowable ceiling prices through the month of April in more than 500 Grand Union supermarkets. Here a shopper examines a cut of meat shortly after the new price policy went into effect last Friday, April 6. Charles G. Rodman, Grand Union President, said the company s action was designed o attract customers to our stores and also to help re-establish quickly an adequate flow of meat from farm to table and to help put back to work butchers and others who had to be laid off temporarily. The company's policy, Mr. Rodman said, would be in addition to regular weekly specials on meats, groceries, produce and other items.

tives for the farmer to grow cattle and hogs and lambs; nor discourage feeders from feeding or packers from packing," Mr. Rodman continued. "If production is discouraged by a sustained boycott or unwise legislation such as the proposed roll-back of meat prices January, 1973, or to a year-ago level, retailers and consumers are going to be in real trouble."

Grand Union's President said his company was prepared to invest a sizable sum through its meat price reductions to help re-prime the meat supply line.

"Our action is also aimed at putting back to work the butchers and others in allied fields that have had to be laid off temporarily," he said. "Increasing unemployment is no way to help the economy or solve the problem of high meat prices."

Long term, Mr. Rodman said, the way to achieve both lower prices for meat and price stability is to increase food supplies and reduce the cost of growing and distributing food.

AIMING FOR A dedication ceremony later this year, the Library Gift Fund Committee sets July 31 as the closing date for artists to make submissions of their work. The selection made by the Committee will be given a permanent berth or prominence in the new Delmar Public Library building.

Mrs. Georgiana Posman, 37 Preston Road, Delmar, the Committee chairman, invites all artists to offer their talent to this cause. She says, "Their medium should be of good size and sufficiently sturdy to withstand the surge of public traffic."

The selected work's artist will share bountifully from the thousand dollar goal the committee has set for its program. The goal is now under ten percent shy. Those wishing the help overcome this deficit should send their contributions to the Library Gift Fund Committee, c/o Mrs. Posman or The Reverend Thomas Peterson, 56 Wisconsin Avenue, Delmar.

THE WOMEN'S Society of Christian Service, Albany District of the Troy Conference will meet May 2, for the annual spring meeting at the Cobleskill United Methodist Church. The theme: "A Change to the New-Reality." All the things you wanted

THE SLINGERLANDS COMMUNITY PLAYERS are hard at work readying their final offering of the current season. On the left, from left to right, Steve King, Assistant Director, and Ed Lange, director, confer. On the right, a rehearsal scene includes, from left to right, Red Sutton (back to camera), Syd Turner, Dick Walsh and Dick McGrath. Because rights to the play they had originally selected for presentation this spring are not available, the Players have elected to produce The Homecoming by Harold Pinter in its stead. This powerful, psychological drama first came to the United States from England in 1967 and should not be confused with the popular American television production of the same name. Ten performances at the Playhouse in Unionville are scheduled for May 2 through 6 and May 9 through 13. The Playhouse is on Route 433 (Delaware Turnpike) about two and one-half miles southwest of Bethlehem Central Senior High School. Tickets are available at L.J. Mullen Pharmacy, C.M. Grover-Stationers and the Delmar Tavern.

A NEW, FREE eight-page illustrated booklet entitled, "The Story of Willie Bacteria, or How To Take Care of Your Septic Tank or Cesspool,' is now available to owners of septic tanks and cesspools from Delmar Lumber & Builders Supply, 340 Delaware Ave., Delmar.

In a light vein, illustrated by cartoons, the booklet explains the working of the septic tank and cesspool in simplified fashion. It describes the bacterial action of the disposal system and what is necessary for its proper functioning.

Chief attraction in the booklet is a humanizaed "Willie Bacteria" who is responsible for maintaining the efficiency of the disposal system. When the septic tank or cesspool user ignores the fact the "Willie" is working to keep the disposal system free from disease, and saturates him with an overdose of detergents, acids, lyes, caustics and other irritants, "Willie" is very unhappy, and more often than not, just stops working.

But there is a bright side to the story too, for "Willie Bacteria" has found a way to educate the septic tank or cesspool user, so that "Willie" can do his job under modern up-to-date working conditions, and prevent the fuss, mess, inconvenience, and expense of a clogged disposal system.

ON MONDAY, June 11, Madison Square Garden in New York City will be the scene of a great and gala event—The 10th Year Anniversary of Weight Watchers International. There will be music, songs, comedy sketches, superstars, fantastic decorations and a mood that will be incomparable. Best of all, of course, there will be people—the same kind of people we've met many times before. They're the kind who can show "before and after" pictures and who laugh at the old clothes that would be suitable for two or even three people of their size. Hosting the affair will be Jean Nidetch, Bob Hope and Pearl Bailey, all superb talents, all ready to welcome Jean's fabulous army of followers.

The price of the ticket is less than that of a Broadway musical and certainly none can offer such excitement. For those of us in the Albany area, the total cost is $24.75 which includes the $10.00 entrance ticket to Madison Square Garden, a full course dinner at Patricia Murphy's Candlelight Restaurant at 260 Madison Avenue in New York,

GOVERNOR ROCKEFELLER announced recently that $1600.00 in State aid has been allocated by the State Division for Youth to the Town of Coeymans for a youth recreation project conducted by Coeymans Town Board, marking the 26th year that the community and the State have joined together in providing youth activities for area young people.

"It is important that all of our young citizens are involved in group activities which develop leadership, good sportsmanship, responsibility, understanding of peers, and a pride and interest in the community in which they live," the Governor remarked. "The Town of Coeymans is to be commended for joining more than 1,250 municipalities in this effort through of the Division for Youth programs."

of State aid furnished by the State of New York has increased from $6.5 million in 1968 to $8.1 million last year, for the establishment, operation, and maintenance of over 1,450 youth projects.

AS A PART OF of Title III Grant, "A Developmental and Coordinated Career Education Program," the guidance department of Bethlehem Central High School is sponsoring an "Environmental Careers Fair" on May 10, 1973 at the school from 9 A.M.-4 P.M.

Mrs. Blackmore is Project Director and is coordinating the Career Fair. The Career Education Staff and several student committees have joined their efforts to create the most informational and interesting fair possible, by arranging for the presentation of a wide variety of exhibits from businesses and agencies of the area and to carry out all the other aspects of the fair vital to its success.

Because so much emphasis is placed upon the environment today, and since it promises to be an extremely important field for employment in the future, this fair will not only be an asset to furthering education of the students as environmental-related careers, but also will strengthen the realization of all those attending of the need to maintain the quality of our environment.

Wandering & Wondering . . .

SOME THINGS WE CAN NEVER UNDERSTAND — Almost everyone agrees that today most of the news writing somehow becomes biased according to the individual writer's views. It happens in our daily papers, on radio and television. During its more than 16 years, the Spotlight has never been accused of slanting the news — except perhaps in this column — and, as everyone knows, this column is strictly the writer's opinion and is easily recognizable as such. The Spotlight has had complaints of favoring one group over another on occasion — but never biased news reporting.

Imagine our surprise, then, when every week in the year those who complain about the other media the loudest, nevertheless, give them the scoop news stories. Two recent illustrations: 1) a couple of years ago we asked repeatedly for a breakdown on the progress with the drug problem in Bethlehem. We were ignored and almost caused a brouhaha over it. We were never given the figures. Yet, just a week ago, one of the Albany dailies carried a four-column feature detailing the entire history of drugs in our town. Chief Fish was quoted at length on every phase of drug law enforcement.

Let's see where this leaves us: when the Bethlehem Police Department starts a new program, whenever

THUNDER HILL IS OPEN!

Thunder Hill Campground at Rensselaerville (originally scheduled to open in 1972) is now open! Maybe it's too early for camping – but you can drive out, see the many facilities that are ready for you, walk the trails, eat at the snack bar, go fishing — or — you may cook your own food over an open fire and use the picnic tables. The trailer hook-ups are ready. And so it goes — on and on.

During the next few weeks we'll be adding: horseback riding, the petting zoo will open, the playgrounds will be ready, the laundromat, hot showers and the pole barn pavilion will all be ready to use! Every day there'll be more and more for your camping enjoyment.

To find us, take Route 85 to Rensselaerville and then follow the signs — or stop at the Glenmont Liquor Store, Town Squire Shopping Center, Glenmont, and we'll give you a detailed road map.

The weekend of May 26-27 will be our Grand Opening (Memorial Day Weekend) with lots of FREE goodies that we'll be telling you about later.

Our address: Rensselaerville — and the telephone number: 797-9681.

a member has even a minor achievement, the Spotlight is always ready, willing and able to publicize the good works of the men in the Department.

Wouldn't you think the Spotlight should also come first in other areas?

Here's #2: This one concerns the efforts of Owens Corning to option land along Route 32 for the building of a manufacturing plant. Naturally, Feura Bush people (even though the hamlet is in the Town of New Scotland) were very concerned.

The Spotlight is religiously sent announcements of Clean-up Days, Public Hearings, etc., but when this really big news story came along, all other media got it and we were left completely in the dark.

What those who could release these stories to us fail to understand is this: If these stories which are bound to cause comment and concern among our area residents were released and appeared in the Spotlight, most of the suspicion and worry might never come about.

One thing we strive for with the Spotlight: we try 24 hours of every day to be a more perfect mirror of the area we serve. We try to give everyone help when it's fund raising time; we try to bring our readers a weekly picture of our town. And in the final analysis: only you can make that mirrored picture true.

Think about it!

WE'VE HAD SEVERAL READERS ask us lately why the Spotlight Mailbag isn't fatter. We can't supply the answer! It seems to run in cycles. However we'd like to remind you that the Mailbag is a forum where you can express your views. We do publish most of the letters we receive. And when we don't, we have a good reason.

BACK TO LOCAL POLLUTION: We've had two complaints recently about the diesel locomotives in the Selkirk yards emitting large quantities of black, oily smoke that hangs just feet above the ground and almost strangles those forced to breathe it. There's only one other source that is equal: the diesel trucks that put out a trail of the same stuff. How often have you found yourself behind one, unable to pass it, and had to close all the car windows in order to breathe at all? Even closing the windows doesn't always help; it still seeps in.

Why something isn't done about these two polluters is a mystery. If a teenager has a muffler that is deemed too

BEGINNING WITH THE APRIL 26 ISSUE, we are planning to start a section devoted exclusively to the Ravena-Selkirk area. If present plans jell, we'll have complete coverage. WE STARTED SOMETHING ELSE LAST WEEK: The Spotlight is now on sale at a number of places in the area. The complete listing of outlets is on another page in this issue.

THE WINNING LETTER IN FAVOR of young people on our local school boards was written and mailed in Athens, Greece! And now that we've finally made our decision, we can tell you that the letters in "favor" outnumbered those "against" by 25 to 1! Here's the winner!

April 2, 1973
Athens, Greece

Dear Mr. Fuller:

I hope I am not too late in writing to you concerning a young person's ability to be a good school board member.

I am not sure what you mean by "a young person" or how you define "good," but that is academic, no pun intended. I do believe that a young person of either sex would be good in that the students would have an opportunity to express their views within the "system." Something I did not have when I went to Bethlehem Central. Also, the young person gets a feeling of just how massive and broad the responsibilities are that the school board possesses. Finally, I think it's good for the Town in general as it shows a healthy trend in that we show them our trust and respect by voting them into these different and sundry offices. You see, when my Service is over, I plan on returning to the Town of my birth and youth and living and working there, and I'd like it to be better and more advanced than when I left to defend it.

Should this opinion make it to you before your deadline (it arrived on April 5 — three days!) and you decide whether it is worthy of a prize or not, I would like to state (if I do win), please donate the money to Boy Scout Troop 75 in the name of all the service men and women who have gone forth from our Town with the hope of finding it still there, but improved, when they return.

Thank you for your time and your column. I don't agree with you all the time, but then I probably wouldn't read it if I did!

Sincerely,
Peter Gregory
