Two nabbed in CVS larceny

One was arrested at least seven times in six months in Colonie and Bethlehem

DELMAR - We normally do not report on petit larceny charges, but Shawnte Pringle, 49, of Albany keeps showing up in our reporting.

Bethlehem police responded to CVS on Delaware Avenue on Thursday, May 11 at approximately 4:15 a.m. for a report of two shoplifters inside the store.

According to reports, a male and a female were inside the store filling bags with merchandise then leaving the store. The pair were observed by employees entering a black SUV and leaving.

Upon arrival, officers observed the SUV pull on to Elsmere Avenue and performed a traffic stop.

While interviewing the driver, he said that he picked up the two passengers and brought them to CVS to pick up medicine.

The two people in the back seats were later identified as a 29-year-old Albany man and Pringle.

The officer observed the bags with the stolen merchandise hanging out in the rear of the vehicle.

Pringle gave a false name and resisted arrest, but was taken into custody and charged with those and petit larceny.

She was arrested in October, with another man for stealing two generators from Tractor Supply in Glenmont with another man. The pair had tried to take items from that store three times in a week.

Pringle gave a false name to police in October and Bethlehem Town Court issued a warrant for her arrest on that charge on December 2. She was arrested on that warrant in January to face the additional charge. She was released under supervision of probation in that case.

Pringle was also arrested in Colonie on December 3, day after Bethlehem issued its warrant, at the Buy Buy Baby store on Central Avenue. She had an outstanding warrant from Colonie at that point and also gave police a false name, and had a quantity of drugs. Pringle was charged with false personation and criminal possession of a controlled substance. She was processed on the warrant and given an appearance ticket.

Colonie police arrested Pringle again after she was released from the Albany County jail for another arrest on Monday, March 13 on a warrant for not showing up for her court date.

She was given an appearance ticket and sent back to the jail until she was scheduled back in

First historic landmark of 2023 to be unveiled on Elsmere Ave.

Site is home of Revolutionary War veteran and German settler

By AMARIS FORD
news@spotlightnews.com

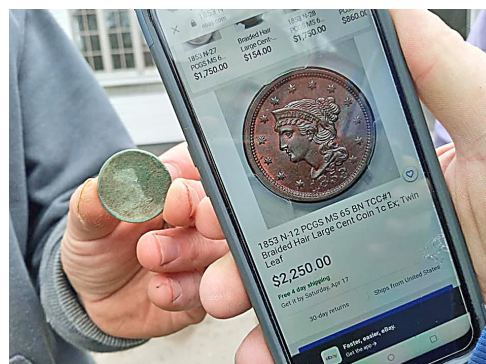

DELMAR — May 23 marks the unveiling of the first historic marker placement of 2023 in the Town of Bethlehem. It recognizes 116 Elsmere Avenue as the site of the farmhouse of Revolutionary War lieutenant and German settler John Leonard and his wife, Cornelia Richter.

“It is exciting and long overdue to have such recognition in this part of town,” said Karen Beck, President of the Bethlehem Historical Association. “Hopefully, this marker will inspire others to take an interest in Elsmere’s rich history. We are indebted to Bill Ketzer. It is his passion and determination that made this happen.”

When Town Historian William Ketzer and Heather Cohen purchased the property, Ketzer was intrigued by the items that he found while gardening. What they found ‘inspired him’ to look into the property’s history and the story it had to tell.

“We began to dig up artifacts,” he said. “Such as feet from a claw-foot club, horse shoes, architectural things like nails, coal, glass, brick, and ceramics.”

The process of recognizing the historical location began in April 2021, when Beverwyck Archaeology, off the numerous Loyalist attacks on the old stockade and Stone Fort in Schoharie.

After Leonard returned home from the war, he was granted land bounty rights as payment for his wartime service. According to local lore, the house at 116 Elsmere Avenue was built by a British Loyalist whose land was possibly taken during the war. Following Britain’s defeat, he may have abandoned it.

A survey map gave Beverwyck Archaeology “a strong sense of where the original house stood,” noted Ketzer. Beverwyck Archaeology took measurements based on the survey and calculated the location of the home.

The original house on the property was razed just after World War II in preparation for the construction of the current home. There are no documented photographs of the original house, but it is estimated that the home was large enough to accommodate Leonard and Richter’s family of ten children.

The historic site is the first to be built on Elsmere Avenue. The road has historical significance because it was formerly a dirt carriage road to Leonard’s farm from Feura Bush Road. Leonard was laid to rest in an unmarked grave on the grounds of Hamagrael Elementary School, which provides an indication of how large his farm was.

“I’m excited because it’s been a couple years in the making,” said Ketzer regarding the unveiling. “And it achieves my goals as a historian.”

This landmark is part of a broader initiative to maintain the existing markers by repairing and refurbishing them, cataloging them, and replacing the markers that have disappeared.

“I look at this as a larger part of what the town is looking to do in regard to protecting and celebrating our significant historical resources,” said Ketzer.

LLC., conducted an archaeological survey on the property. Their findings uncovered and documented a rich history.

Johannes Leant (anglicized in America to ‘John Leonard’) was born in 1739. His exact arrival in North America as a German immigrant is uncertain. However, evidence suggests his presence in the area as early as 1767, with his marriage to Cornelia Richter.

Throughout the war, Leonard served alongside well-known Bethlehem names such as ‘Slingerland’ and ‘Becker’. By March 1780, he had been promoted to First Lieutenant. His service included playing a vital role in the Continental Army’s pivotal victory at Saratoga. He played a role in warding

National EMS Week - May 21-28, 2023

"Where Emergency Care Begins"

We thank the dozens of everyday heroes who provide emergency medical service in the Town of Bethlehem. We salute the Emergency Medical Technicians (EMTs), Paramedics, and other responders of Delmar-Bethlehem EMS and the Albany County Sheriff's Office EMS Unit who respond to more than 4,200 calls for medical assistance, emergencies, and accidents in the Town every year.

EMS responders are often the first health care professionals that people see when something goes very wrong. Residents of our community benefit every day from the skill and commitment of our volunteer and career EMS professionals, who are dedicated to saving lives and providing compassionate medical care. They are kind, dedicated, and selfless professionals who respond to the emergency needs of our community day and night, 365 days a year. They are courageous and routinely accept personal risks to travel in any weather, care for people on accident scenes and roadways, and expose themselves to other hazardous circumstances.

Working together as partners, the volunteer members of Delmar-Bethlehem EMS and the employees of the Albany County Sheriff's Office EMS Unit continue to meet the challenge and make sure that everyone who needs our assistance receives a prompt and caring ambulance response. Our agencies have worked together with the Town to build an efficient and high-quality EMS system.

This includes more than 15,000 scheduled volunteer responder hours in the last year. In addition, our EMS responders dedicate thousands of hours each year to practicing their skills, taking training classes, mentoring new responders, and maintaining equipment.

We also salute the many emergency medicine professionals working in hospital emergency rooms who live in our community. They are dedicated partners and work with EMS responders to provide lifesaving care around the clock.

Our community is remarkably fortunate to have so many individuals who are committed to caring for their neighbors. Please join us in saluting our community's EMS professionals.

Sincerely,

The Directors and Officers of Delmar-Bethlehem EMS and the Albany County Sheriff's Office EMS Unit in the day to be arraigned.

In the most-recent Bethlehem case, Pringle was arraigned by Bethlehem Town Judge Ryan Donovan and sent to the Albany County jail.

DWAI-drugs and alcohol

GUILDERLAND - On Saturday, May 13 at about 9:35 p.m. State Police stopped a vehicle on Western Avenue in Guilderland for multiple Vehicle and Traffic Law violations. The driver was identified as a 21-year-old Troy man. The man was arrested for Driving While Ability Impaired.

He was transported to SP Latham for processing, where he provided a breath sample that returned a 0.03 percent BAC. The man was then evaluated by a Drug Recognition Expert (DRE) while in custody, and a blood sample was collected following the evaluation.

He was charged with DWAI-combination of alcohol and drugs, a misdemeanor. The man was issued tickets returnable to Guilderland Town Court on June 5 and released to a sober third party.

Aggravated DWI, Criminal Contempt, Harassment

VOORHEESVILLE - Albany County Sheriff's deputies responded to a disturbance call at residence in the Village on Saturday, May 13 at approximately 12:45 a.m.

When deputies arrived they found a 33-year-old woman standing next to her white Honda Accord. After an investigation, the woman was at a residence that she had an active stay-away order for and she said she was picking up belongings. Reports stated she was kicking the front door of the residence, but the deputies did not observe any damage.

The woman told them she had driven to the residence and deputies observed a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage emanating from her breath, she had glassy, watery eyes, slurred speech and was having trouble standing.

The woman was given and failed field sobriety tests and tested positive for breath alcohol on a pre-screening device.

At the police station, she provided a breath sample that returned a .26 percent BAC.

She was charged with DWI and criminal contempt, both misdemeanors, and harassment, a violation.

The woman was given an appearance ticket for New Scotland Town Court for June 16 and released.

Warrant, then another warrant

MENANDS - A Menands woman in custody by Menands police on Tuesday, May 16 at 12:01 p.m. and found to have an outstanding warrant from the Town of Bethlehem.

The warrant for Sativa Green, 23, stems from an April 2020 incident at Walmart in Glenmont where she was arrested for larceny and resisting arrest and released under the supervision of probation at that time.

Green was arraigned on the warrant by Bethlehem Town Judge Andrew Kirby and again released under the supervision of probation. She was then transported to the City of Albany where Green had another outstanding warrant from that Court.

Outstanding warrant

GLENMONT - Bethlehem police responded to CAPCOM on Bender Lane on Wednesday, May 17 for a suspicious person.

When officers arrived they were told that a woman was in the bathroom for extensive time and when the woman emerged she was identified as Janay Willingham, 31, of Albany.

A check showed that Willingham had an outstanding warrant from East Greenbush. She was taken into custody and transported to meet East Greenbush police.

Memorial Day: A Day to Remember

Each year the VFW and American Legion switch the responsibility of nominating and voting for the Bethlehem Memorial Day Parade's grand marshal. The VFW and its members nominated and voted for Leslie Gene St. Lawrence to be the Grand Marshal for 2023.

The organizations named the same grand marshal for the last two years due to the COVID pandemic. So this is special for St. Lawrence.

St. Lawrence joined the Air Force in August 1952 and served in the Arctic for four years. While stationed in the Arctic, St. Lawrence worked in communications and encryption. After serving with the Air Force, St. Lawrence joined the Army and qualified for Special Forces and became a Green Beret. He will tell you he served for 22 years, nine months, and 18 days.

"He really is a dedicated guy, but you wouldn't know from talking to him," VFW member Larry Pitman said.

Although most of St. Lawrence's life was in the military, the one thing that remains a source of pride for him is being a New York boy through and through. Of his many achievements, one he never forgets to mention is that he is a graduate of Schenectady High School.

During his 22 years in the military, St. Lawrence received the Vietnam Cross of Gallantry with palm, Vietnam Special Forces Jump Wings, the Combat Medical Badge, a Purple Heart, a Bronze Star, a Silver Star, and many other awards for his service.

He was stationed in Vietnam and endured the Tet Offensive in January 1968.

While in Vietnam, he recalls one of his Special Forces missions required disease collection to send back to Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D.C. He also served in Okinawa for a year and a half following World War II and the attack on Pearl Harbor.

"I was very proud to [serve]," St. Lawrence said. "I was glad to do it; it made me a better person."

Memorial Day is a busy day for both the VFW and the American Legion, but honoring the fallen soldiers of the past and present is important to both.

The Saturday before Memorial Day, May 27, the VFW visits four different cemeteries to lay flags at the graves of fallen soldiers. The American Legion also lays flags at Bethlehem Cemetery and Mt. Pleasant Cemetery with the help of the local Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts troops. On the morning of Memorial Day, the VFW and American Legion have their own respective services for those who have fallen, starting at 9 a.m., including the American Legion's service for Francis Currey.

The parade starts at the American Legion and ends at Bethlehem Veteran's Memorial Park. The American Flag will be lowered and then raised at the end of a service led by Legion Commander Lyle Maddock.

This will be Maddock's last year as Legion Commander, who, after six years in his post, will have the longest tenure in the 92 years of Post 1040's existence. Due to this being Maddock's last year as Commander, it is a really special and emotional Memorial Day for him.

you're are, of course, appreciated, but they shouldn't be going to those who have served or are serving on Monday.

"This is for the people who were killed in service," Pitman said. "Where Veteran's Day is for all those who served, and Armed Forces Day are for all those who are serving."

Maddock also asks that the community learn as much as they can about fallen soldiers on Memorial Day. He recommends an app, WWI Memorial Virtual Explorer, that gives a virtual tour of the new WWI memorial in Washington, D.C. The app also gives users personal histories of fallen soldiers that are highlighted throughout the memorial.

Memorial Day is about honoring those who have fallen, but it is also a time to learn about their stories. That sentiment is among the most important come Monday to the members of the American Legion and VFW.

"Hopefully, I can keep it together, but I probably won't," Maddock said. "My father's banner is the last banner before leaving town. This year, it will be humbling to see his banner when we walk that way."

So far, the VFW has placed 104 banners on utility poles around town that honor local veterans. These banners will remain until Veteran's Day in November; however, the request for a banner is ongoing and will continue throughout the year.

Following the parade and the service at Bethlehem Veteran's Memorial Park, the VFW, and American Legion invite the community to their respective posts for an Open House. The community can come to tour the buildings, see new renovations and speak with the veterans, including St. Lawrence, who will be at the VFW.

As we get closer to Memorial Day, Maddock and Pitman want the community to remember the true meaning behind Memorial Day, honoring those who have fallen in the line of service. The thank-

Troy Hidden Garden Tour Returns

Popular Annual Event Showcases Livable Cities Private Green Spaces

TROY — The annual Troy Hidden Garden tour, a fundraiser benefiting the Friends of Prospect Park, will be held rain or shine on Thursday, May 25, from 4-7:30 p.m.

“There is nothing like seeing the excitement on people’s faces when they walk into these hidden spaces,” said Peter Grimm, president of the Friends of Prospect Park. “Visitors don’t only see gardens, but also the personalities of people who live in Troy. In the past, some tour goers have even decided to move here to Troy after experiencing our neighborhoods through the garden tour.”

There are more than 30 private and semi-private gardens on the self-guided walking tour this year, located throughout the Washington Park, Historic Sage and adjoining neighborhoods of downtown Troy. Tour goers may park and check in any time after 4 p.m. in the Russell Sage College parking lot on First Street to receive the tour map.

The gardens may be visited in any order, though tour goers may be steered toward certain gardens first to alleviate crowding. Since visiting all gardens on the tour during the event hours is unlikely, there are four suggested garden cluster tour routes between .5 miles and .8 miles walking distance.

Admission to the Troy Hidden Garden Tour is $15 in advance and $20 at check-in. Advance tickets are available online at: <https://www.hiddengardentour.com/tickets> or you can purchase advance physical tickets at Truly Rhe at 1 Broadway in Troy or at the parking lot before the event (cash only).

Historically, the tour has been held on the fourth Thursday in May. For the previous two years, the event was held in June. Organizers have restored the tour’s pre-pandemic May date this year.

About Friends of Prospect Park

The Hidden Garden Tour is presented by The Friends of Prospect Park, a 501(c)3 nonprofit. All proceeds from the Hidden Garden Tour benefit ongoing improvement projects in Prospect Park, located on Congress Street in Troy.

Since 1996, The Friends of Prospect Park have worked to enhance enjoyment of the Park through annual brush-ups, playground improvements, updated signage, increased musical programming, bulb and tree plantings, new benches, with further upgrades planned.

John Savage Quartet

John has been playing saxophone since the age of 12. He has always had a love for music since he was a child which was apparent since he always carried around a toy guitar with him wherever he went. "My biggest influence on me then was my uncle who played guitar and piano.

I would listen to him play all the time. I was hooked immediately." After being exposed to jazz music in high school by his teacher Norman Clo, John decided to pursue a career in music and continued his education at the College of Saint Rose and began his studies with saxophonist Paul Evoskevich. After completing his degree (BS in Music Education), John returned home to Gloversville to start looking for a job and some gigs. During a three year period, he had the chance to play with Ben E. King, The Drifters, The Classics Four and formed the OverEasy Horns which played with local R&B band Clean Street. In 1995, John assumed the duties of instrumental music teacher at his alma mater, Gloversville High School. In December of 1998 he completed a MA in Jazz Studies from the College of Saint Rose. John continues his pursuit for playing a variety of music, dividing his time between his own band and subbing with various area bands as well as devoting time to his students, endeavoring to teach them to appreciate the beauty of the music they create in school on a daily basis. Catch this show May 27th at 8 p.m. only at 9 Maple Ave, Saratoga Springs

Iva Bittová + Antonin Fajt

In 1982, Iva started studying with Professor Rudolf Štátný, the primarius (first violin) of the Moravian String Quartet. In the intervening years the violin has become her life's passion and the most inspiring musical instrument in her professional life. Iva firmly believes that, as playing the violin places extreme demands on musicians, the composer's work depends utterly on commitment and diligence. Antonin's music combines elements of folkloric traditions of Eastern Europe, jazz and classical composition. Toni grew up in Lelekovice, in the Moravian region of Czech Republic in a musical family. His mother, Iva Bittová is a singer, violinist and composer, and his father, Pavel Fajt is a drummer and composer. Antonin moved to the Hudson Valley, NY in 2007. He likes to work with preparations, folk materials, sampling, texture, and repetition. Toni holds a BA in music from Bard College '14, where he studied under the mentorship of the composer Joan Tower. Besides music, he likes to cook, work outside, make events, and pretend to know things. Catch this May 24th at 8 p.m. only at Avalon Lounge , 29 Church St. Catskill.

Gary's Dream / Camp Saint Helen

This show marks the release of "To The Moon," recorded with Rick Spataro at Onlyness Analog in Catskill. The first of three upcoming singles recorded with Rick, "To The Moon" evokes the hazy half-awake desire to take a little break from the Earth and escape our reality. For Camp Saint Helene, the concept of otherworldliness is neither strange nor complex, but alluring and holy. Formed by Elizabeth Celeste Ibarra and Dylan Nowik, and joined by Wesley Harper and Alex P. Wernquest, they approach their craft akin to a ritual, leaning into the notion that art and expression are sacred experiences on an overstimulated planet. Often informed by the spirit of a defunct Christian-summer camp turned arts-colony deep within the mountains of New York, their music searches for shimmers of hope amidst hints of doom. Catch this May 26th at 8 p.m. only at Avalon Lounge , 29 Church St. Catskill.

Caroline Davis / Fred Lonberg-Holm + Mat Maneri

Born in Singapore, composer, and saxophonist Caroline Davis lives in Brooklyn, New York. Her debut album, Live Work & Play, was featured on All About Jazz's best releases, and she was named one of JazzTimes' Best New Artists in 2012.

You may struggle to get going this week, Aries. But once you do, it will be full speed ahead. In fact, you may need to slow things down to let others catch up.

TAURUS - APR 21/MAY 21

Taurus, if you are feeling a bit scattered as of late, take some time out of your schedule to meditate and reflect on what is most important to you. Then follow that path.

GEMINI - MAY 22/JUN 21

Gemini, give yourself permission to move slowly this week. If you racing through things, you're apt to make mistakes. Set your own pace and let things play out as they may.

CANCER - JUN 22/JUL 22

Deadlines could make for a heated week, Cancer. It's best to remove yourself from any situations before they get out of hand. Offer advice when things cool down.

LEO - JUL 23/AUG 23

Routines are boring you lately, Leo. You may need to shake things up. If you work a set schedule, see if you can go to flex time and look for ways to change.

VIRGO - AUG 24/SEPT 22

Do not let drama that doesn't involve you sneak into your orbit, Virgo. If you need to distance yourself from others for a while, then do so.

LIBRA - SEPT 23/OCT 23

Libra, others feel you're giving off some high-strung vibes this week, and they wouldn't be wrong. Something is weighing on your shoulders. Figure out what it is and lighten the load.

SCORPIO - OCT 24/NOV 22

Scorpio, you're dishing out all sorts of sage advice but it may be frustrating if others don't want to take it. All you can do is offer and let others lead their lives.

SAGITTARIUS - NOV 23/DEC 21

Things may be a little rough around the edges lately, and you'll need to figure out the ways to smooth things over, Sagittarius. Find a few friends who are in your corner.

CAPRICORN - DEC 22/JAN 20

Capricorn, emphasize a slow and methodical approach to a problem with an elusive solution. Slowing things down has a tendency to provide substantial clarity.

AQUARIUS - JAN 21/FEB 18

Disagreements on how to move forward could bring tension at home or work this week, Aquarius. Everyone needs to put their ideas on the table and whittle down the best answer.

PISCES - FEB 19/MAR 20

Don't compare yourself to others, Pisces; otherwise, you may downplay all of your wonderful attributes. Be proud of who you are.

In 2018, she won the Downbeat Critic's Poll "rising star" in the alto saxophone category. Fred Lonberg-Holm is a top cellist in creative music, and active in a variety of projects in avant-garde music, experimental rock, and modern composition. He studied cello with Ardyth Alton and Orlando Cole, and composition with Morton Feldman, Anthony Braxton, and Bunita Marcus. The Delaware-born cellist spent part of his childhood in Sweden, and eventually was based out of N.Y.C. for several years, where he performed in and led various ensembles including N.Y.C. projects include his quartet PEEP, Anthony Braxton's Creative Orchestra, John Zorn, God Is My Co-Pilot, and Anthony Coleman's Selfhaters. Mat Maneri, a leading improvisational voice of his generation, was born in Brooklyn in 1969. He began studying the violin at the age of five, but since borrowing a viola for a jam session at the 1998 ECM festival in Badenweiler, he has made the viola his instrument of choice. Catch this May 27th at 8 p.m. only at Avalon Lounge, 29 Church St. Catskill.

Dom Flemons

As a resolute preservationist, storyteller, and instrumentalist, Dom Flemons has long set himself apart by finding forgotten folk songs and making them live again. Raised in Phoenix, Arizona, Flemons comes from a family of civil rights leaders, Tuskegee Airmen, and preachers who were prominent figures in the Black community of Arizona. His work has been recognized with a Grammy, two Emmy nominations, a USA Fellowship Award, and inclusion in an exhibit at the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum. For Traveling Wildfire, his first new album since 2018's Black Cowboys, he turns to an important, overlooked voice that he's proudly rediscovered: his own. "Knowing that I was going to be showcasing original material for a good deal of the record, I wanted to give people a different view of my songwriting," he says. "I figured that I've done enough records where people know that I can do old-time material. I didn't let myself be limited by that. Catch this May 25th at 8 p.m. only at Caffe Lena, 47 Phila Street, Saratoga Springs.

The Eastern Highs

Get elevated by the lush soundscape of The Eastern Highs! The group, comprised of pianist and vocalist Kirk Juhas, guitarist Chris Sullivan, bassist Ken Juhas and drummer Greg Nash combine classic and modern sounds that owe as much to the roots/Americana flavor of The Band and Wilco as it does the cosmic sounds of some of rock's leading sonic architects like Pink Floyd and Radiohead. Inspired by Nina Simone, The Beatles, Johnny Cash and other roots and soul-based artists, The Eastern Highs bring a sound that is focused on strong songwriting with touches of alternative, soul & folk influences. Collectively, they have performed with the likes of Moe., Jewel, Derek Trucks, P-Funk, John Medeski, Les Claypool, David Grisman, Rusted Root, Method Man and Bob Weir. Musically, the band bridges a broad map that links diverse influences from classic jazz to dream-pop. Kirk Juhas' bluesy, tenacious voice translates complex emotions into heartfelt lyrics. Sullivan on guitar unleashes a distinct roar that is both clean and dirty, earthy and stratospheric. The tight rhythm section of bass and drums can dig in on a deep-grooved pocket one minute, before launching the band into an auditory exploration the next. Throw in a jazz vibe, straightforward songwriting and a touch of whimsy, and you have an experience that is uniquely The Eastern Highs. Catch this May 26th at 8 p.m. only at Caffe Lena, 47 Phila Street, Saratoga Springs.

The Slambovian Circus of Dreams

Where exactly is Slambovia? Maybe it's an island that lived in David Bowie's head. Maybe it's an archipelago floating in Leonard Cohen's retired pen. Wherever it is, Caffe Lena invites you to take a peek behind the Slambovian Curtain and experience the creative engine behind the band in this rare and intimate "unplugged" performance by the founding members. Voted "Best Band of 2022" in their home state of New York by Chronogram Magazine, Charismatic frontman, Joziah presides center-ring with vocals that are as soothing and bewitching as a snake oil tonic, joined onstage by founding bandmates Tink (accordion, cello, mandolin, flute) and the guitar-slinging skills of Sharkey McEwen. Catch this May 27th at 8 p.m. only at Caffe Lena, 47 Phila Street, Saratoga Springs.

Dave Porter

Dave Porter is a Los Angeles based composer for film and television. He began his classical musical training at the piano at age five, but it was his interest in electronic music as a teen that led him to start composing his own music. See the show May 25th at 6 p.m. Carson's Woodside Tavern, 57 Route 9P, Malta.

Grand Central Station

An exuberant mid-'70s funk group, Graham Central Station made some fine singles for Warner Bros. Former Sly & the Family Stone bassist Larry Graham renamed Hot Chocolate (not the British group) Graham Central Station after he moved from producing the group to playing with it. The group included Graham, guitarist David Vega, keyboardists Robert Sam and Hershall Kennedy, percussionist Patrice Banks, and drummer Willie Sparks. They utilized the identical funk cum rock and soul formula of Sly, though in not quite as imaginative a fashion. Their debut single, "Can You Handle It," reached number nine on the R&B charts, and they landed a number one record in 1975 with "Your Love." They recorded as Graham Central Station from 1974 to 1977, then as Larry Graham & Graham Central Station in 1978, and during their final year were called Larry Graham with Graham Central Station. See the show May 26th at 6 p.m. Carson's Woodside Tavern, 57 Route 9P, Malta.

Later, Kofi toured with John Ethridge (Soft Machine) and gigged in London with Steve Waller (Manfred Mann) and Randy California (Spirit). He also toured Europe with Steve Marriot's Humble Pie. Catch this show May 26th at 8 p.m. only at Empire Underground, 93 North Pearl Street, Albany.

Declan McKenna

British indie singer/songwriter Declan McKenna first emerged in 2015 with the shimmering, politically charged single "Brazil," which directly addressed the corruption scandal then engulfing soccer's governing body, FIFA. The teenaged Hertfordshire native had only a handful of self-released tracks on Bandcamp to his name. Obsessed with Bowie and with an attitude recalling the Libertines and Jamie T., McKenna blended bright indie pop with textural lo-fi. As "Brazil" gained traction throughout 2015, McKenna's star began to rise, and that summer he took home the Glastonbury Festival's coveted Emerging Talent prize. He was a student of blues guitar legend Brownie McGhee, who was a major influence on his picking style. Happy has played in concerts, clubs and festivals throughout the U.S., Canada, Europe, Australia and Japan, both solo and with his late brother, Artie Traum, with whom he performed for more than 40 years. Happy has also appeared and/or recorded with Bob Dylan, Levon Helm, John Sebastian, Larry Campbell, Eric Andersen, Allen Ginsberg and and many other major figures in the folk music world. As one of America's best-known guitar instructors, he has taught at major guitar workshops throughout the country; is the author of more than a dozen best-selling guitar instruction books; and has produced more than 600 music lessons on DVDs, CDs and downloads for his internationally-renowned company, Homespun Music Instruction, which he co-founded with his wife, Jane, in 1967. The E-Block

w/ House of Saturn, OTOBO

The E-Block is a 5-piece indie R&B band

based in Upstate New York, blending the acoustic warmth of singer-songwriter music with an ice-cold rhythm section informed by modern R&B. Led by guitarist Luke Pascarella, saxophonist James Soren and keyboardist Devin Tetlak, the band's deep bag of influences and free-flowing style have earned them a reputation as a unique live act in the Upstate New York scene. House of Saturn is a group of close friends and musicians hailing from Troy, NY. The group met in college during their studies at the Crane School of Music, and soon afterwards relocated to the Capital Region. After several years of late night studio jams, House of Saturn was born. The group has taken on a unique sound: performing original music from a wide variety of genres, rooted in indie rock. OTOBO is an experimental rock band from Albany, NY who pushes the limits with their ambient and psychedelic sound. Heather Savage, writer for Top Buzz magazine, coins OTOBO as "a bit of an odd music duo [guitarist Jay Thorsey and bassist Justin Barre] considering their unorthodox methods of producing sounds for their work." The three-piece band performed their first gig at underground venue Caesar's Palace this past season. Their drummer, Brandon Rutski, will feature on Silk's set. Listen to OTOBO's self-titled album on your streaming platform of choice, as their sophomore album reaches audiences this year. Catch this show May 26th at 8 p.m. only at Putnam Place, 63a Putnam Street, Saratoga Springs.

HEALTH AND FITNESS

Lesser known benefits of exercise

Most people know that routine exercise does a body good. While it may not require a degree from medical school to know that exercise can be a great way to lose weight and reduce risk for various illnesses, there's even more beneficial side effects of regular exercise that might surprise even the most ardent fitness enthusiasts.

• Exercise produces positive psychological benefits. WebMD notes that there are several psychological benefits of routine exercise. Those benefits occur because exercise triggers the release of endorphins, which are hormones that interact with receptors in the brain that reduce a person's perception of pain. Some additional psychological benefits of exercise include stress reduction and prevention of anxiety and depression.

• Exercise can improve your social life. WebMD also notes that routine exercise can improve self-esteem, which can make it easier for people to connect with others. A 2017 study published in the Journal of Sports Economics concluded that participation in sports activities can induce prosocial behaviors. Though participation in sports is often promoted as a great way for kids to make new friends, the social aspect of exercise and sports participation is no less beneficial for adults.

Exercise can positively influence cognitive ability, reduce the rate of cognitive aging and lower the risk for certain dementias.

• Regular exercise can benefit your career. A 2012 study published in the Journal of Labor Research linked regular exercise with an annual wage increase between 6 and 10 percent. Researchers found that moderate exercise yields a positive earnings effect, but individuals who exercised frequently had even higher wage increases.

• Exercise can benefit long-term cognitive health. Though the reasons remain unclear, there seems to be a link between regular physical activity and long-term cognitive health. A 2017 study published in the Journal of Alzheimer's Disease found that regular exercise can positively influence cognitive ability, reduce the rate of cognitive aging and lower the risk for certain dementias, including Alzheimer's disease.

Many people feel a significant sense of accomplishment by the end of a vigorous workout. Such feelings could grow even more profound when individuals recognize the many lesser known benefits of breaking a sweat.

Saratoga Comic-Con

Local comic book and cosplay enthusiasts turn out in support of their local con

SARATOGA — Since 2015, cosplayers, comic fans and pop culture enthusiasts alike have flocked to Saratoga twice a year for their local comic con!

We had the opportunity to speak with one of the Cosplay Coordinator, Jennard Robinson, in order to get a little insight as to what makes this con so special. “For many it’s a place where you meet up with your friends with similar interests, it may be the only time you get to reunite with far away fans or meet new ones. Seeing people young and old work hard to showcase new cosplays each season is what makes it special.

Local vendors look forward to the show each year and it’s a great way to support local business.” The next show will be November 18th - 19th Center 522 Broadway Saratoga Springs, NY up between the Hudson River and the rear deck of Ryan’s Wake Public House at 403 River St.

“This is intended to be a fun, familiar mid-week break during the warmer months to sing along to familiar music, have a beverage and still be in bed by nine,” Ryan’s Wake General Manager Jared Kingsley said. “It’s called ‘Wake Up Wednesdays’ but you’ll also be able to wake up the next day because you don’t have to stay out too late.”

The lineup of regional favorites kicked off with Irish folk/rock band Hair of the Dog and concludes with a “supergroup” of Troy rockers assembled from long-time favorite bands. Other shows feature ‘80s music, “Yacht Rock” and Country styles.

Wake Up Wednesdays, Full Lineup

May 17 — Hair of The Dog (Celtic Kick Off Party!), May 24 — The Accents (Cap Region’s Hottest Party Band ), May 31 - The Kyle Bourgault Band (Country Night), June 7 - The Squids (80s Rock), June 14 - Yacht Masters NY (Yacht Rock), June 21 - The Troy Music Review Feat. The Family Tree and Special Guests (Rock ‘n Roll).

Back Where It All Began: Original Rockin’ on the River Site

Troy’s summer concert series, “Rockin’ on the River,” first kicked off behind Ryan’s Wake in June 2008 with a Blues Night featuring Albert Cummings. The concert series was an initiative of Ryan’s Wake, Brown’s Brewing Co., DeCrescente Distributing Co., and the Troy Downtown Collaborative, an organization of retailers and developers that would evolve into the Downtown Troy Business Improvement District (BID).

During its first five years, Rockin’ on the River attracted a growing audience to Ryan’s Wake riverfront location until some of the shows had outgrown the spot. In August 2013, the Downtown Troy BID moved the series to Troy’s Riverfront Park, where it continued until the pandemic. In the last three years, the concert series has moved to different locations.

“Ryan’s Wake is where Rockin’ on the River started and people kept asking, ‘When are you gonna bring it back here?’,” Kingsley said. “There’s something special about this spot and how it feels to catch live music here.”

Kingsley said “Wake Up Wednesdays” is scaled to bring the right-sized crowd for the space.

Chris Ryan, proprietor of Ryan’s Wake Public House, credits Kingsley’s talent for picking music acts for much of the success of the original Rockin’ on the River concert series.

“We have finally reached the point in our careers where we have nostalgia for our beginnings,” Ryan said. “Part of that nostalgia is to redo this event in its original location. We’re putting the band(s) back together!”

Radiothon Brings in More Than $330,000 for Children's Hospital

ALBANY – The 25th annual News Radio 810 & 103.1 WGY and 99.5 The River Cares for Kids Radiothon raised more than $330,000 for the Bernard & Millie Duker Children's Hospital, according to the Albany Medical Center Foundation.

All funds raised support programs and services provided by the children's hospital, the only children's hospital in the region and the local Children's Miracle Network (CMN) hospital.

"We are so grateful that the 25th anniversary Radiothon was so successful. We are excited that so many people of our region recognize what an important resource we have at the Bernard & Millie Duker Children's Hospital for sick and injured children and their families right here – close to their homes," said Barbara E. Ostrov, MD, chief of service at the children's hospital, and chair of the Department of Pediatrics. "Their support, along with the generosity of our sponsors and our devoted iHeartMedia partners, helps us provide excellent care to our infants, children, and adolescents who need us."

Several staff members, as well as parents and patients who have been treated at the children's hospital, were interviewed by on-air personalities during the Radiothon May 4 and 5.

Dazzle overnight guests at the breakfast table

weekday mornings, when families have to hurry off to school and work. The following recipe for “Poached Eggs, Asparagus and Chorizo” from Betty Rosbottom’s “Sunday Brunch” (Chronicle Books) is a simple yet impressive morning entrée that’s sure to please hosts and their overnight guests.

Poached Eggs, Asparagus and Chorizo

Serves 4

- 1 1/2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1/2 cup coarse fresh bread crumbs (see cooking tip)
- 4 ounces Spanish chorizo, cut into 1/2-inch cubes (use the Spanish-style chorizo in casing, not loose Mexican-style chorizo)
- 1 1/4 pound medium asparagus
- Kosher salt
- 1 tablespoon unsalted butter, diced
- 2 teaspoons fresh lemon juice
- 2 to 3 tablespoons white or cider vinegar
- 4 eggs
- Freshly ground black pepper

Welcoming guests for overnight stays is a great way to make loved ones feel welcome. Overnight guests also get time to reconnect with their hosts, making such situations a win-win for all involved.

When hosting overnight guests, hosts can start their mornings off on the right foot by whipping up a special breakfast. Relaxing at the breakfast table over a homecooked meal can be a welcome departure from the sometimes hectic nature of

1. Heat 1 tablespoon of the olive oil until hot in a medium, heavy frying pan set over medium heat. Add the bread crumbs and cook, tossing constantly, until golden and crisp, 3 to 4 minutes. Remove the crumbs to a plate. (Crumbs can be prepared 1 hour ahead; cover and leave at room temperature.)

2. Heat the remaining 1/2 tablespoon oil in the same frying pan set over medium heat. When hot, add the chorizo and stir until lightly browned, 3 minutes. Remove and set aside. (Chorizo can be prepared 1 hour ahead; leave at room temperature.)

3. Trim and discard 2 to 3 inches of the tough bases of the asparagus spears. Add the asparagus and 1 teaspoon salt to a large frying pan filled halfway with simmering water. Cook until the spears are just tender, 4 minutes. Drain and toss the asparagus in a large bowl with the butter and lemon juice. Season with salt and cover with foil.

4. Bring a large frying pan filled halfway with water to a boil. Add the vinegar and gently break each egg into a saucer and slide it into the water. Swirl the water with a wooden spoon while the eggs are cooking. Cook until the eggs are just set but the yolks are still soft, 3 minutes. Remove with a slotted spoon and drain well. (If you have an egg poacher, cook according to the manufacturer’s directions until the eggs are set.)

5. Mound some asparagus spears on each of four dinner plates. Top each serving with a poached egg and sprinkle with the chorizo and bread crumbs. Season the eggs with several grinds of pepper and a pinch of salt and serve.

Cooking tip: To make bread crumbs, use a 1- to 2-day-old, good-quality peasant or country bread with crusts removed. Process large chunks of it in a food processor to make coarse crumbs. Sourdough bread works particularly well.
