The Light Touch

Don't know why they call counterfeits "funny money." You get stuck with a twenty and see how much laughing you do.

Freedom of the press means no-iron clothes.

They say local TV is still in its infancy, which helps explain why you have to get up to change it so often.

Nothing is more depressing than feeling bad in the morning without having had any fun the night before.

As you might expect, it comes on soft and subtle. But don't be fooled.

It's powerful, provocative and lingering just like Jovan Musk Oil Perfume.

The cologne says the very same things about you the perfume does. That you're sensuous. Womanly. And warm.

But says it a little more lightly (Which could be the most powerful way of all.)

Try this new fragrance understatement by Jovan. Musk Oil Cologne Spray Mist.

Vote Again!

Residents of the Bethlehem Central School District will have the chance to vote again next week on two budget propositions, interscholastic athletics and pupil instructional supplies.

The polls will be open next Wed., Aug. 7, from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. in the Middle School gymnasium.

These two budget propositions were defeated by the voters on July 10, along with a proposition allowing for purchase of equipment — on which there will be no re-vote.

The Board of Education voted unanimously at a special meeting on July 18 to submit the two propositions to a second election. The Board was legally required to re-submit the athletics item, because it received petitions containing more than 3,000 signatures of district residents, requesting another vote. The petition drive supporting a re-vote on interscholastic athletics was spearheaded by the Bethlehem Athletic Association.

Petitions for another vote on the pupil supplies item were also submitted to the Board, containing the signatures of 1,232 residents. The Board decided to include the item on the re-election ballot, due to the impact its omission from the budget would have on district parents and to the narrow, (13-vote) margin of its original defeat.

While there has been insufficient time for the school district to prepare and mail any information on the re-vote directly to district residents, Board members strongly urge voter support of the two propositions.

The proposition to provide pupil instructional supplies totals $58,300, and would add about 97 cents to the Bethlehem tax rate and about $1.43 to the New Scotland tax rate. If this amount is not included in the contingency budget — which it cannot be according to State Education Law without voter approval — parents of all district pupils would be legally required to pay for their children's supplies.

If this proposition were defeated again, parents would have to pay an average of $13.20 per child for supplies. The district has been advised by State Education Department officials that it would have to bill parents for supplies, prior to the start of the school year, and that those children whose parents don't pay the bill could not receive the supplies.

Board and staff members feel very strongly that defeat of this proposition would be most unfortunate, in terms of possible educational inequalities and also the administrative costs and time that would be incurred.

School tax rates will not be as high as were originally projected, because both the assessment increase in the Town of Bethlehem and the district's budget balance are higher than were estimated when a budget had to be submitted to the voters in June.

If both the propositions pass and are added to the contingency budget, the Bethlehem tax rate increase will amount to about $4.79 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, and the New Scotland increase will be about $16.83 per $1,000. In spite of the lower-than-predicted tax rate increases, however, these two items must receive voter approval or they cannot be included in the contingency budget.

The Board of Education urges all residents to vote on August 7!

Vacation Bible School Opens

The Glenmont Community Church will conduct its Vacation Bible School during the week of August 19-23. A variety of activities are planned. Children from age 4 through those entering 1st grade will spend an action-filled week — wading at the church, taking part in a bicycle rodeo, playing games, running races, and making some crafts. Children entering 2nd grade through those entering 5th grade may choose from four types of activities — Are sports your thing? — or would you like to learn to knit or crochet? — or discover "what's cooking" from painted cookies to a full meal — or perhaps you'd like to "hang a plant" by making your

A SPECIAL SALUTE TO OUR "CUSTOMERS" WITH THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES

Dear Friends:
 Each year we arrange a special mid-summer celebration for everyone shopping the 154 Grand Union stores in Empire—and here in up-state New York and western New England. It's a two-week sales event during which we put our very lowest possible prices on the widest variety of merchandise.

This year, when it's more important than ever to keep a tight rein on the household budget, you'll find genuine bargains throughout our stores. Starting this week, you'll be able to fill the larder with quality groceries, stock the refrigerator and freezer with delicious meats, load the table with farm fresh vegetables and tree-ripened fruit at inflation-fighting prices.

Why? Because we like you—appreciate your patronage—want you to keep shopping our Empire Division stores. It's our annual "Thank You" party. And we know you'll be glad you dropped in.

Hope to see you in your favorite Grand Union. Since the celebration, which runs through August 10th, is called "President's Sales Weeks", I'm going to be visiting a number of the stores myself to see that everyone has a good time.

spoke out fearlessly for what he saw to be true. In these days of sophisticated compromise, his individuality shone like a beacon.

Now, in Massachusetts, a Mr. Fuller decides to run for office. In this "land of the free," "government of, by and for the people," he was threatened, and withdrew his name.

Lest you think loss of idealism to be recent, come back with me a few years in Albany. It was arranged that five pictures be taken showing the housing conditions in "the ghetto." A colored minister was threatened on the telephone, "we'll break your arm!" One or two pictures were taken; conditions have been improving ever since.

What's in a name? I don't know this Mr. Fuller's political persuasion; perhaps I'd prefer his opponent win. But threats, in Massachusetts or New York State, are not the American way!

I am not related to the Fullers as far as I know, nor is the colored minister, as far as I know. But LeVere Fuller had a great many friends in this community. I never met him; am I the only one to think of him at this time?

Wonderingly,
Virginia S. Sabin

Inflation hasn't changed the price of ashes.

But it has changed the price of your home. For example, if you bought a $20,000 home in 1968—today it's worth about $27,000. Don't be left with a costly pile of ashes. See me about a State Farm Homeowners Policy that will cover your home for all it's worth... and keep it that way with automatic Inflation Coverage.

Dear Mrs. Sabin,

Even though this letter is not addressed to me, I felt I would like to make a reply. I think of LeVere Fuller all the time, not only because he was my father, but because he was such a great man. I know how people feel about not being able to open the Spotlight and read "Wandering & Wondering" like they used to, but I don't feel that anyone can take over and write like him. Maybe someday someone can start their own column, but there never could be another "Wandering & Wondering".

My father got many complaints about some of the subjects he wrote, but he also got a satisfaction when he got finished with a column, that he could just write his feelings.

There are probably many people in this area that think about him (especially when they pick up the Spotlight), because as you say he had many friends in this community.

Vote August 7

On Wednesday, August 7th, voting will take place at the Middle School on a proposition that we feel is a very important one for the youth of our Bethlehem Central School District. At that time, the FINAL CHANCE to include interscholastic athletics in the next school Budget will be voted upon.

This threat to interscholastic athletics comes at a time when the medical profession increasingly recognizes the value of developing life-long interests in physical activities for mental as well as physical well-being.

Bethlehem is a sports-minded community. Probably there are at least 1,000 young people at Middle School and High School levels who participate as cheerleaders, managers, and team members in inter-scholastic and in independent and Recreation Department summer sports programs. We particularly urge the parents and grandparents of these students to come out on August 7th and vote FOR interscholastic sports.

A defeat again would furnish a setback to girls' sports which are just now coming "into their own." We have one of the best girls' interscholastic programs in the area. Last year, we fielded 17 teams at the Freshman level or above and we had the best record in the Suburban Council!

The BCHS boys' varsity teams have won the all-sports trophy two of the three years that it has been in existence in the 10-school Council.

We urge all sports-minded residents of the towns of New Scotland and Bethlehem to VOTE on Wednesday, August 7th between the hours of 7 A.M. and 9 P.M. at the Middle School on Kenwood Avenue in Delmar. Apathy on your part will again result in the defeat of this proposition and loss of Inter-Scholastic athletics at Middle School and High School levels for the coming years (and possibly for years to come)!

1974 Summer Playgrounds

This year's playground program is designed to attract and interest all types of children with its schedule of varied types of recreation.

Each week is focused on a particular theme with specific games and arts and crafts activities centered around each theme.

Kids, look forward to these coming special events:

Thursday, Aug. 8 — "Indian Sports Day" at Elm Avenue Park. (Note: playgrounds will be closed on August 8, due to a p.)

JOTTINGS

by Joni

Will we ever know what really happened to the Herrington boy who was burned with lighter fluid? There is doubt in my mind that this boy would have made up a story about a group of boys setting him afire. What would he have to gain, by lying? Could he have been threatened to change his story? All we want is the truth.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Blakely Low of Northridge, California, announce the engagement of their daughter, Cathryn, to Mr. Thomas Mark Scurrah, of Berne, New York.

Miss Low graduated cum laude from Mount Holyoke College in June, 1974. Mr. Scurrah attended Bucknell University and graduated cum laude from Amherst College in 1974. An August wedding is planned.

LIBRARY NOTES

Talent Show

Children are already signing up for the 4th annual Talent Show. There is still time for anyone 12 or under to prepare a skit, song, instrumental, dance or gymnastic number.

Evening on the Green is an eight week program of the Bethlehem Public Library in Delmar. The Annual Talent Show is the fifth program on the schedule and will be held August 7 at 7:30 on the Library lawn. If you can share something, no matter how unusual, with the community audience, you are encouraged to call or see Mrs. Harris (439-9314) before August 5 at the Library.

Anyone older than 12 will enjoy, as in past years, the range of talent available in the local young people. Some will make you laugh, others will amaze you by what they have hidden away under the word TALENT.
