IN THE MAILBAG

Dear Editor,

I would like to make a public acknowledgement of thanks to the men of the Selkirk Vol. Fire Co. No. 2, in Glenmont for the luscious dinner they served to the Ladies Aux.

Let us tell you men, you really did yourself proud.

The menu included, steak, which was very tender, they came around taking your order just the way you like it and besides this, they braved the cold, to cook it outside on the barbecue. The rest of the menu included, "Luscious bowls of tossed salad, pretty as a picture, shoe string french fries, piping hot, peas and carrots, hard rolls, coke, beer, vine and coffee. To top it off, they had 4 kinds of pie, with ice cream.

If your looking for chefs and waitors, you will know where to turn.

They were the nicest bunch of guys and I think they really got a kick out of serving the women.

Thanks again to our wonderful men of Selkirk Fire Co. No. 2.

nearly 3,400 McDonald's restaurant's throughout the world, celebrates its 20th birthday. In honor of the occasion, an estimated 30 million regular hamburgers will be served on Sunday, April 20th, at their original price — 15 cents ea.

"We want our customers to enjoy a regular McDonald's hamburger for a nostalgic price — only 15 cents plus tax," Mr. Kulikowski continued, adding that the orders would be limited to reasonable quantities. All other menu items will also be available at regular prices during the birthday celebration. During the week of the celebration, Monday the 14th to Saturday the 19th, Mr. Kulikowski said that there will be surprises for the children. Mr. Kulikowski also said that the McDonald's in the United States expect to sell about 30 million hamburgers during the celebration on April 20th.

"We want to thank the people of America for their tremendous support," explained Tom Kulikowski, manager of the McDonald's of Delmar. "And I want to thank the people of Bethlehem for their increasing patronage since we opened here 5 years ago. It's our birthday, but it's our customer's party."
