PIRELLI

GRIPS LIKE A TANK... but doesn't ride like one

Pirelli Cinturato MS35 steel belted radial snow tires are designed to perform under the harshest winter driving conditions and still behave like standard radials on clear roads. A highly inserted forty five degree angle block tread pattern, rugged shoulder buttresses and new rubber compounds combine for outstanding performance in deep snow as well as on packed snow and ice. However, these elements are so subtly blended that MS35's sound, act and feel like superb standard radials on clear roads.

This week I have a letter from Mrs. Ruth Lois Butz to Mr. James Mulholland, postmaster of the Delmar Post Office. She doesn't believe this branch of the Federal Postal Service is doing their job. I would be more than happy to print a reply to this letter if the post office has an explanation of the events which follow.

Dear Mr. Mulholland,
The necessity for this correspondence is due to an aggravatingly unexcusable problem with the Delmar branch of the U.S. Postal Service, which has encompassed a time span of exactly eleven days to date. I am, therefore, writing you in an attempt to alleviate this current and continuing problem.

On Tuesday, 10/1/74, I went to the post office and filled out a "stop delivery" card in preparation for a family trip. The instructions which I filled in were for mail to be stopped as of 10/3 and resumed on 10/7, but was informed by the postal clerk that the mail would be held at the post office until I returned and filled in a "resume delivery" card.

Sunday, 10/6, I was very surprised to return from the trip and find an exceedingly large amount of mail on our kitchen counter. The neighborhood girl, who was hired to feed and walk the dog, had brought it in from our mailbox daily while we were gone.

Monday, 10/7, we received mail and I made a mental note that it arrived around lunchtime which is unusual, and I noticed that the mailman was not our regular man.

Tuesday, 10/8, sometime between 8-8:30 A.M. the doorbell rang and I heard the mailbox lid bang shut. Since I was in the bedroom upstairs getting dressed, I looked out the window in time to see a mailman jumping into his postal jeep and drive off. This was a special delivery of a legal document. At that time it crossed my mind that it was a curious thing that if I had a "hold delivery" card in effect, then technically there should not have been delivery of the legal document. In conjunction with that question is the matter of whether a special delivery can be just placed in the mailbox or must be handed to the occupant.

Tuesday, 10/8, there was no mail delivered to our house, which is curious because of the fact that we always receive some "junk" mail, but on rare occasions we do have a mail-less day.

Not bad for a guy who pushes pencils all week.

I did it myself, and it was a snap. First I talked with my Armstrong retailer. He gave me tips on installation, tools, and helped me choose the right ceiling for my room. He even gave me a "how to" booklet. Then, in much less time than I thought it would take . . . done! Suddenly my living room is new again . . . and the ceiling ties everything together—beautifully!

Now you can say . . .

Wednesday, 10/9, there was no mail delivered, and at this point I wondered if the "hold delivery" card had been finally found and was in effect since I had not filled out a "resume delivery" card due to the fact that we were receiving mail all during our trip and afterwards. Therefore, I made a trip to the Post Office to make inquiries. Much to my surprise I was informed by the postal clerk that there was not any notification of "hold mail" at our regular route man's station, and no mail in the hold box for us. I was going to make out a "resume delivery" card but was instructed not to do so since the "hold" card was not anywhere to be found.

Thursday, 10/10, we again received no mail, which is most unusual in light of the fact that we weekly receive the T.V. Guide as well as the local Spotlight newspaper, sometimes on Wednesday, but most certainly on Thursdays. Upon checking with my neighbor, she showed me some of the junk advertisement which she received in the last several days which is what I would have received also if my mail had been delivered.

In an attempt to resolve this problem which your department seems to have created, I would like an immediate response outlining the reasons for each of the above listed problems as I have listed, as well as official instructions for acquiring the mail which was NOT delivered on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Since I have this opportunity to share some of my grievances concerning the local post office, I shall mention some other examples of poor departmental management which have occurred in the three years our family has lived in Delmar.

Only three and a half weeks ago I had to purchase stamps at the post office during a rush time (5:30 P.M.) and found myself in a line of eight persons at the only open window. The person at the head of the line was asking for their mail which was held over a vacation trip. The postal worker, who is elderly and rotund, sauntered at an exceedingly slow pace toward the rear of the building. Everyone was impatient, and I checked my watch for time since I was in a hurry also. I would like to report that from the time I looked at my watch until his return was precisely 5-1/2 minutes, during which three of the eight people in line became disgusted and left without being served.

In connection with the slowed down inefficiency above mentioned, I should like to also inquire about route deliveries. During the summer we had a girl postal employee deliver mail, and currently once a week we have a substitute, both of whom deliver mail rather consistently between 11 A.M. and 1 P.M. The regular route postal employee, when first on the route would deliver 1-2 P.M., but it has progressively become later and later. Most frequently about 3-4 P.M. I would like a response as to why the delivery by the regular man is so late?

Mr. Mulholland, if you make inquiries locally you will discover that I work part-time at a nearby Senior Citizen Center, and am therefore in favor of employment of the elderly. However, when the efficiency of a federal service, supported by my fellow taxpayers and myself, which is involved in the handling of my legal documents and paychecks is functioning ineffectually, I deem it necessary to report to the administration. To the best of my knowledge, I have tried to com-

The Bethlehem Public Library had a slide viewer which it could not use because a crucial piece was missing — lost in the shuffle over the years. A plea for help was sent to The Wilson Library Bulletin and the Bulletin published that plea. From the Santa Maria School District in sunny California came a reply and the missing part. Isn't it wonderful to have been given what was so desperately needed? Thank you, Robert Hollo, District Librarian in Santa Maria, California!

The Little Princess to be Shown

A special treat is in store for local youngsters on Saturday, November 2nd. The Bethlehem Public Library has obtained the film THE LITTLE PRINCESS for a special showing. The film will be shown at 10 A.M. and 2 P.M. and runs for 144 minutes. There is no admission charge for the movie and everyone is invited.

The movie THE LITTLE PRINCESS is based on a book by the same title written by Frances Hodgson Burnett. The book is something of a classic in children's literature. It contains a hero, a villainess, a princess in disguise, a mysterious benefactor, magic, many adventures, and a happy ending. The movie is interesting, funny, sad, exciting and wonderful. Don't miss this opportunity for your youngster to see it at the Bethlehem Public Library.

American Education Week

Bethlehem Central Middle School Principal Frederick Burdick has announced that the public is invited to visit the School on Wed., Thurs., and Fri., Oct. 30, 31 and Nov. 1, in observance of American Education Week.

Parents, and other persons in the community, may sit in on classes anytime between 8:30 a.m. and 2:20 p.m. on those three days. Persons who plan to do so are asked to call the Main Office in advance, so that seating arrangements can be made.

Middle School pupils will be in the school foyer to greet visitors and direct them to classrooms.

This year's theme for American Education Week is "Staying Involved" — a natural follow-up to last year's theme which was "Getting Involved."

P.E. Teacher Completes Term

Miss Nancy Smith, a physical education teacher at the Bethlehem Central Middle School, has just completed a term as recording secretary of the Capital Zone of the New York State Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Appreciation Expressed — State Senator Walter B. Langley, left, recently accepted the 1974 Merit Award from the Albany County Council on Alcoholism. Rev. Peter Young, Council Chairman, cited Senator Langley's many efforts to obtain better treatment for alcoholics.

SPOTLIGHT INVITATION

We would like YOU to take a more active part in future issues! . . . On the agenda are many plans for special features, ideas and topics which we hope will be of interest to our readers in the broad community that the SPOTLIGHT covers.

But we'd like to hear from YOU.

Don't you have a PET PEEVE — a humorous anecdote — a light-hearted story of local interest to share with us?

(Please keep your contributions PLEASANT and not TOO LENGTHY!)

SPOTLIGHT would also like to invite interested readers to submit GUEST EDITORIALS!

We'll be waiting to hear from you.

Won't you R.S.V.P. today?

Senior Citizens...

Free Payment Orders, NOW from the ME Bank.

Now, free to senior citizens (Over 62) — or anyone on Social Security — you can get all the payment orders you need for buying things and paying bills. No minimum deposit. No minimum balance. No monthly service charge.

We suggest you bring your Social Security check to any ME Bank office and open a non-interest bearing "Pay Now" account. (In due time the Treasury Department expects to make it possible for you to have your Social Security check mailed directly to the ME Bank.) Also, for additional security, open a companion "Save Now" account, currently earning 5 1/2% interest compounded daily. With both "Pay Now" and "Save Now" accounts the ME Bank will send you monthly statements so you'll have complete records. Stop in at any of our seven offices. NOW!

There will be a fee of $3.00 for any item returned for insufficient or uncollected funds, and $2.00 fee for any stop payment request. No overdraft shall be permitted.

To the Editor:

Thanks to the many donors who came to the Tri-Village Bloodmobile last week about 105 pints were drawn.

The Red Cross also wishes to thank the Presbyterian Church for use of their rooms and especially the women of the church who recruited donors and provided cookies & worked so willingly on Sept. 19.

We are grateful to many others who called donors & worked on the day of the visit.

Sincerely,
 Dorothy C. McColl

Any football team that reaches late October, unbeaten, untied and unscored upon is a great team. But when an unbeaten, untied and unscored upon team has held its opponents' scores to zero while piling up 145 points for itself, that team is a football giant.

That's exactly what Bethlehem's "Pop" Warner Midget team is — a Giant with a capital "G". Bethlehem's Midgets have defeated Rotterdam 20-0, Ravena 25-0, Brunswick 40-0, Rensselaer 28-0, and Water-vliet 32-0. Still to go are Twins Towns and Glens Falls.

The Midget coaches are Bud Nevens, Lee Maxwell and Al Sanchez.

Bethlehem's Junior Midgets, made up of boys playing organized football for the first time, have done a creditable job winning 3 while losing 2. They have defeated Coxsackie 19-0, Troy 37-0, and Guilderland 31-12 while losing to Colonie 13-12 and Albany 12-0.

Inflation hasn't changed the price of ashes.

But it has changed the price of your home: For example, if you bought a $20,000 home in 1968—today it's worth about $27,000. Don't be left with a costly pile of ashes. See me about a State Farm Homeowners Policy that will cover your home for all it's worth... and keep it that way with automatic Inflation Coverage.

HALLOWEEN SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

Supervisor Bertram E. Kohinke announces that the Youth Bureau of the Bethlehem Police Department, under the direction of Sgt. Leo E. Dorsey and assisted by Thomas Kulikowski, Manager of McDonald's in Elsmere, will be sponsoring a Halloween Safety Poster contest through October 25. All pre-kindergarten through fifth grade children in the Town of Bethlehem are eligible and are urged to take part in this Safety Poster contest.

Mr. Kohinke states that the posters which are entered in the contest will be on display throughout the Town and also in McDonald's restaurant. Judging will take place on Sunday, October 27, at 2:00 P.M. at McDonald's in Elsmere. The entrees will be judged for each grade level separately and decisions will be based on neatness and best illustration of subject matter, "Halloween Safety."

Each child entering a poster will receive a special gift when poster is entered at McDonald's restaurant.

Rules for Poster Contest

1. Child must live within the Town of Bethlehem.
2. Child must be in pre-kindergarten through fifth grade.
3. All posters must be taken to McDonald's Restaurant at 132 Delaware Avenue, Elsmere, N.Y.
4. Drawings must be on poster paper size 12 x 18, or larger if needed.

THROUGH THE EFFORTS of the Tawasentha, Mohawk and Gansevoort chapters of the DAR, displays and materials were set up at several locations for Constitution Week, September 17-23. This bulletin board was at the Bethlehem Public Library. Over 200 copies of the Constitution were distributed to the public.

On Friday, October 11, Howard C. Nolan, Jr., Democratic candidate for State Senator, 42nd Senatorial District, spoke to the combined primary team classes of Mrs. Evonne Lutkus and Mrs. Penelope Heath at the Slingerlands Grade School. Mr. Nolan addressed the class, which is currently studying Government, about the qualifications and duties of a State Senator, and various aspects of campaigning for public office. Then the children asked their questions. After shaking hands all around, Mr. Nolan invited the children to visit the State Senate while it was in session, promising a personally guided tour if he were elected.
