Come to The Bank and make a friend for life.

We'd like you to meet Buckey.

He's cuddly. He's huggable. He's absolutely loveable. He's the perfect pal for children of all ages. Buckey is New York State's official animal, a beaver, designed exclusively for The Bank by renowned toy makers, Harrison/Ericksen.

The little ones love him just for what he is — a fun and furry playmate they'll want to take everywhere. The parents love him because he's durable, surface washable and completely safe — made from non-toxic, fire-retardant materials.

Buckey can be yours for FREE.

He's not for sale in stores anywhere.

But you can take him home for free when you deposit —

- $300 or more in a new or existing Passbook Savings Account
- $300 or more in a new or existing Key Saver Savings Account
- $300 or more in a new or existing Bank Book Savings Account
- $300 or more for a Bank Book Plus Savings Certificate
- $300 or more for a 4-year Investment Certificate
- $10,000 for a Money Market Certificate
- $500 or more to open a new NOW Account

Come in today and go home with this warm and wonderful armful of joy. Your little one will have a friend for life in Buckey — and you'll have a friend for life in The Bank.

BETHLEHEM

Democrats call for public forum on issues

Bethlehem Democratic leader Kenelm R. Thacher has identified five major campaign issues for the municipal elections in November, and has declared a need for "regional debates" in four sections of the town.

In a press statement over the weekend, Thacher charged that Bethlehem's entrenched Republican administrations over the years "have not been on the level" with townspeople. The text of the statement indicated Thacher, who heads his party's local ticket as its candidate for supervisor, will concentrate on the Peter Fish police issue, the town's water supply, establishment of a youth bureau, zoning and fiscal management as the prime issues in the current campaign.

In his statement, Thacher said the administration:

- Was "less than candid in handling the difficulties within the police department."

- "Misled" townspeople on questions of water supply and pressure during the 1977 local election.

- Had state approval of plans to establish a youth bureau, but "still has not set one up."

- Talked about setting up an architectural review board, but has taken no action.

- Claims it is "fiscally conservative but town budgets have gone up an average of 30 percent over the last 10 years."

Thacher declared that "commercial zoning regulations for years have cried out for revisions . . . Just look what has happened to Delaware Ave. under Republican control of this town."

Thacher questioned the operations of the police department ID program, which he termed well-intentioned. "One wonders if a youth bureau, operating with the schools and police department, could have detected and developed programs to combat the problems of youth and alcohol," he said.

Thacher stated that "it would be very positive if some organization would set up regional debates in Elsmere, Delmar, Slingerlands-North Bethlehem and Glenmont-Selkirk."

Supervisor Tom Corrigan, Thacher's Republican opponent, said he would be "delighted to debate any time, any place."

Named Merit scholars

Five students from Bethlehem Central High School and one from Voorheesville High School are among 20 secondary school students from Albany County named as semifinalists in the 25th National Merit Scholarship competition. Winners include David H. Brickman, Lior Evan, Robert K. Heineman, Jim H. Peak and Susan P. Steinberg of Bethlehem and Suzanne P. Johnson of Voorheesville. There were four semifinalists from Shaker High School, Latham, three from Guilderland Central High School, three from Albany High School, and one from Academy of the Holy Names, The Albany Academy, Colonie Central High School and Mercy High School, Albany.

BETHLEHEM

Primary turnout a boost for GOP

Bethlehem's first primary election in more than a decade, involving Republican and Conservative party voters, has buoyed campaign hopes for GOP leaders.

Candidates and committeemen were cautious in their optimism, but sideline observers pointed out these plus-factors in last Tuesday's balloting:

- A turnout of 2,200 Republican voters indicated substantial political interest in the local elections and support on Nov. 6.

- Peter Wenger's victory over challenger Harry Rezzimini in the contest for town justice was interpreted as a solid endorsement of the incumbent GOP administration and town chairman Bernard Kaplowitz' sealed-ballot policy in committee voting on selection of candidates.

- Wenger's win by a 2-1 margin at the polls last Tuesday bolstered Republican hopes in the upcoming contest with Michael Breslin, considered the strongest candidate on the Democratic ticket.

- All seven GOP candidates for town offices and of Bethlehem's three Republican candidates for the Albany County Legislature won designation on the Conservative Party line on the November ballot.

- The Conservative campaign provided much of the behind-the-scene excitement in the three weeks leading up to last week's primary. Bethlehem's approximately 40 registered Conservative Party members were courted vigorously--and in some cases overly so--by both Republican and Democrats. The Republicans worked hard to persuade Conservatives to write-in the names of GOP candidates instead of marking the box for the Democratic candidate endorsed by the county committee, while the Democrats campaigned to keep the Conservatives "in line"

Bethlehem Lions are getting ready for their annual fund-raiser, the light bulb sale, set for the weekends of Sept. 29-30 and Oct. 6-7. The drive is spearheaded by John Thompson, left, first vice president; Maynard Goyer, past president, and Richard Clark, president.

- The results: 32 Conservatives went to the polls, a turnout exceeding 75 percent. The most significant result was Wenger winning the ballot line, 18-14, over Breslin. The lone Democrat victor in the Conservative confrontation was John Terence Mitchell of Delmar, an Albany attorney whose name will be on the Conservative line rather than that of Sue Ann Ritchko, Republican candidate for the county Legislature seat from the 34th district in Delmar.

- W. Gordon Morris and Edward Sargent, Elsmere Republicans running for reelection to the county Legislature, won Conservative designation, Morris by a total of 4 to 3.

In the Republican primary, Wenger polled 1,472 to 748 for Rezzimini.

Meanest thief

Mrs. Bea Alger, widely known as "Aunt Bea" to several generations at Sunny Acres Day Camp, is offering a "substantial" reward for the return of a stuffed owl believed to have been stolen while she was hosting the annual St. Thomas Church parish picnic on Sept. 9.

The owl has small monetary value but, according to Aunt Bea, priceless sentimental value. The reward will be given for the return or for information leading to recovery. Call Aunt Bea at 439-2464.

Field hockey starts

Eight returning starters and a veteran forward line gives Bethlehem Central's field hockey team prospects for a productive season. Mary Howell (7 goals) and Mary Cannizzaro (4) goals are back from last year's second-place team, along with Shelly Richter, Janet Van Woert, and Chris Pizzitola on the front line. The defense is led by Betsy Downes, halfback, and Grace Higgins, goalie. The girls opened their season on Tuesday at Burnt Hills. They play Scotia at home today and Shaker at home Tuesday.

A freak gust during Friday afternoon's wind and rainstorm uprooted a 60-foot maple at 108 Salisbury Rd., Elsmere. H. Neil Smith said the tree brushed against his house as it crashed, but miraculously did no damage, although it fell against a window at the rear of the dwelling. Not even a stone of the garden wall beneath the trunk, center foreground, was disturbed. (Spotlight)

Driver cited in crash

Barbara Healy, 34, of 85 Union Ave., Slingerlands, was ticketed for ignoring a stop sign after her car collided with a truck-tractor on Cherry Ave., Delmar, Monday. Bethlehem police said Mrs. Healy ran the stop sign driving east on Orchard St., bounced off the tractor unit and struck the front porch of a residence at 29 Orchard St. Police said the car, running in reverse gear, then backed in a semi-circle through the intersection and came to rest facing south against a tree at 18 Cherry Ave. Police said they had not determined how the car got into reverse gear. Mrs. Healy suffered minor cuts, bruises and was treated for shock.

'Fun Run' set as Lung Benefit

T-shirts, headbands and a few gift certificates to the Courtside Tennis Shop will be the only awards in a 'Fun Run' planned for Delmar on Saturday, Sept. 29, starting at 10. There will be two-member relay teams for two males, two females and "mixed doubles" over distances of six, four and a half and three miles, each partner running half the distance. There will also be events for singles and walkers.

The races will start at Bethlehem Central High School and will wind up at Elm Ave. Park, Delmar, for a community cookout with hibachis provided.

A number of local merchants are listed as sponsors along with the Bethlehem Parks and Recreation Dept. in conjunction with the National Jogging Assn. and the President's Council on Physical Fitness. Local sponsors include Courtside Tennis and Sportshoes, Delmar Printers, National Savings Bank, The Paper Mill, Roberts Real Estate and Vogel Wall-coverings.

Entry fees will benefit the American Lung Assn. The event is billed as "walk, jog or run as a warmup for National Jogging Day" on Oct. 13. Ray Williams is race director, assisted by Katy Williams, Hugh Tuohy, Chuck and Sharon Nelson, Bob and Helen Salamone, Phil Maher and Mike Medvesky.

Team doctor needed

Bethlehem Central football teams are in need of a physician who would attend home games on Friday afternoons, Saturday mornings or Saturday afternoons. League rules require the attendance of a doctor.

Anyone interested should contact Ray Sliter, athletic director, at 439-4921, for specific dates and rate of reimbursement.

Fence appeal denied

The Bethlehem board of appeals has denied an application for a variance requested by Dr. and Mrs. Charles Doudney, 80 Parkwyn Dr., Delmar, to maintain a six-foot high fence. A public hearing was held on July 25.

TREE CARE TIME

September, October, November

Timely and proper maintenance can prolong the life of important trees and minimize the chance of major tree problems later.

UNITED's annual tree inspection during September, October, and November determines the condition of trees and our recommended treatment.

Tree feeding is most important NOW. Many trees have depleted the food elements essential for healthy growth. Fertilizing now, helps restore the food elements essential for their healthy growth again next spring.

Tree pruning is very important NOW. Many trees have an accumulation of dead or dying branches that offer winter shelter for harmful insects and some tree diseases. Important trees need to be pruned for SAFETY as well as SANITATION purposes.

Tree cabling and bracing for protection, preservation and safety. Many important and valuable old trees have weak crotches and large overhanging limbs that need the mechanical support of cables and braces to help prevent damage beyond repair now and in the future.

Be sure your trees have the timely care they need now.

NEW SCOTLAND

Write-in buoys Republican hopes

An overwhelming response to the New Scotland Republican's 11th-hour appeal to voters for a write-in campaign in the Sept. 11 primary has given the party a major lift.

Party chairman Fred Edmunds had no comment on the lopsided "victory" scored by Voorheesville attorney Kenneth J. Connolly, candidate for town justice, over William E. Seymour, who quit the post on July 31 without warning, but other party leaders were enthused.

Of 348 voters—a remarkably high turnout for a primary that usually produces yawns from the electorate—298 wrote Connolly's name in the small box provided by the "Opportunity to Ballot" clause in the state Election Law. Unofficial totals had 44 ballots voided, mostly for misspelling Connolly's name or writing in the wrong place. There were only nine ballots for Seymour. Two ballots had other names written in.

"The response to our last-minute appeal to voters was really great," one town official said last week. "We have a hard campaign ahead of us, and this is a good sign."

Seymour's surprise resignation, one day after the deadline for placing names on the ballot and less than 48 hours before the deadline for petitions for a write-in box on the paper ballot, caused a hectic scramble among GOP workers in New Scotland to get Connolly's name on the November ballot in place of Seymour's. Party leaders theorized that if uninformed New Scotland voters marked their ballots for Seymour thinking they were doing their political duty, Seymour's name would be on the November GOP line. In such a situation, party leaders figured, all votes for Seymour, a non-candidate, would be wasted and the election would be "handed to the Democrats on a platter."

BETHLEHEM

Town plans sale of 6 properties

Addition of 40,000 square feet of floor space in the former Delmar Elementary School now being renovated as the new town hall has caused the town of Bethlehem to declare six of its buildings as surplus.

The town board is expected to authorize at its regular session next Wednesday the sale of the Bethlehem justice building at 118 Adams St., the Bethlehem Community Center at 125 Adams St., the town hall annex at 397 Delaware Ave., the water district garage on Hudson Ave., the rear section of the present town hall at 393 Delaware Ave. and an unoccupied structure on Jericho Rd. formerly used as a town garage.

A town hall source indicated the properties, with the exception of the section of the present town hall, would be offered via sealed bids. The six properties, along with a number of other town-owned buildings, were appraised earlier this year.

Supervisor Tom Corrigan said the rear portion of the present town hall, which fronts on Adams St., probably will be sold to the Delmar Fire Dept., which has requested the property to house its new ambulance.

All town offices in the present town hall and the annex next door will soon be moving to the new facility two blocks west. The police department and the justice court are scheduled to move to the new quarters sometime next week. Corrigan said the gym at the former school would be converted into an accommodation for the Senior Citizens organization, blood pressure clinics and other events now being held at the community center, often called the Bethlehem "coffeehouse."

Sale of the properties, which presumably will revert to the tax rolls, is expected to partially offset the $750,000 expenditure for the new town hall, Corrigan said, as well as relieve the town of the fiscal burden of heating and maintaining the buildings.

The radio antenna at the rear of the justice building now being used by the police department will be offered to any prospective purchaser of the building, Corrigan said, adding that if the tower offer is not accepted, it will be sold separately.

School picnic set

The Slingerlands Elementary School's annual family picnic will be held Friday, Sept. 28, from 5 p.m. until dark on the Slingerlands School grounds. Hot dogs, hamburgers and soda will be available for purchase. Families will be asked to bring salads and desserts. For information, call Mrs. Pat Matarrese, 439-9595.

Scout dens forming

Cub Scout Pack 258 is forming new dens at an open meeting for all boys and interested parents on Friday, Sept. 21, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Bethlehem Community Center, 125 Adams St., Delmar. The "Passport to Cub Scouting Adventure" program will be presented. Lee Landers, 5 Herber Ave., is cubmaster.

NEW SCOTLAND Race with train ends in a tie

A Slingerlands man who tried to beat a ConRail freight train to a grade crossing Tuesday got a trip to the hospital instead.

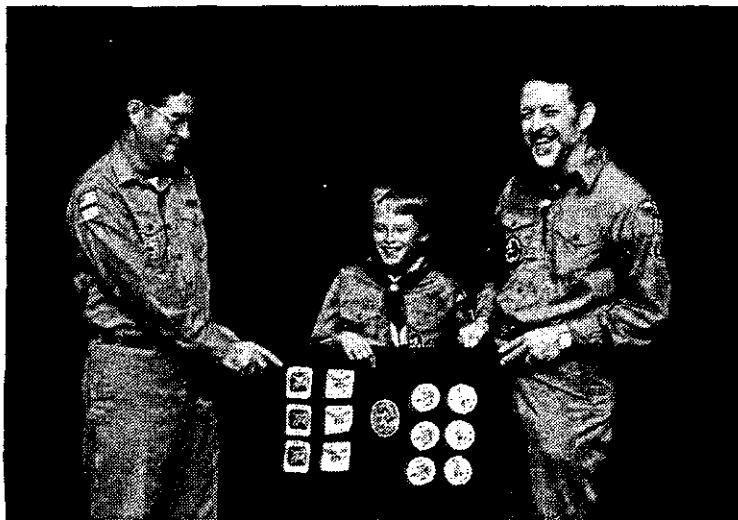

Sheriff's deputies on the Voorheesville patrol said Basil A. Boyea, 46, of Orchard Hill Rd., attempted to drive around the crossing gates on New Scotland South Rd. at 7:25 a.m. His van was struck by the locomotive of a westbound freight.

Deputies identified the engineer of the train as Michael Liptak, 33, of Valatie.

Boyea was taken by the Onesquethaw ambulance to St. Peter's Hospital, where he was reported in stable condition with lacerations and a possible fractured jaw as the Spotlight went to press. The sheriff's office said charges against Boyea are pending.

BUSINESS

Pharmacy sold in Voorheesville

Harvey Goldstein and Bill Candido, both longtime residents of Voorheesville, were classmates at Albany College of Pharmacy two decades ago.

After graduation, Goldstein worked at the drug store in the village, then bought it in 1962. Candido went to work as a pharmacist in large drug store chains, most recently at Rite-Aid in Guilderland and Fay's in Latham.

This month Goldstein sold the Voorheesville Pharmacy to Candido, and will stay on to help his friend and classmate for an undetermined time. The pharmacy, the only drug store in the village, has been in the small shopping center off Maple Ave. since 1971.

Goldstein said he had no specific plans for the immediate future, but indicated he probably would consider a new business career "after I've had some rest."

Goldstein and his wife, Joan, came to Voorheesville from East Greenbush 18 years ago. They have two children, Brian and Phyllis, and live at 3 Cedar Ct. Candido and his wife,

William Candido

Martha, have two daughters, Eileen, 12, and Karen, 5, and live at 23 Smith Lane. His grandfather and uncle operated Candido's Pharmacy at South Pearl St. and Madison Ave. in Albany for many years.

'69 class reunion

Bethlehem Central High School's class of 1969 will get together Oct. 20 at the Americana Inn, Colonie, for its 10th reunion. Reservation deadline is Sept. 21. Judy Languish, 439-0892, is handling reservations.

Forum is slated on child abuse

The social concerns committee of the First United Methodist Church, Delmar, is sponsoring a panel discussion on child abuse in Fellowship Hall, 440 Kenwood Ave., Sunday, Sept. 30 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. The public is invited.

Mrs. Wallace Lornell is chairman. Participants on the panel will be Nancy McPaul, a member of the Child Abuse/-Neglect Council; Helen Hayes, director of the Parent Aide program, and Sandy Costello of Parents Anonymous.

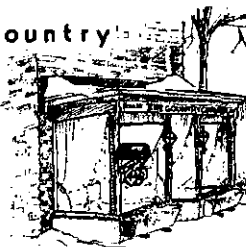

The program will discuss "abused situations," dynamics of families who abuse, and information on volunteer programs.

Child abuse is a prevalent, serious problem affecting children from all walks of life. Albany County last year had a 22 percent increase in cases, and expects a similar increase this year, with 250 children receiving intensive servicing.

Lincoln home tour

Five DAR chapters are sponsoring a bus tour to Hilldene, the Robert Todd Lincoln homestead in Manchester, Vt., as part of their observance of Constitution Week on Saturday, Sept. 22. The 416-acre estate and mansion of the son of President Lincoln was opened to the public this year for the first time. Gansevoort chapter, DAR, will host the tour, which is open to Hannacrois, Tawasentha, Mohawk and Old Helleburgh chapter members, their families and friends interested in historic sites. ### BC booters get early test

In a league where there are no soft touches, the pressure is on Bethlehem Central's varsity soccer team right from the start. The highly rated Eagles had Burnt Hills, defending champions and the conference favorite, in Delmar Tuesday, and entertain Mohonasen in a 3 p.m. game Friday, then next week it's Guilderland, Niskayuna and Shenendehowa, all on the road.

Mark Dean got BC off on the right foot in the inaugural at Scotia Saturday by denting the nets after taking a cross from junior right wing Dave Usher at 13:26 of the first period.

Ninety seconds later Scotia tied it, but within three minutes, Craig Nichols caught the Tartan goalie out of position and rifled a 35-yard cannonball into the upper right corner.

The Eagles made it 3-1 at 4:40 of the second period when Dean took a through pass from Usher, beat the fullback and connected on a 15-yard rocket just inside the near post. Scotia got a consolation tally deep into the fourth quarter, but it was not enough to prevent a 3-2 Bethlehem victory.

Coach Dale Walts said the second goal, coming back so quickly after Scotia had tied the game, "pleased me very much. That's a good sign."

He also liked the way Jay Guinn controlled the middle of the field, and Bill Duffy drew praise for a good job as a sweeper.

On the cover: It's football time again. Pop Warner teams have played two games, high school teams one apiece. Top left, Pat Davis, quarterback for the Pop Warner Junior Midgets, bootlegs for 8 yards around end in a 20-0 loss at Ballston Spa, but the PeeWees fared better as Corey Wiles (22) goes for 7 yards in a 31-0 victory at Burnt Hills. Top right, Greg Picard, Voorheesville quarterback, scores the Blackbirds' first 1979 TD. Lower right, Mike Frangella of Albany Academy goes high for a pass with blocking from Delmar's Dave Reed (25) in the Voorheesville opener. Photos by R.H. Davis

Fumble is fatal for Blackbirds

A controversial fumble on the opening kickoff that meant the difference between victory and defeat was the key factor in Voorheesville's 14-8 opening loss to Albany Academy.

The scrappy Blackbirds got their act together a little too late on their sun-splashed field before a large crowd Saturday, scoring with less than three minutes remaining and pulling off an on-side kick, but the clock did them in.

Academy, a big, well-drilled team that has lost only once in two years, got its big break in the first minute of play when Voorheesville bobbled the kickoff return on the Blackbirds' 25. The Cadets scored in seven plays, Dave Reed of Delmar going in.

"We feel the fumble was a questionable call," Voorheesville Coach Tom Buckley said later. "When the whistle blew, the ball was in no one's possession, and it should have been our ball. It was the key to the game."

It was a well-played game, especially for an opener. There were few penalties and relatively few breakdowns. Except for a 55-yard touchdown drive in the third period, the Blackbirds held the bigger Academy team in check most of the afternoon.

"We moved the ball pretty well," Buckley summarized. "Our pass blocking was not as good as I'd hoped, but that will come. They got to us on several pass situations, and we called two wrong pass plays, but I felt we had a good game against a very good team."

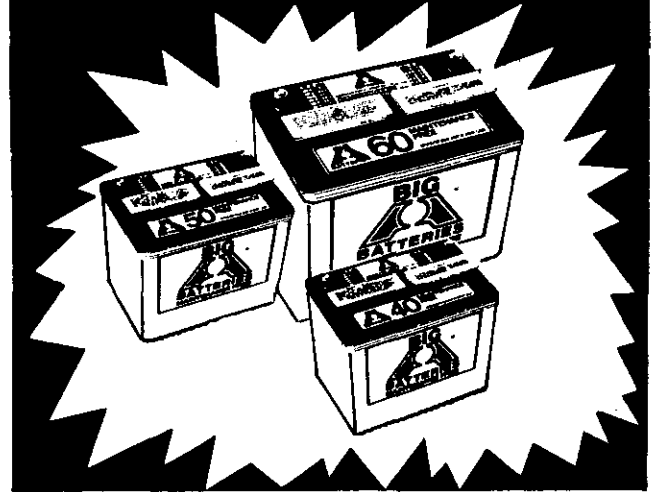

Trailing 14-0, the Blackbirds put on a 50-yard drive late in the third period that ended inches short of the first down on the Academy 9. In the fourth, junior quarterback Greg Picard directed Voorheesville's only scoring drive of the day, carrying the ball over himself from the 5 and pitching to Joe Traudt for the two-point conversion.

Picard was 16 for 36 for 136 yards, with two interceptions.

The Blackbirds have a Saturday date at Ravena this weekend, the last non-league tussle before the Southern Conference slate gets started.

Eagles look up: it's the only way

Undaunted by a 36-3 belting by a Shenendehowa team of championship caliber, Bethlehem Central's greenest football team is pointing now for a Friday afternoon date with Burnt Hills on Van Dyke Rd.

For most of the BC varsity, the collision at Clifton park was the first taste of combat. The Eagles were unable to make a first down all day, and they completed only one pass, a screen late in the game from Dave Lovelace to fullback Tommy Lee good for five yards.

"We didn't do much," said first-year coach Gene FitzPatrick after the embroglio at Clifton Park. "But I'll tell you one thing—we're not that bad a team. We're gonna come. We suffer from inexperience in the backfield, but offensively we're really working."

FitzPatrick was encouraged with the defense. The secondary was stingy against passes and turned in a lot of tackles. Shenendehowa, six times Suburban Council champions until Bethlehem ended the reign last year, was held to two touchdowns in the first half, one of them a gift when the Eagles fumbled the opening kickoff and set up an easy 30-yard scoring drive for the home team.

The Eagles yielded only one more score in the first half and got on the board themselves when Butch Waidelich kicked a 32-yard field goal just before intermission to make it 14-3 at the midway point.

The suspense ended, however, when Shenendehowa ran the second-half kickoff back for a touchdown.

Waidelich, Rick Wassenaar, Steve Malone and safety Tim Houck sparkled on defense, giving indications that BC will be tougher to score on as the season progresses. Waidelich also boomed two spectacular punts, one for 68 yards and another for 60 yards into the end zone. The 68-yarder, however, was nullified by an 80-yard runback on which four Eagles had a shot at the runner but no one touched him.

The accent this week is on the offense. Burnt Hills also lost its opener, a non-league game, to Saratoga.

Tennis tourney slated

Men's net titles stay in Delmar

Hometown players nailed down the men's singles and doubles crowns as the Bethlehem Tennis Assn. fall open championships wound up at the Middle School courts Sunday.

Delmar's Dave Denny, seeded No. 2, stroked his way to a straight-set victory over Kevin Crawford of Schenectady, 6-4, 6-4, in the singles final after Crawford had ousted No. 1 seed Pete Rodgers, 6-1, 4-6, 6-2, in the semifinals.

Top-seeded Phil Ackerman and Craig Jones won the doubles title in a tense struggle with Denny and Roger Fritz, 6-1, 6-7, 6-4. It was the second straight cliffhanger for Denny and Fritz, who squeezed by Don Camp and Kirby Hannan in the semis, 4-6, 7-5, 6-3.

In the women's finals, unseeded Pat Bowman of Hudson upset Jean Balint of Delmar in a three-set thriller, 6-4, 3-6, 7-5. Ann Treadway and Nancy McCammon of Delmar won the women's doubles in a 6-2, 6-1 final against Bowman and Kathy Yeats of Hudson. In the mixed doubles final, Hannan and McCammon swept the Delmar team of Craig and Eileen Jones, 6-3, 6-2, marking the third straight time the Joneses have been runners-up.

Bob Christie of Maine, making his annual trip to play in this tournament as a tribute to his late sister, Carol Mancini, won the gruelling men's singles "B" championship from a field of 70, defeating Steve Steinhardt of Albany. The women's "B" title went to Molly Treadway, a Bethlehem Central junior, over her BC teammate Kathy Bragaw. Other "B" winners were Steinhardt and Joe Bierman in the men's doubles, Adele Parsons and Ms. Abrams in women's doubles and Ackerman and Nancy Hauf in the mixed.

BC has shot at net crown

An 8-1 shellacking of Shenendehowa launched Bethlehem Central's girls varsity tennis team on a new season that has bright potential for the defending Section 2 champions.

Despite the loss of six seniors via the diploma route, three of them singles players, Coach Tom Walencik anticipates another strong team this year. The 1978 act, however, may be tough to beat—11-1 overall, co-champions of the Council and the Sectional crown.

Molly Treadway, a junior currently playing No. 1 singles, and Debbie DiClementi, who played on the boys' varsity last year, are experienced players. Anne Weber, a 10th grader who won the Bethlehem town "B" singles title last June, played No. 2 against Shenendehowa and breezed home, 6-2, 6-2.

Treadway had a tougher time against the Shens' top singles player, taking Carol Connally, a 12th grader, 6-2, 4-2, 7-5 in a long struggle from the baselines.

The Eagles also have young players battling for the 4, 5 and 6 singles spots. Sue Ciccio is the only senior besides Debbie in the singles lineup, with Judy Van Woert and Kathy Bragaw, 10th graders, and Betty Bardwell, an 11th grader, all strong contenders.

Bethlehem's top two doubles teams include two sister acts. Sue Marden and Joy Shenian, 12th graders, opened at No. 1 doubles, and Barbara Marden and Lauren Shenian are playing No. 2. The older girls won their opener, 6-2, 6-3, while the younger girls had to go three sets to nail down the point.

Randi Frank and Beth Netter are the No. 3 doubles, but all the spots, says Walencik, are subject to change. Future BC opponents may see something of Angela Yourno, an 11th grade transfer from Syracuse; and combinations of three other good doubles teams, Jean Marie Franze-Cathy Webb, Melinda Gandy-Liz Howell, and Pam Ackerman-Vicki Seymour.

The Eagles were scheduled with Guilderland and Scotia this week, play at Columbia next Wednesday and then get mixed up with the Suburban Council tournament Sept. 28-29 at Burnt Hills and Shenendehowa.

LET A "PRO" SELL IT

Selling your home yourself is no easy undertaking. Basically, it means attracting the right prospects—people who are ready, willing, and financially able to buy. Not those who are curious to see what your furniture looks like from the inside.

You can attempt to make this sale yourself, or you can have someone else handle the difficult negotiations. Frankly, the best way to market your home—probably your most valuable asset—is the professional way. Just as you would go to a doctor or a lawyer for medical or legal aid, you will want to go to a Realtor for assistance in selling your home.

His technical skill, business experience, list of bona fide prospects, contacts with financial institutions, and professional reputation are all at your disposal to expedite the sale of your home at the best possible price. This is the reason why—nationally—75 percent of all homes are sold through professionals.

A thieving guest

Editor, The Spotlight:

I would like to tell the people of our town about an incident that took place at the St. Thomas parish picnic last Sunday at Sunny Acres.

Aunt Bea had stepped out for a few minutes. When she came back into her building, she noticed someone had stolen a stuffed horned owl which was given to her over 70 years ago. This owl, which is very rare here, had more value to Aunt Bea than any money value.

What I'm afraid to say is that unless this owl is returned to Aunt Bea, I think this stupid and un-Christianlike thing is going to spell the end of the parish picnic at Sunny Acres.

I hope this letter gets through to the person who took the owl and that the owl will be returned to Aunt Bea, so that next year we can again have our picnic at Sunny Acres. (Please withhold my name).
