Pocket Bank

IT'S YOUR OWN PERSONAL LINE OF CREDIT.

- You can write yourself a loan — as easily as you write a check. Anywhere, anytime!
- It means no running to the bank when you want a small loan.

- It means not missing out on some special item on sale at a store that doesn't accept charge cards.
- It means your check won't bounce because of an oversight, or a deposit delayed in the mail.
- You can apply for your PocketBank line of credit from $500 to $5,000 depending on your circumstances.
- If you then write a regular check, a loan will only be created (in $100 multiples) if you overdraw your account. On the other hand, if you wish to leave your balance intact — then you write a special PocketBank loan check, and give yourself a loan in the exact amount you want!

PocketBank costs nothing until you use it! You only apply once, and the application is FREE and Easy — which is just the way you'll feel.

It's like having State Bank in your pocket!

KEEP PROVEN ABILITY AND EXPERIENCE IN GOVERNMENT

We appreciate your support and solicit your vote

SUPERVISOR

Harry H. Sheaffer seeks his first election as Supervisor of the Town of Bethlehem. Since January 1, 1975, Mr. Sheaffer has been serving as Town Supervisor and, in this capacity, has ably demonstrated his ability as an administrator. Previous to his appointment as Town Supervisor, Mr. Sheaffer served for 13 years as Town Comptroller. During those years as Comptroller, he exhibited his talents in all phases of Town Government.

He is a member of the Delmar Rotary Club, Bethlehem Historical Society and Bethlehem Men's Republican Club.

Mr. Sheaffer and his wife, Betty, have lived at 496 Stratton Place, Delmar for 15 years and are the parents of one married son.

Having been a part of Good Government in Action for many years, Harry Sheaffer is aware of the many on-going programs and future needs of a growing community and has earned the confidence of his co-workers. He deserves your support on Election Day, November 4th.

COUNCILMAN

William Johnston, Jr. has served Town Government for many years. He has been a member of the Town Board for the past five years. Prior to that he served as Chairman of the Board of Appeals. Mr. Johnston is an active member of the Town's Council for the Conservation of the Environment, also the Tree Planting Committee, and Chairman of the Parks Committee.

Mr. Johnston is a life-long resident of our Town and is active in community and civic affairs. He is a Veteran of World War II.

Mr. Johnston recently received the Civic Service Award from Albany Business College, awarded only to those graduates with outstanding accomplishment.

Mr. Johnston resides with his wife, Alice, at 73 Darroch Road, Delmar, N.Y. He believes that today "Government is big business and we need more good businessmen in Government."

COUNCILMAN

Mrs. Ruth O. Bickel, a lifelong resident of Slingerlands, is the first woman to serve on the Town Board, having been appointed to fill a vacancy.

Mrs. Bickel is a graduate of Bethlehem Central High School and Mildred Elley Secretarial School and attended the evening division of Siena College.

She was employed by the New York Telephone Company for fourteen years where she was active in handling personnel matters and management training schools for engineers.

Long active in community affairs, Mrs. Bickel is currently Chairman of the Bethlehem Bicentennial Committee.

She has contributed greatly to the Town as a member of the Town Board and fully warrants your support on Election Day.

COUNTY LEGISLATOR (DIST. 34)

Earl J. Robinson is seeking re-election to a third term as Albany County Legislator. He is a 22 year resident of the Town of Bethlehem, with 27 years of service as District Manager of a large East Coast Building Materials Corp. Now semi-retired, he will be able to devote the additional time that will be required by the Legislature under the new Charter. He is a member of the powerful Audit and Control Committee, the Personnel and Civil Service Committees, and has also served on the County Buildings and Taxation Committees. He is a past President and past Lt. Governor of the New York District of Kiwanis International, and a member of the Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce and Chairman of its Town Affairs Committee.

Earl takes a businessman's approach to a multi-million dollar business — the Government of Albany County.

At noon on Thursday, October 30th, the Bethlehem Public Library will sponsor a free film and discussion in conjunction with the American Issues Forum. Bring your lunch, and the Library will provide coffee.

The American Issues Forum is a national program for the Bicentennial year to explore some of the issues that are fundamental to our American society. Bethlehem Republicans Refuse Open Debates Bethlehem Republicans have been ordered this year to refuse appearances at traditional open forums held by the League of Women Voters, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Channel 17.

Supervisor Harry Sheaffer's explanation: "And I have refused to meet head-on with my opponent because I don't feel it would do any good for the incumbent to be involved in a debate."

The Republicans may think their refusal is "smart politics." We disagree — and so do the people of Bethlehem!

Inflation hasn't changed the price of ashes.

But it has changed the price of your home. For example, if you bought a $20,000 home in 1968—today it's worth about $27,000. Don't be left with a costly pile of ashes. See me about a State Farm Homeowners Policy that will cover your home for all it's worth . . . and keep it that way with automatic Inflation Coverage.

VIRGINIA LYNCH HAS DONE IT AGAIN! Ribbon cutting for the glittering opening of her "finest feminine fashion" boutique at 230 Delaware Ave., Delmar was by Town Supervisor Harry Sheaffer, assisted by William Bennett, President of the Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce, and Harold Geurtze, owner and remodeler of the building, formerly offices of Butler & Brown, Inc.

Our exciting visit to the store just before the opening found crystal and plush carpets, contemporary and traditional paintings, tiger rug, champagne, brilliant chandelier, silver striped wallpaper, chrome and glass, color in profusion — flowers, flowers, painters, stepladders, carpet installers, all under the excited and watchful eye of Virginia Lynch herself — "Harold Geurtze has been just wonderful" she exclaimed. And the store is wonderful.

Her enthusiasm is based solidly on extensive experience in fashion merchandising, most recently as buyer for 11 Gimbel stores. From New York she came last year to take over operation of her Downtown Albany boutique at 40 Maiden Lane, where she established an immediate following with her truly elegant clothing. The two stores now complement each other, both running the gamut from gift boutiques to lingerie, dresses, coats, suits, and the "most fantastic, finest, and best selection of gowns anywhere." "If you're looking for Givenchy, Dior, Vera Maxwell, ultrasuede, furs, beautiful design and fabrics, careful alterations, and expert personal attention, try Delmar's newest — Virginia Lynch.

WAKE UP NEW SCOTLAND

Aren't You Fed Up Yet? Your Town Board's MASTER PLAN!

1. UNDERASSESS OUR FRIENDS, OVERASSESS EVERYONE ELSE.
If anyone complains, tell them: "We're in the process of updating assessments."
2. RAISE MORE TAXES THAN WE HAVE TO.
Tell the public that it's "for the taxpayer's benefit."
3. INCREASE ASSESSMENTS ON "SELECTED" PROPERTY OWNERS.
We can get more total tax money this way, and can still tell the public we reduced the tax rate by 18 cents a thousand, and haven't raised taxes again.
4. IGNORE THE DROP IN THE EQUALIZATION RATE EACH YEAR CAUSED BY TOO MANY LOW ASSESSMENTS AND WHICH RESULTS IN LESS AND LESS SALES TAX FROM THE COUNTY.
"The public won't even know about it."
5. OVERLOOK THE TREMENDOUS IMPACT THE EQUALIZATION RATE DECLINE HAS HAD ON SCHOOL TAXES FOR TOWN RESIDENTS IN SLINGERLANDS, UNIONVILLE, FEURA BUSH AND CLARKSVILLE. DUE TO MISMANAGED ASSESSMENTS EVERY PROPERTY OWNER IN THIS PART OF TOWN HAS PAID ABOUT $45.00 PER THOUSAND PER YEAR IN INCREASED SCHOOL TAXES FOR THE LAST 5 YEARS (WHICH COULD HAVE BEEN AVOIDED).
Let the public be damned — they'll blame the school district — not us.
6. VERY IMPORTANT — DON'T FORGET TO RAISE THE SALARIES OF ALL TOWN OFFICIALS AT LEAST 10%.
We've got plenty of extra tax money — let's use it.
7. PREPARE ANNUAL BUDGET SECRETLY, THEN OFFICIALLY ADOPT IT EACH YEAR AT OUR VICTORY CELEBRATION ON DAY AFTER ELECTION.
The Democrats won't want to show up, and the public won't know anything about it. If anyone asks a question, tell them: "We don't have the figures available yet."
8. EVERY CHANCE YOU HAVE TELL THE PUBLIC ABOUT OUR WONDERFUL TOWN PARK WHICH WE'VE BEEN "PLANNING" FOR 20 YEARS.
Nobody will remember that it was the Democrats who pushed us into finally doing something on this.
9. TELL THE VOTERS "WE HAVEN'T RAISED TAXES" THEY LOVE TO HEAR IT. SO WHAT IF WE RAISED OVER $150,000 MORE THAN WE NEEDED LAST YEAR.
We can confuse them so much, nobody will understand it.
10. DO NOTHING!
Self-explanatory! We have a 3 to 1 Republican majority in this Town and will get elected anyway.

Meditation, as taught by Maharishi Mahesh Yogi. Nancy is well known throughout the tri-village area for her starring roles in both community and summer stock theater productions such as Slingerlands Players' "Oklahoma" and "A Cry of Players," and Mac-Hayden's "Hello Dolly" and "Naughty Marietta."

Nancy speaks of Transcendental Meditation as a simple, natural technique which quickly establishes a physiological state of extremely deep rest. The TM technique is practiced for 15-20 minutes twice daily while sitting comfortably with eyes closed.

Studies indicate a wide range of benefits, including improved health and better relationships with others, increased learning ability, and reduced anxiety and depression.

Nancy invites all who would like to hear more about the Transcendental Meditation Program to call the Albany TM Center at 459-5550 and ask about free lectures in your area.

YOUR CHILD AND THE BABY-SITTER

Parents are naturally concerned when leaving a child in the care of others, and sometimes there is reason to be. A few simple rules can increase competency and family security. You should have an agreement with your baby-sitter on the following points:

1. Rules as to what children may or may not do, use of radio, T.V., studying, time for bed, etc.
2. Company for the sitter should be agreed upon or forbidden.
3. Where and how to contact parents, doctor or the police.

Police are usually the quickest to respond and should be called FIRST if conditions so indicate.

GETTING THE INDOOR-OUTDOOR FEELING

By Joy Miller

If you're sorry summer's over, some clever decorating hints can help keep a summer-like atmosphere in your life all winter long, no matter where you live.

Armstrong interior designers put their heads together to dig up some special outdoor feelings for an "indoor world."

Forgotten for a while, but back on the indoor-fashion scene now is wicker—new and hand-me-down—popular in either natural or painted form.

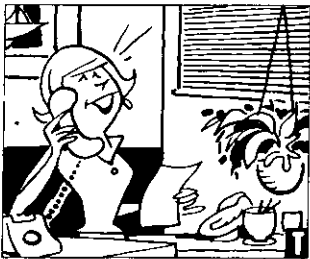

Bamboo shades, wood strips that create lacy trellis partitions, and plants, all add light, airy touches to a room.

Colors with summer in mind are available in moderately-priced, luxurious new carpet offerings:

"Sea Mist Green" and "Sunny Yellow" are found in Natural Touch—a new textured plush. A sculptured shag called Juno comes in "Seashell White" that brings back memories of sandy shores. Two new low profile shags (Magellan and Majority) have "Cantaloupe" and "Marigold" to their summer-color credits.

Use your imagination in accessories. Shells you picked up on the beach in July

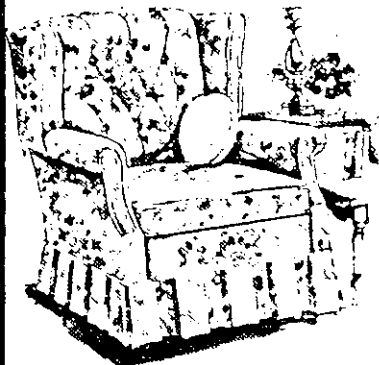

... wildflowers you gathered in August and carefully dried ... smooth-textured pebbles from that mountain stream ... are marvellous decorating items.

Don't forget the greenery—on table-tops ... bookshelves ... hanging from ceiling beams ... on the floor. Wherever used, plants give any room a breath of spring—the "air" of summer.

A room is a sensitive thing. If you're an outdoors lover, it'll show in your selection of homefurnishings as you bring the outdoors into your "indoor world."

Make it a "fun" winter project!

Personality Quiz

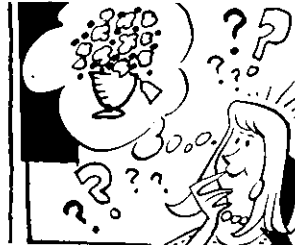

ARE YOU TOO PUSHY?

It may be quite true that the better part of success is aggression, but there are limits to everything. Getting what you want is one thing but being too pushy about it is another. Does getting your own way get in the way of other people's fondness for you? Why not take this quiz and find out?

1. If you enter a busy store with very little time on your hands, do you (A) Wait your turn in line and risk being late to your next appointment, getting more and more annoyed by the minute (B) Push ahead of others, making your time limits known—loudly (C) Decide to come back some other time when the store is less crowded or you have more time?

2. If you're waiting in line for gasoline at a favorite service station where you've done a lot of business do you (A) Wait your turn like everybody else (B) Honk your horn to get the attendant's attention, assuming since he knows you and your business he'll wait on you immediately (C) Go to a less crowded station if you're really in a great hurry?

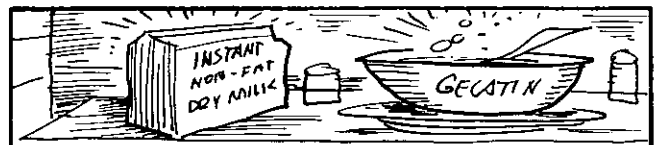

3. If a loved one dies and it's up to you to make funeral arrangements, would you specify (A) That no flowers should be sent (B) That contributions should be made (C) That people should do whatever they think is appropriate?

4. If you send out for dark coffee and it arrives light, do you (A) Accept it the way it is (B) Shout at the delivery boy (C) Calmly ask the boy to go back and bring the kind of coffee you ordered?

Answers (upside down)

1. (C) There's no point in getting annoyed, and pushing ahead may deprive some other busy shopper of his or her place. 2. (C) If you're really in a rush, just go to another station. Honking your horn is bad manners. 3. (C) It's much nicer to let mourners express condolences in any way they see fit. 4. (C) There's a difference between getting what you ordered and being pushy and obnoxious. If the right kind of coffee means that much to you politely ask the delivery boy to change the order.

Instant nonfat dry milk can be sprinkled over partially set gelatin and the mixture whipped into stiff peaks.

Your weather bureau can warn you sooner about approaching storms because it gets long-range information from the UN's weather bureau.

The UN helped discover over $20 billion worth of natural resources. To keep you supplied with things like aluminum, wood, and paper products.

The UN lends money to developing countries. And developing countries buy U.S. equipment and supplies. Which creates more American jobs.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

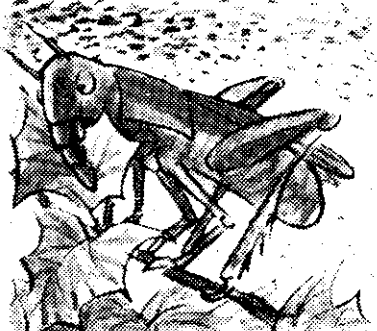

UN population programs will help keep this planet from becoming too crowded to support your great-grandchildren.

Your flight from one country can land safely in any other country because the UN made English the official language for all pilots and control towers.

You may never need another vaccination for smallpox. Because the UN has just about wiped it out all over the world.

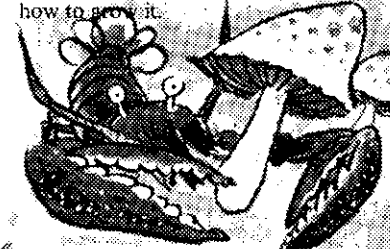

When swarms of desert locusts killed the crops, the UN spent $4 million to kill the locusts. And saved food worth billions.

Most of our oxygen comes from tiny plants in the oceans. The UN helps keep them, and us, alive by monitoring pollution in all the oceans.

Undernourished children around the world will have healthier diets because the UN helped develop high protein grain. Now the UN is teaching farmers how to grow it.

The imported food you eat is safer than ever because the UN sets international food purity standards.

In the 30 short years of its existence the UN has tackled problems that have gone unchecked since man first started abusing his environment... and his neighbors.

Now, the UN is beginning to get results. And they give us a basis for hope:

If the nations of the world can act together against starvation and disease... it's not so far-fetched to think they can act together to save us all from wars.

Get the whole story. Send for the free booklet: "The 'You' in the UN."
